SPECIAL COLLECTION/ COLECCION ESPECIAL

October 21st: Propagation of Faith Collection:

Be a Mission Voice! With Catholic of the world, we are called to offer our prayers and our generous financial support, through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, to continue the mission of Jesus. Today we “speak up” through our prayers and personal sacrifices for our brothers and sisters in the Missions. As little as $25, help support a catechist for a month in Latin America.

PASTOR'S COLUMN

Dear Friends,

Thank you all who helped to make last weekend's events such a success. We rolled out the new mission statement for the parish at all our Masses. For those who may have been away (or couldn't see the video), the presentation has been posted on our parish website's home page: www.silcc.org. I hope that you will take a look at the video; you may even see yourself in some of the pictures. I want to thank the members of the Pastoral Council who formed the subcommittee to oversee the development and deployment of our new mission statement: Shaun Roberts, Katherine Wicke, Katie Ayers, Kyle Cunningham and Mary Ann Schmitt. Thank you all for your work and dedication over these last 9 months to bring this project to fruition. I also want to thank all the members of the parish community who took time to participate in the formation of this new mission statement. By stopping at the tables after Mass and answering simple questions, you helped to shape and form this new vision regarding our call to be disciples of the Lord. Four words now stand out in the mission statement – WELCOME, CELEBRATE, FAMILY, SERVE. These words are summations of all you have suggested. Thus, our new mission statement is *St. Ignatius of Loyola Catholic Community WELCOMES all to prayerfully CELEBRATE the mysteries of the Liturgy, build FAMILY through fellowship, and SERVE Christ as a people for others. May it guide us for years to come!

I also want to thank the committee that worked so diligently to bring Dr. Tom Kersting to our parish last Sunday evening. This event was the first event to kick off a year of the family. Working with Christ the Good Shepherd Parish, we hope to have many more such events that bring us together to build the bonds of the family in the home and in the parish community. Please allow me to thank the members of the committee and parish staff members who made this event a reality: Celina Cerone, Susan Heim, Beth Hanlon, Anne-Marie Miller, and, Cathy Latawiec, Linda Krehmeier, Alyssa Vijil and Ivana Meshell from Christ the Good Shepherd. Having read Dr. Kersting's book was just the tip of the iceberg for me. There is so much more that we, as adults, need to be aware of and follow through with in order to protect those entrusted to our care. Please watch the bulletin and Flocknotes for more upcoming events.

As the number of Spanish Speakers in our community continues to grow, so do our ministries and programs. We have a special retreat coming up for those who speak Spanish beginning the evening of Friday, September 27th through Monday the 30th. This retreat is an Encuentro con Cristo and will be held on our parish campus. The retreatants will return home each night to sleep in their own beds and then continue the retreat the following morning here at St. Ignatius. If you or someone you know speaks Spanish, you may want to recommend this retreat to them. More information can be found in the bulletin today. Also, our parish has been asked to host a Spanish speaking Formación Para El Ministerio Cristiano. This program is similar to the English, Formation Towards Christian Ministry. The program will continue throughout the semester beginning with the teachings of the Holy Bible. I hope that many of our Spanish Speakers will take this opportunity to enrich themselves through these opportunities to grow in the faith and become disciple leaders in the community.

One of the Year of the Family activities that has sort of "snuck under the radar" is dedicating each month to a particular saint. The team wanted us, as a parish, to focus on holiness and our own path to holiness. The saint announced for September is Saints Louise and Zélie Martin, the parents of St. Thérèse of Lisieux. Pope Francis presided at Mass on October 18, 2015 and included the Rite of Canonization for the parents of St. Thérèse. In his homily, the Holy Father said, "The holy spouses, Louis Martin and Marie-Azélie Guérin, practiced Christian service in the family, creating day by day an environment of faith and love which nurtured the vocations of their daughters, among whom was Saint Thérèse of the Child Jesus." They are the first-ever married couple with children to be canonized in the same ceremony." Louis Martin was a watchmaker by trade and his wife, Zélie was one of Alençon's more talented lace makers. Their feast day is July 12th and continue to serve the Church as the patron saints of illness, marriage, parenting and widowers. Sts. Louis and Zélie, pray for us. To learn more about St. Thérèse, you may want to go to FORMED.ORG and watch either a documentary or movie on the life of St. Thérèse. To know her, will lead you closer to her parents.

