LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

2 Samuel 5:1-3

In those days, all the tribes of Israel came to David in Hebron and said: "Here we are, your bone and your flesh. In days past, when Saul was our king, it was you who led the Israelites out and brought them back. And the LORD said to you, 'You shall shepherd my people Israel and shall be commander of Israel.'"

When all the elders of Israel came to David in Hebron, King David made an agreement with them there before the LORD, and they anointed him king of Israel.

Lector: The word of the Lord.

℟: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 122

Text: The English translation of the Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Committee on English in the Liturgy, Inc | Verse text from the Lectionary for Mass for Use in the Dioceses of the United States of America, second typical edition © 1998, 1997, 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, Inc, Washington DC | Music: Tony Andorfer | All rights reserved |

5 Let us go re - joic - ing to the house of the Lord.
 Let us go re - joic - ing, to the house of the Lord.

1. I rejoiced when they said to me, "We will go to the house of the LORD." And now we have set foot within your gates, O Jerusalem.
2. Jerusalem is a city built with compact unity. It is there; it is there that the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD.
3. According to the decree for Israel, to give thanks to the LORD. In it are set up judgment seats for the house of David.

SECOND READING

Colossians 1:12-20

Brothers and sisters: Let us give thanks to the Father, who has made you fit to share in the inheritance of the holy ones in light. He delivered us from the power of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things were created through him and for him.

He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things he himself might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile all things for him, making peace by the blood of his cross through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

Lector: The word of the Lord.

✠ Thanks be to God.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!
Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is to come!

GOSPEL

Luke 23:35-43

Deacon/Priest: The Lord be with you.

Deacon/Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

✠ And with your spirit.

✠ Glory to you, O Lord.

The rulers sneered at Jesus and said, "He saved others, let him save himself if he is the chosen one, the Christ of God." Even the soldiers jeered at him. As they approached to offer him wine they called out, "If you are King of the Jews, save yourself." Above him there was an inscription that read, "This is the King of the Jews."

Now one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus, saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us." The other, however, rebuking him, said in reply, "Have you no fear of God, for you are subject to the same condemnation? And indeed, we have been condemned justly, for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes, but this man has done nothing criminal." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied to him, "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

Deacon/Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

✠ Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven,

[at the words that follow, all bow until 'and became man'] and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, Who proceeds from the Father and the Son, Who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, Who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sin, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

UNIVERSAL PRAYER (PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL)

To each petition, all respond: Lord, hear our prayer.

No Kings?

I'm sure you've heard these two words quite a few times over the last several months. These two words are increasingly used in protest of the current sitting President - Donald Trump. Of course this moniker of No Kings harkens back to the American Revolution when the colonists protested the reign of King George III in England and wanted a clean separation from monarchical rule.

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. So, while I understand the idea behind such a moniker as No Kings - especially given the history of this great country - I think we must ask ourselves do we not have a king?

In his encyclical Quas Primas, Pope Pius XI established this particular solemnity and added it to the liturgical calendar of the Church to be celebrated on the last Sunday of Ordinary Time. Quas Primas was promulgated on December 11, 1925 - seven years after the end of World War I. During the time between the end of the war and promulgation of Quas Primas the world found itself in utter turmoil. Europe found itself devastated physically, morally, culturally, and spiritually. Russia, Germany, and Italy found themselves in the midst of political and social unrest paving the way for socialism, communism, and fascism. God was being pushed out of public life to be replaced by allegiance to the state which claimed it could cure all the social, political, and moral ills of the time.

Pope Pius XI saw these new movements and ideologies, which increasingly pushed God aside replacing him with the secular state, as false "kingdoms" that rejected the sovereignty of Christ and the moral and natural law. The ever growing moral relativism and loss of spiritual values was becoming ever more a crisis of faith. In opposition to everything that was occurring culturally, politically, socially, and economically, Pope Pius XI promulgated Quas Primas to affirm Christ's Kingship over everything - not just over our minds and hearts but over all political, economic, and social powers.

In his encyclical, Pope Pius XI affirmed that true peace and justice can only be achieved if and when nations and individuals recognize Christ's sovereignty over the entirety of their lives. His encyclical was a means to resist secularism and its destructive ideologies thereby uniting Christians across the world under and around our common spiritual authority - namely Jesus Christ - to whom our ultimate allegiance is owed.

Fast forward some 50 years when Pope John Paul II would visit his homeland of Poland then occupied by the Communist Party who themselves suppressed religion and its practice of worship. On June 2, 1979 during a Mass in Warsaw's Victory Square the crowd spontaneously erupted in a chant - "We want God!" - crying out for their desire for faith and religious freedom.

In light of everything that is happening politically, socially, morally, economically today, I think it is imperative to ask ourselves the question - do we really not have a king? Or, taking that question a step further, are we increasingly replacing our king with our politics? Do we look to the government to remedy all of our social, political, economic, and moral challenges as if it can?

