LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Isaiah 8:23 - 9:3

First the Lord degraded the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali; but in the end he has glorified the seaward road, the land west of the Jordan, the District of the Gentiles.

Anguish has taken wing, dispelled is darkness: for there is no gloom where but now there was distress. The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom a light has shone. You have brought them abundant joy and great rejoicing, as they rejoice before you as at the harvest, as people make merry when dividing spoils. For the yoke that burdened them, the pole on their shoulder, and the rod of their taskmaster you have smashed, as on the day of Midian.

Lector. The word of the Lord.

℟️ Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL

PSALM

Psalm 27

Text: The English translation of the Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Committee on English in the Liturgy, Inc | Verse text from the Lectionary for Mass for Use in the Dioceses of the United States of America, second typical edition © 1998, 1997, 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, Inc, Washington DC | Music: © 1997 Ricky Manalo, CSP. 1. The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom should I fear?
The LORD is my life's refuge; of whom should I be afraid?
2. One thing I ask of the LORD; this I seek:
To dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life,
That I may gaze on the loveliness of the LORD and contemplate his temple.
3. I believe that I shall see the bounty of the LORD in the land of the living.
Wait for the LORD with courage; be stouthearted, wait for the LORD.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17

I urge you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree in what you say, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and in the same purpose. For it has been reported to me about you, my brothers and sisters, by Chloe's people, that there are rivalries among you. I mean that each of you is saying, "I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos," or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ." Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel, and not with the wisdom of human eloquence, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its meaning.

Lector: The word of the Lord.

✠ Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

ACCLAMATION

Music © 2014, Scot Crandal (ASCAP) | Published by Zeal Music Publishing, zealmusicpublishing.com | All rights reserved

Jesus proclaimed the Gospel of the kingdom and cured every disease among the people.

GOSPEL

Matthew 4:12-23

Deacon/Priest: The Lord be with you.

Deacon/Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

✠ And with your spirit.

✠ Glory to you, O Lord.

When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, that what had been said through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled: Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, the way to the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles, the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light, on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death light has arisen. From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew, casting a net into the sea; they were fishermen. He said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." At once they left their nets and followed him. He walked along from there and saw two other brothers, James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They were in a boat, with their father Zebedee, mending their nets. He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed him. He went around all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and curing every disease and illness among the people.

Deacon/Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

✠ Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven,

[at the words that follow, all bow until 'and became man'] and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, Who proceeds from the Father and the Son, Who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, Who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sin, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

UNIVERSAL PRAYER (PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL)

To each petition, all respond: Lord, hear our prayer.

St. Blaise Throat Blessings

February 3rd is the Memorial of St. Blaise, a 4th Century Bishop who was martyred for his faith in Jesus Christ. According to tradition, St. Blaise is most well-known for the miraculous healing of a boy who was choking to death from a fish bone that had become lodged in his throat. St. Blaise prayed over the boy, and he was healed. Over the centuries, a tradition developed within the Church for the faithful to have their throats blessed on this day in which we celebrate St. Blaise.

Throat blessings will be offered after all Masses on the following dates:

- Next weekend (January 31 and February 1)
- Tuesday, February 3
- Thursday, February 5

Prayer for the Legal Protection Protection of Unborn Children

This past week, on Friday, January 23rd, thousands of people descended upon Washington, D.C. for the annual March for Life. I'm sure very little of it was picked up by the media. I miss those trips with the high school students! This month is dedicated to prayer for the protection of life from conception to natural death. So, I encourage everyone to pray for the legal protection of the unborn - the voiceless and the seemingly forgotten - especially in our current political climate.

In the Eucharistic Prayer at every Mass we echo the very words of Jesus Christ at the Last Supper, "This is my body which will be given for you..." (Luke 22:19). On a spiritual level, I don't think it is a coincidence that the mantra of the Pro-Choice movement is exactly the opposite (a mockery of sorts) of Christ's words, "My body, my choice." I write that, not with the intention of inciting anger, but rather to encourage everyone to take some time to ponder that - to pray with it. What do Jesus' words - the words we echo every time we gather to celebrate the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass - mean?

If you are so moved to get more involved with the Pro-Life movement, to work for the legal protection of the unborn, or even just to support it then I encourage you to look to Protect Life Michigan with whom I work very closely. It is a great organization doing amazing work building up college and high school students to take on this important work.

Catholic Schools Week

This week we kick off Catholic Schools Week! I am incredibly proud of our school! Our faculty and staff, led by our principal Mrs. Patton, are a phenomenal group of people who work tirelessly not only educating our students but also drawing them into a deepening relationship with Jesus Christ. At St. Martha School our students are certainly well educated and prepared for high school, but they also experience the goodness, truth, and beauty of the God who created them by love and for love. Please pray for our students, teachers, staff, and administration particularly this week.

Given the state of the world and the competing ideologies, I cannot think of a safer environment for our youth than Catholic Schools. If you have not considered St. Martha School or Lansing Catholic High School, I encourage you to inquire but do so soon. Demand is high here at St. Martha School. Mrs. Patton has given many tours and has received even more inquiries already. Enrollment for registered parishioners begins February 2. Open enrollment for the general public begins February 16.