Please keep me in your prayers. I leave for an 8 day silent Ignatian Retreat this Wednesday, the 18th. With my continued prayers for true discipleship,

Fr. Mark Robert

THIS WEEK'S READING

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We're all in the story

A foolish, reckless kid. His heartbroken parent. An indignant older sibling. We find ourselves at various points of this family triangle over the years. First we're the brazen, half-hatched adult, trying everything at once just because we can. Later we may exchange roles more than once between the grieving elder—hoping against hope for a loved one causing all the trouble—and the aggrieved one, who thinks any show of compassion is outrageous and unearned. No matter who we are right now, the table is set, and the party is starting. Can we afford not to be there?

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 32:7-11, 13-14; 1 Timothy 1:12-17; Luke 15:1-32 (132). “This son of mine was dead, and has come to life again.”

Monday, Sep 16, 2019

MEMORIAL OF CORNELIUS, POPE, AND CYPRIAN, BISHOP, MARTYRS

Measure for measure

Saint Cornelius was elected pope in 251 during the persecutions of the Emperor Decius. Saint Cyprian of Carthage was a close friend. They and other church leaders faced a difficult question—should those who denied their faith to avoid martyrdom during the persecution be forgiven and received back into the church community? Under no circumstances, some argued. But Cornelius and Cyprian, both of whom would eventually face the martyrdom others fled, believed that if repentant, apostates, as they were called, should be welcomed back to the faith community. Show mercy to others so that mercy may be shown to you.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Timothy 2:1-8; Luke 7:1-10 (443). “Lord, do not trouble yourself, for I am not worthy to have you enter under my roof.”

Tuesday, Sep 17, 2019

MEMORIAL OF ROBERT BELLARMINE, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

As the world turns

The widely respected and deeply learned Robert Bellarmine, who holds the rarified title of a doctor of the church, ended up on the erroneous side of a major controversy, that which surrounded Copernicus' “heliocentric theory” that the earth revolved around the sun instead of the sun around the earth. He delivered a sanction to his friend Galileo in 1616 that eventually resulted in the great scientist being silenced and held under house arrest. Don't confuse religious faith with scientific fact. God works through nature, and has nothing to hide, so don't be afraid of new scientific information that challenges long-held misconceptions. God can handle the truth—God created it!

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Timothy 3:1-13; Luke 7:11-17 (444). “Beloved, this saying is trustworthy: whoever aspires to the office of bishop desires a noble task. Therefore, a bishop must be irreproachable.”

Wednesday, Sep 18, 2019

Drop the criticism

One of the worst faults of folks in general is the tendency to regularly find fault in others. There are plenty of reasons we do it: It makes us feel better about our own limitations, and it's easy to dismiss someone who challenges us to be better if we criticize them. But Jesus wants us to build up, not tear down—build up the kingdom of God, that is. And that project starts inside ourselves—not by beating ourselves up for what we did wrong, but by presenting our wrongs honestly to God and turning that same spirit of understanding outward to others.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Timothy 3:14-16; Luke 7:31-35 (445). “Wisdom is vindicated by all her children.”

Thursday, Sep 19, 2019

Reach out to the untouchables

Are we aware of the ways in which our society creates and perpetuates divisions and privileges based on gender, color, orientation, ability, income, religion? Jesus broke through such barriers, especially when interacting with women, but religious leaders preferred to see his actions as audacious and rebellious, while Jesus was instead modeling reciprocity and inclusivity. Wherever social constructs divide people, we are called to bridge the gap.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Timothy 4:12-16; Luke 7:36-50 (446). “If this man were a prophet, he would know who and what sort of woman this is who is touching him.”

