WELCOME TO ST. IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

St. Ignatius Loyola Catholic Community, located in Northwest Houston area, welcomes all to join and participate in fulfilling our mission: to be "A People for Others." In the spirit of St. Ignatius, we strive to reveal: The Christ—we find in one another—we celebrate in the liturgy—we share in the Tradition, in the Creed, and in living the Word of God. Empowered by the revealed Christ, we are sent to build community and to witness to the world with a preferential love for the poor.

PASTOR'S COLUMN

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Happy birthday to you, O Church of God! The joy of this day culminates the Easter season as we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Church. Gathered in prayer in the same upper room where the Last Supper took place, the apostles, the Blessed Mother and over a hundred more experienced the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Filled with the Spirit, they went out and began to preach the Gospel kerygma, Jesus died and rose from the dead. They no longer were afraid to be witnesses of the crucifixion and resurrection. They were so bold in their preaching and empowered by the Holy Spirit to speak in languages so all could hear, they were accused of being drunk! Since that event, the Church has grown through the centuries. The Church continues to grow as, just in our Archdiocese, over 2000 came to the Catholic Faith at this year's Easter Vigil. This weekend the bishops will celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation for another group (approximately 2000) of adults as they complete their initiation in the Catholic Church. Yes, the Spirit is at work and calling us all into greater relationship with Christ. We are empowered as were our ancestors of old to boldly proclaim the Gospel and the teachings of the Church. I think of St. Francis of Assisi who is attributed to have said, "Preach always and sometimes, use words when necessary." Being filled with the Holy Spirit we are to live the Gospel message. The Holy Spirit continues to inspire and lead the Church in this day. Through the teachings of the magisterium, the Holy Spirit has and continues to move among us calling us forward.

The Church is going through a lot in these days; a purging of sorts. Yet, as we experience and live through this time of trial we must be confident that the Spirit is leading us through it all. The Lord promised that the gates of hell will not prevail against the Church. He promised to send an Advocate, the Paraclete, to guide the Church. His promises are not empty words. However, as we fulfill His promises, we must be people of prayer, people of promise, people of the Church. Our words and actions must be in tune with those of the Good Shepherd (My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me. Jn 10:27). Friends, that all means that we must be people of prayer! That outpouring of the Spirit happened while people were gathered in prayer, not while they were at work, in the market, or even studying. They were at prayer! Our greatest prayer is the celebration of the Divine Liturgy – the Eucharistic Liturgy. We cannot be people of the Holy Spirit at work in the world spreading the teachings by our lives if we are not people of the Eucharist! The power of the Eucharist strengthens us to fight the battles against the Church. Often, we think of "Church" as the institution; but as we heard in the devastation of Harvey – WE ARE THE CHURCH and a battle against the Church is a battle against us! An attack against the Church is a battle against us! Let us be like those 120 gathered on Pentecost: a people in prayer, a people empowered by the Holy Spirit to carry on the traditions of our beloved Church, the Body of Christ.

With all talk of the newly ordained priests for the archdiocese, I was surprised on the morning of May 31st when, by email, I was informed that a newly ordained priest would be coming to St. Ignatius of Loyola. The message concluded with "please inform Fr. Khoi that he will be moving to a new assignment." This is a first in all of my years as a priest – an email memo of an assignment! As I write this we do not know where Fr. Khoi is headed; however, it is highly possible that Fr. Khoi will be appointed as an administrator of a parish, the final step in becoming a pastor. I want to thank you for joining me in Fr. Khoi's continued formation as a priest/pastor. Our community is well known for receiving, accepting and forming a newly ordained priest. I know that Fr. Khoi will be successful wherever the Spirit places him. As a farewell to Fr. Khoi, I invite you to save the date of Saturday, June 22nd. Fr. Khoi is scheduled for the 5:15 pm Vigil Mass and so we are planning a farewell event for him following Mass. Prepare your best "Fr. Khoi stories" and let's show him one more time our love as we send him into a new assignment.