I think it is fair to say that our current cultural climate is increasingly secular and that it is believed that God has no place in the public square. Why? Perhaps because we have fallen into the false belief that God is not active in the lives of his people - that he is not a personal God but rather a distant deity who simply leaves us alone to fend for ourselves. To believe that is to deny the incarnation - that God took on human flesh to come close to us ultimately for our salvation and redemption.

We certainly live with the effects of original sin and fallen humanity. We will always face problems and challenges both personally and socially as we move through this life. Nonetheless, Jesus Christ is victorious over sin. He's proven that in his Resurrection. And, he has promised us that he will come again to destroy it forever so that we can live in his kingdom for all eternity.

Yes, we do, in fact, have a king! His name is Jesus Christ and He is king of the universe.

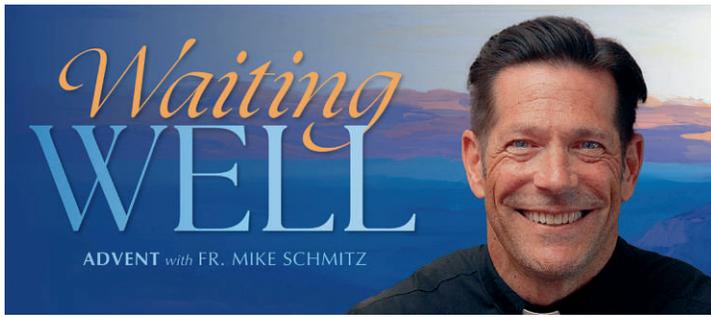

As we pray today, let us seek the grace of humility, submitting ourselves to the reign of Jesus Christ through Holy Mother Church. He is Lord. His reign is absolute. He possesses power, authority, and influence over each one of us, our culture, our economics, our politics - everything!

In just a few weeks we will celebrate the great solemnity of Christmas - the Nativity of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Christmas is the great feast in which we celebrate a God who humbled himself to become one of us. Let us submit to a king who not only comes close to us but fights with us and for us and who never gives up on us.

Know of my prayers for you all!

Fr. Ryan

The Season of Giving

As we enter the season of Thanksgiving and Christmas, we are reminded of the many blessings we've received and the opportunity to share with those in need. This year, we invite you to give generously to support our St. Martha's outreach programs, helping provide meals, gifts, and care for families in our community. Your donations - whether monetary or in-kind - make a meaningful difference in the lives of others, spreading hope and love during this special time of year. Below are the various ways you can contribute and be part of this season of giving.

Thanksgiving Food Drive

We have begun collecting food staples for this year's Thanksgiving Food Drive. Suggested donations include non-perishables:

- soup
- cereal
- pasta and sauce
- canned meat & fish
- gravy
- instant potatoes
- canned fruits and vegetables

Please consider low sodium, low sugar, and low fat items, smaller packages for small household, and check expiration dates. Food sorting will take place in the glass hallway on Sunday, November 23rd at 3 pm.

Thank you for supporting those in need.

St. Martha Giving Tree

Advent Giving Tree tags are now available on the trees at both sides of the altar. All information regarding the gift will be on the tag. Each year the St. Martha Council of Catholic Women coordinates this parish-wide project to provide Christmas gifts to people who are in need in our community. Many of these people would go without if it weren't for your generosity.

Other gifts provide much-needed household items for our local Catholic charities. Gifts support the Ingham County Medical Care Facility on Dobie Road, Catholic Charities of Eaton, Ingham, and Clinton counties, St. Martha St. Vincent de Paul families, Shared Pregnancy, Cristo Rey Community Center, Haven House, and Alternative Services.

Please note tags include information regarding due dates, which are not all the same, as well as whether or not the gift should be wrapped or unwrapped. If you have questions, please contact the parish office.

Sweatshirt Drive

The Knights of Columbus, Okemos St. Martha Council 10006 will once again be participating in the Holy Cross Services Sweatshirt Program. Our Council has supported this very successful program for many years and with your help, we will continue this fine tradition.

The new sweatshirts you purchase will be delivered to our district deputy and then on to Holy Cross Services. The residents truly appreciate the great looking sweatshirts or hoodies with pro sports team or college logos (please no plain sweatshirts). Youth sizes XS, S, M, L and adult sizes S, M, L, XL are requested. Quality is more important than quantity. Remember that your gift may be the only one they receive this Christmas.

Place the sweatshirts in a decorated gift box and write the size on the outside. If it is gender specific, please mark it accordingly in large, easy to read lettering.

The sweatshirts can be dropped off at the St. Martha Parish office. The drop off deadline is 12:00 noon, Wednesday, December 3. Thank you for your participation!

Please contact Tom Muncie at 517.927.8370 or tmuncie@juno.com with any questions.

St. Luke Coat Bank

St. Luke Coat Bank provides coats to individuals throughout the Greater Lansing area. New and gently used coats can be donated in the labelled black trash cans in the lobby area. Requested items are:

- Adult winter coats of all sizes (especially XXL and larger)
- Children's winter coats
- Children's snow pants

The remaining upcoming distribution date for the season is Saturday, December 6.

You can also sign up to assist with distribution by scanning the QR code above.
