ALTAR FLOWER SPONSORS

July 15/16 Altar Flowers are still available, please contact the Parish Office to purchase them for a loved one or special occasion.

There are many weekends over this summer where Altar Flowers are still available. This is a beautiful way to remember and pray for your loved ones or to celebrate a special occasion. Please consider purchasing flowers to help keep our sanctuary beautiful as we worship together each week.

FROM FATHER RYAN'S DESK:

I cannot tell you how happy I am to finally be in Okemos! It was not easy saying goodbye to the high school students, but I am so excited to begin my time with you here at St. Martha Parish and School! I am in the process of getting unpacked and organized while at the same wrapping my head around everything here in the parish. Please have patience with me as we begin together. Fr. Mike, the Leadership Team, and the entire staff have made this transition very easy and seamless, so a huge thank you to them. I owe a huge debt of gratitude to all of our volunteers, especially Ron Lenz, who puts in a tireless amount of time and energy into the parish and school that he so loves. Thank you!

I cannot wait to meet everyone! Andrea and our school faculty and staff might not appreciate me writing this especially at the beginning of July, but I am excited for school to start and all the parish programming to pick back up. But, there is still some golf to be played...so we won't rush things.

In our second reading this weekend, St. Paul reminds us that we "are not in the flesh; on the contrary, [we] are in the spirit, if only the spirit of God dwells in [us]" (Romans 8:9). For the baptized, God does indeed dwell within us! At the moment of our baptism we were washed from original sin, and God's very spirit was given to us as we were made His adopted sons and daughters. What an amazing gift!

Cardinal Raniero Cantalamessa, the Papal Preacher, often calls baptism an unreleased sacrament in that so often it is or becomes tied. It can be tied in the sense that the fruit that should accompany the sacrament - faith, hope, love, discipleship, holiness, repentance - remains bound because of certain blockages or obstacles that prevent its effectiveness. Remember that sacraments are not magical rituals. Rather, they are rites which require a response on our part. Cardinal Cantalamessa writes the sacraments' "effectiveness is the fruit of a synergy or cooperation between divine omnipotence - in reality the grace of Christ or the Holy Spirit - and human freedom, because as St. Augustine said, 'The one who created you without your cooperation, will not save you without your cooperation'" (Baptism in the Holy Spirit, Cantalamessa).

St. Paul reminds us that we live in a covenantal relationship with our God - Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. On God's part, in the sacrament of baptism, He does three things for us: 1) forgives our sins, 2) imparts the theological virtues of faith, hope, and love, and 3) recapitulates us back to the Father as His adopted sons and daughters.

What's our part? Namely faith. Not simply a spoken faith but rather a faith lived out as His intentional disciples. We could reasonably sum that up by the word holiness. To live in the Spirit is to strive after holiness by responding to the gift that God has given us - life.

So, are we living in the flesh or the Spirit? There are many obstacles that bind each one of us from time to time. Let's pray for each other to choose to live in the Spirit every day we wake up! And, let's not forget that, in God's infinite goodness, He gave us the gift of the sacrament of reconciliation to restore us to our original baptismal dignity. We have such a good God!

I am looking forward to meeting you all soon!

PARISH DIRECTORY

Thanks again to all the faithful Saint Martha parishioners who came last autumn to have pictures taken in anticipation of the 2023 parish directory. So where is the directory? We're working on it! The company is making some excellent edits and additions requested by our dedicated committee. We apologize for the delay, but anticipate that the delay will allow production of an excellent directory.

WELCOME FATHER RYAN!

We are very excited to have you here to lead and guide us as we begin the next chapter in the story of St. Martha Parish and School.

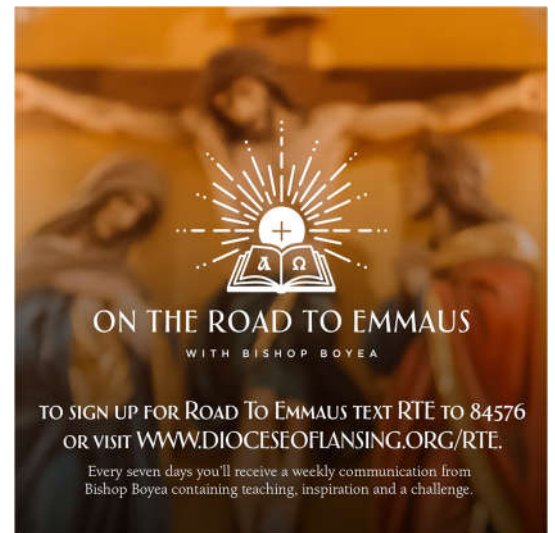

Looking for an opportunity to serve?

The Funeral Luncheon Committee needs your help. We are seeking people to help in the kitchen/parish hall with the luncheons themselves (one or two mornings a month, as needed).

FELLOWSHIP

, FOOD

, AND FOOTBALL

Save the Date! November 11, 2023, 6:00 until 10:00

Please plan to join the Knights of Columbus for this social fellowship event on November 11, 2023 after the 5:00 Mass. If you have been to a Saint Martha Lenten fish fry, you may recall that they are as much a social event as an easy way to avoid meat on Friday. One main difference is that we will be serving hamburgers and other fun fall foods and drinks instead of fish. A second difference is that we will have several large TVs to watch Michigan State football team play at Ohio State that evening. We will also have a few TVs to watch Michigan play at Iowa. Be sure to remember to save the date of November 11, 2023 for the inaugural Knights of Columbus Fellowship, Food, and Football event!

St. Martha School Highlights

First Grade Fun and Learning

We had lots of fun learning in first grade this year! Our reading skills keep developing wonderfully. We have learned many new sounds this year to notice in our reading and apply in our writing. We recently wrote and illustrated fiction stories and have tried our hand at writing poems. It was fun to pick out new types of books from our classroom library each week. "Flashlight Friday" reading time was among our favorite activities to help have fun with reading. In math, we learned about measurement of all forms, including counting money, telling time, and measuring length and height. We also enjoyed learning more about the world around us through our Flat Stanley project. Each first grader made a flat version of themselves to send on great adventures. Our "flats" have traveled around Michigan, to various other states, to many Caribbean islands, and even to Europe.

First grade loved learning all about sound and light in science, too. In religion, we enjoyed learning about the various leaders in the Church, how Jesus promised and sent us the Holy Spirit, and our own role in the Church. We've also continued to learn and practice the virtues, including courtesy, orderliness, prayerfulness, and industriousness.

Soon we'll be back for second grade to keep learning and having fun!

NEIGHBORHOOD PROJECT

NEIGHBORHOOD HOSTS STILL NEEDED

Our groups who have a host are starting to get together for a simple social event. If you have not been contacted by someone, your neighborhood may still need a host. Why not you? To learn more about this simple volunteer opportunity, contact Jackie at jrosalez@st-martha.org.

High School Youth Group

Our Teens had an awesome time learning more about their faith and spending time praising God at the annual Steubenville Youth Conference June 23rd-25th. They joined thousands of teens from around the country.

THE CENACLE OF DIVINE MERCY

The Cenacle of Divine Mercy meets the 1st and 3rd Wednesday of every month from 10am to 11:15 at St. Mary Cathedral Parish Hall. Our July meetings are July 5th and 19th. We offer Zoom to anyone who is out of our area or does not wish to meet face to face. We read Scripture, the Catholic Catechism and the Diary of St. Faustina to help us promote the unlimited Mercy of God. If this is something you might be interested in, please call or text Diane at 517-402-1562.