We will receive the newly ordained Fr. Justin Cormie. Fr. Justin grew up in Lake Charles, Louisiana before moving to Houston in 2006. After being away from the Church for some time, God called him back home to the Catholic Church in 2007. While working for BP, employed at the international energy giant's west Houston headquarters, he said he returned to the Catholic Church after being away since childhood. Instantly falling in love with the Church, and he found himself going to Mass every day and frequently visiting Jesus in his parish's Adoration chapel. I am certain that Fr. Justin will be welcomed with joy. Let us also keep him in our prayers as he begins a new life as priest.

With my prayers for a joyous Pentecost,

Fr. Mark

SOLEMNITY OF PENTECOST

Forgiveness isn't just a nice idea

When we sit in church, forgiveness sounds like a religious ideal. We may even view forgiveness as a soft and sentimental notion: a be-nice-to-bullies ideology for Turn-the-Other-Cheek Week. But philosophers from Plato to modern thinkers like Hannah Arendt have suggested that forgiveness is also a vital and necessary political action. Forgiveness is the only action that moves history forward, releasing us all from the consequences of the past, what we did or failed to do. We can remain here, moored to old injuries and injustices. Or we can forgive, and liberate the future.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 2:1-11; 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13 or Romans 8:8-17; John 20:19-23 or 14:15-16, 23b-26 (63). "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, MOTHER OF THE CHURCH

Mother by any other name

To Argentinians, she's Our Lady of Lujan. To Cubans, she's Our Lady of Charity. She's Our Lady of the Assumption in India and Our Lady of High Grace in the Dominican Republic. In the Americas, we turn to our beloved patron as Our Lady of Guadalupe and the Immaculate Conception. Entire countries and countless religious orders—think Maryknollers and Marianists and the Servants of Mary—rely on her favor and protection. While her names are many and her patronage broad, we turn to Mary for her most ancient title of all: Theotokos, "God-bearer." How will you follow Mary's example to bring God into the world today?

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 3:9-15, 20 or Acts 1:12-14; John 19:25-34 (572A). "He said to the disciple, 'Behold, your mother.'"

Tuesday, Jun 11, 2019

MEMORIAL OF BARNABAS, APOSTLE

Let good come out of conflict

Barnabas isn't one of the 12 apostles and not mentioned in the gospels, but he's a big star in Acts of the Apostles—he was best friends with Saint Paul on their evangelical journeys through Asia Minor. Their friendship, however, fell into disagreement and they eventually parted company. Church relationships are not always a tight fit. Differences can block close friendship. At the same time, diversity in the community is the energy of creativity. How might good come from a conflicted relationship in your community?

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 11:21b-26; 13:1-3; Matthew 5:13-16 (580/360). "Your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father."

Wednesday, Jun 12, 2019

When stone meets Spirit

Which spiritual guide governs your life: the Ten Commandments or the Holy Spirit? It may sound like an odd choice, but many Christians seem confused about the source of guidance central to followers of Jesus. Saint Paul uses the shocking phrase "ministry of death" to describe the Commandments, contrasting them to the "ministry of the Spirit." He simply means that binding yourself to the law can only condemn you in the end, whereas surrender to the Spirit's authority can save you. Granted, it's easier to erect stone tablets, but let's enthrone the Spirit in our hearts.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 3:4-11; Matthew 5:17-19 (361). "Now if the ministry of death, carved in letters on stone, was so glorious . . . how much more will the ministry of the Spirit?"

Thursday, Jun 13, 2019

MEMORIAL OF ANTHONY OF PADUA, PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Grace through the side door

Today we celebrate the Memorial of Saint Anthony of Padua, a wildly popular preacher in the early 1200s, known as the "hammer of heretics" because of his persuasive, knowledgeable oratory, aided by a loudspeaker of a voice. In fact his gift for preaching was discovered by accident when he was plugged in to give a last-minute homily. The accidental discovery of his gifts shows that God's grace can enter the world through the side door. Take a moment in honor of Saint Anthony to consider the ways God's grace has appeared unexpectedly in your own life.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 3:15—4:1,3-6; Matthew 5:20-26 (362). "For God who said, Let light shine out of darkness, has shone in our hearts."

