PASTOR'S COLUMN

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Once again, it falls upon my duty to announce the resignation of our Director of Youth Ministries as well as the Associate Director of Youth Ministries. This has become an annual event for us. I'm not really sure the reasoning we keep going through directors for youth ministries; I have my suspicions but cannot pinpoint the exact reason. I realize that life for the youth of today is not what it used to be. I also realize the pressure that our parish families place upon our directors not always realizing the pressures already placed upon them by the policies and guidelines for youth ministry in the Archdiocese. Since about Hurricane Harvey in 2017, our high school youth program morphed into a Confirmation program. We didn't have the space for our full youth ministries programming and thus we had to attend to the "must do" items. We were barely coming out of that when the pandemic caused us to shut down. Reviving all of our ministries since then has been slow, difficult, and even painful. We've gone from the days before Harvey of confirming just at 200 students to confirming 43 last year and 71 this year. Each time a director has left us I receive recommendations on their way out. Sometimes the recommendations are easy and should have been done while the person held the position. Other times, the suggestions require turning the Titanic on a dime. The Director's position has involved many hats – director of formation and catechesis, director of retreats, director of curriculum, director/trainer of catechists, director of Confirmation, director of service hours, director of social events, director of summer events, and director of fund raising (to name a few). Oh, that does not include – it must be someone who can relate to our youth and be available for them in their every need. What many of us grew up with what was known as a "Youth Director" is no longer the case. In the non-Catholic world, this person would be called the "Youth Pastor" and would basically run a parallel church for the youth. It's not an easy job. But it is a position that is fueled by passion and love of Christ and His Church. To be a director of youth ministries is one that finds rewards at every corner and at every intersection of life. Talk to any teacher and s/he will tell you that the "job" – or vocation – of teaching has changed dramatically over the last two decades and this is similar in the case of youth ministries.

We must get back on track. On August 6, 2013, Cardinal DiNardo promulgated the Catechetical Framework for Lifelong Faith Formation in the Archdiocese. Beginning January 2014, all catechetical efforts and programming was to be done with reference to and in support of the goals outlined in the promulgation. We have done very well in implementing the Framework in our elementary levels and even made headway in the Junior High and Adult Formation areas. However, we lag far behind in our Youth Formation – remember, we morphed into basically a Confirmation preparation program. So, beginning this fall, our youth ministries in Junior High and High School will focus more on fulfilling the goals and outlines of the Catechetical Framework as indicated. As we do for preparation for First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion, the Confirmation preparation program will exist as an "overlay" on top of the regular required formation instead of taking the place of regular formation. Confirmation will have a different director than the Director of Youth Ministries. Of course, the two directors will work together since each feeds into the other. Any student preparing for Confirmation must already be involved in formation and Youth Ministries. Confirmation preparation can never be a substitute for ongoing formation. This is part of the lifelong catechetical journey of every Catholic – formation is from the womb to the tomb and is not just about "getting the sacraments."

In the meantime, our activities and programs for youth ministries (junior and senior high) will continue over the summer in a format that will invite the whole family to join in. And I am happy to announce that Andrew (Andy) Dommert will join our staff temporarily to keep the fire of love of God growing and shining brightly. Welcome Andy!

The time for our Forty Hour Devotion with the Solemn celebration of the Holy Mass on Thursday evening, June 16, 2022, at 7:00 pm is getting closer. The whole parish is invited – every ministry and organization are to be present for this solemn event in the life of our parish. Let us heed the Lord's call to spend 40 hours with Him in His Eucharistic presence as we join together and spend time contemplating the Love of God that is all encompassing and eternal. Go to our website (https://silcc.org/40-hours-devotion) to sign up individually or as a ministry.

With prayers for a deeper devotion to the Eucharist,

Fr. Norbert

Embody your faith

Being church is a different identity than simply going to church. If we are truly the Body of Christ, then we embrace this identity with a sense of purpose. Saint Paul describes the church as a body with many parts that function for the sake of the whole. Some of us have obvious gifts like preaching, teaching, or offering a healing presence. Others may benefit from prayer, spiritual direction, faith sharing, or a discernment retreat to come to an awareness of the particular service to which we're called. Joy is in the discovery of the Spirit's personal invitation to you.

