PASTOR'S COLUMN

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Imagine my surprise when I opened the DSF update from the Development Office of the chancery! I literally shouted out, "Glory to God in the highest!" I couldn't believe my eyes. Just days before I received an update that indicated we would owe over $20,000 to fulfill our Diocesan Services Fund assessment. Those funds would have had to come from our "offertory collection" or from the overage of our Fall Festival. Now, the new numbers sent followed the Solemnity of the Epiphany, and we not only met the goal, but went $15,000 over it! Half of that $15,000 comes back to the parish tax free for our own use. I felt like the Magi brought us a gift of gold! I want to thank all of you who contributed to the 2019 DSF and with a grateful heart thank those of you who stepped forward at the 11th hour for us to meet and surpass our goal of $300,000. Last weekend many people asked how my Christmas went and I responded that it was filled with surprises! Again, thank you for your support for the DSF because it is a sign of your belief in the ministry of the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. Your sacrificial offerings through DSF takes the Gospel message far and wide in ways we don't even know.

With the Christmas Season nicely put away it's time to re-enter into the Season of Ordinary Time. For those who are striving hard to live out their Catholic faith, they know that life as a Catholic is not easy. It takes a lot of work, energy and schedule shuffling to make the practices of our faith a part of our normal routine. Yet, isn't that the commitment of our Baptism? To live as a child of God with eyes and hearts fixed on the Kingdom of Heaven rather than those of the world! Do you reject sin so as to live in the freedom of God's children? Do you reject the glamour of evil, and refuse to be mastered by sin? Do you reject Satan, the father of sin and the prince of darkness? Wow! When you break those promises down and ponder their complexity, you begin to see how the glamour of evil begins to pull us away from our priorities as Catholics. It's so easy to cut the Lord short because, well, He understands. But does He? Does He understand that being the first out of the parking lot is a priority of our love relationship with Him? Does He understand that we would rather sleep in because we worked all week and are tired rather than coming to worship Him as the God who loves us beyond measure? Does He understand when……?

The New Year is filled with all sorts of possibilities, dreams and hopes. We use this opportunity to make resolutions on how to improve ourselves. Perhaps if we resolve to work on our spiritual lives, the rest will follow. God's love is abounding, so much so, that like Jesus He has called each of us His "beloved". Like Jesus, He has instilled His Holy Spirit within us so that we can continue the mission of Jesus in our time and place. Like Jesus He calls us to a radical way of living in charity so that the hopes of dreams of others will be brought to fruition by our sacrificial living. Yes, it may not be easy to live as a Catholic, but I can think of no other way to express and share in the love that God has given – His Son, Jesus Christ.

I would like to use this beginning of Ordinary Time to review what the Eucharistic Liturgy means for us. This opportunity to reexamine our ritual and its meaning should lead us into a deeper realization of the meaning of Eucharist in our daily lives and in the life of the Church. Over the weeks ahead I will use my Pastor's Column to assist us in a better understanding of the Eucharistic Liturgy and its meaning for us. We will have the opportunity to study the words used, the gestures used, the symbols used and the meaning of a greater reality to which they all point. I hope that you will be engaged in this opportunity to better our worship together and come to a better understanding so that full, active, conscious participation may indeed be the hallmark of our worship together. One way to begin is to simply review the various parts of the church structure. The building is a symbol of the greater reality that God is present among His people. God has taken up dwelling in our midst and thus the church building signifies that we are not alone. We make our journey with others and we form a family of believers. Thus, the church building is the House of the Church (the people of God) as well as the House of God since the Lord dwells here Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity, in the Blessed Sacrament. We should enter the building with intent and respect since we know that we are entering into the presence of God. As you enter and take your seat, what is foremost on your mind? Do you ever think that the Lord has been waiting for you?

Don't forget to check out the choir tour this summer. Join with the members of our choir as they sing in the various cathedrals of Salzburg, Vienna, Milan, and other wonderful places. Then, head to the Passion Play in Oberammergau and meet the family that made the statues in our church! See our website for more info.

With prayers for the new year!