Friday, Jun 14, 2019

FLAG DAY

Raise the banner of faith

According to the official U.S. Flag Code, "The flag represents a living country and is itself a living thing." The Flag Code describes the flag as not merely a piece of cloth but something that embodies a nation and its ideals of independence, liberty, hope, and unity of purpose. It also stands for the sacrifices that have been made for those ideals. While the flag is not a religious symbol, it's like one in that it represents something greater than itself. The symbols of faith do the same but express something larger than even love of country, and that is the reality of God. Something to think about when you fly the flag today.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 4:7-15; Matthew 5:27-32 (363). "We hold this treasure in earthen vessels, that the surpassing power may be of God and not from us."

Saturday, Jun 15, 2019

To tell the truth

When a child looks at me and insists: "I swear I am telling the truth," I start to wonder if she is. In adult conversations, when someone feels compelled to make the same statement, I wonder why such an oath should be necessary. Telling the truth should be a given. The reality, however, is that lives of truth and integrity require courage—courage that for people of faith is rooted in grace. Ask for that grace today to speak truth with kindness and to listen to the truth of others.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 5:14-21; Matthew 5:33-37 (364). "Do not take a false oath . . . let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes' and your 'No' mean 'No.'"

DIOCESAN SERVICES FUND

Just as we are one in the body of Christ, we must remember that we are one with other parishes in our Archdiocese. Once a year, each of us is asked to make a commitment to support the work of our programs and ministries that provide services that no one parish could provide on its own. Please experience the joy of giving and join us as we work to continue God's work of spirituality, formation and education by contributing to the Diocesan Service Fund. Help us attain our parish goal of $300,000.

Perpetual Masses for Living & Deceased Offered:

Enroll your loved ones in our Perpetual Masses which are celebrated at 5:15 p.m. on the first Saturday of every month. These special intentions are kept in a binder and are not listed in the bulletin or individually announced during the Mass. For more information, please call 281-370-3401.

COMMUNITY LIFE

Joyful Stewardship

"The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit." (ACTS 13:52)

The disciples heard Our Lord's call and were able to spread the Gospel message with strength and vitality. We, too, can experience that same joy if we make room for the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts. When we use our gifts by living in Stewardship, He fills us with supernatural joy. A joy that others notice and are attracted to. camdendiocese.org

COLUMNA DEL PÁRROCO

Queridos hermanos:

¡Feliz cumpleaños a ti, oh Iglesia de Dios! Con la alegría de este día culmina el tiempo de Pascua y celebramos el descenso del Espíritu Santo sobre la Iglesia. Reunidos en oración en la misma sala superior donde tuvo lugar la Última Cena, los apóstoles, la Santísima Madre y más de cien otros experimentaron la venida del Espíritu Santo. Llenos del Espíritu, salieron y comenzaron a predicar el kerygma del Evangelio, Jesús murió y resucitó de entre los muertos. Ya no tenían miedo de haber sido testigos de la crucifixión y la resurrección. ¡Fueron tan audaces en su predicación y con el poder del Espíritu Santo hablaron en diferentes idiomas para que todos pudieran escuchar, y fueron acusados de estar ebrios! Desde ese evento, la Iglesia ha crecido a través de los siglos. La Iglesia sigue creciendo tanto que, en nuestra Arquidiócesis, más de 2000 personas llegaron a la Fe Católica durante la Vigilia Pascual de este año. Este fin de semana los obispos celebrarán el Sacramento de la Confirmación para otro grupo (aproximadamente 2000) de adultos a medida que completen su iniciación en la Iglesia Católica. Sí, el Espíritu está trabajando y moviéndose entre nosotros y nos llama a todos a tener una mejor relación con Cristo. Estamos facultados como lo fueron nuestros ancestros de antaño para proclamar audazmente el Evangelio y las enseñanzas de la Iglesia. Se viene a la mente San Francisco de Asís a quien se le atribuye haber dicho: "Predica el Evangelio en todo momento y si es necesario usa las palabras". Estando llenos del Espíritu Santo debemos vivir el mensaje del Evangelio. El Espíritu Santo continúa inspirando y guiando a la Iglesia en este día. A través de las enseñanzas del magisterio (o el Magisterium Ecclesiae, en latín), el Espíritu Santo se ha movido y continúa moviéndose entre nosotros, guiándonos hacia adelante.