Friday, Sep 20, 2019

MEMORIAL OF ANDREW KIM TAE-GŎN, PRIEST, AND PAUL CHŎNG HA-SANG AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

Take nothing for granted

Never underestimate the power of books. Books smuggled out of China brought Christianity to Korea. The new community of faith was not welcomed by authorities, but that did not stop faithful Korean laymen and women from living their Catholic faith. Courageous and persistent, these 18th- and 19th-century lay leaders were persecuted, tortured, and beheaded. The church today honors the first Korean Catholic priest, Saint Andrew Kim Tae-gŏn, one of the many lay leaders, Saint Paul Chŏng Ha-sang, and their martyred companions. Take time today to pick up the Holy Book and consider what folks have sacrificed to spread the Good News within.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Timothy 6:2c-12; Luke 8:1-3 (447). “Jesus journeyed . . . proclaiming the Good News of the kingdom of God.”

Saturday, Sep 21, 2019

FEAST OF MATTHEW, APOSTLE, EVANGELIST

Who do you see?

We are always sizing up other people, making judgements about them. This is normal. But sometimes, we end up putting people in boxes—and leaving them there. Not so with Jesus. Jesus saw through boxes, categories, and stereotypes. He saw the person. Look at Matthew. Lumped into the distasteful category of “tax collectors and sinners,” Matthew wasn't exactly considered a shining example of discipleship by the community. Yet, Jesus saw more than that. He saw Matthew and was open to him—and not just to “minister to” or “convert” Matthew. Jesus drew close, inviting Matthew into his home to become a close companion and vital part of proclaiming the Good News. What happens when you truly see people?

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 4:1-7, 11-13; Matthew 9:9-13 (643). “Jesus said to him, 'Follow me.' And Matthew got up and followed him.”

DIOCESAN SERVICES FUND

Just as we are one in the body of Christ, we must remember that we are one with other parishes in our Archdiocese. Once a year, each of us is asked to make a commitment to support the work of our programs and ministries that provide services that no one parish could provide on its own. Please experience the joy of giving and join us as we work to continue God's work of spirituality, formation and education by contributing to the Diocesan Service Fund. Help us attain our parish goal of $300,000.

KIDS HOPE USA®

St. Ignatius of Loyola

Can you provide love and attention to an at-risk child?

We are looking for parishioners to mentor a student one hour per week at nearby Kaiser Elementary School. These young students face significant challenges, beyond their control, at home and school. One committed, supportive adult can make an enormous difference by being a listening friend and offering the love and attention they deserve. We are also looking for prayer partners to pray for students and mentors. Contact: kidshopeusa@silcc.org

FORMATION

EARLY CHILDHOOD

Do you need a night out for a few hours? Children ages 12 months—9 years can come for an evening of fun, crafts, games and story time from 6:30 p.m.—10:30 p.m. A light dinner will be served. Registration is open for our October Parent's Night Out which will be held on Friday, October 18th. Registration is required. Registration closes September 20th. Contact Kathy, kschaefer@silcc.org or Donna, dquiambao@silcc.org for more information.

The Early Childhood Center is in need of a couple of iPads. If you have one that you are no longer in need of or have an older one that you have replaced, we could use them for our communication and attendance app. for the preschool. Please contact Kathy Schaefer.

Our Catechetical Framework for Lifelong Faith Formation (CFLFF) for our children and youth catechize them to know, love, and serve the Lord. If they attend yearly, they will grow toward a mature faith. However, we know parents are the ones who have the most influence on whether their children remain Catholic when they reach adulthood. To help families know their faith and better able to pass on to their children, Family Catechesis and Events will be offered throughout the year.

In our busy culture, we understand that families have less and less time; parents have not had faith formation since they were children; they lack confidence; and are intimidated by textbooks. However, Faith is a gift. It is a belief that parents want to engage in and pass on their faith to their children, but they need the tools. We are here to help. Families can have fun learning about their faith together. Why not take advantage of that?

In Pope Francis encyclical, Joy of Love (Amoris Laetitia), he states: "Family Catechesis is of great assistance as an effective method in training young parents to be aware of their mission as evangelizers of their own family." #287

PARISH WIDE EVENT HIGHLIGHT

Dear Parishioners, Friends, and Neighbors,

The 2019 St. Ignatius Fall Festival and Craft Show will be held on Saturday, October 5th and Sunday, October 6th.

