Around the Table

Rev. Denis B. Theroux, Pastor

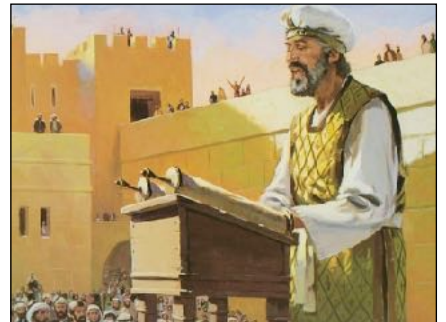

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Friends,

We generally surround something that is precious with clues and other indications that give evidence of its value. The beauty of a diamond, for example, is highlighted by an artistic setting. Applying this to persons and how we value visitors or guests, we often specifically clean and decorate the house in preparation for their coming. We also observe certain rituals of respect, such as bowing, or taking off one's hat, when we come into the presence of someone we respect and honor.

In a similar way, we also act out particular ceremonies when we wish to express a type of commitment to someone. Shaking hands is one such ceremony, and the exchanging of rings is another. But there are many more that we all know. These are commonly accepted ways of indicating how much we appreciate and esteem a particular thing, person, place or situation.

Today's First Reading, from the Book of Nehemiah describes the special ceremonies the Israelites observed to express their appreciation of God and His law. The author tells us first that a platform had been erected from which the Book of the Law could be read by Ezra: "Ezra the scribe stood on a wooden platform that had been made for the occasion." Today, for example, we still build similar platforms for the dignitaries at any important event.

The Book of Nehemiah then continues, detailing how Ezra displayed the scroll on which the law was written, and how the people responded with great reverence: "He opened the scroll so that all the people might see it, for he was standing higher up than any of the people; and as he opened it, all the people rose. Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God, and all the people, their hands raised high, answered, 'Amen, amen!' Then they bowed down and prostrated themselves before the LORD, their faces to the ground."

The declaration, "Amen, amen!" was here a symbol of serious commitment for the Israelites. They were giving themselves to God as both a privilege and a responsibility. To emphasize their further reverence for this sacred commitment, they then ceremoniously bowed and kissed the ground. All these external signs testified to how deeply the Old Testament people understood the significance of their personal relationship with God and their own unique and personal engagement in this solemn agreement.

We, too, are deeply and closely related to God. Our commitment, through Jesus, is that of sons and daughters. This is indeed a possession of highest value and significance. Like the Israelites, therefore, we proclaim our gratitude and appreciation through ceremonies and rituals. And the most beautiful of these, fortunately for us, is not merely a ceremony, but a living experience of our being God's own, whom God feeds as "daughters and sons," in our Eucharistic celebration! We offer ourselves to God—in and through and with Jesus our brother, and we seal our commitment as the Israelites did, with our own profound and joyous, resounding "AMEN!" God's gift to us of the Eucharistic celebration, in its setting through which to demonstrate our precious awareness of our closeness to God and our eternal gratitude for this unique privilege.

Believing and holding firm to Faith, Father Denis

Haiti Outreach Mission

Roger and Dr. Dominique Matthews began the Mission in 1998. It has grown to become a non-profit outreach program that is dedicated to helping the people, especially children of Mirebalais, Haiti—a mountain town approximately 35 miles from Port-au-Prince, Haiti and educating people in the U.S. about this devastated country.

OLV, along with other Catholic, Episcopal, and Baptist churches, provides health care, education, and other services with our partner churches in Mirebalais: They give us a reliable base from which to operate in Haiti (St. Louis Catholic and St. Pierre Episcopal).

The 2019 Mission trip is now scheduled for April 5-12.
Applications now being accepted.

The mission team, made up of doctors, dentists, nurses, and lay people from the member churches, as well as doctors and medical students from Port-au-Prince visit Mirebalais once each year. The Medical team treat patients, at various locations. The Fluoride/Dental hygiene team treats over 1,500 school children and staff with anti-parasite medicine and Fluoride. A small HOM construction team does maintenance work on electrical and water systems. To be a part of this team, please apply by February 15, 2019. There are a limited number of spaces available. Help will be needed setting up mobile medical/dental/fluoride clinics and crowd control.

To apply online: The application form is accessed at www.haitioutreachmission.org. At the bottom of the home page click on the Mission Trip Application bar. Then read the directions and click on the Go to Form bar.