You will not be orphaned

Although the devotion to Mary as "Mother of the Church" is ancient, today's memorial is relatively new—having been instituted in 2018 by Pope Francis when he decreed it will be celebrated annually on the Monday after Pentecost Sunday—to "encourage the growth of the maternal sense of the church." Reflect on how you can "mother" the church—as well as your family and friends, your community and work place, and even yourself. You don't have to be or have a mother in the traditional sense to know how to offer loving care. Standing beneath the cross, said Francis, Mary "welcomed all people in the person of the beloved disciple as sons and daughters"—that means you, too.

MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, MOTHER OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 3:9-15, 20 or Acts 1:12-14; John 19:25-34 (572a). "He said to his mother, 'Woman, behold, your son.'"

Let go and let God

On this day in 1925, Blessed Matt Talbot—40 years sober—died enroute to Sunday Mass. Though Alcoholics Anonymous wouldn't exist for another 10 years, Talbot had already discerned the central truth of AA's Twelve Steps. "It's as hard to give up the drink as it is to raise the dead to life again," he said. "But both are possible and even easy for our Lord. We have only to depend on him." Talbot is the patron of those who struggle with alcohol addiction. Ask his intercession for yourself or another who needs to kick a harmful habit.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 17:7-16; Matthew 5:13-16 (360). "Your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father."

Honor and emulate a trailblazer for racial justice

On this day in 1910, Father Stephen Theobald was ordained for the Archdiocese of Saint Paul-Minneapolis, the first black diocesan priest ordained on U.S. soil. Theobald was born in Guyana in 1874 and later worked as a journalist in Canada before being recruited to Minnesota by Archbishop John Ireland, a fierce racial justice advocate. For his entire priestly career, Theobald served at Saint Peter Claver Catholic Church in Saint Paul, the only black parish in the state. He also served in the local chapter of the NAACP, advocating tirelessly for black lives. May we all follow his lasting example of saying "Yes!" to God and "No!" to injustice.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 18:20-39; Matthew 5:17-19 (361). "Let it be known this day that you are God in Israel and that I am your servant."

Sing with the Syrian saint

Although you may never have heard of him, today's saint left a lasting imprint on the church. Ephrem of Syria (306-373) is known for his writing—primarily for works that battled heresies—but even more so for introducing singing as a form of worship and education. Known as the Harp of the Holy Spirit, he cleverly wrote lyrics that educated the faithful against false teaching. Syriac churches still sing hymns that originated with him. The next time a hymn moves you, say a prayer of thanksgiving to Saint Ephrem.

MEMORIAL OF EPHREM OF SYRIA, DEACON, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 18:41-46; Matthew 5:20-26 (362). "[B]e reconciled with your brother, and then come and offer your gift."

Let's get our bearings

"Why are we here?" is an age-old question. As Dostoyevsky writes in The Brothers Karamazov: "The mystery of human existence lies not in just staying alive, but in finding something to live for." One might think that Christians have it easy because Jesus clearly spells out our purpose for living: "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind . . . [and] you shall love your neighbor as yourself" (Matt. 22-37-39). But on a day-to-day basis in any given situation, it is not always obvious what the loving response is and whether we are prepared to offer it. That is where prayer comes in. It can provide just the right environment for hearing God's finest whispers leading to the path of love.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 19:9a, 11-16; Matthew 5:27-32 (363). "There was a tiny whispering sound. . . . A voice said to him, 'Elijah, why are you here?' "

One, holy, catholic, apostolic

In our recitation of the Nicene Creed at Sunday Mass, we profess our belief in "one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church." Those four adjectives are called the four "marks" or "attributes" of the church. One, because despite the many divisions and denominations of Christianity all worship one God, one Spirit, and one Lord, Jesus Christ. Holy, because, like sacred objects, the church is set apart for God's purpose. Catholic, from the Greek word for "universal," because it is for all without excluding any group or class of people. Apostolic, because it arises out of the efforts of the apostles, both the original 12 and others, like today's saint, Barnabas, who were later named apostles. And like you and me, called today to embody these same attributes.

MEMORIAL OF BARNABAS, APOSTLE

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 11:21b-26; 13:1-3; Matthew 5:33-37 (580; Gospel 364). 'Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes,' and your 'No' mean 'No.'"

PERPETUAL MASS

Faithful Catholics know that the traditional liturgies and devotions of the Roman Church are sacred treasures. Because of this, many Catholic faithful desire to participate in the graces and merits of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass offered for themselves or others, either living or deceased.