La iglesia está pasando por mucho en estos días; algo purgante. Sin embargo, a medida que experimentamos y vivimos este tiempo de prueba, debemos confiar en que el Espíritu nos está guiando a través de todo esto. El Señor prometió que las puertas del infierno no prevalecerían contra la Iglesia. Prometió enviar a un Defensor, el Paráclito, para guiar a la Iglesia. Sus promesas no son palabras vacías. Sin embargo, a medida que cumplimos Sus promesas, debemos ser personas de oración, personas de promesa, personas de la Iglesia. Nuestras palabras y acciones deben estar en sintonía con las del Buen Pastor (Mis ovejas escuchan Mi voz, y yo las conozco, y me siguen. Jn 10:27). ¡Amigos, esto significa que debemos ser personas de oración! Ese derramamiento del Espíritu sucedió mientras las personas se reunían en oración, no mientras trabajaban, andaban por el mercado, ni siquiera estudiaban. ¡Estaban en oración! Nuestra mayor oración es la celebración de la Divina Liturgia, la Liturgia Eucarística. ¡No podemos ser personas del Espíritu Santo que trabajan en el mundo difundiendo las enseñanzas de nuestras vidas si no somos personas de la Eucaristía! El poder de la Eucaristía nos fortalece para luchar las batallas que ocurren contra la Iglesia. A menudo, pensamos en la "Iglesia" como la institución; pero como experimentamos en la devastación de Harvey, ¡NOSOTROS SOMOS LA IGLESIA y una batalla contra la Iglesia es una batalla contra nosotros! ¡Un ataque contra la Iglesia es un ataque contra nosotros! Seamos como aquellos 120 reunidos en Pentecostés: un pueblo en oración, un pueblo capacitado por el Espíritu Santo para llevar a cabo las tradiciones de nuestra amada Iglesia, el Cuerpo de Cristo. Con todas las pláticas sobre los sacerdotes recién ordenados en la arquidiócesis, me sorprendió la mañana del 31 de mayo cuando, por correo electrónico, se me informó que un sacerdote recién ordenado vendría a San Ignacio de Loyola. El mensaje concluyó con "por favor informe al P. Khoi que el tendrá una nueva asignación". Esta es la primera vez en todos mis años como sacerdote: ¡que una asignación sacerdotal ha sido enviada por medio de un correo electrónico! Mientras escribo esto no sabemos dónde el Padre Khoi será asignado; sin embargo, es muy posible que el P. Khoi será nombrado administrador de una parroquia, el último paso para convertirse en pastor. Quiero agradecerles por acompañarme en la continuación de la formación del Padre Khoi como sacerdote / pastor. Nuestra comunidad es bien conocida por recibir, aceptar y formar a los sacerdotes recién ordenados. Yo sé que el Padre Khoi tendrá éxito donde el Espíritu lo ponga. Como despedida del P. Khoi, les invito a guardar la fecha del sábado, 22 de junio. El P. Khoi está programado para la Misa de Vigilia a las 5:15 p.m., por lo que estamos planeando un evento para él después de esta Misa. Preparen sus mejores historias del padre Khoi para compartir. Mostrémosle una vez más nuestro amor mientras lo enviamos en una nueva jornada.