OLV has participated in the Haiti Outreach Mission (HOM) since 2003, providing medical supply donations, financial support with Seed money and leadership. Our Stitching Busy Bodies make clothing and bags for the Children. Founded in 1999, HOM is a tax-exempt 501(c)(3) charitable, ecumenical, organization providing medical and humanitarian aid to the people of Mirebalais, Haiti.

HOM work continues in Mirebalais. The medical/dental St. Pierre Clinic, with full-time physician and full-time dentist, serves patients daily and is fully supported by HOM ($43,550 annually)—service to all children is FREE. The clinic is HOM's single most significant ongoing presence in Mirebalais. HOM also provides financial and maintenance help to 4 local schools.

OLV St. Vincent de Paul Society | Conference #437

In this Sunday's Gospel (Luke 1:1-4, 4:14-21), Jesus reads the words of scripture: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor."

In our baptism, we also have been anointed with the Spirit and are called to look for and help those who are in need. "Today this passage has been fulfilled" is now true when we ourselves respond to those around us who need a nourishing, strengthening and joyful word.

OLV's SVdP Ministry connects with other local charitable organizations such as Northville Civic Concern, to assist those in our community. We make no distinction in those helped because Vincentians see the face of Christ in everyone we serve.

If you feel the need to begin or expand your journey of outreach contact us by leaving your name and contact information on the OLV SVdP Hotline at (248) 349-2622 or e-mail to: stvincent@olvnorthville.net and a Vincentians will contact you.

Or join us at our next SVdP meeting on Tuesday, February 12, at 7:00 p.m., in the St. John XXIII Room.

Dominic's Disciples 2019 Dates

Dominic's Outreach Center is located in Detroit near Trumbull and Warren, directly across from Wayne State University's football field. Each month a handful of parishioners, who call themselves Dominic's Disciples, head down to the outreach center to help sort clothes, toys, school supplies and food as well as cut grass, trim bushes, weed, paint and serve hot dogs at their summer picnic and backpack distribution event. We help the center by responding to the teachings of Jesus Christ. New volunteers are always welcome. Each month you will receive an email reminding you of the upcoming event. There is never any pressure to attend. Volunteers come based on their availability. Remember to always email Nancy Tolkacz if you are able to attend at nancytolkacz@att.net. We typically meet the second Saturday of each month but due to scheduling conflicts we will meet the first Saturday in February and March. Hope to see you on February 2! Here are the 2019 dates. Confirmation Candidates on Retreat

Over the past two weeks, our Confirmation Candidates took a step back from social media and electronics to focus on what it takes to be a disciple in this world. After reading several bible passages, they were able to come up with a job description of characteristics that go into being a disciple and discussed where these skills would be used. They learned that they were each a piece of a bigger puzzle and has the responsibility to discover, develop and use those gifts that God has given them for the greater good. As they continue their journey to confirmation and beyond, pray that each finds their gift(s) and are open to sharing it.

Kelly Bruno, Faith Formation Director

Through our Baptism, we are anointed and become God's disciples. We are the ones called to tell the story of Jesus and his love for all. Ruth Duck's "You Are Called to Tell the Story," written in 1992, reminds us that we must continue the work of Jesus not only by words but by our actions. Ruth Duck is a professor of worship at Garret-Evangelical Theological Seminary in Evanston, Illinois. She is an author and poetess, and her hymn texts deliver powerful yet reverent messages. We can see in this hymn the imagery she uses to help us tell Jesus' story, with the words of "singing, dancing, feeding and filling." 58 of her texts have been published by GIA in the collection "Dancing in the Universe" and many have been set to hymn tunes. This hymn is set to ROSEMARY which was composed by Marty Haugen.

Atheism is on the rise. Skeptical thinkers attack belief in God as irrational or, even worse, dangerous. The so-called New Atheism has attracted millions of young people thanks to bestselling books such as The God Delusion and God Is Not Great. How should Christians respond? How can we turn the tide of secularism and draw people back to God? In The Mystery of God: Who God Is and Why He Matters, Bishop Robert Barron reaches into our rich intellectual tradition to teach us how. Using the insights of St. Augustine, St. Thomas Aquinas, Pope Benedict XVI, he uncovers a clear yet sophisticated understanding of what we mean by "God."

On Wednesday, February 6, our Parish will begin the Mystery of God: Who God Is and Why He Matters, program. This weekly, 6-week program (no session on Ash Wednesday) will run on Wednesdays from 7:00-8:45 p.m., in the John XXIII room. To find out more information or to register, please contact the Parish Office or Nancy Tochman. A short trailer about the program is also available on the OLV Parish website.
