Second Sunday of Advent • December 6, 2020

A Note from Father David

Advent, by its nature, is a very simple and quiet season in the Church. This year, we feel Advent a little differently as we continue to navigate the uncertainty of these stressful times. Can we take time to reflect in faith on how we take God's blessings for granted? Can we bring a more clear expression of our faith to this coming Christmas as we change many of our family traditions and practices? God, who has come in Jesus our Lord, is already among us and desires to lead us to a better place. Do we believe this? Can we strive to break our addictions to things that really don't satisfy us, and that even separate us from each other?

This year, we are not planning any communal reconciliation services during Advent. Instead, Fr. Giancarlo and I will be available at extra times for spiritual conversation and confession. We will be in church with physical distancing and face coverings. If anyone would like to set up an appointment for a more extensive spiritual conversation, contact Fr. Giancarlo, myself, Deacon Mike, Deacon Zaid, or Lorie Bronson directly or through the parish office.

Please remember that, in order to best accommodate people, we will celebrate Christmas masses spread over the whole weekend of December 24-27. Reserve your seats now by going to the parish website or contacting the parish office. Read more about this in the bulletin or on the parish website.

The Immaculate Conception

This Tuesday is the solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, at which we honor our belief that Mary, from the moment of her conception in St. Anne's womb, was free from sin and remained so throughout her life. Her free will cooperated with God's grace to be a pure vessel to bring Jesus, the Son of God, into our broken human condition. Hers is a model of humility, trust, and deep faith, even when there seems to be little or no hope of God's continuing presence.

Please join us for mass if you can. St. John will have mass at 8:15 am (with the rosary prayed at 7:40 am), and at St. Mary, mass will be at 12:15 pm (with the rosary prayed at 11:45 am) and 6:00 pm.

Advent Schedule

This week, confession/conversation times will be:

- Tuesday following 12:15 mass and 6:00 pm mass at St. Mary
- Wednesday 3:00 to 4:00 pm at St. John
- Thursday following 12:15 pm mass at St. Mary and 6:30 to 7:30 pm at St. John

Twice a week during Advent, we will have a holy hour of prayer. These will be Mondays at St. Mary from 6:30 to 7:30 pm and Thursdays at St. John from 9:00 to 10:00 am. During the holy hours, there will be exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, a brief Scripture and reflection, quiet prayer time, concluding with benediction. Join us as we contemplate God's loving care for us through Jesus and our need for the gifts of the Holy Spirit to remain faithful and joyful disciples in these times.

Something new this year: the parish clergy and staff will offer brief online video reflections on the traditional "O Antiphons" every day from December 17-24. More details will be

2020 Christmas Mass Schedule for Downtown Monroe

I want to give you a heads up that we are having a different approach to the Christmas Masses this year. Since we have limited capacities in our churches, and since Christmas is so close to a weekend, we will be asking people to consider the whole four day weekend, from Christmas Eve, Thursday, December 24, through Sunday, December 27 as one celebration of Christmas. The archbishop is asking everyone who is able to physically to come to Mass to plan on coming once that weekend (Thur-Fri-Sat-Sun) for your Christmas Mass. This way we can better accommodate everyone. The Masses will all have the same Christmas "feel", with no special features like involvement of the children or choir musical pieces (since we cannot have choirs at this time). We will plan to have signups for the Christmas Eve and Christmas Day Masses on Thursday and Friday. This information will be made available in the coming weeks and we will do a general parish mailing as well.

For our regular parishioners, I would ask that you consider coming to Mass on Saturday afternoon or Sunday for Christmas to help us better accommodate our visitors and those that we cannot communicate with as easily. Thank you for your understanding as we strive to be welcoming evangelizing in this year that is not like any other that we have known.

The CSA gives us an opportunity to live out our discipleship in Christ through the many benefits our annual appeal provides. These ministries, programs, and services meet the spiritual and physical needs of parishes and countless people throughout the Archdiocese. Our support demonstrates our own Catholic faith as we strive to grow in our love of Jesus as His missionary disciples.

When we embrace the CSA for carrying out the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy, we witness Christ, and in turn, we open doors so others may also develop a deeper relationship with Him. We also extend our personal involvement in our local Church beyond our home parishes.