This year, the great prizes available will be as follows:

Grand Prize:

4 Southwest Airlines Gift Cards (valued at $2,000) and $1,000 AMEX gift card

Second Prize:

BBQ Grill Package: Large Mult-Purpose Grill and YETI Cooler (valued at $1,000)

(5) Third Prizes:

$200 gift cards to either Kroger or HEB

The raffle drawings will take place on Sunday, October 6th at 5pm by the stage.

In addition to the raffle drawings on Sunday, there will be 5 random drawings throughout the weekend for $50 AMEX gift cards.

You are encouraged to sell the tickets (to family, friends, neighbors, etc.) or purchase the tickets for a chance to win. The tickets are $5 each or $50 for a book of 10 tickets. The raffle is a very important part of the Fall Festival. The net proceeds collected from the raffle ticket sales help offset the yearly operating costs incurred by our church community and allows the parish the ability to offer a variety of programs.

Note: You must be at least 18 years of age to purchase tickets and win prizes. This year, we are prevented from mailing out the raffle tickets because of federal postal laws. We will be handing out the tickets after all masses during the weekends of September 14/15 and 21/22 in the Narthex. You are encouraged to take a book of tickets and more will be available as needed. Raffle tickets will also be available at the church office at any time during normal working hours.

Please return the completed tickets and money (cash or check) by either 1.) Placing them in the collection basket any weekend prior to the Fall Festival, 2.) Mailing them to the church office, 3.) Dropping them off at the church office, or 4.) Bringing the tickets and money to the raffle table during the weekend of the Festival. (Please clearly print your contact information on the ticket stub(s).)

For check payments, checks should be payable to St. Ignatius Fall Festival and Craft Show.

If you would like additional tickets for friends, family, or coworkers, please contact the church office. Questions about the raffle or Festival can be submitted via email to festival@silcc.org or you can visit our website at www.silcc.org/fallfestival.

Thank You for your support.

COLUMNA DEL PÁRROCO

Queridos amigos,

Gracias a todos los que ayudaron a que los eventos del fin de semana pasado fueran tan exitosos. Lanzamos en todas nuestras misas la nueva declaración de misión para nuestra parroquia. Para aquellos que quizás estaban ausentes (o no pudieron ver el video), la presentación se publicó en la página de inicio de nuestro sitio web de la parroquia: www.silcc.org. Espero que le echen un vistazo al video; incluso pueden verse en algunas de las imágenes. Quiero agradecer a los miembros del Consejo Pastoral que formaron el subcomité para supervisar el desarrollo y despliegue de nuestra nueva declaración de misión: Shaun Roberts, Katherine Wicke, Katie Ayers, Kyle Cunningham y Mary Ann Schmitt. Gracias a todos por su trabajo y dedicación durante estos últimos 9 meses para llevar a buen término este proyecto. También quiero agradecer a todos los miembros de la comunidad parroquial que tomaron el tiempo para participar en la formación de esta nueva declaración de misión. Al haberse detenido en las mesas después de la Misa y responder preguntas simples, ayudaron a dar forma y formar esta nueva visión con respecto a nuestro llamado a ser discípulos del Señor. Cuatro palabras se destacan ahora en la declaración de la misión - BIENVENIDO, CELEBRAR, FAMILIA, SERVIR. Estas palabras son resúmenes de todo lo que han sugerido. Por lo tanto, nuestra nueva declaración de misión es La Comunidad Católica de San Ignacio de Loyola le da la Bienvenida a todos para que piadosamente Celebren los misterios de la liturgia, construyan una Familia a través de la convivencia y Sirvan a Cristo como personas para los demás. ¡Que nos guíe en los años venideros!

También quiero agradecer al comité que trabajó tan diligentemente para traer al Dr. Tom Kersting a nuestra parroquia el domingo por la noche. Este evento fue el primer evento que inició el año de la familia. Trabajando con la parroquia de Cristo el Buen Pastor, esperamos tener muchos más eventos de este tipo que nos unan para construir los lazos de la familia en el hogar y en la comunidad parroquial. Permítanme agradecer a los miembros del comité y al personal de la parroquia que hicieron realidad este evento: Celina Cerone, Susan Heim, Beth Hanlon, Anne-Marie Miller y Cathy Latawicz, Linda Krehmeier, Alyssa Vijil e Ivana Meshell de Cristo el Buen Pastor. Haber leído el libro del Dr. Kersting fue solo la "punta del iceberg" para mí. Hay mucho más que nosotros, como adultos, debemos conocer y seguir para proteger a los encargados a nuestro cuidado. Miren el boletín y los Flocknotes para más eventos en el futuro.

