LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Malachi 3:19-20a

Lo, the day is coming, blazing like an oven, when all the proud and all evildoers will be stubble, and the day that is coming will set them on fire, leaving them neither root nor branch, says the LORD of hosts. But for you who fear my name, there will arise the sun of justice with its healing rays.

Lector: The word of the Lord.

℟: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL

Psalm 98

Text: The English translation of the Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Committee on English in the Liturgy, Inc | Verse text from the Lectionary for Mass for Use in the Dioceses of the United States of America, second typical edition © 1998, 1997, 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, Inc, Washington DC | Music: Roger Holtz and Jane Terwilliger, b.1952; © 2008, International Liturgy Publications, Nashville, TN | All rights reserved |

The Lord comes to rule the earth, to rule the earth with jus-tice.

1. Sing praise to the LORD with the harp, with the harp and melodious song. With trumpets and the sound of the horn sing joyfully before the King, the LORD.
2. Let the sea and what fills it resound, the world and those who dwell in it; let the rivers clap their hands, the mountains shout with them for joy.
3. Before the LORD, for he comes, for he comes to rule the earth, he will rule the world with justice and the peoples with equity.

SECOND READING

2 Thessalonians 3:7-12

Brothers and sisters: You know how one must imitate us. For we did not act in a disorderly way among you, nor did we eat food received free from anyone. On the contrary, in toil and drudgery, night and day we worked, so as not to burden any of you. Not that we do not have the right. Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us. In fact, when we were with you, we instructed you that if anyone was unwilling to work, neither should that one eat. We hear that some are conducting themselves among you in a disorderly way, by not keeping busy but minding the business of others. Such people we instruct and urge in the Lord Jesus Christ to work quietly and to eat their own food.

Lector: The word of the Lord.

✠ Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

Luke 21:5-19

Deacon/Priest: The Lord be with you.

Deacon/Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

✠ And with your spirit.

✠ Glory to you, O Lord.

While some people were speaking about how the temple was adorned with costly stones and votive offerings, Jesus said, "All that you see here--the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down."

Then they asked him, "Teacher, when will this happen? And what sign will there be when all these things are about to happen?" He answered, "See that you not be deceived, for many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he,' and 'The time has come.' Do not follow them! When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for such things must happen first, but it will not immediately be the end." Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be powerful earthquakes, famines, and plagues from place to place; and awesome sights and mighty signs will come from the sky. "Before all this happens, however, they will seize and persecute you, they will hand you over to the synagogues and to prisons, and they will have you led before kings and governors because of my name. It will lead to your giving testimony. Remember, you are not to prepare your defense beforehand, for I myself shall give you a wisdom in speaking that all your adversaries will be powerless to resist or refute. You will even be handed over by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends, and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance you will secure your lives."

Deacon/Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

✠ Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only

Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven,

[at the words that follow, all bow until 'and became man'] and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, Who proceeds from the Father and the Son, Who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, Who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sin, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

UNIVERSAL PRAYER (PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL)

To each petition, all respond: Lord, hear our prayer.

From the Pastor's Desk

Thank You!!

Last week we gathered to celebrate this wonderful parish community at our annual fall fundraiser - An Evening of Faith and Future! I pray everyone who attended had fun. The live band was excellent! If you have not attended or have not participated in our annual fundraiser, please plan on doing so next year!

Thank you to everyone who gave generously throughout this annual campaign and who continue to give generously to our parish and school! As parishioners and school families it is essential to support the parish with your financial generosity. As I write this, ahead of the bulletin deadline, we were at 106% of our goal of $155,000 with some donations still coming in!

I also owe a debt of gratitude to those who sacrificed their time and expertise to ensure that the campaign and event were both successful. Thank you to Cynthia Farnsworth, Kimberly Keefe, and Sue Jenkins who really took the reins of the campaign and event. And, without the help of Gregg Alchin, Andrew Brieschke, Amanda Konopaska, Ron Lenz, Illiana De Luna, Amanda Garber, Linda Cullamore, Claire Boomer, Elizabeth Pahl, Lilia Rampe, Emma Longfield, Jeff and Mio Cruz, and Katie Tippet and many others who helped set up, decorate, clean up, assist with check-in and drink ticket sales, the event would not have been the success that it was.

Annual Report and Giving

Last week we published the annual report for fiscal year 2024-2025. I hope you had a chance to read it and take a bulletin home to read it even more carefully. As always, last week's bulletin is available online if you did not have a chance to see the annual report.

As we continue to move into the second half of the current fiscal year (2025-2026), I want to encourage anyone who is not currently giving to the parish but have found a home here to please begin tithing to the parish. It is essential that we all be "all in" in our worship to God, our prayer, our sacrifices especially those that support the parish, our ministries, and support of our staff and faculty.

For those that are currently giving, THANK YOU! As we move into the second half of this year I humbly ask that you consider increasing your gifts modestly, whatever that might look like, especially if you have not reviewed your giving level in some time. This can be easily overlooked when setting up online giving because we tend to forget about it. A modest annual increase to giving helps ensure that we can provide cost of living adjustments to our superb faculty and staff in addition to maintaining operations while keeping up with rising costs.

