GOSPEL MEDITATION

THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

When I was a kid, my parents took me to the circus, and I was mesmerized by the acrobats. I recall one show in which the trapeze artists would swoop down just above the ground and then launch up into the air, flinging their bodies seemingly to the top of the tent, all at dizzying speeds. It wasn't just their height but their dangerous proximity to the ground that thrilled me.

Perhaps that's a little how St. Mark wants us to feel as he describes the Ascension of Jesus. He tells us that Jesus "sat down at table with them" and then, just a few lines later, "he ascended into heaven and took his seat at the right hand of God." He dies, he rises! He sits down, he ascends! What do these divine acrobatics teach us?

The depth and height on display are a show of his love for us. When Jesus "sat down" he "upbraided them for their lack of faith and stubbornness of heart." He dangerously swoops down into our lowly place of fragmentation, disbelief, and death. When he ascends, he confirms their preaching with signs of powerful healing. The height of heaven is the place from which God brings wholeness, faith, and life. The point is the Ascension of Jesus is not about his departure. It is about the feat by which he unites the heavens and the earth, the highest and the lowest.

We are meant to relive this spiritually dizzying experience in every Mass, when Jesus sits down with us at his Eucharistic table and then offers himself up to the Father with and for us. Ladies and gentlemen, boys and girls: welcome to the great tent of the Church! Feast your eyes on the divine and human acrobat whose saving feat is the great thrill of our lives. LPI

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

LA ASCENSIÓN DEL SEÑOR

“Hombres de Galilea, ¿qué hacen allí parados mirando al cielo? Ese mismo Jesús, que los ha dejado para subir al cielo, volverá como lo han visto marcharse” (Hechos 1:11). Enseguida de este acontecimiento, viene para los discípulos ir a todo el mundo a proclamar el Reino de Dios. Y continua el mensaje, continua la misión hasta el fin de los tiempos. ¿Qué estamos haciendo actualmente para que llegue el mensaje de paz y justicia del que habla Jesús en su Evangelio? Transmitir el mensaje de Jesús implica ir a diversos lugares: hospitales, cárceles, orfanatos y familias de la comunidad, para que haya muchos que crean y se bauticen y se salven.

“La Fiesta de la Ascensión nos dice Jesús, aunque ascendió al cielo para morar gloriosamente a la derecha del Padre, está todavía y siempre con nosotros: de ahí viene nuestra fuerza, nuestra perseverancia y nuestra alegría, precisamente de la presencia de Jesús entre nosotros con el poder del Espíritu Santo” (Papa Francisco 05-24-2020). ¡Gracias Jesús, por tu infinita cercanía! Gracias, porque, con tu Ascensión uniste el cielo con la tierra, dos lugares ya inseparables. Ahora somos testigos y el deber es dar testimonio de lo vivido en la fe. Específicamente, ¿a quién debo llevar el mensaje de esperanza del Evangelio de hoy? No quedarnos parados solo viendo y escuchando, es esencial el movimiento. ¡Ánimo, no estamos solos, ya viene el Espíritu Santo!

STEWARDSHIP UPDATE

In discussion last week with some folks from around the diocese, it became apparent that we have multiple parishes within Saint Bede. How can that be? We have the Daily Mass Parish, the 5:30 pm Vigil Parish, 8:30 am parish... you get the idea. With over 400 people attending each weekend Mass time, it is easy to see how each could be its own parish. Yet we are drawn together by our activities and ministries. While more than 2600 people attend our Masses each weekend, we have more than 8,200 registered parishioners and almost 3,300 families.

Where are our neighbors and friends who are registered but not here at Mass? Over the coming weeks, Father Anthony is helping to equip people to "Go Forth" and begin to engage or re-engage our brothers and sisters.

In concert with this, the Welcome Ministry is hosting a Welcome Summit to help leaders of ministries involve more people in their ministries. This marshalling of talent is a key to stewardship, utilizing our gifts, talents and abilities given to us and returning them in service to the Lord. We have so many people to reach and need more volunteers to help reach them and serve throughout our parish and community. The harvest is ripe and the laborers few. Stewardship is not a program, it is a way of living.

On May 19 after the 11 am Mass, we will explore welcoming and hospitality here through our ministries at Saint Bede and look for ways we can become more like Christ. We hope you can participate. Contact Sam Samorian ssamorian@bedeva.org for more information or to participate.

STEWARDSHIP VERSE OF THE WEEK

But grace was given to each of us
according to the measure of Christ's gift.
And he gave some as apostles, others as prophets,
others as evangelists, others as pastors and teachers,
to equip the holy ones for the work of ministry,
for building up the body of Christ,
until we all attain to the unity of faith and knowledge of the Son of God, to mature to manhood, to the extent of the full stature of Christ.
Eph 4:11-13
