PRAYER FOR EVERYDAY

Glory be to God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit, who calls us into communion with Him, a life of grace and mystery, reconciliation and unity. Amen. ©LPI

Paddle N Praise Was A Hit

Fun was had by all this past Saturday for the inaugural Paddle N Praise (Pickleball) event as our Church joyfully celebrated the Jubilee of Sport! From the very first serve to the final prayer, our parish came together in faith, fellowship, and fun. We opened with a short reflection and prayer, centering our hearts on Christ, then hit the courts for friendly matches filled with laughter, encouragement, and great spirit. Whether you were a seasoned player or picking up a paddle for the first time, the energy was contagious and the sense of community inspiring.

If you missed it—don't worry! We'll be back on Saturday, June 28, for our next session. Come out and be a part of the fastest-growing sport in the country, all while celebrating our faith in a joyful and active way. Bring a friend, your paddle, and your praise—we can't wait to see you there!

Men, Do You Feel Called to be a Deacon?

Sunday, July 13, 2-4pm | Diaconate Virtual Information Day

Deacons are called to a threefold ministry in the life of the Church. Their life is one of "word, sacrament, and charity." They are most visibly seen on the altar, proclaiming the Word and being ministers of the cup, but this is just one small part of their ministry. A deacon is primarily called to serve his community, to see a need, and to fulfill it. Our deacons at Saint Lawrence serve in a variety of ministries, from feeding the poor to protecting all life to ministering to the marginalized; they live out that call to serve daily in these ministries. We always need more deacons, so if you feel that you may be called to be a deacon, take some time to speak with one of our deacons.

We encourage you to register by sending your name, parish & pastor's name to Deacon Melecio Zamora (dmz2011@la-archdiocese.org).

GOSPEL MEDITATION by FR. JOHN MUIR

A Catholic friend of mine occasionally says, “The Eucharist is not a noun. It’s a verb.” In so saying, he is making the point that the Eucharist isn’t simply Jesus’ bodily presence given to us in holy Communion. It also manifests the dynamic pattern by which Christ actively loves and saves us. He teaches us to cooperate with that pattern. This Eucharist actually embodies four verbs: Jesus takes, blesses, breaks, and gives. Let’s consider each one.

He takes: Do we acknowledge that we are totally in God’s hands? Do we receive everything in our lives as a gift, and act responsibly with it?

He blesses: Do we actively reflect that Jesus makes us holy in our baptism? Do we embrace our bodies and souls as temples of God, worthy of love, peace, and joy?

He breaks: Do we run from failure and disappointment, from getting old or being ignored? Are we too worried about getting hurt or sick? Do we embrace our sufferings with confidence?

He gives: Are we willing to make our lives a gift for others? Are we confident that we will always have enough love to give to others, that God will always provide enough for us? Do we rejoice in giving away what we have to others, expecting nothing in return? This is the dynamic life the Eucharist empowers us to live. ©LPI

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Mini Reflection: Sometimes we forget that we need the Eucharist. It’s not just a nice thing to have, a sweet act of devotion, something to bolster our faith. The Eucharist is none of those things. The Eucharist is the food without which we will die.

As the Day Was Drawing to a Close

It isn’t uncommon for me to get to the noon hour only to realize that I haven’t yet eaten anything that day.

It drives my husband crazy. He was raised by a bunch of Italian women, so he can’t help but think three meals ahead. And don’t get me wrong, I love food — I literally dream of donuts. But some days, I’m just so busy and I keep putting it off until I realize how weak I feel, how light-headed. And I think to myself: Stupid, you’ve done it again.

This is what comes to mind today, on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, as I read the Gospel account of the miracle of the loaves and fishes.

I think of hunger, distraction and the poor planning of those who pride themselves on being capable.

“As the day was drawing to a close,” it is written — that’s when the disciples finally realized that 5,000 hangry people is not an ideal situation.

I wonder, did Jesus roll his eyes when they came to him, and think, “Finally”? At any point he could have pulled out a fish and said a blessing. But he waited for them to ask. He waited for them to realize how badly they needed it.

Sometimes we forget that we need the Eucharist. It’s not just a nice thing to have, a sweet act of devotion, a sacramental item that bolsters our faith. The Eucharist is none of those things. The Eucharist is the food without which we will die. The Eucharist is something we must seek out. Remember: the day is drawing to a close.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

1st Reading: In reaction to the thanksgiving meal of bread and wine, Abram generously gave Melchizedek a tenth of his possessions. What could you give back to God this week out of gratitude?

