Pastor Speaks:

Dear brothers and sisters,

At this time, we have only one week left before the day of confirmation for our students. We will welcome Bishop Joseph Kopacz, who is going to administer confirmation to the students, and Chancellor Mary Woodward, who is going to help with the confirmation Mass. We congratulate all the students who are going to be confirmed in our parish.

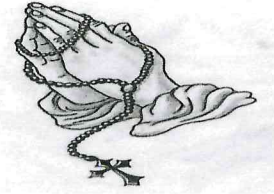

I would like to welcome you all to the Holy Mass to pray for our children. I would also like to thank Derrick, who initially helped the students in their preparation for confirmation. I especially thank Kristin Orr and Rone Walker, who have both been instrumental in teaching and guiding the students.

I know it is a joyful time for the students to receive confirmation and for parents to see their children receive the sacrament of confirmation. The students have studied their faith, practiced it, and prayed for it.

Dear friends, confirmation is not like a graduation when one finishes his or her studies and leaves his or her school only to return occasionally for a reunion or an alumni event. As Pope Francis says, confirmation is not “the sacrament of goodbye!” – goodbye to the Lord and to the Church, goodbye to the Mass and the sacraments. Instead, let us understand confirmation as “the sacrament of hello”– a new beginning and not an end, more like a commencement than a graduation.

I take this opportunity to thank all the parents and sponsors and those who helped the students directly or indirectly in their formation. I request that you all continue to help them to grow and to remain in their faith.

With Prayers,
Fr. Raju Macherla