Finally, for those still using envelopes or who have not registered as parishioners, I encourage you to first register as a parishioner so we know you and to consider transitioning to online giving. It is easier for you and it is easier for us to help plan our annual budget.

Gospel Reflection

As we continue through the month of November and the end of the liturgical year, the Church invites us to reflect on the end and the four "last things" - death, judgment, Heaven, and Hell. These realities are not intended to frighten us but rather awaken within us a sober reflection on the destiny we are each moving toward.

These last remaining weeks of the liturgical year culminate in the great Solemnity of Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. If you've ever visited the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C., in the apse of the church is a huge foreboding mosaic called Christ in Majesty. As the title suggests, it is a depiction of Jesus Christ in his majesty as King of the Universe. It is a powerful and somewhat fearful depiction of Jesus reigning in glory. For me, it is a vivid representation of Christ's justice.

As we move into the end of the liturgical year, we get a sense of this fear in our readings. Our first reading, taken from the conclusion of the book of the prophet Malachi, speaks of a day that is yet to come blazing like an oven when the proud and evildoers will be set on fire. This is, of course, the final judgment.

Malachi is the last of the prophets and wrote during the time after the exile which was marked by widespread spiritual laxity, corruption among priests of the Temple, and severe decline in social justice, all of which led to cynicism and unfaithfulness. Malachi is clear that the day of the Lord is coming when God's justice will triumph and those who remained faithful will experience the healing rays of the Sun of Justice - an allusion or foreshadowing of Jesus Christ and his Resurrection.

Jesus' tone in our Gospel is similar to that of Malachi. He is blunt and direct. He warns of impending deception, wars and insurrections, earthquakes, famines, and plagues. He warns of unjust persecutions of those who call themselves Christian (... because of His name). All of this will lead to a choice that we will inevitably have to make - either we will speak for him or against him (It will lead to your giving testimony).

Our responsorial Psalm, taken from Psalm 98, echoes this theme of the end times in that The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice. But, note the more positive and uplifting words and tone.

Sing praise to the Lord with the harp,
With the harp and melodious song.
With trumpets and the sound of the horn,
Sing joyfully before the King.

Let the sea and what fills it resound,
The world and those who dwell in it;
Let the rivers clap their hands,
The mountains shout with them for joy.

Before the Lord, for he comes,
He comes to rule the earth,
He will rule the world with justice,
And the peoples with equity.

I think there are two key takeaways for us in our readings this weekend and as we ponder the end times - both personally and communally:

From the Pastor's Desk —

The first is our understanding of God's justice. God is both perfectly just and perfectly merciful. More often than not we think of justice as being synonymous with revenge, vengeance, retribution, or retaliation. God is anything but vengeful. God isn't petty nor does he seek retaliation or retribution. The virtue of justice means to give someone their due. God's justice means that he gives us what we've asked for based on the choices we've made, attitudes we've carried, idols that we allowed to well up in our hearts that have pushed God out. In other words, God respects our freedom and, in his justice, gives us what we've wanted based on how we have lived and what or whom we've followed.

The second is Jesus' last line in today's Gospel, "By your perseverance you will secure your lives." Perseverance in what? Perseverance in faith, hope, and love as we continue to move through this life, particularly in trials and when those three theological virtues are shaken and challenged. Faith in God - Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Hope in his Resurrection from the dead. Love of God and neighbor.

If we keep our eyes fixed on Jesus and persevere in our faithfulness toward him, his justice will be a yoke that is easy and a burden that is light. And, like the Psalmist of our Psalm today, we will sing joyfully when he comes in his justice.

Know of my prayers for you all!

Fr. Ryan

Welcome to Monica!

We are excited to announce that Monica Amoroso will be joining our team as a part-time reception and communications assistant! Here's a little about her, in her own words:

In every step of my life, the Lord has walked with me. I am a cradle Catholic and attended St. Gerard from kindergarten to 8th grade. My faith really became my own in high school when I was surrounded by holy men and women at Lansing Catholic (Go Cougars!). I continued to grow in faith at St. John Student Center while I attended MSU. I led small groups and retreats and spent many nights at daily Mass.

After college, my husband and I moved to Grand Rapids where I served St. Pius X in Grandville as an Administrative/Communications Assistant. The Lord drew us back to Lansing and closer to family when we welcomed our son. My passion for sharing Christ's love has only grown over the years. Now, I look forward to joining the St. Martha team and serving the Lord through my work here.

Please join us in giving Monica a warm St. Martha welcome!

Hospitality Team Needed

As our parish continues to grow, we need more hands to help share the joy of hospitality! We are looking for volunteers to assist with hosting donuts after Masses, church receptions, and sacramental receptions. If you'd like to join our Hospitality Team or learn more, please contact Jackie Rosalez at jrosalez@st-martha.org

ST. MARTHA CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS PARTY

All families are invited to join us for a Children's Christmas Celebration. Saturday, December 6th from 11:30-1:30 in the St. Martha Parish Hall. Includes taco lunch, games, and a gift delivered by Santa. If you would like, you can bring a toy to donate to a child need.