Provide your family and friends with daily spiritual support. Enrollment in a Perpetual Mass is a beautiful gift at special times in life (e.g., Mother's Day, Father's Day, Confirmation, graduations, weddings, etc) and at the time of death, for a donation of $25.00.

The Mass information is presented in a beautiful folder (which is mailable). The intentions are placed in a special book in the office. The intentions are not announced at the altar nor written in the bulletin.

St. Ignatius celebrates a Perpetual Mass the first Saturday of each month at 5:15 pm FOREVER. If you wish to enroll, visit the church office or call 281-370-3401 for more information.

A Thank You Letter for Easter Brunch!

Dear Father Norbert,

The Easter season at our Loaves and Fishes downtown soup kitchen was a bright one due to the fine efforts of your parish members. The hygiene bags that were donated were passed out on Easter Saturday to the nearly 400 homeless clients that were waiting in line for lunch. When you are homeless the hygiene products are so very important to help them live on the streets. The fact that your parish members came downtown to distribute the bags was outstanding. We are called to help our brothers and sisters who need a helping hand. We have been feeding and housing them for more than 54 years. We have worked with your outreach group before and they again rose up to enable us to help those that just need a lift in their life.

Thanks again to the members of your parish for stepping up to make this happen.

PARISH WIDE EVENT

EVENTO DE TODA LA PARROQUIA

Congratulations National Honor Troop TX 1325 at St. Ignatius of Loyola Catholic Church

Congratulations Troop TX 1325 on earning the National Honor Troop Award (NHTA); the highest award a Troop can earn in American Heritage Girls! TX 1325 has accomplished many things this year helping them earn for the first time this distinguished award. Our program year included completing over 70 badges, religious awards and patches combined, service completion totaling over 1,600 hours to our community (Baby Shower for Gabriel Project, Respect Life Card Making for Catholic Seniors at The Village, Adopting a family for Christmas Angels, Wreaths Across America wreath laying for Houston Veterans, and much more), overnight camping experiences, extensive continued Adult and Leadership training, Girl Leadership training (Biblical Leadership Advanced Service Training), AHG Catholic Faith Awards, meeting deadlines for Charter renewal, member registration, and submitting payments and paperwork efficiently and timely. We are honored and humbled to have received the NHTA Award and thank St. Ignatius of Loyola for supporting our Troop as we continue to build Women of Integrity.

In the same way let your light shine before others that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in Heaven
Matthew 5:16

COLUMNA DEL PÁRROCO

PASTOR'S COLUMN

Queridos hermanos,

Una vez más, me corresponde anunciar la renuncia de nuestro director de Ministerios Juveniles, así como también del director Asociado de Ministerios Juveniles. Esto se ha convertido en un evento anual para nosotros. No estoy muy seguro de la razón por la cual seguimos teniendo que cambiar de directores de ministerios juveniles; Tengo mis sospechas, pero no puedo precisar la razón exacta. Me doy cuenta de que la vida de los jóvenes de hoy no es lo que solía ser. También me doy cuenta de la presión que nuestras familias parroquiales ejercen sobre nuestros directores sin darse cuenta de las presiones que ya les imponen las políticas y pautas para el ministerio juvenil en la Arquidiócesis. A partir del huracán Harvey en 2017, nuestro programa para jóvenes de secundaria se transformó en un programa de Confirmación. No teníamos el espacio para nuestra programación completa de ministerios juveniles y, por lo tanto, tuvimos que atender los elementos "imprescindibles". Apenas salíamos de eso cuando la pandemia hizo que cerráramos. Revivir todos nuestros ministerios desde entonces ha sido lento, difícil e incluso doloroso. Hemos pasado de los días anteriores a Harvey al confirmar alrededor de 200 jóvenes a confirmar 43 el año pasado y 71 este año. Cada vez que un director nos ha dejado recibo sus recomendaciones sobre su partida. A veces, las recomendaciones son fáciles y deberían haberse hecho mientras la persona ocupaba el puesto. Otras veces, las sugerencias son difíciles de ejecutar. El puesto de director ha requerido muchos sombreros: director de formación y catequesis, director de retiros, director de currículo, director/entrenador de catequistas, director de Confirmación, director de horas de servicio, director de eventos sociales, director de eventos de verano y director de recaudación de fondos (por nombrar algunos). Oh, eso no incluye: debe ser alguien que pueda relacionarse con nuestros jóvenes y estar disponible para ellos en todas sus necesidades. Lo que muchos de nosotros crecimos con lo que se conocía como "director de jóvenes" ya no es lo mismo. En el mundo no católico, esta persona sería llamada "Pastor de Jóvenes" y básicamente dirigiría una iglesia paralela para los jóvenes. No es un trabajo fácil. Pero es una posición alimentada por la pasión y el amor de Cristo y su Iglesia. Ser un director de ministerios juveniles es uno que encuentra recompensas en cada esquina y en cada intersección de la vida. Hable con cualquier maestro y él/ella le dirá que el "trabajo" – o vocación – de enseñar ha cambiado dramáticamente en las últimas dos décadas y esto es similar en el caso de los ministerios juveniles.

