From the Pastor's Desk...

In just a few weeks a new Liturgical Year will begin with the season of Advent. This is also the time we traditionally have a Rite of Welcome for individuals taking instructions (through OCIA) to come into full Communion with the Catholic Faith and embrace Sacramental Living. The process is a public one since it is also meant to remind all of us “Cradle Catholics” of the importance of embracing Sacramental Living.

At the center of what it means to be Catholic is a life lived in and through the Sacraments: Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation, Reconciliation, Anointing, Matrimony, and Holy Orders. But Sacraments are more than a “to-do” list in the life of a Catholic.

They are meant to be how we put our faith into action.

Born out of love and desire for God, faith consists of orienting oneself wholly toward God, not only one's heart, but also one's concrete actions in life. Sacramental life, then, refers to all of human life: its patterns, limitations, its complications and mysteriousness. All of sacramental life is oriented toward our end purpose and destiny, which is total union with God.

A common misunderstanding of Sacraments is they are somehow “containers of magic”. A common misunderstanding of Liturgy is that it is a human ritual to help us acquire grace with our own efforts. This represents a misunderstanding of God's “grace” and how God works in and through us. We must understand that it is God's work and open ourselves up to that reality. Then we are more likely to be living the Sacramental Life.

The Dogmatic Constitution of Liturgy, “Sacrosanctum Concilium,” states that the roots of the Liturgy are founded in God's loving will for humanity as revealed in Christ: “God who ‘wills that all men be saved and come to knowledge of the truth’ (1 Timothy 2:4) ... sent His Son, the Word made flesh, anointed by the Holy Spirit, to preach the Gospel to the poor, to heal the contrite of heart, to be a ‘bodily and spiritual medicine’, the Mediator between God and man” (SC 5).

How might we understand this life given to us through Christ's Paschal Mystery? Let us be reminded that God's gift, that is, life lived in grace and communion with God, is an invitation. They are not disjointed moments in our daily lives when we “receive grace”, but the foundation and orientation according to which we live. Sacramental Life rooted in the Paschal Mystery, through which God achieves His plan for our salvation, is continuous, repetitive and unceasing. In this sense, Sacraments are not merely something we do as Catholics, but how we live as Catholics.

Peace be with you, Fr. Bob Jones

Two Things Can Be True At Once

Love and hate. Hope and fear. Joy and sorrow. Death and life. What lasts forever, and what is even now passing away before our eyes. To be human is to know that these feelings, these realities, can and often do occur at the same time. To be Christian is to know that it means something — even if we cannot understand what. Not yet.

In every moment of his earthly life, Christ shows us that two things can be true at once. A virgin is a mother. An exile is a king. The temple will be destroyed, and it will last forever. The world is ending. The world is beginning. The cross is death. The cross is life.

Special Book of Remembrance - Book of Life

In a special way in the month of November, we pray for our loved ones who have died and for all of the faithful departed. Let us remember them in our prayers, and ask them to pray for us as well. On the table stand in the rear of our Oak Street Church, throughout the month of November, we will keep a Special Book of Remembrance (Book of Life) in their honor. We encourage you to write the names of any of your loved ones who have died, and we will remember them in prayer during the month of November in a special way.

We Are Called to Be Saints

Catholics often are drawn to saints due to their profession, hobbies, or ethnic background. One's patron saint serves as an example of how to live a life of holiness and service to God. We hold up the saints of the Church in high regard. However, we can sometimes make the mistake of seeing them as the subject of stories in print and not real living people. We can assume that their level of devotion and holiness is unattainable. In fact, we are all called to be saints.

Our world needs more living saints living out their stewardship in a radical manner. Stories are valuable, but when others get to see disciples of Jesus Christ answering their call in person, consider the impact. There is a reason why lay witnessing is so important in cultivating a stewardship culture in a parish community. The people we can see and hear are alive right in front of us. Some will say that to truly be humble means to act anonymously, but we are not speaking here of actions that call out, "Look at me!" We are talking about acting in a way that people see not you and me, but Jesus instead.

We are to be models and examples to one another. We are to build up one another and make the Body of Christ strong. Don't sit back wishing you had the strength to be a saint. You have already been given the gifts needed to be the saint you are called to be. Maybe people will read about you later, but the Church needs you now!

"Ven y Adora, Él espera por ti"

La perseverancia, ¿qué significa esta palabra tan importante? Es mantenernos firmes en nuestros planes y buenos propósitos. Perseverar en los estudios, en el trabajo y en las relaciones familiares requiere entusiasmo y energía cada día. Nada es fácil, y hoy Jesús nos invita a no tener miedo ante las adversidades y catástrofes que vemos actualmente, sino a superar las pruebas con fe y confianza en un Dios que no defrauda: "Con todo, ni un cabello de su cabeza se perderá". Y agrega otra frase que nos invita a despertar del letargo espiritual: "Manténganse firmes y se salvarán" (Lucas 21:18-19).

La liturgia de hoy nos ayuda a reflexionar sobre las muchas traiciones, hambres y guerras que azotan a nuestros hermanos y hermanas en el mundo. Sin embargo, a pesar de todo eso, caminamos con esperanza. Nada ni nadie puede arrebatarnos la seguridad de que Dios está caminando a nuestro lado. Pero no debemos dejarnos engañar dejando pasar el tiempo sin hacer nada por nuestro bien y el de los demás. "El engaño es creernos dueños del tiempo. El tiempo no es nuestro. Del tiempo existe solo un soberano: Jesucristo. No os dejéis engañar en la confusión. El cristiano se mueve por este camino del mo-