Le daremos la bienvenida al recién ordenado Padre Justin Cormie quien creció en Lake Charles, Luisiana, antes de mudarse a Houston en 2006. Después de estar alejado de la Iglesia por algún tiempo, Dios lo llamó a su hogar en la Iglesia Católica en 2007. Mientras trabajaba para BP, empleado por el gigante de la energía internacional y trabajando en la casa matriz al oeste de Houston, dice que regresó a la Iglesia Católica después de estar lejos desde la infancia. Al instante se enamoró de la Iglesia y se encontraba yendo a misa todos los días y visitando a Jesús con frecuencia en la capilla de Adoración de su parroquia. Estoy seguro de que el P. Justin será bienvenido con alegría. Mantengámoslo también en nuestras oraciones mientras comienza una nueva vida como sacerdote.

Con mis oraciones por una feliz celebración de la Fiesta de Pentecostés,

EVENTOS

Es hora de volver a estrenar los zapatitos de bailar! Zumba™ ha regresado a St. Ignatius! EVENTOS

Los invitamos a rezar por los sacerdotes todos los domingos de 12:15—12:45 p.m. en el santísimo de nuestra parroquia St. Ignatius de Loyola

“NO OLVIDEMOS COMPARTIR LO QUE TENEMOS”: FONDO DE SERVICIOS DIOCESANOS 2019:

Justo como todos somos en el Cuerpo de Cristo, así hemos de recordar que estamos Unidos con las demás parroquias de la arquidiócesis. Una vez al año, cada uno de nosotros es invitado al compromiso de apoyar el trabajo de nuestros programas y ministerios que sirven allí donde ninguna parroquia puede hacerlo por sí sola. Por favor contribuya con el Fondo de Servicios Diocesanos (DSF), experimente la alegría de compartir, únase, y así continuaremos con el trabajo de Dios en espiritualidad, formación y educación. Ayúdenos a alcanzar nuestra meta parroquial de $300,000.

Necesitamos Ministros Litúrgicos para la Misa en Español a la 1:00pm

Ministros de Música, Lectores, Monaguillos, Ministros de la Hospitalidad, Coordinadores de Misa/Sacristán, y Ministros Extraordinarios de la Sagrada Comunión. Por favor considere donde Dios le está llamando para servir. Inscripciones estarán en la entrada de la iglesia después de las misas. Por Favor llama a 281-370-3401.

Ofrecimiento de Ofrendas para la Eucaristía

La procesión de las ofrendas es una expresión poderosa de la participación de todos los feligreses en la Eucaristía. Con estas ofrendas nos ofrecemos para ser transformados por Cristo a través de la Eucaristía. Para registrarse para llevar las ofrendas durante la Misa, visite silcc.org/gift-presenters.

SOLEMNIDAD DE PENTECOSTÉS

El perdón no es solo una buena idea

Cuando estamos sentados en la iglesia, el perdón suena como un ideal religioso. Hasta podemos considerar al perdón como una noción sentimental: una ideología de ser-bueno-con-los-agresores para la Semana de Ofrecer-la-Otra-Mejilla. Pero los filósofos desde Platón hasta los pensadores modernos como Hannah Arendt han sugerido que el perdón es también una acción política vital y necesaria. Perdonar es la única acción que hace que la historia siga adelante, liberándonos a todos de las consecuencias del pasado, de lo que hicimos o dejamos de hacer. Podemos quedarnos aquí, anclados a viejas heridas e injusticias. O podemos perdonar, y liberar el futuro.

LECTURAS PARA HOY: Hechos 2:1-11; 1 Corintios 12:3b-7, 12-13 o Romanos 8:8-17; Juan 20:19-23 o Juan 14:15-16, 23b-26 (63). “A quienes les perdonen sus pecados, les serán perdonados, y a quienes no se los perdonen, no les serán perdonados.”
