READINGS FOR THE WEEK

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

First Reading:

Early and often did the LORD, the God of their fathers, send his messengers to them, for he had compassion on his people and his dwelling place. But they mocked the messengers of God, despised his warnings, and scoffed at his prophets, until the anger of the LORD against his people was so inflamed that there was no remedy. (2 Chr 36:15-16)

Psalm:

Let my tongue be silenced, if I ever forget you! (Ps 137)

Second Reading:

God, who is rich in mercy, because of the great love he had for us, even when we were dead in our transgressions, brought us to life with Christ. (Eph 2:4-5)

Gospel:

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. (Jn 3:16)

GOSPEL MEDITATION FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Our national pastime isn't baseball. It's what the Bible calls "condemning the world." We generally enjoy pronouncing curses upon those whom we see as trouble, wrong, or evil. Don't believe me? Listen to almost any podcast, cable news network, or social media platform to hear it. It will be some version of: "We all agree that if they are eradicated, things will be great." Condemning is almost always clothed in virtue. It basks in its good intentions. That's why it is so attractive. Condemning seems like our best path to saving what is good.

What a shock, then, to hear Jesus announce: "For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him" (Jn 3:17). He comes to save the world, as we all want, but he will accomplish it without an act of condemnation. How hard it is to accept this! Condemning feels godlike. I judge who and what must be lost to protect the good. But in the light of Jesus' endless mercy and love, this is the least godlike thing we can do.

Lenten challenge: This week, I invite you to give up the delicious experience of condemning whomever in the world you most would like to see gone. Perhaps write down their names. Secondly, I invite you to consider fasting from any media that feeds the tasty but deadly tendency to condemn.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

CUARTO DOMINGO DE LA CUARESMA

Ya estamos muy cerca de la Semana Santa y la Iglesia, en su sabiduría, sigue invitándonos a caminar en la luz de Cristo. Nos sigue animando a creer en Jesús en estos tiempos tan difíciles que estamos viviendo, sin embargo, esto exige de nosotros una conversión continua. El signo de la cruz distingue al seguidor de Cristo. Para honrar la cruz, debemos de dar honor y gloria a Dios por ella: "Recuerden la serpiente que Moisés hizo levantar en el desierto; así también tiene que ser levantado el Hijo del Hombre, y entonces todo el que crea en el tendrá por él vida eterna" (Juan 3,14-15).

Siempre debemos de tener presente que el camino de la resurrección pasa primero por el sufrimiento por la cruz. Nuestra esperanza de cristianos debe ser el cielo. Con confianza, demos gracias a Dios por habernos dado a su Hijo: "¡Así amó Dios al mundo! Le dio su Hijo Único, para que quien cree en él no se pierda, sino que tenga vida eterna" (Juan 3,16). Tomemos en serio estas palabras del Evangelio, palabras del mismo Jesús especiales para nosotros. Para vivir con entusiasmo y alegría este Tiempo Santo de Cuaresma se necesita tener fe. Y una fe activa que dé fuerza desde el fondo del corazón. Pero, cómo medirla, cómo darme cuenta que voy por ese camino. Muy sencillo, haz la prueba y reflexiona. ¿Ha cambiado mi forma de vivir en este tiempo? ¿Soy más tolerable y generoso con los que me rodean? ¿Mi ayuno, oración y caridad han aumentado? ¿Es Dios mi recuerdo durante el día? Si es así, vas por la senda correcta.

STEWARDSHIP UPDATE

What is Alpha and why is it important to our parish?

What is my purpose? What's the meaning of life? What happens when I die? Why is there suffering? Who was Jesus?

Alpha was introduced to the parish several years ago as a way for folks to ask these questions and explore the Christian faith in a fun, non-judgmental environment. Currently, more than 45 people are participating in the program this spring here at Saint Bede.

Alpha participants report that the sessions help them walk with Jesus by the power of the Holy spirit, they are re-filled and re-inspired in their faith, and they are experiencing greater joy and enthusiasm in connecting with Jesus.

Thank you to the Core Team for helping our brothers and sisters on their faith journey. If you would like more information on Alpha, contact alpha@bedeva.org

STEWARDSHIP RESOURCES AND REMINDERS:

LENTEN CHALLENGE, OPERATION RICE BOWL

This weekend our special collections is for Catholic Relief Services (CRS). Whenever disaster occurs around the world, CRS is there. They deploy volunteers across the globe to alleviate suffering, providing basic needs- food, shelter and safety.

One of the ways you can help is to make a contribution this weekend using your envelope, online or through the special collection envelopes in each pew. Another way is to pick up an Operation Rice Bowl kit at the Welcome Center and Just put your change in there and return it during Holy Week.

STEWARDSHIP VERSE OF THE WEEK

This week, we have the Gospel passage from John 3:16 which is known as the most popular verse in the bible. It has reportedly been translated into over 1100 languages. We need to look at the entirety of the Gospel though for the full context. Focus on the last 2 verses.

Jesus said to Nicodemus:

"Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life." For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.

Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

And this is the verdict, that the light came into the world, but people preferred darkness to light, because their works were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come toward the light, so that his works might not be exposed. But whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God.
