READINGS FOR THE WEEK

THE THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading:

"I know that Elisha is a holy man of God. Since he visits us often, let us arrange a little room on the roof and furnish it for him with a bed, table, chair, and lamp, so that when he comes to us he can stay there." (2 Kgs 4:9-10)

Psalm:

For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord. (Ps 89)

Second Reading:

Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life. (Rom 6:3-4)

Gospel:

"Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me." (Mt 10:40)

I HAVE BEEN AWAY FROM THE CHURCH FOR A FEW YEARS AND REALLY WANT TO GET ACTIVE AGAIN, NOT SO MUCH FOR ME, BUT FOR MY CHILDREN. IS THIS A BAD REASON TO COME BACK TO CHURCH

If you are on your way to the supermarket, and you are forced to detour from your usual route because of road work, does the food you buy taste different? Is the meal less filling? Are the vegetables less tasty? Of course not. In our faith journey, there are many detours called sin. Some are greater than others, some are even a bit longer. But God's grace comes to us in ways we understand and recognize and need. Your children leading you back to the Church is not as important as the fact that you are back. This is an opportunity for you to renew, strengthen, and deepen your faith. Regardless of how we get to Church, or what draws us closer to God, the fact is we are there. Do what you need to do to get right with God and the Church. Go to confession, begin good family religious practices, and be involved in the ministries your parish offers. Be more than a lukewarm parishioner. Be the kind of Catholic you want your children to be.

THE THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

As a boy my favorite board game was “Chutes and Ladders.” The players roll dice to move from the start to the finish, from the bottom of the board to the top. If you land on a chute, you slide back and down. It was a bummer. Land on a ladder, and you jump well up the board and near the goal. It was a thrill to find a ladder and draw closer to the goal. That’s life, isn’t it? At every moment, we’re either moving closer or farther from the goal of our lives.

How do we win? Jesus tells us the secret of life’s chutes and ladders hinges on getting our loves rightly ordered. What we love in life is meant to be a ladder, drawing us up into God’s love — including our family, friends, work, play, food, and drink. Even to give your water to someone out of love for Christ leads to a sure reward.

But those ladders of our loves can become chutes. If we love even our family members more than Christ, we slide down and back. If we love the persons and things in our life for the sake of Christ, He says we “surely will not lose our reward.” The key difference between a chute and ladder, between our spiritual regression and advancement, is our willingness to renounce everything — even our own life — for the love of Jesus. To allow everything and everyone we love to draw us to love him more — that’s the difference between chutes and ladders.

— Father John Muir

There will be time to hear talks, opportunity for prayer and reflection, and a chance to build community with other young adults. College graduates in the classes of 2022 and 2023 are invited to join us July 28-29, 2023 at Saint Michael's Catholic Church, Richmond. The Recent Graduate Retreat costs $35/person. Registration closes July 16th.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO – ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA

2 de julio de 2023

13° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

“El que los recibe a ustedes, a mí me recibe, y el que me recibe a mí, recibe a Aquel que me ha enviado” (Mateo 10:40). Con esta frase del Evangelio Jesús lo explica todo con lo referente a dar y recibir. ¿Quién es más feliz, el que da o el que recibe? La respuesta puede ser basada en la medida en que hemos dado y en la apertura del corazón para recibir. Si recibimos a Jesús por medio de los que nos rodean estamos recibiendo al Padre del cielo. Todo lo que demos no se quedará sin recompensa. “Asimismo, el que dé un vaso de agua fresca a uno de estos pequeños, por ser mi discípulo, no quedará sin recompensa” (Mateo 10:42). Con esta enseñanza, Jesús nos quiere mostrar que la sabiduría de Dios supera los criterios humanos.

Quien recibe la palabra de Dios, se pone inmediatamente al servicio de los demás. No la conserva para sí mismo. Por el contrario, sale, la comparte, la manifiesta, la multiplica en gracia y justicia. La salvación de Dios es para todos. El compromiso es continuar su obra evangelizadora en todos los rincones del mundo. “El verdadero amor a Jesús requiere verdadero amor a los padres, a los hijos, pero si primero buscamos el interés familiar, esto siempre nos lleva por el camino equivocado” (Papa Francisco 6/28/2020). No hay que huir al esfuerzo o al trabajo que significa crecimiento humano y de fe.

¡Gracias a todos los voluntarios que hicieron posible la Escuela de Biblia para Niños! ¡El Señor les bendiga por su servicio a los más pequeños!

STEWARDSHIP UPDATE

As we get ready to celebrate our country's independence, let's take a moment to reflect on the many blessings we have and how we can share those blessings with those who lack basic material needs such as food and housing." Summer is a great time to bring some groceries for distribution through the House of Mercy. With school out, families are in greater need as the school based meals are not as consistently available. You will be helping over 300 families who depend on the House of Mercy each week. Thank you in advance for supporting your brothers and sisters.

FREEWILL

Protect your family and leave your legacy. Start your free will today at <https://freewill.com/stbedewilliamsburg>

Do you have directions in place in case of a health care emergency? What about ongoing care? One of the best gifts you can give to your family is to have plans in place. See our website to download a copy of the Advance Medical Directives and Funeral Planning Guides. Your family will thank you.

STEWARDSHIP IS THE WAY OF LIFE

As noted in Stewardship Success by Eric and Lisa McArdle, there are three "T's" and four pillars of Stewardship: Time, Talent and Treasure (three T's) are classic descriptors of stewardship and provide a broad framework but what are the hallmarks of a life of stewardship? The answer is the four pillars of Hospitality, Prayer, Formation, and Service.

Stewardship is not a program, it is a way of living and when you give yourself to God it is your way of life. It is a "condition of discipleship" as found in Mt 10:37-39:

"Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me;
and whoever does not take up his cross
and follow after me is not worthy of me.

Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

For those of us who spent time in the 60's or 70's "finding ourselves", this is the exact opposite. We will explore the pillars in future messages so for now, just sit with these and reflect on what they mean to you now in your life.

IRELAND PILGRIMAGE, SPRING 2024

What do God, Golf and Guinness have in common? If you have ever wanted to make a pilgrimage to Ireland, you have an opportunity next Spring. Sam Samorian will be hosting a trip for men of the parish in the April 4- May 10 timeframe. We will visit the Shrine at Knock, a number of historic cathedrals and Irish Heritage sights along with a few rounds of golf on spectacular links courses. A limited number of spots will be available. Email Sam at ssamorian@bedeva.org for more information.

And whoever gives only a cup of cold water
to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple—
amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward."
Mt 10:42