CCW and KofC

Thank you to the Council of Catholic Women and the Knights of Columbus for hosting our annual breakfast to kick off Catholic Schools Week. These groups of women and men are precious to the parish and I cannot convey my gratitude adequately. They step up time after time and without them this great parish would not be what it is. If you have not considered joining either of these groups, please do so.

Disciple Maker Index

As you heard last weekend, Bishop Boyea turns 75 on April 10th. On that date he will submit his resignation to the Holy Father who can either accept it immediately or delay accepting it for a later date. Regardless, Bishop Boyea and the curia are trying to put together a report for his eventual successor. As part of this report, each parish will be taking part in a 95-question survey called the Disciple Maker Index. This will not only help the curia but also myself and the staff here at St. Martha to help us identify what we are doing effectively and what we can do better. I look forward to reading the final report as it relates to us here. There will be more information to come as the survey will open February 17 and remain open through March 31. Thank you in advance for your participation in this endeavor.

Please also keep Bishop Boyea in your prayers as well as his staff and his priests. Pray also for his future successor, whoever that may be.

Looking Ahead

I will be away from the parish beginning February 6-16. I have a wedding rehearsal and wedding in Ann Arbor February 6-7 and then I fly out for Tampa, FL on February 9. I will be on an eight day silent retreat with the Institute for Priestly Formation and will return February 16 in time for Ash Wednesday and the beginning of Lent. We priests are required to take an annual retreat and I am looking forward to this very much. No cell phone, no meetings, no interruptions, no housemates...just prayer and rest. Please pray for me and the priests who will be on retreat with me. Know that I will be lifting you up in prayer as well.

Gospel Reflection

It is interesting where Jesus chose to begin his public ministry. Rather than head south right away to Jerusalem - the religious and political epicenter of Israel - he heads north toward Capernaum. Capernaum, a seaside town on the coast of the Sea of Galilee, was once the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali mentioned in our first reading from the prophet Isaiah.

Isaiah was writing to 8th century B.C. Israelites living in the territories of Zebulun and Naphtali, prophesying the eventual Assyrian invasion and exile of the Jews. These regions were seen as extremely valuable because of their locations along the border connecting trade routes between Mesopotamia, Syria, and Egypt. This also made the regions extremely vulnerable to opposition and invasion. They were also regions of cultural mixing and intermarrying meaning that pagan practices, rituals, and idolatry had made its way into the lives of the Israelites causing them to turn away from God. These practices put them at odds, so to speak, with God as they worshiped idols and other deities.

In the 8th century B.C., Assyria invaded the regions of Zebulun and Naphtali, exiling many of the Jews and moving into the regions themselves. These regions were destroyed and the people suffered greatly. We get a sense of that in our first reading. But, Isaiah also prophesied that, "In the end he has glorified the seaward road, the land west of the Jordan, the District of the Gentiles" and "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom a light has shone."

It is here that Jesus chooses to live and begin his public ministry. Why? In a sense, to fulfill what the prophet Isaiah wrote. The "light," of course, is Jesus himself. But, think about it a little more. By beginning his public ministry in Galilee - in the regions of Zebulun and Naphtali - he is also saying something else. He begins his ministry among the unimportant, the forgotten, the oppressed, and those who struggled - spiritually, emotionally, physically. It was from these that he called his Apostles - not from the religious and politically elite in Jerusalem. It was there that Jesus began to preach his message of repentance.

What does this have to do with us today? Jesus began his public ministry among the seemingly insignificant. I think most of us can feel insignificant when faced with God. How many times have we asked ourselves, echoing Job, "God, do you even care?" or "Where are you in the middle of all this mess?" And, in a very real sense, we are insignificant compared to God himself. But, in the eyes of God we are everything. Every one of us is wildly important to God - important enough that if it were just you on the earth, Jesus still would have taken on the Cross just to save you. You matter! We matter! In the eyes of the world we may be seen as insignificant, foolish, or unimportant. But to God we are everything.

As we pray today, let's ponder how much we matter to God and how much we are loved by him.

Know of my prayers for you all!

Fr. Ryan

St. Martha School

Kindergarten at St. Martha School

Our kindergarten classroom is buzzing with joyful learning as we continue growing in both faith and academics. Students are making wonderful progress in reading through our Superkids program, building confidence as they blend sounds and explore new stories. We are also practicing careful number formation in math, helping children develop strong foundational skills. One of the highlights on the horizon is our upcoming 100th Day of School celebration in early February, when our young learners will have the chance to dress up as 100-year-olds, a beloved tradition that brings lots of smiles. Thank you for keeping our students in your prayers as they learn, play, and grow each day.

Faith Formation

It is not too late to register your child for our Faith, Education, and Discipleship (FED) classes for children in grades 1-12. Visit our website at www.st-martha.org for more information. The greatest gift we can give our children is a strong foundation, built on the love of Christ.

We would especially like to invite all high school teens to our Post Confirmation High School group. This group comes together to share in their struggles, successes, and their faith and meets twice a month on Sunday evenings. No registration required, just come as you are. Parents, we work so hard to prepare our children for college, through academics, sports, and social skills. But, the most important thing they need before they go off on their own is a strong belief that God has an amazing plan for them and the faith to follow His guidance.