Fr. Norbert

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Come together

Relationships go awry when people stop talking. That's as true in marriage as it is among Christians in general. Lutheran theologian George Lindbeck was a delegate observer at the Second Vatican Council. It prompted him to make a life's work of the Lutheran-Catholic conversation. He viewed doctrines as "rules of grammar" rather than unscalable walls. He saw justice, peace, and the environment best served when Christians work together. The fundamental disease of our times, Lindbeck advised, is the weakening of natural allies. As Saint Paul might say: Let's not be partisans, let's be church!

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 49:3, 5-6; 1 Corinthians 1:1-3; John 1:29-34 (64). "To you . . . with all those everywhere who call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Monday, Jan 20, 2020

MEMORIAL OF FABIAN, POPE, MARTYR; SEBASTIAN, MARTYR

Ultimate discipleship

This day is filled with martyrs. Fabian (c. 200-250) was elected pope when a white dove landed on his head during the voting, a clear sign to the electors. Christianity was still illegal, so he died in prison 14 years later. Sebastian (c. 256-288) died in Rome sometime after he was shot full of arrows. Martin Luther King, Jr. (1929-68), commemorated today, was gunned down by an assassin in Memphis, Tennessee. Despite being harassed by the government, Dr. King won the 1964 Nobel Peace Prize and was posthumously awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom. Three men who shed their blood for what they believed inspire us to be activists for what we believe.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 15:16-23; Mark 2:18-22 (311). "To the upright I will show the saving power of God."

Tuesday, Jan 21, 2020

MEMORIAL OF AGNES, VIRGIN, MARTYR

Take a stand

Often throughout the church year we remember our martyrs, those women and men who were killed because of their faith in Jesus the Christ. These are sometimes difficult days to "celebrate" because on the one hand, we are grateful for and inspired by their faith. But on the other hand, the suffering they endured is horrific—torture, rape, mutilation, burning, and ultimately death. The martyrdom of Saint Agnes, for example, came because of her faith in Christ but was expressed by sexualizing and abusing her. When we celebrate our martyrs, we might also take a stand against torture and murder today. This indeed is a worthy form of reverence for the brave women and men, our martyrs and saints. What saint compels you to action on behalf of justice?

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 16:1-13; Mark 2:23-28 (312). "The sabbath was made for man, not man for the sabbath."

Wednesday, Jan 22, 2020

DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE LEGAL PROTECTION OF UNBORN CHILDREN

Lend a lifesaving hand

The Sisters of Life are a women's religious order founded in 2004 in New York. More than 70 sisters each year provide aid and support to more than 1,000 pregnant women at their convents in Toronto and New York City. At one of their convents, women can stay as long as six months prior to giving birth and up to a year afterward. What are you and your parish doing to support pregnant women and mothers who need help establishing their families and creating a secure future for their children?

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 17:32-33, 37, 40-51; Mark 3:1-6 (313). "Looking around at them with anger and grieved at their hardness of heart . . ."

Thursday, Jan 23, 2020

MEMORIAL OF MARIANNE COPE, VIRGIN

God's aloha at work

Rarely is a saint's last name so apt. When more than 50 religious communities in Canada and the United States refused a request to work with lepers, Sister Marianne Cope, a Sister of St. Francis of Syracuse, responded, "I am hungry for the work." She and her sisters who served on Molokai, Hawaii were called "God's aloha," or God's love. She assured a dying Saint Damien that his work would continue, then brought beauty and artistry to challenging conditions. Encouraging laughter and gardens, she said, "We must make best use of the fleeting moments. They will not return." Do one thing to bring God's love and beauty to your living space, or someone else's, today.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 18:6-9; 19:1-7; Mark 3:7-12 (314). "Hearing all that he was doing, they came to him in great numbers."

Friday, Jan 24, 2020

MEMORIAL OF FRANCIS DE SALES, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Include God in the conversation

Francis de Sales (1567-1622) was a bishop and doctor of the church who encouraged the importance of lay spirituality. At the time, people thought that only priests and sisters were called to holiness. But Francis took the church back to its roots, encouraging laypeople to pray and find God in their daily lives. As a noted spiritual director he suggested: "Retire at various times into the solitude of your own heart, even while outwardly engaged in discussion or transactions with others, and talk to God."

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 24:3-21; Mark 3:13-19 (315). "He named twelve as his companions whom he would send to preach the Good News."

