

Saint Bede Catholic Church in Williamsburg, VA is seeking a full time Associate Director of Liturgy. Saint Bede, one of the largest churches in the Diocese of Richmond, is committed to excellent music and liturgy and presents a great opportunity to work in a dynamic parish in an outstanding cultural and historic area with a major university. Saint Bede ministries include over 600 volunteers participating in 25 active liturgical ministries. Applicants should have a Bachelor's Degree in Liturgical Studies, Pastoral Ministry, or Theology; or equivalent education Requirements include knowledge of Catholic Church liturgical documents, strong leadership, communication and organizational skills, as well as excellent computer skills. Applicant must be a practicing Catholic in good standing. $53,000 salary with generous benefit package from the Diocese of Richmond.

The Associate Director of Liturgy will be working as a team member within the Office of Liturgy and Music. Principal responsibilities include the formation, coordination, and training of liturgical ministry volunteers, funeral liturgy preparations, and related administrative duties to carry out a comprehensive parish liturgical program.

Candidates should send a cover letter, resume and completed diocesan application to Aaron Renninger arenninger@bedeva.org. Application forms can be found at <https://richmonddiocese.org/office-of-human-resources/> or download here