From the Pastor's Desk...

As we come to the end of National Vocation Awareness Week, I thought it would be a good time to devote my column to Vocations. Although I did not realize it at the time, my own vocation was being fostered at a very young age. It started with my parents who provided a great example of living their faith. Going to Mass and being involved in parish life were simply a way of life for them, and therefore it also became a way of life for me. My vocation was then strengthened by Catholic Schooling in both Elementary School and High School. There were a number of the priests, religious sisters, and lay teachers who passed on their love of the Catholic Faith and strengthened my Faith. I am most grateful for my parents, many of their friends, and some fine teachers for instilling a sense of God's love within me.

When I was a senior in High School I was asked by a parish priest (and teacher) if I had ever considered the priesthood. I shared that I honestly had never really considered myself living that vocation. The thought quite frankly scared me, mostly because I really did not deem myself to be worthy. Also, as a teenager I believed that a celibate life would simply be too hard to embrace. So, I went off to College and pursued a degree in Business. Yet, his invitation to consider the priesthood stayed with me. In College I found the Newman Center an important place to stay close to my Catholic Faith. I am extremely grateful for the Newman Center and the fine priests and people that I met there.

After College, I worked in Retail Management for five years. The invitation to consider the priesthood was always in the back of my mind and heart. By the time I was 27 years old, I was ready to make a leap of faith. The Rockford Diocese supported my desire and helped me apply to Mundelein Seminary. I spent five years there and was ordained in 1992. My first assignment was here at St. Thomas the Apostle Parish (1992-1995). I was reassigned here as Pastor a little over 4 years ago.

It is a life that is full of many challenges, but also so much grace, and so much joy. I truly am grateful that I was offered that invitation so many years ago. Even though I did not immediately accept it, the invitation did not go away, and it did change my life for the better. I now live with 3 other fine priests, Fathers Downing, Fitzpatrick and Tunarosa. They have their own unique stories of "being called." I am very grateful for their vocation!

While here as a Seminarian, Fr. Ian Ordonez established a wonderful Vocation Wall over by the Sacristy Door. Please stop by and help yourself to a Seminarian Post Card. I invite you to place it on your fridge at home and to pray for our current seminarians and pray for more to embrace the call in the future.

Peace be with you, Fr. Bob Jones

PARISH RETREAT

Special Book of Remembrance - Book of Life

In a special way in the month of November, we pray for our loved ones who have died and for all of the faithful departed. Let us remember them in our prayers, and ask them to pray for us as well. On the table stand in the rear of our Oak Street Church, throughout the month of November, we will keep a Special Book of Remembrance (Book of Life) in their honor. We encourage you to write the names of any of your loved ones who have died, and we will remember them in prayer during the month of November in a special way.

SAVE THE DATE

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 5

You are invited to the third annual St. Thomas' Ladies Advent Program entitled "Reflecting HIS Light" Friday, December 5 at the Oak Street Church.

Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

Did you know there are churches in Rome older than St. Peter's? St. John Lateran is one of four major basilicas in the Eternal City, and it is by far the oldest. The land was donated by an ancient Roman family to the Emperor Constantine, who in turn gave it to the Church. For hundreds of years, St. John Lateran was the "mother church." Popes lived on the grounds through the 14th century. The church itself suffered from pillaging by invaders, fires, and earthquakes. It has been restored and rebuilt five times since the 300s. On this feast, we remember more than a building. We celebrate the resiliency of our faith. Though trials may come in our parishes, personal lives, and the world, the Church endures through the grace of Jesus Christ.

El Espíritu de Dios vive en nosotros. La dignidad humana radica en esto: en que somos templo vivo del Espíritu Santo. Este es el gran regalo de Dios a nosotros, otorgado por la gracia. El apóstol san Pablo nos ofrece una poderosa reflexión al respecto: “¿No saben que son templo de Dios y que el Espíritu de Dios habita en ustedes? Si alguno destruye el templo de Dios, Dios lo destruirá a él. El templo de Dios es sagrado, y ese templo son ustedes” (1 Corintios 3:16–17). Saber esto conlleva una gran responsabilidad para cada uno de nosotros. ¿Cómo cuido el templo de Dios que es mi cuerpo? ¿Qué tipo de cimientos sostienen su construcción diaria? Recuerda que su principal función es demostrar que allí habita el Dios vivo.

El pasaje del Evangelio nos presenta otra imagen de la hermosura y santidad del templo: “Jesús purifica el templo, y lo hace con el látigo en la mano. Se pone a expulsar las actitudes paganas, en este caso, de los mercaderes que vendían y habían transformado el templo en pequeños negocios. Jesús purifica el templo reprendiendo: ‘Está escrito: mi casa será casa de oración, no de otra cosa’. El templo es un lugar sagrado. Y nosotros debemos entrar allí, en la sacralidad que nos lleva a la adoración. No hay otra cosa. Hay dos templos: el templo material, lugar de adoración, y el templo espiritual dentro de mí, donde mora el Espíritu Santo” (Papa Francisco).
