WELCOME TO ST. IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

St. Ignatius Loyola Catholic Community, located in Northwest Houston area, welcomes all to join and participate in fulfilling our mission: to be "A People for Others." In the spirit of St. Ignatius, we strive to reveal: The Christ—we find in one another—we celebrate in the liturgy—we share in the Tradition, in the Creed, and in living the Word of God. Empowered by the revealed Christ, we are sent to build community and to witness to the world with a preferential love for the poor.

PASTORAL COLUMN

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Last Sunday, the 13th, I celebrated another year of life, this time an anniversary of my 21st birthday! And as I often do on my birthday, I thought about the blessings that God has given me throughout my life. Needless to say, there are many and I'm grateful that my last 11 years of life have been spent here at St. Ignatius of Loyola. God has placed many wonderful people in my life these years as well as some challenges for further growth. I guess we are never too old to learn. I also look back and, in prayer, ponder if my life has had much meaning to it; you know, the old "It's A Wonderful Life" exercise: would the world be any different if I had not existed? Just within the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston two churches have a corner stone with my name on it as well as the Gonzaga Center here. But corner stones don't always indicate the difference that is really made. Rather, they symbolize the growth in holiness that is made through the use of the buildings. So, if nothing else, I have helped to provide avenues of growth in the ways of God for many people. I also pray for and reflect upon the number of baptisms, first Holy Communions, confessions, marriages I've witnessed, anointings and Last Rites I've administered. Hopefully, that has made the difference in many people's lives as they've grown closer to God. I'm not saying that others wouldn't have administered those sacraments, but hopefully, in some way, my being "Norbert" has aided in the work of the Kingdom and the salvation of God's people. And so, even though life may be difficult at times, I am truly blessed to be an instrument of God's presence and His Kingdom.

Next weekend is our Stewardship weekend in which you are invited to make your life a difference for the piece of the Kingdom of God that we call "St. Ignatius of Loyola Catholic Church". Because so many of us share our time, talent and treasure we are able to affect the lives of many around us as well as beyond through our social ministries and missionary endeavors. Our theme for this year is "Here I am, Lord" or, as they say in sports, "Send me in coach!" It is an opportunity for each of us to do a personal inventory of our gifts and talents and then find ways and opportunities to use them effectively for the building up of the Kingdom of God. The scriptures remind us that every gift or talent we have has been given to us by God for the sake of the Kingdom. Are you using your gifts and talents to promote the way of God's justice, peace, compassion and love? Are you using your talents and gifts to bring others closer to the Lord by your way of life, your words and actions? What gift have you been given that sits in the box, all wrapped up and never used?

Many of our fellow parishioners have witnessed to the use of their gifts. They've even spoken publicly about how the use of their gifts and talents has even changed their lives. Ask any of our ministers, participants in formation studies and organizations and they will speak freely how, while being in ministry, God blesses them abundantly for their service to His Kingdom.

And so, are you ready? Can you speak with your heart and answer, "Here I am, Lord!" to His call? Step forward, take your stance and shout out, "Send me in, Coach!"

With my prayers for God's blessings,

COLUMNA PASTORAL

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

¡El 13 de agosto de la semana pasada celebre otro año de vida, esta vez el aniversario de mi 21 cumpleaños!! Y, como lo hago usualmente en mi cumpleaños, me puse a pensar en todas las bendiciones que Dios me ha dado durante toda mi vida. No es necesario decirles, que hay muchas y estoy muy agradecido por los últimos 11 años de mi vida, los cuales he pasado acá en San Ignacio de Loyola. Dios ha puesto muchas personas magnificas en mi vida estos últimos años, así como algunos desafíos para ayudarme a madurar. A lo mejor nunca es tarde para aprender. También miro hacia atrás y en oración reflexiono en si mi vida ha tenido mucho sentido. Hay un ejercicio viejo, "Es Una Vida Maravillosa" donde uno se pregunta si el mundo sería diferente si yo no hubiese existido. Dentro de lo que es la arquidiócesis de Houston-Galveston hay dos iglesias que tienen placas con mi nombre, así como en el Gonzaga Center aquí en San Ignacio. Pero placas no siempre indican la diferencia que uno hace. Mas bien, simbolizan el crecimiento en santidad que se obtiene por medio de utilizar estos edificios. Así que, por lo menos he podido ayudar a proveer maneras de crecimiento para muchas personas en los caminos hacia Dios. También rezo y reflexiono en el número de bautizos, primeras comuniones, confesiones, matrimonios que he presenciado, unciones y los últimos ritos a personas en peligro de muerte que he administrado. Espero que esto haya hecho una diferencia en la vida de muchas personas al acercarse más a Dios. No quiero decir que otros no hubiesen podido administrar estos sacramentos, pero tal vez, en alguna manera, el yo siendo "Norbert" ha ayudado en el trabajo del Reino y en la salvación de la gente de Dios. Así que, aunque la vida puede ser difícil a veces, estoy realmente bendecido de ser un instrumento de la presencia de Dios y de su Reino.

