GOSPEL MEDITATION

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Once a man came to the Vatican and asked to see Pope John Paul II, claiming that they had been friends in Poland. When told of the man, the Pope said, "He is mistaken about our friendship. I don't recall ever having suffered with him." As it turned out, the man had never known the Pope. Now, I'm not sure if the story is totally factual. But doesn't the juxtaposition of suffering with friendship sound exactly like JP II? He understood that the deepest and most lasting friendships are forged in the fires of shared suffering. No suffering, no friendship. Amazing.

This week we hear Jesus say to the apostles and to us, "You are my friends if you do what I command you" (John 15:14). In Jesus' life, death, and resurrection, God entered the world of human suffering and transformed it into an avenue of friendship with Himself. Following His command — to love, to lay down our lives for others — will always entail suffering. But this suffering only deepens our friendship with Him. His suffering is ours; ours is His. We have become friends of God.

This week, how might you share your suffering with the Risen Jesus? How might he be sharing his suffering with you, in the lives of those around you? Be attentive to that, and you'll find that you are indeed a friend of God, because you've suffered together a great deal.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

SEXTO DOMINGO DE PASCUA

La pregunta del millón de dólares es: ¿Será posible querernos como Cristo nos ha amado? ¿Será posible cumplir el mandamiento del amor en medio de tanta guerra e injusticia? En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos invita a permanecer en su amor a no alejarnos de él. No hay que entrar en controversia la situación es clara. Para cumplir con ese mandamiento nuevo tenemos herramientas que son: la oración, y los sacramentos. Con la gracia de Dios todo se puede. Los frutos buenos salen del corazón apasionado por Jesús. "Hijitos, no amemos con puras palabras y de labios para afuera, sino de verdad y con hechos" (1 Juan 3:18). Dicho simplemente con un refrán popular: "Obras son amores y no buenas palabras". "Ámense los unos a los otros: esto es lo que les mando" (Juan 15:17). Este es el testamento, (mandato) de Jesús a nosotros, cumplir con el amor, la herencia es la vida eterna. ¿Cuántas personas a mi alrededor, que caminan conmigo sienten la verdad de mi amor, de mi cariño? Recordemos que, la alegría más íntima viene de sentirse querido y apreciado. El centro del mensaje de Jesús es eso. Amor, amistad, cariño verdadero. El Evangelio mueve, no se estanca, es estar siempre en salida en servicio del necesitado. El Tiempo de Pascua es oportuno para llenarnos de ese amor. La Iglesia invita a llenarnos del amor de Cristo, para darlo sin medida tal como Cristo nos lo da. ¡Aprovechemos, no ignoremos su mensaje! ©LPI

STEWARDSHIP UPDATE

We are instructed, indeed commanded to “love one another”. There are many ways to show our love for others and one of the ways we do that here at Saint Bede is through service. We have so many opportunities in our parish and community. If we are followers of Christ then we must also serve.

How are you serving others? It can be hard with our busy lives. Serving isn't just writing the check or showing up on Sundays to “check the box” for attending Mass. It also doesn't need to be on a grand scale. It's not just for the young or retired. Recognizing that some of us have limitations to be able to serve, most of us can find an opportunity to pitch in and help. We are blessed with many parishioners who do help, some in multiple ministries.

Check out the many opportunities found here in our bulletin and through the ministries you encounter here in the Commons. If you are unsure of how to get involved- just ask anyone with a nametag and they will get you on the path. Better yet, come to our Welcome Summit on May 19 where we will explore how we can serve more effectively. Stewardship is not a program, it is a way of living.

On May 19 after the 11 am Mass, we will explore welcoming and hospitality here at Saint Bede and look to ways we can become more like Christ. We hope you can participate. Contact Sam Samorian ssamorian@bedeva.org for more information or to participate.

STEWARDSHIP RESOURCES AND REMINDERS:

ARE YOU CALLED TO SERVE AT THE LORD'S TABLE?

We are looking for adults and young people to serve our parish, priests, and deacons at the Altar. It is a great privilege and one that develops a special bond between you and Christ. It is especially powerful for young people to see their parents serve and for young people to serve with adults.

We are hosting a training for new Adult Acolytes (over 18), Senior Servers (14-18 yrs old), and Altar Servers (10 yrs old and over) on Wednesday, May 8 from 4:30- 5:30 pm and Saturday, May 11 from 1:00- 2:00 pm. Those current servers that are 14-18 years old or have served more than 4 years may attend for Senior Server Training. Please RSVP to ssamorian@bedeva.org

STEWARDSHIP VERSE OF THE WEEK

Jesus said to his disciples:
 “As the Father loves me, so I also love you.
 Remain in my love.
 If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love,
 just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love.

“I have told you this so that my joy may be in you
 and your joy might be complete.
 This is my commandment: love one another as I love you.

No one has greater love than this,
 to lay down one's life for one's friends.
 You are my friends if you do what I command you.
 I no longer call you slaves,
 because a slave does not know what his master is doing.
 I have called you friends,
 because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father.

It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you
 and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you.

This I command you: love one another.”
