THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

From the Pastor's Desk

Fr Dominic Y. Afrifa

God's Holy house.

Readings:

Ezekiel 47:1–2, 8–9, 12

Psalms 46:2–3, 5–6, 8–9

1 Corinthians 3:9–11, 16–17

John 2:13–22

We commemorate a church dedication that happened in the fourth-century in Rome for various reasons? One is the fact that St. John Lateran is no ordinary church—it's the cathedral church of the Pope and still known as "the mother of all the world's churches." as St Clement XII put an inscription omnium Ecclesiarum Urbis et Orbis mater et caput. This has been the residence of Popes till the movement to Avignon in the early 14th century.

A site of five ecumenical councils. Beneath the alter of this church lies remains of a small wooden table on which, according to tradition St Peter celebrated Mass, dedicated to the savior and then later to John the Baptist. But more than that, because God has from all- time intended the church building to be a symbol of His Church and our bodies.

This is what the readings for the feast invite us to consider. God's prototype for the church is the Jerusalem Temple, described in this week's Readings. It's God's "holy dwelling," site of His presence in our midst; source of "living waters"—of all life and blessing. But God intended the Temple to give way to the Body of Christ. There is a growth and blessing at the presence of the lord because of the flowing of living water. Jesus, as seen in the gospel is the living sanctuary and we are the living body of the church in the spirit.

That's what our Lord's words and actions in the Gospel are intended to dramatize. Christ's Body is now the dwelling of God's "glory" among us. It is the new source of living waters. The new sanctuary where people will worship in Spirit and truth John 4:21,23). By Baptism, we are joined to His Body in the Church.

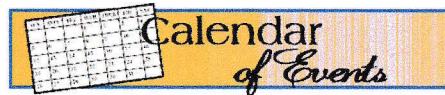

Another explanation of the drama is that we need to be careful the way we behave when we come to church. We need to realize that we are in the presence of God. We must be mindful of what we say, whom we speak about and what we do so that we don't turn the house of the Father into a market place. We are lucky He has not driven us out after the way we have gossiped and used certain words. Sometimes we even forget that we are in the house of God and think about things that we shouldn't think about. God's house should be called a house of prayer. Many people have reduced the church as a social gathering where we want to talk to some people and don't want to have anything to do with others.

Paul's letter to the Corinthians says the Spirit of God comes to dwell in us and makes us "God's building...the temple of God" Do you from time to time think about this? Have you for a short time paused to reflect upon the fact that you are the sanctuary of the Holy Spirit, so God's house should be held holy and with honor? Sometimes we treat our bodies as something else than the dwellings of the divine, we take decisions without considering what God desires and dishonor the temple of God.

Jesus drove out the sellers of oxen, sheep and doves, signaling an end to the animal sacrifices that formed the worship of the old Temple. In the spiritual worship of the new Temple, we offer our bodies— our whole beings—as a living sacrifice. Like living stones (1 Peter 2:5) built on the cornerstone of Christ (Mark 12:10; Acts 4:11), together we are called to build up the new Temple of God.

May we be ever mindful of the Lord's presence in our lives and honor him as such.
Amen.

Rev Fr Dominic Y Afrifa.

Crumbs & Clues: Trivia + Desserts = Supporting Families

Think you've got what it takes to be the trivia champ? Grab your smartest (and sweetest) friends and join us for a night of fun, desserts, and friendly competition—all for a great cause!

Thursday, November 13th at 6:30pm
St. Mary's Catholic School Gymnasium

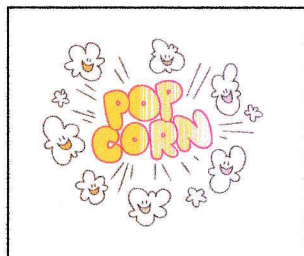

- Form a team of 4-6 people (because winning is always better with friends!)
- Test your knowledge in a lively trivia challenge (the theme is HOLIDAYS)
- Get ready for our Silent Auction for pies—perfect for dessert lovers
- Support Compass Pregnancy and Family Resource Center as we continue to be a source of compassion and hope for mothers, fathers, and babies right here in the EUP

Early Bird Registration Cost: $30 per team      At the Door Registration $35
Early Bird Single Tickets: $10      At the Door Single Tickets: $15

Register your Team HERE

Come for the trivia, stay for the desserts, and leave knowing you've helped support families in our community.