A medida que aumenta el número de hispanohablantes/hispanoparlantes en nuestra comunidad, también lo hacen nuestros ministerios y programas. Tenemos un retiro especial para aquellos que hablan español a partir de la tarde del viernes 27 de septiembre hasta el lunes 30. Este retiro es un Encuentro con Cristo y se llevará a cabo en nuestro campus parroquial. Los retirados regresarán a casa cada noche para dormir en sus propias camas y luego continuarán el retiro a la mañana siguiente aquí en San Ignacio. Si usted o alguien que conoce habla español, puede recomendarles este retiro. Se puede encontrar más información en el boletín de hoy. Además, a nuestra parroquia se le ha pedido que organice una Formación Para El Ministerio Cristiano de habla hispana. Este programa es similar al de inglés, Formación Hacia el Ministerio Cristiano. El programa continuará durante todo el semestre comenzando con las enseñanzas de la Santa Biblia. Espero que muchos de nuestros hispanohablantes aprovechen esta oportunidad para enriquecerse a través de estas oportunidades para crecer en la fe y convertirse en líderes discípulos en la comunidad.

Una de las actividades del Año de la Familia que se nos ha pasado por alto es la dedicación cada mes a un santo en particular. El equipo quiere que, como parroquia, nos concentremos en la santidad y en nuestro propio camino hacia la santidad. El santo(a) anunciado para septiembre son los santos Louise y Zelig Martin, los padres de Santa Teresa de Lisieux. El Papa Francisco presidió la misa el 18 de octubre de 2015 e incluyó el Rito de canonización para los padres de Santa Teresa. En su homilía, el Santo Padre dijo: "Los santos cónyuges, Louis Martin y Marie-Azélie Guérin, practicaban el servicio cristiano en la familia, creando día a día un ambiente de fe y amor que alimentaba las vocaciones de sus hijas, entre las cuales se encontraba Santa Teresa del Niño Jesús. "Son la primera pareja casada con hijos en ser canonizados en la misma ceremonia". Louis Martin era un relojero de oficio y su esposa, Zelig fue una de las más talentosas encajeras de Alençon. Su día de fiesta es el 12 de julio y continúan sirviendo a la Iglesia como los santos patronos de las enfermedades, el matrimonio, la crianza de los hijos y los viudos. Que los Santos Louis y Zelig, rueguen por nosotros. Para obtener más información sobre Santa Teresa, puede ir a FORMED.ORG y mira un documental o una película sobre la vida de Santa Teresa. Conocerla les acercará a sus padres.

Por favor, inclúyanme y manténganme en sus oraciones. Me voy a un Retiro Ignaciano silencioso de 8 días este miércoles 18.

Con mis oraciones continuas por un verdadero discipulado,

Fr. Markert

VIGÉSIMO CUARTO

DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Estamos todos en la historia

Un chico insensato, temerario. Su padre desconsolado. Un hermano mayor indignado. Nos encontramos en diversos puntos de este triángulo familiar a lo largo de los años.

Primero somos el adulto descarado, crecido a medias, intentando todo al mismo tiempo solo porque podemos. Más tarde podemos intercambiar los roles más de una vez entre el mayor afligido—esperando contra la esperanza por un ser querido que causa todo el problema—y el agraviado, que piensa que cualquier muestra de compasión es indignante e inmerecida. Sin importar quiénes somos ahora, la mesa está puesta y la fiesta está empezando. ¿Podemos perder esta oportunidad?

LECTURAS PARA HOY: Éxodo 32:7-11, 13-14; 1 Timoteo 1:12-17; Lucas 15:1-32 (132). “Mi hijo estaba muerto, y ha regresado a la vida.”
