Fill our hearts, O Lord, with Your love, the deepest, richest, purest love any of us has ever known. May Your love be our standard for love. May Your love be what we bring and communicate to the world. May Your love define us as Christians, made in Your image and likeness. Amen. ©LPi

Honoring Mary and Embracing a Culture of Life

Every Tuesday in May, 7:00 pm | In the Church

Come pray the Rosary for Life with us this May. As we honor Mary, the Mother of Life, we lift our hearts in prayer for the protection and dignity of every human life—from conception to natural death. United as a faith community and inspired by Mary's loving example, we seek to build a culture that honors and safeguards the sacred gift of life. All are welcome!

Notre Dame Folk Choir: Drawn to the Table

Saturday, May 24, 7:00 pm | In the Church

The University of Notre Dame Folk Choir comprises 65 undergraduate students passionate about sharing their faith through vibrant and inspiring music. Their latest creation, Drawn Back to the Table, is a powerful musical adaptation inspired by the Road to Emmaus scripture. Developed collaboratively by the students themselves, this performance invites both participants and audiences into a profound reflection on the Paschal Mystery—the Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus—while exploring the challenging and meaningful questions faced by young people in today's Church.

Please consider hosting two or more members of the choir for ONE night while the choir is in the Redondo Beach area.

Cardinal MacIntyre Fund Collection This Weekend

The Cardinal MacIntyre Fund provides emergency help to people with nowhere else to go. The Fund is not a replacement or supplement for welfare or other forms of public assistance. It does not support persons' living needs continuously, instead the Fund acts to solve immediate, pressing problems: food and milk for three days, lodging for the night, emergency medical care, rent to tide over a financial crisis or a utility bill to keep the water or heat turned on for the week. This week, please prayerfully consider your support of this critical initiative.

GOSPEL MEDITATION by FR. JOHN MUIR

I've always found it amazing that Jesus never says to his disciples the straightforward and bumper stickery words "I love you" or "I will always love you" (a la Dolly Parton's song). Why doesn't Jesus say, "I love you"?

Well, actually he does, but in particular ways. He says, "As the Father loves me, so I love you" (John 15:9) thereby rooting his love for us in the space of the Holy Trinity. This week he commands, "Love another as I have loved you" (John 13:34). He presents his love for us as a completed action which continues into the present moment. How has he loved us? By becoming one of us, one with us, and finally giving his life for us in his suffering on the cross. We weren't there when he did that, but neither were his Apostles (except one). Still, that action is his great "I love you" to us.

His love is also hedged in a command: "Love one another." So how can we practically follow it? The great St. John XXIII wrote in his diary that each day he followed this rule: "Only for today, I will do one good deed and not tell anyone about it." The hidden nature of a good deed is a sign that it is truly loving. This week, take on St. John XXIII's practical method of following Jesus' great commandment of love. It's a splendid way to say, "I love you." ©LPI

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Mini Reflection: When we love someone, we want to be associated with them. We want to be recognized as theirs somehow. And if we love Christ, we should want to be known as belonging to him. We should want those who see us to know we are his.

Resembling Jesus

I once wrote an article about several women residents of a local nursing home. In researching the piece, I discovered that they had grown up in the same neighborhood as my grandmother, and that one of the women was, in fact, my grandmother's dearest childhood friend.

When I visited this woman to take her photograph, she took a long look at my face, and I could see in her eyes that she was reaching back in her memory across the years.

She said: "You resemble her."

I wept on the way home.

My grandmother died when I was nine, and for the last several years of her life she suffered from Alzheimer's disease. I have always deeply grieved the time we lost, the relationship we could have had. I have hazy fragments of memory from before her illness that lead me to believe we loved each other very much.

Being told I look like my grandmother by someone who knew her well — being identified as belonging to her in some way — was one of the more beautiful things to happen to me.

When we love someone, we want to be associated with them. We want to be recognized as theirs somehow. And if we love Christ, we should want to be known as belonging to him. We should want those who see us to know we are his.

The only way we can resemble Jesus is through love. It is his most recognizable quality, his most famous trait. This is how all will know that you are my disciples.

