IGNITE CAMPAIGN

IGNITE: "Our Faith, Our Mission," the capital campaign for the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston, was relaunched in Fall 2018 and includes two new case elements: An ongoing Disaster Recovery Fund in order to prepare for future disaster assistance ($20 million) and a fund for Rebuilding our Parishes and Schools in Light of Harvey ($20 million). The $150 million goal of the campaign will remain unchanged. The three original case elements will remain as those needs are still present, but have been reduced in order to accommodate the new realities of the Archdiocese:

- St. Mary's Seminary ($30 million)
- Catholic Education ($20 million)
- Faith Formation ($10 million)

The parish share of the campaign remains $50 million. Our parish goal is $1,880,235.36 of which $620,477.67 will be returned to St. Ignatius of Loyola, which is 33% of the funds raise. If we surpass the goal then 67% of the funds will stay in the parish for our use. We are dedicating all returns to the debt reduction on the Gonzaga Center.

Office of the Cardinal

October 1, 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

World Mission Sunday – the annual, worldwide Eucharistic celebration for the Missions of the Church – will be on October 24 this year. This important day in the life of the Church universal fortifies our understanding of our shared call to mission, bestowed upon us at Baptism.

Pope Francis' message for World Mission Sunday reflects on the theme: "We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:20). The Holy Father shares his zeal, reminding us that, "as Christians, we cannot keep the Lord to ourselves," as we "recall with gratitude all those men and women who by their testimony of life help us to renew our baptismal commitment to be generous and joyful apostles of the Gospel." He invites us to speak of our faith!

World Mission Sunday provides us with that very opportunity. We can speak about our faith and respond to our missionary call – through prayer, participation in the Eucharist, and giving generously to the second collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith on that special day. Your gifts support and sustain priests, religious and lay pastoral leaders in more than 1,100 mission dioceses in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe as they proclaim the Gospel, build the Church, serve the poor – and speak of our shared faith in all corners of the world.

"The global pandemic has brought to the fore and amplified the pain, the solitude, the poverty, and the injustices experienced by so many people," reminds Pope Francis. This year, as the world recovers from the loss and the challenges that resulted, let us respond with reciprocal generosity to the fullest extent that we are able.

In this spirit, I offer my sincere personal gratitude for your kind missionary heart, reaching out in love throughout Mission Month.

Gratefully in the Lord,

+Daniel Cardinal DiNardo

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Come face-to-face with Jesus

Spiritual truths often sound mysterious and paradoxical. God is a Trinity; Jesus is human and divine; the last will be first. But not everything in the life of faith is a mystery. Take poverty. It's where Jesus said we'd always see him face to face. Poverty's roots are well understood: malnutrition, limited healthcare, unsafe housing, dangerous work conditions, unequal access to justice, and no political voice. In founding today's Poverty Eradication Day, French priest Joseph Wresinski dared us to rewrite these terms of modern civilization. Pray the Rosary's Sorrowful Mysteries and commit to undercutting poverty's roots.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 53:10-11; Hebrews 4:14-16; Mark 10:35-45 (146). "Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant."

FEAST OF LUKE, EVANGELIST

First in line for Marian devotion

As the author of the Gospel of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles, Luke the Evangelist penned over a quarter of the New Testament—more than anyone else. The Virgin Mary has a special place in his gospel—it is only here that we find the story of the Annunciation, her visit to Elizabeth, the Presentation of the infant Jesus in the temple, and the finding of the child Jesus preaching in the temple. In art, Luke is sometimes depicted painting images of Mary (and he is the patron saint of painters). Revisit the richness of what we know about Mary thanks to Luke by giving his gospel another good read.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Timothy 4:10-17b; Luke 10:1-9 (661). "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest."