The CSA enables Archbishop Vigneron, his auxiliary bishops, the clergy, religious men and women, and the lay faithful to carry out Christ's ministry of mercy and love throughout southeast Michigan and beyond — works no one individual or parish could possibly do alone.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

As we begin this new liturgical, we turn to the Gospel of Mark. I was able to study the Gospel of Mark twice in my seminary studies. I took one course called "Synoptic Gospels" where we studied the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke. I also chose to take a class specifically on the Gospel of Mark. I am fascinated by Mark. This is the shortest Gospel of the four.

Unlike Matthew and Luke, Mark reports no genealogy for Jesus, yet he establishes Jesus' honorable status and authority. When we read the Sacred Scriptures we must keep in mind what The Second Vatican Council's Dogmatic Constitution on Divine Revelation, Dei Verbum tells us, "investigate what the sacred writer intended to express and actually expressed". Who wrote the Gospel of Mark? There is debate by scholars as to who Mark was, yet tradition has it that a certain "Mark", companion of Peter in Rome (1 Pt 5:13) is the writer of the Gospel. Although Mark's Gospel appears after Matthew's Gospel, Mark's Gospel was actually written first. When we read Mark's Gospel, it reads like an eye-witness account. It is short, blunt, and the most primitive!

Mark calls his work a Gospel. This was originally a secular term meaning "good news" and was generally reserved for such special announcements as the birth of a king, a decisive victory in battle, or the inauguration of an emperor. Thus, the very first words of Mark's Gospel reminds us that Jesus will issue in a new era with new hope. What is the reason for our hope? Jesus is the Son of God. The Good News or Gospel, then, is that the Son of God became man and laid down his life to save us.

Brothers and sisters as we continue to seek a new normal and the end of COVID-19, we turn to Jesus the Son of God to be our only hope and source of refuge. Maybe during these days of Advent, you can read a chapter of Mark every day (if you do, you can finish the Gospel before the New Year). Be blessed and be a blessing

Deacon Zaid

Monroe Knights of Columbus Council #1266 Knights For Life

The Monroe Council would like announce AND thank everyone who helped to make the 2020 "Coats for Kids" drive a huge success! Battling through this pandemic year our Brother Knights rolled up their sleeves and worked persistently determined to continue this much needed program for the needy children of Monroe. When all donations were totaled we can actually announce that we will be purchasing more coats than last season!

The Monroe Council joined in this K of C national program in 2009. Each year as more Knights have join in with the drive the donations have increased and the total number of coats purchased has steadily multiplied. In our first year 15 cases were purchased. Now in our 11th year we will be providing 26 cases of coats. That means 312 children will have safe winter coats this year!

Money raised to purchase these coats came from members donations, local businesses, and a Dance Class that was utilized as a fund raiser.

All money raised in this program stays in Monroe County! 100% of the money raised go to purchase new coats. The coats will be distributed out to the public November 21st.

Lay Leanings... By Deacon Mike Stewart

Several years ago, in the process of moving between rented college housing, our daughter acquired an old, large, and very bulky coffee table. I know ... I've moved it a few times, and the last time, up three flights of stairs. Not only is this table a behemoth, but at one time it looked like it was dragged behind a car. Before I was forced to lug this monstrosity up yet another flight of stairs, I tried bribing her with money to let me give it a proper burial ... in the dumpster of her apartment complex. Nothing doing. Though she bought it for pocket change, it's become a conversation piece, and so it stayed.

So attached was my daughter to this table, that she eventually convinced her now -husband to help her refinish it. The first order of business was to bring it home, since she couldn't do that sort of work in her small apartment. Once again, I offered her money to let me 'take it for a ride.' Nothing doing. For a time, the table sat dry-docked in my garage while my car sat out in the cold.

Even before she started to strip the finish from the table, I continued to try and convince her to come to her senses. Surely there was a better way to invest your time, I assured her. But to my surprise, as I went into the garage a couple hours later, I saw a beautiful, unfinished piece of art, with the vibrant grain now evident in the freshly bleached and sanded wood. Not long after, the first coat of mahogany stain was applied, and the following day, the glossy coat. That old beast of a table - my dumpster dream - was, in reality, a very beautiful piece of furniture.

So what was the difference between the value my daughter placed on this table and mine? I saw value in its past; she saw its value in its future. I didn't see beauty, I saw battered. She saw beauty through the battered. I was prepared to take the easy path which would have never allowed us to see the potential of this table. She never even considered that path because all she could see was the potential.

That old table is a constant reminder to me of the people I've encountered in my life who have become my used up furniture ... never allowing me to see their true potential, clouded only by my view of their past. And yet, every life, even those allegedly used up, has value in the eyes of our Creator. Let's pray about that.

So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows. Matthew 10:31
