From the Pastor's Desk...

This weekend our parish welcomes Fr. Anthony Kekai and Fr. Emmanuel Akpobolokemi as part of the Diocesan Mission Co-Op annual appeal. Fr. Anthony will be speaking at all our English-speaking Masses, while Fr. Emmanuel will be speaking at all our Spanish-speaking Masses. They come to us from the Catholic Diocese of Bomadi, which is in the African country of Nigeria. As many of you are well aware, this is the native country of Fr. Akan Simon, who faithfully served here at St. Thomas the Apostle for many years.

Catholicism in Nigeria is significant. It is estimated that 32 million baptized Catholics reside here making it the largest Catholic population on the African continent. The faith was first introduced by Portuguese missionaries in the 15th century, but modern growth began with 19th-century missionary efforts. Nigerian Catholics are known for high Mass attendance, with 94% attending weekly or daily, the highest rate globally.

The Church plays a vital role in education, healthcare, and social services, filling gaps left by the state. Despite facing persecution, particularly in northern Nigeria, the Catholic Church continues to thrive and expand. The Igbo ethnic group in southeastern Nigeria forms the heart of the country's Catholic stronghold, influencing its vibrant practices.

The Catholic Church has been a cornerstone of education in Nigeria since the 19th century, establishing schools that educated many of the country's post-independence leaders. Catholic schools emphasized English instruction, which appealed to the Igbo and other groups seeking advancement under colonial rule. By 1960, when Nigeria gained independence, the Church's educational institutions were instrumental in shaping the nation's elite. Today, Catholic schools remain highly regarded, attracting students from diverse religious backgrounds, including Muslims, due to their reputation for discipline and quality.

Nigeria boasts the world's largest Catholic seminary, Bigard Memorial Seminary in Enugu, which houses over 600 diocesan and 200 religious seminarians. The country has 16 diocesan seminaries. The vibrancy of Nigerian seminaries contrasts sharply with those of Europe and North America, where enrollment is dwindling. The Diocese of Bomadi, newly established by Pope Francis in 2017, is an important part of this great trend. Please be generous with their appeal today for our much-needed assistance.

Peace, be with you,

Fr. Bob Jones

Todos tenemos algo bajo nuestro cuidado: la familia, un enfermo, los padres, los niños. Incluso el lugar en que vivimos, nuestra casa común, nuestro planeta. Dios cuenta con nosotros para dar respuesta al Evangelio de hoy. "Estén preparados", nos dice. "Tengan puesta la ropa de trabajo y sus lámparas encendidas" (Lucas 12:33). Nos pide estar siempre en vela, alertas, preparados para su llegada. Por lo tanto, debemos estar atentos, trabajando en todo lo que nos acerca a Él. Ser fieles a su Palabra implica responsabilidad, implica avivar el fuego de Dios en el corazón de cada persona.

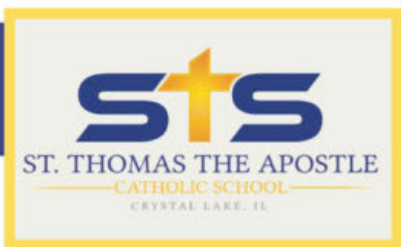

Pedro, como siempre, se anima a preguntar:

"Señor, esta parábola que has contado, ¿es sólo para nosotros o es para todos?". Gracias, Pedro, por preguntar. Así, el Señor Jesús afirma que el trabajo y la fidelidad son para todos sin excepción:

"Afortunado ese servidor si, al llegar su señor, lo encuentra cumpliendo su deber" (Lucas 12:43). Esta respuesta es una invitación a cooperar en el crecimiento del Reino de Dios, a entusiasmarnos en los proyectos comunitarios que llevan al bien común. "El amor a la sociedad y el compromiso por el bien común son una forma excelente de la caridad, que

no solo afecta a las relaciones entre los individuos, sino a las macro relaciones, como las relaciones sociales, económicas y políticas" (Papa Francisco, Laudato Si', 231, septiembre 21, 2023). ©LPi

Learn About TMIY Aug. 16 and 23!

For 12 years That Man is You (TMIY) has been held at St.

Thomas. Have you ever wondered what TMIY is all about? It's a Men's Ministry developed by Paradisus Dei and is currently being offered in over 1,000 parishes. TMIY is designed to meet men wherever they are in their spiritual lives and help them take one step further.

TMIY honestly addresses the pressures and temptations that men face in our modern culture, especially those relating to their roles as husbands and fathers.

If your inner spiritual voice is telling you to "do more" or "be more," take some time on two upcoming Saturday mornings and see for yourself.
There will be special presentations on Saturday,
Aug. 16 (Spiritual Headship) and another on Saturday, Aug. 23 (The Mystery of the Holy Family).

Both days will be held at the Oak St. church. Coffee and donuts are served at 6 a.m., video starts at 6:30 a.m., followed by small group discussions. We conclude by 7:30 a.m.

Please come and join us. We believe that you will find it worthwhile. Learn more about TMIY on the link on the parish website or contact Carl Marhoefer at cmarhoefer@gmail.com.
