SPECIAL COLLECTION

April 22: Home Missions Collection

Support the Catholic Home Missions Appeal today! Home mission dioceses are those dioceses in the United States and its territories and former territories that cannot provide basic pastoral services to Catholics without outside help.

Right now, over 40 percent of dioceses in the United States are considered home missions because they are unable to fund essential pastoral work needed in their communities. Your support funds programs—such as religious education, seminary formation, and lay ministry training—to build vibrant faith communities right here in the United States.

Please be generous. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions

PASTORAL COLUMN

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In last weekend's Pastor Column, I announced that a group of parishioners that have roots in and around New Orleans as well as other parts of the state of Louisiana approached me about placing a statue of Our Lady of Prompt Succor (in Lady Chapel of our church. I agreed to others join them in financing the cost of Louisiana to participate in the purchasing Succor, Our Lady is the protector against state of Louisiana and the Archdiocese of intercession of Our Lady of Prompt the Virgin. The first occurred in 1812 devastating the Vieux Carré (the French destruction as the winds blew the terrible evacuate the convent, however at that Prompt Succor on a window seat and lost unless you hasten to our aid!" flames away from the convent allowing occurred in 1815. General Andrew Jackson's 6,000 American troops faced 15,000 British soldiers and on the eve of the Battle of New Orleans, New Orleans residents joined the Ursuline sisters at their convent to pray throughout the night, imploring the help of Our Lady of Prompt Succor. On the morning of January 8, during a Mass on the altar of Our Lady of Prompt Succor word arrived that the British had been defeated. An annual Mass of Thanksgiving has been held January 8 ever since. The people of New Orleans and Louisiana pray for her intercession in all parishes during hurricane season. If you are from Louisiana (or beyond) and would like to contribute to the purchase of the statue, please contact me for further details. (We have even had some non-parishioners donate because they believe in the power of Our Lady of Prompt Succor.) The image will be an original hand carved statue with gold leaf for our parish.

Under the title of Our Lady of Prompt hurricanes and other disasters. She is the Patroness of the New Orleans. Many miracles have been attributed to the Succor. Two historical events are especially associated with during the eruption of a great fire in New Orleans Quarter). The Ursuline convent was facing imminent fire toward the Plaza de Armas. An order was given to moment, a nun placed a small statue of Our Lady of began to pray aloud, "Our Lady of Prompt Succor, we are Immediately, the wind shifted direction, blowing the for the fire to be extinguished. The second major miracle

Congratulations to our children who received Holy Communion for the first-time last weekend. It's always a special event to know that our children are growing closer to the Lord. It is also a reminder to all of us of the innocence that is required to come before the Lord: hands outstretched, acknowledging His presence with our "Amen" and knowing that we become what we receive, the Body of Christ. As pastor I should no longer be surprised by the families that do not bring their children to Mass each week. But, with First Holy Communion I see a desire in the children that breaks through my doubt and, I admit, suspicion about them returning. Parents, there is no greater gift you can give your child than Jesus Christ, truly present, Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity, in the Eucharist. No amount of sports activities for an 8-year-old with a 1% chance of an athletic scholarship will equate the gift of Jesus Christ in Holy Communion. What father among you, if his son asks for bread, would give him a stone, or if he asks for a fish, would give him a snake instead of the fish? (Lk. 11:11) May we all support our children and their families in any way we can so that the grace of their First Communion will be sustained. A special thanks to all the catechists and formators that assisted in the parents in catechizing the children.

After this weekend, there are only five more weekends until we are back in the church!

With my prayers for a joyous Easter,

Fr. Markert

COLUMNA PASTORAL

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

En la Columna Pastoral de la semana pasada les notifique que un grupo de feligreses con raíces en Nueva Orleans y sus alrededores, así como otras ciudades del estado de Luisiana me han preguntado sobre la posibilidad de colocar una estatua de Nuestra Señora del Pronto Socorro (en Frances: Notre Dame du Prompt Secours) en la Capilla de Nuestra Señora en nuestra iglesia. Yo lo aprobé y ellos ahora nos están pidiendo si otros quisieran unirse a ellos en el financiamiento del costo de la estatua. Bajo el título de Nuestra Señora del Pronto Socorro, ella es la protectora contra los huracanes y otros desastres. Ella es Patrona de Luisiana y de la arquidiócesis de Nueva Orleans. Muchos milagros han sido atribuidos a la intercesión de la Santísima Virgen María bajo el título de Nuestra Señora del Pronto Socorro. Dos eventos están especialmente asociados con la Virgen.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER; GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY

Your turn to serve

Wise. Brave. Humble. Seekers of the common good above personal ambition. The world can't get enough good leaders, and the best way to acquire the leaders we need in every aspect of modern life is for all of us to strive to be leaders right where we are. On this 55th World Day of Prayer for Vocations, the church particularly seeks leaders in ordained ministry, religious life, societies of apostolic life, secular institutes of service, and for the missions. Take a chance. Ask the question. How can you best put your gifts at the disposal of God's purposes?

