FROM FR. MIKE'S DESK:

This weekend, we are blessed by the presence of Father Michael Sloval, S.O.L.T., the pastor of Saint Ann Indian Mission in Belcourt, North Dakota. The priests and religious sisters of S.O.L.T., along with a strong lay staff, are doing wonderful work among the Native Americans in that part of the high plains.

Please consider a generous gift. Each of us is called to be a disciple, which is basically the same thing as being a missionary disciple. And while not all of us are able to give our time and talent to a venture that is several states away, we can assist nonetheless.

The mission envelopes provide direction on how to make a gift. Note that the first option is to make an on-line offering. If you haven't been making your ordinary Sunday Offering in this way, I strongly encourage you to use this occasion to introduce yourself to our easy, secure system. (I began making on-line parish contributions long before I got to Saint Martha -- the convenience is wonderful, and it assures that steady support is offered, even when I am away.)

The quickest way into the system is simply pointing your phone camera at the QR code (that funny-looking square box) on the mission envelope. Or you can easily get to the on-line system through our webpage -- www.st-martha.org.

We live in challenging times, with Covid, economic uncertainty, political turmoil, and a host of other challenging variables. Please consider a recurring on-line contribution to the parish. It will assure the resources that allow us to be fully present to parishioners and the community, come what may.

God bless you....

EXCERPTS FROM GOD: DIARY OF SAINT MARIA FAUSTINA (1601) FROM THE CENACLE OF DIVINE MERCY AT SAINT MARY CATHEDRAL: Chosen souls are, in my hand, lights which I cast into the darkness of the world and with which I illumine it. As stars illumine the night, so chosen souls illumine the earth. And the more perfect a soul is, the stronger and the more far-reaching is the light shed by it. It can be hidden and unknown even to those closest to it, and yet its holiness is reflected in souls even to the most distant extremities of the world."