MEMORIAL OF JOHN DE BRÉBEUF AND ISAAC JOGUES, PRIESTS, AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

Learn the language of God's love

In 1642, Jesuit missionary Jean de Brébeuf penned "The Huron Carol." Drawing from the experience of indigenous Americans, it lauds a babe born into modest means—wrapped in a "ragged robe of rabbit skin." Instead of shepherds and Magi, Native American hunters and chiefs arrive to pay homage to "Jesus, your King." While the famous Canadian carol comes under some cultural scrutiny in modern times, it also gets credit for preserving the Huron/Wendat language it was written in. Mostly, it reminds us to speak other people's languages—figuratively, if not literally—when sharing the Good News.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 5:12, 15b, 17-19, 20b-21; Luke 12:35-38 (474). "Where sin increased, grace overflowed all the more."

Wednesday, Oct 20, 2021

MEMORIAL OF PAUL OF THE CROSS, PRIEST

Need some passion in your life?

"Passion" is a fiery word with various meanings, from an intense love relationship to an activity that we give our all to. Christians also have a unique understanding of "passion" as the suffering and death of Jesus. Saint Paul of the Cross was so fired up by this that he founded a religious community dedicated to the Passion of Jesus. But wait a minute, how did we get from intense love to suffering? Paul makes the connection for us—the Passion is about Jesus' great love, a love so great that he was willing to suffer and die for us. Take a moment to reflect anew what you live—or would die—passionately for.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 6:12-18; Luke 12:39-48 (475). "But thanks be to God that . . . you have become obedient from the heart."

Thursday, Oct 21, 2021

God at work

Summer vacations are now a faded memory as workplaces and schools operate at full swing. The Catholic Church has a rich tradition of seeing work as more than a necessity and duty. Through work we transform nature—a creative act, just as God's ongoing creation of the world is a creative act. A job that contributes to well-being can also be a path toward personal fulfillment. Whatever your work involves today, offer it up to God and take note of how God is able to work through you.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 6:19-23; Luke 12:49-53 (476). "I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing!"

Friday, Oct 22, 2021

MEMORIAL OF JOHN PAUL II, POPE

Reasonable faith

In this era of "alternative facts," it is challenging to find the truth. Saint John Paul II gave us good counsel on seeking truth. In the encyclical letter Fides et Ratio ("Faith and Reason") he wrote, ". . . believers do not surrender. They can continue on their way to the truth because they are certain that God has created them 'explorers,' whose mission it is to leave no stone unturned, though the temptation to doubt is always there. Leaning on God, they continue to reach out, always and everywhere, for all that is beautiful, good and true." How might you be an "explorer" in situations where truth is difficult to find?

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 7:18-25a; Luke 12:54-59 (477). "Why do you not judge for yourselves what is right?"

Saturday, Oct 23, 2021

MEMORIAL OF JOHN OF CAPISTRANO, PRIEST

You get as good as you give

Jesus, his disciples, and the early evangelists were all clear about one thing: "the wages of sin is death." Beyond physical death, the selfishness of sin cuts off our relationship with God and the opportunity for true peace and joy. Paying attention to the needs of others as well as yourself keeps us alive in Christ. Study after study shows that happiness comes from social connectedness and a spirit of generosity. Franciscan Saint John Capistrano says of the faithful: "The brightness of their wisdom must make them like the light of the world that brings light to others." Ponder the ways that you can acquire wisdom to share with others.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 8:1-11; Luke 13:1-9 (478). "The concern of the flesh is death, but the concern of the spirit is life and peace."

We will celebrate Mass with the opportunity to venerate a first class relic of St. John Paul II brought to the parish by the St. John Paul II Foundation. Join the celebration to honor this great saint and pray for his intercession, especially for the married couples, medical professionals and clergy that the Foundation serves through their mission for

ANNOUNCEMENTS

PERPETUAL MASS

Faithful Catholics know that the traditional liturgies and devotions of the Roman Church are sacred treasures. Because of this, many Catholic faithful desire to participate in the graces and merits of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass offered for themselves or others, either living or deceased.

Provide your family and friends with daily spiritual support. Enrollment in a Perpetual Mass is a beautiful gift at special times in life (e.g., Mother's Day, Father's Day, Confirmation, graduations, weddings, etc) and at the time of death, for a donation of $25.00.

The Mass information is presented in a beautiful folder (which is mailable). The intentions are placed in a special book in the office. The intentions are not announced at the altar nor written in the bulletin.