La próxima semana es nuestra Feria de Corresponsabilidad les estoy invitando a que con sus vidas hagan una diferencia en el Reino del Señor que nosotros llamamos San Ignacio de Loyola. Ya que muchos de nosotros compartimos nuestros talentos, tiempo y tesoro se hace posible que podamos influir en las vidas de muchas personas a nuestro alrededor y mas allá por medio de nuestros ministerios y esfuerzos misioneros. Nuestro tema este año es "Aquí Estoy Señor" o como dicen en los medios deportivos, "Envíame Entrenador" Es nuestra oportunidad

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Fearless faith

The award for the Lady with the Most Chutzpah in the New Testament might be viewed as a toss-up between the Samaritan woman at the well and the Canaanite woman with the sick daughter. Neither is named, but both take on theological debates with Jesus that are pretty gutsy. The Canaanite woman may have the edge for the prize in her verbal sparring with Jesus. He is ministering to his own people, the “house of Israel,” but she insists that even dogs deserve kindness, and Jesus marvels at her faith. Approach God boldly in prayer!

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 56:1, 6-7; Romans 11:13-15, 29-32; Matthew 15:21-28 (118) “Even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters' table.”

MEMORIAL OF PIUS X, POPE

Poor Pope Pius?

Pius X (1836-1914) was both adored and abhorred during his papal reign. He promoted frequent Communion and spirituality for laypeople. But he also condemned many secular ideas that were influencing Catholicism—influencing for the better, many thought—such as trade unions and democratic decision-making. There's no denying Pius X's commitment to poverty, though. He chose to be buried in a simple tomb and wrote, “I was born poor, I have lived poor, and I wish to die poor.” In remembrance, do something today for the poor.

TODAY'S READINGS: Judges 2:11-19; Matthew 19:16-22 (419) “He went away sad, for he had many possessions.”

Tuesday, Aug 22, 2017

MEMORIAL OF THE QUEENSHIP OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

It's good to be queen

In the musical You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown, Lucy is dismayed to learn she can't be queen when she grows up. You have to be born one. “If I can't be a queen,” she says, then “I'll work and work until I'm very rich and then I will buy myself a queendom.” Good grief. Wrong on both counts. Queen saints got there doing unqueenlike things like giving away their wealth. Mary, too, simply lived the incomparable dignity of being a woman, a good and holy Jew, a mother. The only thing her son ever ran from was a crowd that wanted to make him king. Exalting us is someone else's job.

TODAY'S READINGS: Judges 6:11-24a; Matthew 19:23-30 (420) “Truly I tell you, it will be hard for a rich person to enter the kingdom of heaven.”

Wednesday, Aug 23, 2017

MEMORIAL OF ROSE OF LIMA, VIRGIN

Inside and out

Appearances rule in pop culture. The beautiful people occupy the covers of magazines and get all the buzz for their many sightings and multiple marriages. We are likewise bombarded with the externals of clothing and housing and vehicles, as if looking good will somehow increase our internal value. Rose of Lima (1586-1617), by all accounts a beautiful woman, was alarmed by the attention her good looks brought her and chose to disappear from the world altogether, living in a hut as a recluse. Decrease the amount of time you spend on clothes and hair, and add those minutes to your daily prayer routine.

TODAY'S READINGS: Judges 9:6-15; Matthew 20:1-16 (421) “Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last.”

Thursday, Aug 24, 2017

FEAST OF BARTHOLOMEW, APOSTLE

A nearly anonymous apostle

Poor Bartholomew, the mystery apostle. Matthew, Mark, Luke, and the Acts of the Apostles call him Bartholomew, but in John he might be the person named Nathaniel. An interesting lesson for those who think the Bible is clear about everything—even the names of the 12 apostles! But aren't most of us nearly anonymous disciples ourselves? We don't get mentioned in the church bulletin all the time, and not everyone knows who we are or remembers our name at the parish fair. But we are faithful followers of Jesus nonetheless, and we find our reward not in recognition and praise, but in knowing we are quiet helpers of the one who saves the world.

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 21:9b-14; John 1:45-51 (629) “We have found him about whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth.”