Saturday, Jan 25, 2020

FEAST OF THE CONVERSION OF SAINT PAUL THE APOSTLE

Be a force for unity

Once he was blinded by light on the road to Damascus, Paul began to see with a clarity that amazed everyone who knew of him. As he preached the Good News, Paul began to speak persuasively against requiring Gentiles to follow Jewish law, while at the same time allowing Jewish Christians to keep their lifelong ritual practices. In the midst of diversity, Paul worked to unite the followers of Jesus. It is fitting that the feast of his conversion has been chosen as the final day of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. Today your work is to do something to bring unity in the midst of diversity.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 22:3-16 or Acts 9:1-22; Mark 16:15-18 (519). "This man is the instrument I have chosen

Can you provide love and attention to an at-risk child?

We are looking for parishioners for mentoring students one-on-one, one hour per week at nearby Kaiser Elementary School. These young students face significant challenges, beyond their control, at home and school. One committed, supportive adult can make an enormous difference by being a listening friend and offering the love and attention they deserve. We are also looking for prayer partners to pray for students and mentors.

SAINTS OF THE MONTH

St. Gianna & Pietro Molla

The canonization of Saint Gianna is the first of its kind. Many mothers have been beatified for their heroic virtues but they entered religious life after becoming widowed. In St. Gianna's case, the very condition of her being a spouse and mother is being exalted and highlighted. St. Gianna is the first canonized woman physician and professional who was also a working mom.

Gianna Beretta Molla was beatified in 1994 and canonized 10 years later. Her Feast Day is April 28.

COLUMNA DEL PÁRROCO

Queridos Hermanos,

¡ Imagínense mi sorpresa cuando abrí la actualización DSF de la Oficina de Desarrollo de la cancillería! Literalmente grité: "¡Gloria a Dios en las alturas!" No podía creer lo que veía. Solo unos días antes había recibido notificación que indicaba que debíamos más de $ 20,000 para cumplir con nuestra promesa al Fondo de Servicios Diocesanos. Esos fondos habrían tenido que ser remunerados de nuestras " ofrendas semanales" o del exceso de nuestro Festival de Otoño. Con los nuevos números enviados siguieron la Solemnidad de la Epifanía, y no solo cumplimos nuestra meta, ¡sino que la superamos por $ 15,000! La mitad de esos $ 15,000 regresan a la parroquia libre de impuestos para nuestro propio uso. ¡Sentí que los Reyes Magos nos trajeron un regalo de oro! Quiero agradecer a todos los que contribuyeron al DSF 2019 y con un corazón agradecido a aquellos de ustedes que dieron un paso adelante en la última hora para que pudiéramos cumplir y superar nuestra meta de $ 300,000. El fin de semana pasado, muchas personas me preguntaron cómo pasé mi Navidad y les respondí que estaba llena de sorpresas. Nuevamente, gracias por su apoyo al DSF porque es una señal de su creencia en el ministerio de la Arquidiócesis de Galveston-Houston. Sus ofrendas de sacrificio a través de DSF llevan el mensaje del Evangelio por todas partes en formas que ni siquiera sabemos.

Con la temporada de Navidad bien guardada, es hora de volver a entrar en la temporada del tiempo ordinario. Aquellos que se esfuerzan por vivir su fe católica, saben que la vida como católicos no es fácil. Se necesita mucho trabajo, energía y cambios de horarios para que las prácticas de nuestra fe formen parte de nuestra rutina normal. Sin embargo, ¿no es ese el compromiso de nuestro bautismo? ¡Vivir como un hijo de Dios con ojos y corazones fijos en el Reino de los Cielos en lugar de los del mundo! ¿Rechazas el pecado para vivir en la libertad de los hijos de Dios? ¿Rechazas el atractivo/encanto del mal y te niegas a ser dominado por el pecado? ¿Rechazas a Satanás, el padre del pecado y el príncipe de las tinieblas? ¡Increible! Cuando rompes esas promesas y reflexionas sobre su complejidad, comienzas a ver cómo el atractivo del mal comienza a alejarnos de nuestras prioridades como católicos. Es muy fácil interrumpir al Señor porque, bueno, Él lo entiende. ¿Pero lo hace? ¿Entiende que ser el primero en salir del estacionamiento es una prioridad de nuestra relación de amor con Él? ¿Entiende que preferiríamos dormir porque trabajamos toda la semana y estamos cansados en lugar de venir a adorarlo como el Dios que nos ama sin medida? ¿Él entiende cuándo .....?