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 4:8-12; 1 John 3:1-2; John 10:11-18 (50). "A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep."

MEMORIAL OF GEORGE, MARTYR

Ready to don your armor?

Old maps would indicate the end of the known world with the phrase, "There be dragons here." It was a way of saying, "It's probably not a good idea to go there." In a legend of Saint George, he did not shy away from doing battle with a dragon. In the only story of a canonized saint fighting such a creature, he not only killed this menacing animal that an army could not slay but also saved a princess, preached to the grateful people, distributed his reward money to the poor, and went on his way. Not a bad day's work. What dragons of the unknown—of ignorance and the fear that accompanies it—can you slay? What good word or gift can you pass along as you go your way?

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 11:1-18; John 10:1-10 (279). "Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing."

Tuesday, Apr 24, 2018

MEMORIAL OF FIDELIS OF SIGMARINGEN, PRIEST, MARTYR

Born again to the same job

Lawyers are traditionally the butt of jokes for their ability to take any side of an argument. But many put their skills to use in the cause of justice. Saint Fidelis (d. 1622), nicknamed the Poor Man's Lawyer, decided to speak out only for the sake of the gospel. He joined the Capuchins and persuaded many through his preaching, his kindness as a confessor, and his devotion to the sick. Consider how your words and actions today have the power to testify for or against the gospel you believe.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 11:19-26; John 10:22-30 (280). "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me."

Wednesday, Apr 25, 2018

FEAST OF MARK, EVANGELIST

Worth another read

Written about 40 years after Christ's Resurrection, the Gospel of Mark is our closest and freshest gospel on the events of Jesus' life. Like any great reporter, the evangelist does not insinuate himself into the story, which leaves us uncertain as to who he was. He could be the John Mark who was a cousin of Barnabas and associate of Paul, the Mark who is a later assistant to Peter, or both. One thing we do know is that he heeded Jesus' commission to proclaim the Good News to all the world. Generations of believers have heard or read Mark's story. Even if you've read it a hundred times, Mark's gospel is worth another read.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Peter 5:5b-14; Mark 16:15-20 (555). "Go into all the world and proclaim the Good News!"

EASTER WEEKDAY

Wash up for supper

In the ancient world, when sandals were common footwear, foot-washing was an act of hospitality offered by a host when guests arrived at a house. Typically guests washed their own feet or a servant washed them, but a host wishing to show great respect for guests might do the washing him- or herself. Jesus sends us a clear signal by washing his disciples' feet at the Last Supper. If we are willing to serve others with the same spirit of humility and hospitality, there will be a place at the eternal banquet for us as well.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 13:13-25; John 13:16-20 (282). "When Jesus had washed the disciples' feet, he said to them: 'Amen, amen, I say to you, no slave is greater than his master.'"

EASTER WEEKDAY

Find your own path

Modern gurus abound on talk shows and blogs, full of advice about how you should live your life. Some of their suggestions may be helpful; the best ones are borrowed from folk wisdom, good psychology, or even scripture, once or twice removed. Jesus has already issued the invitation to illuminate your path by following his way. Saint Anthony Claret (1807-70) underscored this invitation with a telling directive: "Choose now what you would wish to have chosen at life's end." At every fork in the road, keep this suggestion in mind. TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 13:26-33; John 14:1-6 (283). "Jesus said to him, 'I am the way and the truth and the life.'"

Saturday, Apr 28, 2018

MEMORIAL OF PETER CHANEL, PRIEST, MARTYR

Let God work in God's ways

Saint Peter Chanel was martyred in 1841 at the age of 38 on the island of Futuna in Oceania. He anticipated such an end to his life, hoping that it would bring about the conversion of the island's inhabitants to Christianity. It did. And while some may have initially converted due to fear of reprisal by the French for killing their missionary, this also shows how God works in mysterious ways, ways most of us cannot expect. Peter expected God to work his wonders. How often do you let go and let God take control? Indulge in some great expectations today.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 13:44-52; John 14:7-14 (284). "Whatever you ask in my name, I will do."