Friday, Aug 25, 2017

MEMORIALS OF LOUIS, JOSEPH CALASANZ, PRIEST

A common calling to care

Two men quite unlike each other, both saints, and both revered for similar reasons: their concrete love for the poor. In the mid-13th century, Saint Louis embraced the way of Saint Francis of Assisi and cared for the poor even as king of France. It is said that Louis had 13 guests from among the poor to eat with him daily. Saint Joseph Calasanz in the mid-16th century saw that the need to educate poor children was so important that he gave up a career in church law and politics. You can't read of these lives without thinking of how simple true Christianity is: to care for the poor, the hungry, the forgotten.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ruth 1:1, 3-6, 14b-16, 22; Matthew 22:34-40 (423) “Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?”

Saturday, Aug 26, 2017

MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Mary is our model

You may be familiar with the 16th-century Litany of Loreto, which gathers wonderful images of Mary such as Mystical Rose, Tower of Ivory, Ark of the Covenant, Gate of Heaven, and Morning Star. Saint Francis of Assisi in the 13th century had a similar litany, his “Salutation of the Virgin,” which hails Mary as Christ's Palace, Tabernacle, Home, Robe, Handmaid, and Mother. But perhaps the most striking is Mary as “Virgin made church”: Mary as the model for all Christians to pray, “Let it be done unto me according to God's word” and who is always directing us toward her son, saying again and again, “Do what he tells you.”

TODAY'S READINGS: Ruth 2:1-3, 8-11; 4:13-17; Matthew 23:1-12 (424) “The greatest among you must be your servant.”

LITURGY

Anointing of the Sick- We will celebrate the sacrament of Anointing of the Sick at the 9 a.m. Mass on Wednesday, September 13. Anyone who is seriously ill or undergoing surgery is encouraged to receive the sacrament.

SOUND MINISTERS NEEDED:

We are in need of sound ministers for ALL weekend Masses. No experience is necessary and training is provided! If you feel called to serve in this capacity, please contact Chris Bearer at cbearer@silcc.org for more information. High School age through adults are welcomed to serve.

Week Day Rosary: We invite you for our Daily Rosary, taking place Monday thru Friday after the 9am Mass located at the Lady Chapel.

2017 MASS INTENTIONS

The practice of requesting a Mass to be offered for loved ones, living or deceased, is a beautiful and wonderful part of our Catholic tradition. If you would like to request a Mass intention for someone living or deceased, please visit the Parish Office during business hours of 8:30 am – 8:30 pm. Monday-Thursday; 8:30 am -4:30 p.m. Friday; or 9 am to Noon on Saturday. Phone requests are not allowed. Your Mass intention is listed in the bulletin the Sunday prior to the Mass date.

2018 intentions will be available the middle of September. Watch Bulletin for more information.

PERPETUAL MASSES

The Perpetual Masses are celebrated the first 5:15 pm Saturday Mass of each month. The Perpetual Mass intentions are kept in a special binder and will not be listed in the bulletin or be announced from the Altar. For more information, please call 281-370-3401.

Hospitality Ministry

welcomes parishioners when they come to Mass, helps count the number of people at Mass so we can have enough hosts, assists with the collection and helps with communion lines to say the least. They are assigned a Mass time through MSP (scheduler system) and need to meet Archdiocesan requirements, trainings, renewal sessions and 1 formation event to help foster their understanding of the ministry. Tom Kaetzer and Brian Dooley are the ministry co-chairs and they can be contacted at hospitality@silcc.org.

Worship Coordinator

We are looking for parishioners who would like to help with setting up for our greatest celebration, Mass. For more information, please contact the ministry co-chairs at worshipcor@silcc.org or call the parish Worship office. We are in need of Worship Coordinators for all Mass times, especially the 7:30 am, 1:00 pm Spanish Mass and the Sunday 5:15 pm LifeTeen Mass.