As Catholics, we are always talking about finding ways to live our faith boldly, unapologetically, publicly. Good — we should! But if we want people to know we are Catholic, we should love them. Bravely. Recklessly. Sacrificially.

- Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman . ©LPI

LIVE THE LITURGY

If you love like me, Jesus tells his disciples, they will know you are mine. We shouldn't leave any room for doubt in the minds of each and every person we encounter. Let the whole world know: we love like Christ, and we belong to Christ ©LPI

EXCEPT FROM URBI ET ORBI BLESSING OF HIS HOLINESS POPE LEO XIV

God loves us, God loves you all, and evil will not prevail! We are all in God's hands. Therefore, without fear, united hand in hand with God and each other — let us go forward. We are disciples of Christ. Christ goes before us.

The world needs His light. Humanity needs Him as the bridge to be reached by God and his love. Help us also, and then help each other to build bridges, with dialogue, with encounter, uniting us all to be one people always at peace...

To all of you, brothers and sisters from Rome, from Italy, from all over the world, we want to be a synodal Church, a church that walks, a church that always seeks peace, that always seeks charity, that always seeks to be close especially to those who suffer.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

1st Reading: Despite facing many hardships, Paul and Barnabas succeeded in preaching the good news of Jesus crucified and risen from the dead. How do you work through personal setbacks?

2nd Reading: At the start of his final vision, John sees the age to come in which God comes to dwell with his people on earth and all tears, pain and even death itself is gone. Who in your life needs to hear this incredible message of hope?

Gospel: Jesus modeled for his disciples how to love one another. Do you have friends or co-workers who show you how to love others? ©LPI

FOLK CHOIR FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME COMING TO SLM MAY 24

Mark your calendar for a night of inspiration: Saturday, May 24 at 7PM, right here at SLM as the 65-member Folk Choir from the University of Notre Dame, Indiana, makes SLM its final stop on their 2025 Arizona-California concert tour! Experience Drawn Back to the Table, a musical adaptation of Christ's the Passion and Resurrection. This is an original and captivating retelling of key Gospel narratives surrounding Jesus' ministry and the cornerstone moments of Christian faith.

A freewill offering will be collected at each performance to help fund the choir's upcoming album and their anticipated East Asia tour in May 2026, further spreading their mission of faith and love worldwide. Parishioners have been inquiring how they can help support this concert. Here's how you can help:

1) You can sponsor a dinner for a choir member in the amount of $20 payable to "SLM." Please indicate "Parish Support 6/24" in the memo line of your check.

2) You can spread the word about the concert to friends, family, or anyone who you think would enjoy the performance, and

3) Offer homestay for these students. The generosity of SLM parishioners in welcoming members of this choir into our homes fosters SLM's spirit of community and connection. Please consider hosting two or more members of the choir for ONE night while the choir is in the Redondo Beach area. The schedule is:

Women in Transition

Maybe you've wondered about our group and thought, "I'm not in transition. Nothing is changing in my life." Our lives are changing from day to day, from moment to moment, feeling full one day and empty the next, happy one day and sad the next. Sometimes we feel as though we are in the midst of chaos; our lives are spinning out of control, and we are the only ones who experience these emotions. We can find comfort in learning that we are not alone; that others are likely spinning in similar orbits. Together, in this group, let's share our lives.

READING ROUNDUP

In traditional book groups, people show up having read the book, but there's a lot to be said for sharing the experience of reading together. The Reading Roundup is a silent book group where we read together quietly before we discuss. Bring whatever you are reading. We will read for about an hour and then talk about the book we decided to bring and why we like it. Be prepared for many interesting discussions in our politically free zone!

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN: AGE-APPROPRIATE CURIOSITY IN YOUNG CHILDREN

Knowing the difference between age-appropriate and inappropriate behaviors in children can help safe adults determine whether something feels "off" about a child's behavior and could indicate potential sexual abuse. For preschool children and young children (around ages 4-6), exploring their bodies is natural. They are not yet old enough to understand the idea of "private" naturally, and may also be curious about others' bodies – parents, friends, etc. These behaviors are common and developmentally appropriate for their age and stage. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "Differentiating age-appropriate curiosity from harmful sexual behavior" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.
