GOSPEL MEDITATION

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When I was a wet-behind-the-ears seminarian, I was sent for an immersion with the poor. For one month, I lived in a home for adults with developmental disabilities. It was a challenge for me because the residents had significant communication issues. A 30-year-old man there named Robin was totally deaf and mute. He had Down's Syndrome. He looked like a Viking, with a shock of red hair and a fine beard. But I felt awkward and disconnected from him. All my normal ways of interacting failed. I resigned myself to the fact that we'd never connect.

Then one morning something amazing happened. He was on the living room floor quietly playing with toys. Watching him from a chair, I sensed Jesus' words float into my mind, "Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me" (Mark 9:37). I thought, "Jesus, you must somehow be in Robin." I sheepishly made sure no one else was in the room, and then I spoke in a clear voice: "Jesus, are you there?" Robin did not turn to me and say, "Hi, John. Yes, it's me, Jesus." He kept playing with his toys in silence.

But something changed in me. From that moment on, it was easier to just be with Robin, to joke around with him, to try sign-language with him, to let him be himself, and for me to be myself. His "disabilities" were no longer obstacles to overcome. He became just Robin, my friend.

Who in your life seems awkwardly distant or uncomfortable to be with? Next time you see him or her, quietly invoke the name of Jesus, and see how the barriers disappear in you.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

FIRST READING:

The Jewish wisdom writer teaches us that wicked people revile and test those who are just and upright. What might be an effective way to win over a wicked person?

SECOND READING:

James encourages us to be sincere and consistent in cultivating peace. Can you think of a situation this week at home or at work where you could seek peace?

GOSPEL:

We hear today that the disciples did not always understand Jesus and were afraid sometimes to ask him questions. How would you suggest dealing with tensions that arise in close relationships?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Often called the father of the medieval papacy and Apostle of the English, Saint Gregory (540-604) became Pope in 590. He is known for his reform of the liturgy, the consolidation of papal power, and the conversion of England.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

CHURCH DIVISION

QUESTION:

There seems to be a lot of division in some Christian churches over moral issues, especially abortion, ordination, and end-of-life care. If all Christians follow the Gospel of Jesus, why is there such a difference of opinion?

ANSWER:

There is always a struggle between culture and religion, and part of that struggle is politics. To be politically correct means that you must embrace the secular virtue of the moment so that you are "enlightened," "sensitive," "aware," and, most importantly, "open-minded." Unfortunately, common sense can be sacrificed in the race to be "PC."

Some factions within Christian denominations have tried to redefine tradition, history, and biblical teaching to bend it around the politically correct religious thinking of the day. On the life issues that you mention, there are those who began with their own conclusions and have tried to bend theology around their conclusions. This is possible in part because of a lack of a central teaching authority and partly because society has become apathetic to these issues. It will result in a lot of division, factions, and schisms. The Gospel calls all believers to embrace the truth, to turn from sin, and to seek holiness and justice. No matter how hard some may try, a square peg will not fit a round hole. The camel cannot fit through the eye of the needle.

MARRIED COUPLES

RETRouvaille OF NORTHERN VIRGINIA

OCTOBER 18-20

Someone once said "marriages may be made in heaven, but they sure take a lot of work on earth." Without attention and care, marriages wither. In our society, with the pressures of conflicting demands and too little time, personal relationships are often taken for granted. Amid the distractions, we easily forget that strong, caring, loving relationships take work.

Retrouvaille is a program for married couples facing difficult challenges in their relationship. It is a lifeline of hope and healing for struggling marriages.

For more information about Retrouvaille, please visit our website at www.helpourmarriage.org.

For details about the Northern Virginia weekends, please call 703-351-7211 or email registernova@helpourmarriage.org.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

25º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

A nivel mundial, arrastramos un pecado social muy grande, y este es el descuido y cuidado de los pequeños, muertos en la guerra, el hambre y muchos de ellos y ellas nunca van a la escuela. Jesús, ahora, nos pide cuentas de lo que estamos haciendo por estos inocentes. Reprende a sus discípulos por no poner atención a sus palabras cuando les anuncia otra vez su pasión. Ellos, como nosotros, en muchas ocasiones caminamos diariamente con Jesús, es decir, asistimos a Misa, rezamos el rosario, novenas y hasta vamos a la Adoración del Santísimo Sacramento, pero no cambiamos de vida ni hacemos caso a sus mandamientos.

¿Quién es el más importante? "Si alguno quiere ser el primero, que se haga el último y el servidor de todos" (Marcos 9:35). No olvidemos que Jesús tiene sabiduría eterna y con ella corrige y disipa los miedos internos y externos que podamos tener. Dios nos llama hoy, por medio de su Palabra, a seguirlo sin preguntar quién es el más importante, sino por el contrario, se dé sin reservas en el servicio a su familia y comunidad. Seamos humildes y pidamos, especialmente hoy, por un cambio en la sociedad que sea radical, basado en la justicia y la paz. No bajemos la guardia, si tenemos fe, la esperanza siempre estará de nuestro lado. Nunca olvidemos que el Señor es nuestra ayuda.

STEWARDSHIP VERSE OF THE WEEK

Beloved:

Where jealousy and selfish ambition exist,
there is disorder and every foul practice.
But the wisdom from above is first of all pure,
then peaceable, gentle, compliant,
full of mercy and good fruits,
without inconstancy or insincerity.
And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace
for those who cultivate peace.

Where do the wars
and where do the conflicts among you come from?
Is it not from your passions
that make war within your members?
You covet but do not possess.
You kill and envy but you cannot obtain;
you fight and wage war.
You do not possess because you do not ask.
You ask but do not receive,
because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions.
