PRAYER FOR EVERYDAY

Glory be to God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit, who calls us into communion with Him, a life of grace and mystery, reconciliation and unity. Amen. ©LPI

Holy Hour Against Racism

Thursday, June 19 | 7:00 pm | In the Church

Juneteenth, often called our country's second Independence Day, marks June 19, 1865, when enslaved people in Galveston, Texas, were finally freed—two years after the Emancipation Proclamation. "The Eucharist challenges us to recognize and confront structures of sin." (USCCB) Join us in Eucharistic Adoration as we pray for transformation and go forth as the Body of Christ in the world.

Get On The Bus Thank You!

Thank you for your generous support for Get on the Bus (GOTB) during our 2025 fund drive. St. Lawrence Martyr parishioners donated $6,436.21 for a Mother's Day visit to Central California Women's Facility (CCWF) in Chowchilla, CA. These visits help repair and maintain relationships between parents and children, breaking the cycle of incarceration. Special thanks to Ms. Olson's 5th Grade class and Ms. Baez's 2nd grade class for collecting board games and writing letters of encouragement for the children visiting their mothers on May 10th.

Pancake Breakfast a Success!

Thank you to all who came out to support our Boy Scouts at their Pancake Breakfast Fundraiser last Sunday.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

GOSPEL MEDITATION by FR. JOHN MUIR

I am amazed at how my four siblings teach their many kids in age-appropriate ways. For example, now that my nephew Brandon is 24 years of age, they give him insights and freedoms that would have been positively confounding or even dangerous when he was a toddler. Imagine if they had taught him at age four how to drive a car, use a credit card online, or handle power tools. But eventually, they did, and he is a high functioning young man, I'm proud to say. They are good teachers.

This week we learn that Jesus teaches us in a similar way. He says to his Apostles, "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now" (John 16:12). How disappointing for them. But imagine at that moment, before his resurrection and ascension, if the Lord had started telling them about synods and sacraments, popes and parishes, martyrs and monasteries, rosaries and relics, catechisms and crucifixes? They would have been absolutely overwhelmed, confused, and discouraged. He tells them what they need to know, when it is time for them to know it.

So he does for us. Jesus has unceasingly taught the Church as she matures through the centuries, just as he teaches you and me through our lives in ways we can understand. Our task should be to learn what he is teaching us now, knowing that (although revelation per se is complete in him and his Apostles), he never ceases to teach us as we spiritually mature. Be confident: he knows what you are ready to learn now. ©LPi

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Mini Reflection: Why do we love mysteries so much? Because God is a mystery. And that's never as clear as it is today, on the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity, the mystery that boondoggles us all. Four relations. Three persons. One God.

The Best Kind of Mystery

If I've heard it once, I've heard it a hundred times. My daughter is obsessed with mysteries. It's not enough for her to read about them in the pages of every Nancy Drew book she can get her hands on. She wants more than that. She wants a real-life mystery. A puzzle that resists being solved. A question that eludes an answer. Something that isn't easy to wrap her head around.

And not surprisingly, she's not satisfied with the "mysteries" I can offer her. The Mystery of Mom's Missing Hair Tie (spoiler alert: it was in my purse). The Mystery of the Missing Lunch Ham (oops, Mom finished it).

Simple answers are so boring. "Will I ever have a real mystery?" she moans.

I get it. We're all this way, really. We are drawn to the mysterious, to the inscrutable. It's because we know that the answers to the really big questions are ones that can't be explained in a neat and tidy way. We know that the reality of life and love and the human condition is something we can't quite fit our heads around. We know that there is so much in this world, in this universe, that we can't...understand. So, in a way, mysteries are the only things that really make sense to us.

Why do we love mysteries so much? Because God is a mystery. And that's never as clear as it is today, on the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity, the mystery that boondoggles us all. Four relations. Three persons. One God.

Don't ask me to explain it. I could, but I don't have the word space, and frankly, it might not even make sense then. It's a mystery, you see. A real one. The best kind.

- Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman . ©LPi

LIVE THE LITURGY

Jesus knew how it would be. He knew we would stumble in the dark, grasping for answers. And so he sent us a light: the Holy Spirit, the illumination of all that is true. Dare we look into the light? Are we ready to see the truth? ©LPi

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

1st Reading: Proverbs teaches us that the wisdom of God was present with God throughout creation, playing on earth and finding delight in humans. What brings delight to your life?

2nd Reading: Paul encouraged believers that in Jesus we have peace with God and through the Holy Spirit we have the love of God in our hearts. Why do you think these fruits of the Holy Trinity have been given to us?

Gospel: Jesus taught his disciples that the Spirit gives to believers everything the Father has given to the Son. When have you been generous to others? ©LPI

BLESSING OF FATHERS

God and Father of all creation, we come before you today with humble hearts. You are our model of a loving father. When we fail and fall short of your expectations, you are always there at the end of the day with open arms, ready to heal the cuts and scrapes of the day and to encourage us to try again and not to give up.

We hold up these men in our midst who act in the world as fathers to their children or models of fathers for others.

Bless them in their moments of doubt and frustration with their children. Give them warm and open hearts to forgive failures. Provide them with the words needed for encouragement and perseverance. We ask all this in the name of Jesus. Amen.

See You in the Eucharist

A SONG FOR THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

I BELIEVE IN GOD OUR FATHER
I BELIEVE IN CHRIST THE SON
I BELIEVE IN THE HOLY SPIRIT
OUR GOD IS THREE IN ONE
I BELIEVE IN THE RESURRECTION
THAT WE WILL RISE AGAIN
FOR I BELIEVE IN THE NAME OF JESUS

The song This I Believe (Creed), by Matt Crocker and Ben Fielding, has the refrain above. The song continues with these verses:

Our Father everlasting/ The all creating One/ God Almighty/Through Your Holy Spirit/ Conceiving Christ the Son/ Jesus our Saviour

Our judge and our defender/ Suffered and crucified/ Forgiveness is in You/ Descended into darkness/ You rose in glorious life/ Forever seated high

I believe in You/ I believe You rose again/ I believe that Jesus Christ is Lord

I believe in life eternal/ I believe in the virgin birth/ I believe in the saints' communion/ And in Your holy Church/ I believe in the resurrection/ When Jesus comes again/ For I believe in the Name of Jesus

Women in Transition

Maybe you've wondered about our group and thought, "I'm not in transition. Nothing is changing in my life." Our lives are changing from day to day, from moment to moment, feeling full one day and empty the next, happy one day and sad the next. Sometimes we feel as though we are in the midst of chaos; our lives are spinning out of control, and we are the only ones who experience these emotions. We can find comfort in learning that we are not alone; that others are likely spinning in similar orbits. Together, in this group, let's share our lives.

READING ROUNDUP

In traditional book groups, people show up having read the book, but there's a lot to be said for sharing the experience of reading together. The Reading Roundup is a silent book group where we read together quietly before we discuss. Bring whatever you are reading. We will read for about an hour and then talk about the book we decided to bring and why we like it. Be prepared for many interesting discussions in our politically free zone!

Christian Family Movement

Strengthening Families, Building Communities

The Christian Family Movement (CFM) are small groups that meet monthly to discuss topics through the lens of faith, provide support for each other, and practice putting our faith in action. CFM members share life, faith, and best practices. They build friendships that are welcoming and that inspire an active faith. CFM creates a family of families within our parish. We have three CFM groups at SLM, each meets once a month.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN: BODY SAFETY INFORMATION FOR YOUNG CHILDREN

Children should know the difference between “okay” and “not okay” or “good” and “bad” touches – touches that are welcome and comforting, and those that are intrusive, unwanted, painful, or uncomfortable. Children should know that they have the right to say “no” to being touched, even to adults, and that no children or adults should touch their private parts unless in very specific circumstances, and for a healthy purpose. This is where it can be helpful to discuss “safe adults,” like doctors, who check our bodies to help keep us healthy, and only in the presence of a parent or trusted adult.