Stewardship... A Way of Life

Every faculty you have, your power of thinking or of moving your limbs from moment to moment, is given you by God.

If you devoted every moment of your whole life exclusively to His service, you could not give Him anything that was not in a sense His own already.

~C. S. Lewis, Mere Christianity

Stewardship?

What does stewardship look like in our lives today?

“Unfortunately many Christians associate the idea of stewardship with budgets and capital campaigns.

But it is much more expansive it is where faith, work and economics intersect.

As Christians today, we need to embrace this larger view of stewardship, it goes beyond church budgets; it connects everything we do with what God is doing in the world.

We need to be faithful stewards of all God has given us within the opportunities presented through his providence to glorify him, serve the common good and further his Kingdom. Stewardship expresses our obedience regarding the administration of everything God has placed under our control, which is all encompassing. Stewardship is the commitment of one's self and possessions to God's service, recognizing that we do not have the right of control over our property or ourselves.” ~TIFWE.org

Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!

The IRA rollover allows donors 70½ or older to transfer up to $100,000 directly from their IRA on an annual basis

COLUMNA PASTORAL

Continúa... El primero ocurrió en el año 1812 cuando se desato un terrible incendio en Nueva Orleans que devastó el Vieux Carré (barrio francés). El convento de las Ursulinas estaba en peligro eminente de la destrucción debido a los vientos fuertes que estaban soplando hacia La Plaza de Armas. La orden fue dada de evacuar el convento, pero en ese momento, La hermana San Antonio rápidamente sacó una estatua de Nuestra Señora del Pronto Socorro y la colocó en una ventana de cara al incendio. recibieron su Santa Comunión por primera vez especial al ver a los niños crecer en fe y acercarse más a nuestro Señor. Es también un recordatorio para todos nosotros de la inocencia que se requiere llegar frente al Señor; con manos extendidas y reconociendo Su presencia con nuestro “Amen” y sabiendo que nos convertimos en lo que recibimos, el Cuerpo de Cristo. Como Pastor yo no me debería de sorprender de las familias que no traen sus hijos a Misa todas las semanas. Pero con la Primera Comunión yo miro un deseo en los niños que rompe mis dudas y admito, que me entra sospecha si regresaran. Padres, no hay regalo más grande, más importante que ustedes puedan dar a sus hijos; Jesucristo, verdaderamente presente, en Cuerpo, Sangre, Espíritu y Divinidad en la Eucaristía. No hay cantidad de actividades deportivas para un niño de 8 años con una posibilidad del 1% para una beca deportiva, que se compare con el regalo de Jesucristo en la Sagrada Comunión. ¿Qué padre hay entre vosotros que, si su hijo le pide un pez, en lugar de un pez le da una culebra? (Lucas 11:11). Espero que todos ofrezcamos nuestro apoyo en cualquier manera posible a nuestros niños y sus familias para que la gracia de su Primera Comunión los sustente. Unas gracias muy especiales a todos los catequistas y formadores que asistieron a los padres en la catequización de los niños.

¡Ya solo quedan cinco fines de semana para que estemos de nuevo en la iglesia!

Con mis oraciones por una Pascua llena de júbilo,

F. Norbert

CUARTO DOMINGO DE PASCUA; DOMINGO DEL BUEN PASTOR

Tu turno para servir

Sabios. Valientes. Humildes. Buscando el bien común por encima de la ambición personal. El mundo necesita buenos líderes, y la mejor manera de obtener los líderes que necesitamos en todos los aspectos de la vida moderna es que todos nos esforcemos para ser líderes exactamente en el lugar en que estamos. En este 55° Día Mundial de Oración por las Vocaciones, la iglesia particularmente busca líderes en el ministerio ordenado, en la vida religiosa, en sociedades de vida apostólica, institutos laicos de servicio, y para las misiones. Arriégate. Haz la pregunta. ¿Cómo puedes poner tus dones a disposición de los objetivos de Dios?

LECTURAS PARA HOY: Hechos 4:8-12; 1 Juan 3:1-2; Juan 10:11-18 (50). “Un buen pastor ofrece su vida por sus ovejas.”