El Año Nuevo está lleno de todo tipo de posibilidades, sueños y esperanzas. Aprovechamos esta oportunidad para hacer resoluciones sobre cómo mejorarnos. Quizás si decidimos trabajar en nuestras vidas espirituales, el resto seguirá. Abunda el amor de Dios, tanto que, como Jesús, nos ha llamado a cada uno de nosotros "amados". Al igual que Jesús, Él ha infundido Su Espíritu Santo dentro de nosotros para que podamos continuar la misión de Jesús en nuestro tiempo y lugar. Al igual que Jesús, Él nos hace un llamado a una forma radical de vivir en la caridad para que las esperanzas y los sueños de los demás se hagan realidad con nuestra vida sacrificial. Sí, puede que no sea fácil vivir como Católico, pero no se me ocurre otra forma de expresar y compartir el amor que Dios ha dado: su Hijo, Jesucristo.

Me gustaría utilizar este comienzo del Tiempo Ordinario para revisar lo que la Liturgia Eucarística significa para nosotros. Esta oportunidad de reexaminar nuestro ritual y su significado debería llevarnos a una comprensión más profunda del significado de la Eucaristía en nuestra vida diaria y en la vida de la Iglesia. En las próximas semanas utilizaré la columna del pastor para ayudarnos a comprender mejor la liturgia eucarística y su significado para nosotros. Tendremos la oportunidad de estudiar las palabras utilizadas, los gestos utilizados, los símbolos utilizados y el significado de una realidad mayor a la que todos apuntan. Espero que participen en esta oportunidad para mejorar nuestra adoración juntos y llegar a un mejor entendimiento para que la participación plena, activa y consciente pueda ser el sello distintivo de nuestra adoración juntos. Una forma de comenzar es simplemente revisar las diversas partes de la estructura de la iglesia. El edificio es un símbolo de la gran realidad de que Dios está presente entre su pueblo. Dios ha tomado vivienda en medio de nosotros y, por lo tanto, el edificio de la iglesia significa que no estamos solos. Hacemos nuestro viaje con otros y formamos una familia de creyentes. Por lo tanto, el edificio de la iglesia es la Casa de la Iglesia (el pueblo de Dios), así como la Casa de Dios, ya que el Señor habita aquí Cuerpo, Sangre, Alma y Divinidad, en el Santísimo Sacramento. Debemos entrar al edificio con intención y respeto, ya que sabemos que estamos entrando en la presencia de Dios. Al entrar y tomar asiento, ¿qué es lo más importante en tu mente? ¿Alguna vez piensas que el Señor te ha estado esperando?

No te olvides de investigar sobre la gira de nuestro coro este verano. Únanse a los miembros de nuestro coro mientras cantan en las diversas catedrales de Salzburgo, Viena, Milán y otros lugares maravillosos. ¡Luego, diríjanse a la Obra “La Pasión de Cristo” en Oberammergau y conozcan a la familia que hizo las estatuas en nuestra iglesia!
Con mis oraciones por el Año Nuevo!

Fr. Norbert

LECTURA

Domingo, Jan 19, 2020
SEGUNDO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO
Reunirnos

Las relaciones se estropean cuando la gente deja de hablar. Eso es tan cierto en el matrimonio como entre los Cristianos en general. El teólogo Luterano George Lindbeck fue observador delegado en el Segundo Concilio Vaticano. Eso lo llevó a hacer de la conversación entre Luteranos y Católicos un trabajo de por vida. Él consideraba que las doctrinas eran "reglas gramaticales" en vez de muros imposibles de escalar. Pensaba que la justicia, la paz, y el medio ambiente son mejor cuidados cuando los Cristianos trabajan juntos. La enfermedad primordial de nuestra época, decía Lindbeck, es que los aliados naturales se debiliten. Como diría San Pablo: ¡No seamos partidarios, seamos la iglesia!

LECTURAS PARA HOY: Isaías 49:3, 5-6; 1 Corintios 1:1-3; Juan 1:29-34 (64). "Para ustedes . . . con todos los que dondequiera invocan el nombre de nuestro Señor Jesucristo."