Mentor Info Session
Friday, Sept. 1st at 10 a.m.
Christus Center

Is God calling you to serve as a mentor to an at-risk child this school year? The Kids Hope ministry needs dedicated men and women to make a difference in the life of a child by providing love, support and encouragement. Mentors receive specialized training and resources before being matched with a student. We need prayer partners to pray for every student and their mentor. To learn more about this wonderful ministry, please contact kidshopeusa@silcc.org or attend an info session Friday, September 1st at 10:00 am in the Christus Center. For more details on Kids Hope, visit us at www.silcc.org/kids-hope-usa

Mass Rides Needed: The parish office takes many calls requesting rides to weekday and Sunday Mass. Our Second Family Ministry is attempting to meet these needs as quickly as possible. Their ministry members' schedules or addresses do not always coordinate with a parishioner needing a ride. Consequently, they are reaching out to you to help fill the gap and cover a wider area to serve our parish community. Please prayerfully consider making yourself available, as time permits in your schedule, to offer a parishioner a ride. We have many homebound members who are elderly or ill and yet long to participate in Mass, receive Communion and fellowship with others. If you are available, please email: SecondFamily@silcc.org; or call Theresa Gould, 281-376-6866 or

Dignity of Life Ministry: We're seeking fresh ideas for our Dignity of Life Ministries. Is there a project or initiative you would like to see or lead in our parish. Please share your idea with our Outreach Commission by emailing OutreachCommission@silcc.org

Food Drivers Needed, One Monday per Month:

The Outreach office is seeking drivers to deliver our parish food donations to NAM one Monday per month. Food would be collected from the Narthex at your convenience and delivered to NAM's food pantry at 15555 Kuykendahl Rd. Please contact Joe Lallo for details and to get in the rotation. This is a work of mercy as NAM's food pantry serves many families facing food insecurity. Joe Lallo, (281) 450-1249; joseph.lallo@sbcglobal.net.

Rachael's Vineyard Healing Retreat, Aug. 26-27:

This is a Diocesan Catholic spiritual retreat for those suffering after an abortion, including women, men, grandparents, family, friends, etc. The retreat combines opportunities for prayer, reflection, counseling and sacramental Reconciliation to bring about peace and healing for retreatants. To inquire confidentially, please call Julie Fritsch, ArchGH Office of Pro-Life Activities, jkfritsch@archgh.org; 713-741-8728.

Refugee Family Sponsor Project:

Our parish will be sponsoring one or two refugee families this coming year and seeks team members to lead this effort. Refugee families have been fully screened by the U.S. State Department and have waited years to repatriate in our wonderful nation. You will help coordinate our assistance to them and work with other parish programs and ministries to raise awareness about global conflict and asylees. Catholic Charities Refugee Resettlement Office provides case management services, but needs more help in assisting these newcomers assimilate to life in America. Call Steve Szymczak (713) 647-2469.

In a Crisis?: Our Outreach Office is able to provide limited financial assistance to help meet emergency basic needs like shelter and utilities for parishioners and people in our immediate vicinity. Please call for an appointment 281-290-4606.

Prayer Shawls Available: Blessed prayer shawls are available for your sick or elderly loved ones in the parish office. Please sign the prayer book so our ministry can pray for your intentions. Yarn donations welcome.

MARRIAGE: Preparation for the Sacrament of Marriage begins a minimum of six months prior to marriage. The first step at St. Ignatius begins with participation in the Marriage Orientation Session. Register for the Orientation Session by calling the Coordinator of Liturgy and Sacraments by the 15th of the month. Please do NOT set any dates prior to beginning the preparation process.

STEWARDSHIP WEEKEND

August 26th – 27th

Come Play for GOD'S TEAM!

“Here I am, Lord” - “Put me in, Coach!”

The Rule Book is our “Bible” and the “Ministry Directory” our Play Book.

It time to suit up and PLAYBALL!

“Every strike brings us closer to a Homerun!”

Next Weekend we will have our Parish Stewardship Ministry Fair in the Christus Center, after all the Masses.

Many of our parish ministry members will be available to answer questions on the work they do. Take time to meet with these Stewards and select which ministries best suit your talents individually and for your entire family. In preparation for this commitment process, we are asked to prayerfully reflect on the gifts that have been entrusted to us. A good Steward sees the evidence of God in all things. We must trust in God's vision for our life; Stewardship is part of that journey. If we model the life of Jesus, we are taking steps towards a Stewardship Way of Life.

There will be Grand Slam days & days the bases are loaded in the bottom of the ninth with 2 strikes & 2 outs!

“Never let the fear of striking out keep you from playing the game

LAY WITNESS WALL OF STEWARDS

“... I was content to go to Mass every Sunday and felt that I was living the good, Catholic life. But there came a time when something began stirring in my heart, a yearning for something more in my spiritual life. It was after a passionate sermon by Fr. Norbert on Stewardship Weekend that propelled me next door to the Christus Center after Mass. I was soon to learn that there were several ministries that I was interested in, such as EMHC and the Knights of Columbus. I also realized that with a parish of this size, we must step up to meet the needs of our community.” To me, the more we can give to our church, the more will be given to us in God's grace. These last few years have seen a tremendous growth in my faith.”... Rich Rogers

Stewardship "Ministry" Salute!