Magnificat Subscriptions

Now is the chance to get bulk pricing on your monthly Magnificat! St. Martha's bulk pricing is $35 annually (vs. $49 regular price), and the subscription runs from February 2026 - January 2027. The monthly issues will be available for pick up from the parish office. Order online by scanning the QR code or visit the parish office to pay with cash or check (written out to St. Martha with Magnificat in memo line.) Please order by Monday, December 1.

Advent Resources

Advent is almost here...yes, Advent! This year, in addition to the Little Blue Books, we're excited to offer Fr. Mike Schmitz's newest Advent resource, Waiting Well - a companion book and journal designed to help you enter more deeply into the season.

Both resources will be available the weekend of November 22-23 the weekend before Advent begins. Please note that we have a limited number of copies of Waiting Well, so they'll be available on a first-come, first-served basis.

If you'd prefer digital access, the Waiting Well series is also available through the Ascension App with a subscription ($8.99/month or $59.99/year). Want to learn more? Check out the short video by scanning the QR code to hear about this inspiring new Advent series!

In a loving, nurturing, Christ-like environment, Saint Martha School guides each student to develop his or her unique ability and potential through prayer, study, and service.

St. Martha Preschool: Where Faith and Fun Begin

At St. Martha Preschool, we believe that learning begins with love. Each day, our youngest learners are welcomed into a nurturing, faith-filled environment where they can explore, play, and grow together in God's love.

Our preschool program helps children build a strong foundation, spiritually, academically, and socially. Through hands-on learning, creative play, and joyful prayer, our students develop curiosity, confidence, and kindness. Whether they are learning their ABCs, making new friends, or joining in song at CGS, every experience is an opportunity to see God's presence in their world.

The Season of Giving

As we enter the season of Thanksgiving and Christmas, we are reminded of the many blessings we've received and the opportunity to share with those in need. This year, we invite you to give generously to support our St. Martha's outreach programs, helping provide meals, gifts, and care for families in our community. Your donations - whether monetary or in-kind - make a meaningful difference in the lives of others, spreading hope and love during this special time of year. Below are the various ways you can contribute and be part of this season of giving.

Thanksgiving Food Drive

We have begun collecting food staples for this year's Thanksgiving Food Drive. Suggested donations include non-perishables:

- soup
- cereal
- pasta and sauce
- canned meat & fish
- gravy
- instant potatoes
- canned fruits and vegetables

Please consider low sodium, low sugar, and low fat items, smaller packages for small household, and check expiration dates. Food boxes will be in the glass hallway until Friday, November 21st. Cash donations can be placed in the collection baskets in an envelope marked 'For Food Drive' or check made payable to St. Martha Parish with memo line 'For Food Drive.' Thank you for supporting those in need.

St. Martha Giving Tree

Advent Giving Tree tags are now available on the trees at both sides of the altar. All information regarding the gift will be on the tag. Each year the St. Martha Council of Catholic Women coordinates this parish-wide project to provide Christmas gifts to people who are in need in our community. Many of these people would go without if it weren't for your generosity.

Other gifts provide much-needed household items for our local Catholic charities. Gifts support the Ingham County Medical Care Facility on Dobbie Road, Catholic Charities of Eaton, Ingham, and Clinton counties, St. Martha St. Vincent de Paul families, Shared Pregnancy, Cristo Rey Community Center, Haven House, and Alternative Services.

Please note tags include information regarding due dates, which are not all the same, as well as whether or not the gift should be wrapped or unwrapped. If you have questions, please contact the parish office.

Sweatshirt Drive

The Knights of Columbus, Okemos St. Martha Council 10006 will once again be participating in the Holy Cross Services Sweatshirt Program. Our Council has supported this very successful program for many years and with your help, we will continue this fine tradition.

The new sweatshirts you purchase will be delivered to our district deputy and then on to Holy Cross Services. The residents truly appreciate the great looking sweatshirts or hoodies with pro sports team or college logos (please no plain sweatshirts). Youth sizes XS, S, M, L and adult sizes S, M, L, XL are requested. Quality is more important than quantity. Remember that your gift may be the only one they receive this Christmas.

Place the sweatshirts in a decorated gift box and write the size on the outside. If it is gender specific, please mark it accordingly in large, easy to read lettering.

The sweatshirts can be dropped off at the St. Martha Parish office. The drop off deadline is 12:00 noon, Wednesday, December 3. Thank you for your participation!

Please contact Tom Muncie at 517.927.8370 or tmuncie@juno.com with any questions.

St. Luke Coat Bank

St. Luke Coat Bank provides coats to individuals throughout the Greater Lansing area. New and gently used coats can be donated in the labelled black trash cans in the lobby area. Requested items are:

- Adult winter coats of all sizes (especially XXL and larger)
- Children's winter coats
- Children's snow pants

The remaining upcoming distribution dates for the season are Wednesday, November 19, and Saturday, December 6.

You can also sign up to assist with distribution by scanning the QR code above.