St. Ignatius celebrates a Perpetual Mass the first Saturday of each month at 5:15 pm FOREVER. If you wish to enroll, visit the church office or call 281-370-3401 for more information.

VENERATION OF A FIRST-CLASS RELIC OF ST. JOHN PAUL

Friday, October 22

3:00 p.m. Mass

Celebrate the feast day of St. John Paul II with the opportunity for veneration of a first-class relic of his blood. This relic is being brought to our parish from the St. John Paul II Foundation, who received it as a gift from His Eminence, Stanislaw Cardinal Dziwisz, personal secretary to St. John Paul II. This is a perfect opportunity to honor this great saint and pray for his intercession.

Especially for the married couples, medical professionals, and clergy that the St. John Paul II Foundation serves through their mission for life and family!

FUN, CANDY, & GAMES

Saturday, October 30th
6:30-8:00 P.M.

All early childhood and elementary school children and their families are invited!

Families who wish to decorate their trunks & bring pre-packaged treats for the trunk or treating, need to be CMG Certified and register their "trunk" by Monday, October 25th.

Octubre 1 de 2021

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

El Domingo Mundial de las Misiones, la celebración eucarística anual y mundial para las Misiones de la Iglesia, será el 24 de octubre de este año. Este día importante en la vida de la Iglesia universal fortalece nuestro entendimiento de nuestro llamado a la misión, el cual nos ha sido dado a través del Bautismo.

El mensaje del Papa Francisco para el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones reflexiona sobre el tema: “No podemos dejar de hablar de lo que hemos visto y oído” (Hechos 4:20). El Santo Padre comparte su celo recordándonos que, “como cristianos, no podemos guardarnos al Señor para nosotros”, ya que “recordamos con gratitud a todos aquellos hombres y mujeres que con su testimonio de vida nos ayudan a renovar nuestro compromiso bautismal de ser apóstoles generosos y alegres del Evangelio”. ¡Nos invita a hablar de nuestra fe!

El Domingo Mundial de las Misiones nos brinda esa misma oportunidad. Podemos hablar de nuestra fe y responder a nuestro llamado misionero a través de la oración, la participación en la Eucaristía y dando generosamente a la segunda colecta de la Sociedad para la Propagación de la Fe en ese día especial. Sus donativos apoyan y sostienen a sacerdotes, religiosos y líderes pastorales laicos en más de 1,100 diócesis misioneras en Asia, África, las Islas del Pacífico y partes de América Latina y Europa. Al proclamar el Evangelio, edifican la Iglesia, sirven a los pobres y comparten nuestra fe en todos los rincones del mundo.

El Papa nos recuerda que “La pandemia mundial ha puesto en primer plano y amplificado el dolor, la soledad, la pobreza y las injusticias experimentadas por tantas personas”. Este año, mientras el mundo se recupera de la pérdida y los desafíos que han resultado, respondamos con generosidad en la mayor medida posible.

Con este espíritu, le agradezco de manera personal y sincera su bondadoso corazón, el cual se entrega con amor durante el Mes Misionero.

Agradecido en el Señor,

+Daniel Cardinal DiNardo

LECTURA

Domingo, 17 de octubre de 2021

VIGÉSIMO NOVENO

DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Ven cara a cara con Jesús

Las verdades espirituales a menudo suenan misteriosas y paradójicas. Dios es una Trinidad; Jesús es humano y divino; el último será el primero. Pero no todo en la vida de fe es un misterio. Considere la pobreza. Es donde Jesús dijo que siempre lo veríamos cara a cara.

Las raíces de la pobreza se comprenden bien: desnutrición, atención médica limitada, viviendas inseguras, condiciones de trabajo peligrosas, acceso desigual a la justicia y ausencia de voz política. Al fundar el Día de la Erradicación de la Pobreza de hoy, el sacerdote francés Joseph Wresinski nos retó a reescribir estos términos de la civilización moderna.

Reza los misterios dolorosos del Rosario y comprométete a socavar las raíces de la pobreza.

LECTURAS DE HOY: Isaías 53: 10-11; Hebreos 4: 14-16; Marcos 10: 35-45 (146). "El que quiera ser grande entre ustedes será su servidor".