Debemos regresar a nuestros objetivos. El 6 de agosto de 2013, el Cardenal DiNardo promulgó en la Arquidiócesis el Marco Catequético en la Formación de Fe para toda la Vida. A partir de enero de 2014, todos los esfuerzos y programas de catequesis debían realizarse con referencia y en apoyo de los objetivos descritos en la promulgación. Nos ha ido muy bien en la implementación del Marco en nuestros niveles de primaria e incluso avanzamos en las áreas de Formación de Junior High y Adultos. Sin embargo, estamos muy atrasados en nuestra formación de jóvenes; recuerde, nos transformamos básicamente en un programa de preparación para la Confirmación. Entonces, a partir de este otoño, nuestros ministerios juveniles en la escuela secundaria y preparatoria se enfocarán más en cumplir con las metas y los lineamientos del Marco Catequético como se indica. Como lo hacemos para la preparación para la Primera Reconciliación y la Primera Comunión, el programa de preparación para la Confirmación existirá como una "superposición" sobre la formación regular requerida en lugar de tomar el lugar de la formación regular. La Confirmación tendrá un director diferente al director de Ministerios Juveniles. Por supuesto, los dos directores trabajarán juntos ya que se entrelazan entre sí. Cada estudiante que se prepara para la Confirmación ya debe estar involucrado en la formación y los Ministerios Juveniles. La preparación para la Confirmación nunca puede sustituir a la formación permanente. Esto es parte del viaje catequético de toda la vida de cada católico: la formación es desde el útero hasta la tumba y no se trata solo de "obtener los sacramentos".

Mientras tanto, nuestras actividades y programas para ministerios juveniles (junior y senior high) continuarán durante el verano en un formato que invitará a toda la familia a unirse. Y me complace anunciar que Andrew (Andy) Dommert se unirá a nuestro personal temporalmente para mantener el fuego del amor de Dios creciendo y brillando intensamente. ¡Bienvenido Andy!

Se acerca el momento de nuestra Devoción de Cuarenta Horas con la celebración solemne de la Santa Misa el jueves 16 de junio de 2022 a las 7:00 p. m. Toda la parroquia está invitada: todos los ministerios y organizaciones deben estar presentes en este evento solemne en la vida de nuestra parroquia. Prestemos atención al llamado del Señor de pasar 40 horas con Él en Su presencia eucarística mientras nos unimos y pasamos tiempo contemplando el Amor de Dios que lo abarca todo y es eterno. Vaya a nuestro sitio web (https://silcc.org/40-hours-devotion) para registrarse individualmente o como ministerio.

Con mis oraciones por una devoción más profunda a la Eucaristía,

Fr. Norbert

Encarna tu fe

Ser iglesia es una identidad diferente de la de simplemente ir a la iglesia. Si somos verdaderamente el Cuerpo de Cristo, entonces abrazamos esta identidad con un sentido de intención. San Pablo describe a la iglesia como un cuerpo con muchas partes que funcionan para el bien del conjunto. Algunos tenemos dones obvios como la prédica, la enseñanza u ofrecer una presencia sanadora. Otros pueden tener el beneficio de la oración, la dirección espiritual, compartir la fe, o un retiro de discernimiento para llegar a la revelación del servicio particular al que estamos llamados. La alegría está en descubrir la invitación personal que te hace el Espíritu.

SOLEMNIDAD DE PENTECOSTÉS

LECTURAS PARA HOY: Día: Hechos 2:1-11; 1 Corintios 12:3b-7, 12-13 o Romanos 8:8-17; Juan 20:19-23 (63). "Hay diferentes clases de dones espirituales pero el mismo Espíritu; hay diferentes formas de servicio, pero el mismo Señor."
