WHY HAVEN'T CATHOLIC CHURCHES GONE THE WAY OF DISPOSABLE CUPS FOR WINE DISTRIBUTION?

If a Catholic has ever attended a Protestant worship service and saw the communion service that was offered for that community, one of the things that might have stood out was the use of small, disposable cups for distributing the wine or grape juice. This is in stark contrast to the precious metal chalices used in Catholic churches during the Mass.

Although practices for Protestant Christians can vary (ranging from large shared chalices, to personal-use cups, to dipping the bread in the wine/grape juice), the norms governing Catholic practices are fairly direct: "Sacred vessels are to be made from precious metal. If they are made from metal that rusts or from a metal less precious than gold, then ordinarily they should be gilded on the inside. In the Dioceses of the United States of America, sacred vessels may also be made from other solid materials that, according to the common estimation in each region, are precious ... they are to have bowls of nonabsorbent material" (nos. 328-330).

Rather than being a commentary on the beliefs or practices of those other communities, these rules are intended to highlight the reverence that Catholics have for the bread and wine consecrated at Mass, which become the Body and Blood of the Lord.

GOSPEL MEDITATION | MAY 7 2023

May 14, 2023
6th Sunday of Easter

My dad was adopted as a baby. It's a big part of my family's story. His birth mother placed him in a Catholic orphanage not long after birth. A young couple longing for a baby strolled among the bassinets. My father, then only a few months old, looked at the husband and smiled. The man said, "That's my son." They took him home and the family grew. This moment of adoption was a wonderful truth they celebrated even when my dad was a young boy. They told him, "You're even more special than the other children, because we chose you to be our son." My dad's eyes well up with tears of gratitude whenever he tells the story, even eighty-three years later.

What is your story? Do we think or act like unwanted orphans? Who do we believe ourselves to be? As we continue to ponder Jesus' resurrection, we hear him say to us this Sunday, "I will not leave you orphans." God doesn't leave us alone like spiritual orphans. The power that raised Jesus from the dead is the Holy Spirit, who is also called the Spirit of Adoption. He chooses us to be His children, to share God's life forever. He gives us a future filled with hope.

We are not orphans anymore! This Easter, that's the story we should share with others. It's the true story we are living right now.

— Father John Muir

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO – ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA
14 de mayo de 2023 - 6º Domingo de Pascua

En este VI Domingo de Pascua, el Señor nos pide ser coherentes en la fe. Es decir, si alguien dice y afirma que ama al Señor y no practica lo que afirma, no le ama realmente. ¿Desea saber si ama al Señor como dice? Si cumple los mandamientos, va por buen camino, pero si no lo hace, se engaña usted mismo; aunque rece el rosario y novenas, sepa la Biblia de memoria y vaya a Misa con frecuencia. El Señor Jesús lo dice directo: “Si ustedes me aman, guardarán mis mandamientos” (Juan 14,15). Muchos creyentes dicen cumplirlos, pero obran lo opuesto. Jesús insiste aún más con lo siguiente: “Y yo rogaré al Padre y les dará otro Protector que permanecerá siempre con ustedes” (Juan 14,15-16). ¿Qué más podríamos desear? El Espíritu Santo siempre está con nosotros, desde nuestro bautismo. La aceptación y cumplimiento de los mandamientos es una realidad en la vida de fe. Sin embargo, Dios no obliga ese cumplimiento. Simplemente lo propone y cada persona decide si acepta el reto o no. El aceptar esta oferta, implica tratar de ser mejores cada día. Muchos se marginan solos, se apartan de la gracia y de la propuesta de salvación de Jesús. En esta Eucaristía, pidamos a Jesús que sepamos velar y practicar sus mandamientos con la ayuda del Espíritu Santo. Sin su ayuda fracasaremos, en cambio con Jesús, todo será posible. El secreto está en “tratar a los demás como ustedes quieren que ellos los traten. En eso se resumen la ley y los profetas” (Mateo 7,12).

¡Felicidades a todos nuestros niños y sus familias en su Primera Comunión! ¡Oremos para que se mantengan siempre cerca de Jesús, el Buen Pastor!

HEALING SERVICE- JUNE 1

Hello everyone!

So you've probably heard the buzz — we are having a "Healing Service" on Thursday, June 1st from 7-9PM inside the church. It will be beautiful and I cannot wait. I hope you can come!

I want to make sure everyone understands that this event will be unlike some of the other 'healing services' that have been hosted at Saint Bede in the past.

Basically, this event will consist of Eucharistic Adoration, with praise and worship music led by John Hopke. There will be a talk given by myself, Fr. Anthony, and a testimony or two from individuals who have experienced the Lord's healing in their lives. We'll also have corporate healing prayers and some time for individual prayer teams who will listen to what sicknesses and struggles attendees are experiencing. These prayer teams will then pray for those specific needs in Jesus' name. Several priests and seminarians of our diocese, as well as lay faithful will be on these 'intercessory prayer teams.'

To be clear, the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick will not be offered at this June 1st event. If you are interested in receiving that beautiful sacrament, please be in touch with us to schedule an appointment, or be on the lookout for one of our other healing service opportunities that will offer it!

Rest assured, the event on June 1st will be an incredible opportunity to encounter the Lord's healing power and we are believing boldly for the Holy Spirit to move powerfully with miracles, signs and wonders! Think of this Healing Service as something you could invite anyone to — your Catholic and non-Catholic friends alike! It is outreach and evangelization! So, bring friends who are sick. Invite family members who need our prayers. It will be a beautiful evening of praising the Lord and confidently asking Him for the healing we need! Most especially, it will be an opportunity to grow in our relationship with the Risen Lord, who is very much alive and is still working powerfully in the midst of His Church today!

The Kingdom of God is at hand!

God bless,
Fr Anthony