2nd Reading: Paul tells us from the very beginning the early Church celebrated the Eucharistic meal as a remembrance of Jesus' death and as central to our faith. How does the Eucharist strengthen your faith?

Gospel: The miracle of the feeding of the 5,000 underscores Jesus' desire to feed us. What do you find yourself hungry for today? ©LPI

LIVE THE LITURGY

Five loaves and two fish: a measly portion of food for such a large crowd of people. But we must remember that it doesn't matter what the size of our offering is. If we only lay it before Christ, he will take it and make it a mighty bounty. ©LPI

Sign Before the Gospel

Question: I have been going to Mass for years and have always wondered: why do we make the three signs of the cross before the Gospel?

Answer: Certainly, many people go to Mass or other devotions, doing and saying things out of habit or reverence and not really understanding the reasons behind some of these things. But everything we do has a meaning or purpose that helps us to worship better, proclaim our beliefs, or focus the attention of the people on something that has a greater importance or significance. A review of the meaning of various gestures and practices can help us have a deeper appreciation for what we do.

There is a little prayer that goes with the three crosses before the Gospel: "May the words of the Holy Gospel be on my mind, on my lips and in my heart." In standing to hear the Gospel, we acknowledge that Jesus is present, and the words of the Gospel are addressed to us. All of the gestures and special postures we adopt before the Gospel are intended to help us prepare for hearing the Word as well as act on it. The incense, the Alleluia, the deacon or priest, and the special dialogue and announcement that introduces the Gospel help us focus our attention on the Good News we are about to hear. The three signs of the cross show our desire and good intention to hear and live the Gospel.

See You in the Eucharist

On Friday, June 27 at 7PM, members of the St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Community and surrounding parishes are going to enjoy an evening of music at SLM's Parish Hall, featuring the Kundirana choir from De La Salle College-Green Hills, Philippines. Concert admission is free, and doors will open at 6:30PM. A free will offering will be taken up during intermission.

These singers will perform such hits as: Love Changes Everything, Sugar Pie Honeybunch, Please Release Me, a bouquet of Philippine classical music (Flor de Manila, O Ilaw, Bituing Marikit, ..), Uptown Girl, One Moment in Time, Mania, Stay With Me, State of the Nation, Ave Maria (Bach-Gounod), La Donna e Mobile, You're Just Too Good To Be True, L'important C'est la Rose, Together in Electric Dreams, We Will Rock You ...

Coordination of this event by Music Ministry is through the parish's Operations & Events office, Communications office, in cooperation with the Pastoral Staff; and the Cookie Ministry is providing, well, ... cookies.

Mga Kababayan: If you would like to make a donation toward this event through SLM (for tax deduction purposes), please do so by cash or check (payable to "SLM" indicating "Parish Support 6/27" in the memo line) and submit it to the Pastoral Center office.

Caregivers, Take Time To Care For Yourself

An informal gathering of people whose lives are directly or indirectly affected by their caregiving of parents, children, spouses, or anyone whose lives are directly or indirectly affected by their caregiving. Our group is a safe place where feelings about God, spirituality, and struggles are shared; where issues of isolation and loneliness are addressed; where, as a group, individuals find the courage and strength to continue on; where caregivers teach each other ways to strengthen their relationship with God and with our community.

Fourth Sunday of the month @ 10:30 AM in the Parish Center.

MICHELANGELO MINISTRY

"Art enables us to find ourselves and lose ourselves at the same time" - Thomas Merton
We invite you to .explore the artist within you, to learn to hear the Holy Spirit guiding you towards your creativity. Don't be shy! This is a ministry where the slogan "No experience necessary" holds true and is a socially supportive and safe space to explore, create, and grow. We will learn and laugh and be joyful together through art. And if you just want to show up and paint rocks, this is the place for you! Rocks and paint will always be on hand.

2nd & 4th Monday each month | 10:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon | Parish Hall - upstairs

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN: EXPLAINING SEXUAL ABUSE TO SCHOOL-AGED CHILDREN

School-aged children should be taught about the dangers of sexual abuse, and the signs of risky situations that could lead to potential abuse. Sexual abuse and exploitation does not only happen through in-person touch; it can happen online or through the phone as well. For this reason, it's important that children know what is and is not okay for adults and others to do. Risky situations can include being asked to send photos, or being contacted by someone you don't know online. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "Sharing Developmental, Age-Appropriate Information with Children" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

Bring before the Heart of Christ your most painful and fragile parts, those places in your life where you feel stuck and blocked. Let us trustfully ask the Lord to listen to our cry, and to heal us!