We thank all stewards, who assist with the preparation of the church for liturgical celebrations, as Worship Coordinators.

Continúa... para hacer un inventario personal de nuestros regalos/dones y talentos y buscar maneras de utilizarlos efectivamente para edificar El Reino de Dios. Las escrituras nos recuerdan que cada regalo o talento nos han sido dados por Dios para el bienestar del Reino de Dios. ¿Están utilizando sus regalos y talentos para promover la justicia de Dios, la paz, compasión y Amor? ¿Están utilizando sus talentos y regalos para traer a los demás más cerca a Dios por la manera en que tu vives tu vida, con tus palabras y acciones? ¿Que regalo te ha dado Dios que mantienes aun en su cajita, todo envuelto bonito, pero sin usar?

Muchos de nuestros párrocos han dado testigo del uso de sus regalos. Han platicado públicamente de como el haber utilizado sus talentos y regalos ha cambiado sus vidas. Pregúntenle a cualquiera de nuestros participantes en los estudios de formación y organizaciones, y ellos les hablarán de cómo mientras ayudan en sus ministerios, Dios los bendice abundantemente por el servicio a su Reino.

Entonces les pregunto, ¿están listos? ¿Pueden hablar con el corazón abierto y contestar, “Aquí estoy Señor!” a Su llamado. Den un paso adelante, con postura recta y griten, “Envíame Entrenador”.

En mis oraciones para las bendiciones de Dios,

A. Norbert

EVENTOS

Fin de Semana de la Corresponsabilidad 2017

“Aquí Estoy Señor” “¡Quiero jugar, Entrenador!”

La temporada empieza el 26 y 27 de Agosto

Jugando para el equipo de Dios!

Corresponsabilidad, el mejor plan para la vida. No podemos darnos por vencidos, “Cada strike nos acerca más a una carrera”, debemos confiar en la visión de Dios para nuestra vida y ser parte del plan de Dios. ¡Mantén tus ojos en la pelota! Hemos recibido poder a través del Espíritu Santo y hemos recibido dones, dones de tiempo, talento y dinero para compartir y utilizar y así cumplir la misión del Señor. Pongámonos el uniforme; nuestro libro de reglamentos es la Biblia y nuestro libro de jugadas es nuestro Directorio de Ministerios.

El Espíritu nos muestra la forma para compartir estos dones por medio de:

Participación activa en los Ministerios de la Liturgia

Dando una mano a través de alguno de los Ministerios de Ayuda

Estudiando o enseñando en algún Ministerio de Formación

Valorando la diversión y la convivencia a través de los Ministerios de la Vida Comunitaria.

La corresponsabilidad es parte de esa jornada, pero si imitamos la vida de Jesús, estamos dando pasos hacia la Corresponsabilidad como un estilo de vida. Habrás días de Grand Slams y días en que las bases estarán llenas en la última entrada, con 2 strikes y 2 outs.

“¡Nunca permitas que el miedo de ser ponchado te impida jugar!” Es hora de discernir los dones que nos han sido regalados y renovar nuestro compromiso de serle fiel a Él, mientras hacemos de la Corresponsabilidad, el mejor plan de vida.

¡Vengan a jugar béisbol!

LECTURA

Domingo, Aug 20, 2017

VIGÉSIMO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Fe intrépida

El premio a la Dama con la Mayor Audacia (Chutzpah) del Nuevo Testamento podría considerarse como un cara o cruz entre la samaritana en el pozo y la cananea con la hija enferma. Ninguna es mencionada, pero ambas encaran debates teológicos con Jesús que son bastante audaces. La cananea puede tener una ventaja para el premio con su enfrentamiento verbal con Jesús. Él está en ministerio con su propio pueblo, la “casa de Israel,” pero ella insiste en que hasta los perros merecen compasión, y Jesús se admira ante su fe. ¡Acércate a Dios con audacia en la oración!

LECTURAS PARA HOY: Isaías 56:1, 6-7; Romanos 11:13-15, 29-32; Mateo 15:21-28 (118) “Aun los perros comen las migajas que caen de la mesa de sus amos.”

LITURGIA

Unción de los Enfermos

El Sacramento de la Unción de los Enfermos será celebrado el día

Miércoles, 13 de Septiembre

durante la misa de las 9 en la mañana.

El sacramento es para personas que están padeciendo una enfermedad grave o para aquellos que van a tener una operación seria. Las personas ancianas que padecen algún malestar por su edad avanzada también pueden recibirlo.
