PRAYER FOR EVERYDAY

Lord, I do not know what any day holds, I cannot take for granted any of the gifts You have given. Help me to use them, then, as You would have me. Help me to live according to Your invitations. Amen. ©LPI

Singalong Jam Night Brings Community Together

On July 21, voices of all ages filled the air at Singalong Jam Night. Some brought instruments, all brought enthusiasm. With every song, the crowd sang in harmony, creating a joyful, unforgettable evening. Everyone left smiling. If you missed it, join us on Monday, August 18th! Bring your voice, your instrument, or just your love of music—we'll be jamming again!

Thank You from the PREP Art Show

We are grateful for your support, donations, art sales and the relationships we made in our time with you. We pray continued blessings on you and this parish. You are a phenomenal parish and we love and thank you.

Parish Facilities to Be Tented – No Masses August 5-7

The rectory and church buildings will be tented for termite eradication from Tuesday, August 5, through Thursday, August 7. There will be no Masses during this time, and for safety reasons, the entire campus, including the parking lot, will be closed. Please note that the Holy Hour and Catechism & Coffee will also be canceled during these dates. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation as we care for our parish facilities.

Adult Confirmation

Are you a baptized Catholic who has not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation? We invite you to join our upcoming Adult Confirmation preparation classes! This is a wonderful opportunity to deepen your faith and complete your initiation into the Church. More details to come—stay tuned!

GOSPEL MEDITATION by FR. JOHN MUIR

Recent studies suggest that millennials will be the first generation in America to be worse off than their parents in terms of financial earnings and job status. Many lament this. I propose that this week's Gospel provides a hopeful way to see the trend as good news.

The Lord Jesus says, "Take care to guard against greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist in possessions" (Luke 12:15). Greed damages us with the deception that we are what we possess. But to Jesus, this is simply not true. What makes us happy is who we are, who we become.

Does not the expectation that every generation should do better than their parents subtly mask the poison of greed? A similar attitude is mirrored in the man who demands that Jesus justly arrange his share of the family inheritance. Despite the injustice, Jesus will not play that game. In fact, he seems to prefer that the man have less than his parents. What good would having more be to this man if he becomes enslaved and miserable by greed? What good would it be for us to have more if it means we become much less?

In allowing the man to have less, Jesus opens a space for him to become more: a man free to love. In that much more meaningful sense, perhaps he was better off than his parents. Maybe the millennials will be, too. ©LPI

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Mini Reflection: If I die tonight, the deadlines will go unmet, and no one will even notice. But God, when He meets me in the world to come, will surely ask me why I couldn't take 45 minutes to accept a gift He tried again and again to give me.

The Barn

It's 9:08 on a Saturday morning, and I am too darn busy for confession.

I've probably written before about how hard I find it to get to confession — I say 'probably' because I really can't remember. I whine about it so frequently that it's hard to tell if I've made it the subject of a written piece or if it is simply an oft-recited refrain from the Litany of Colleen's Perpetual Complaints.

During the week, it's tough to get to confession because I have little kids who are attached to me like Velcro, and I don't need them listening in on (and eventually repeating to everyone) my sins. On the weekend it's a little easier, but our parish doesn't offer it before or after Sunday Mass, just on Saturdays. Saturday is when I get most of my work done, so getting absolution usually comes at the expense of productivity.

And that, friends, right here, is my barn. Productivity. That's the proverbial storehouse of my earthly harvest. For the rich man in the parable, it's a literal barn, filled to bursting with sellable crops. For you it might be money or your job title or what your life looks like to other people on social media. For me, it's Getting Things Done. That's my barn, the repository that holds the whole of my worldly preoccupations.

And it's so full I want to tear it down and build a new one. A bigger one. One that can hold more worry, more time for work, more focus on output and crossing things off a to-do list. Vanity of vanities, indeed.

If I die tonight, the deadlines will go unmet, and no one will even notice. But God, when He meets me in the world to come, will surely ask me why I couldn't take 45 minutes to accept a gift He tried again and again to give me.

I have to burn the barn, friends. I don't want to, but I have to. I'm closing my laptop and going to church.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Jesus warns us that at any moment we can be called before God to face judgment. When we are, our life will be measured not in dollars or accomplishments, but in what matters to God. What do we have to show for our time spent on earth? ©LPI

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

1st Reading: The author of Ecclesiastes speaks of the futility of an anxious heart and restless mind. What helps to ground you in your day-to-day living?

2nd Reading: Paul encourages the Colossians to put to death the “old self” (bad behavior) and to live into the “new self” (life in Christ). What could you do this week to practice this “new self”?

Gospel: Jesus tells the crowds the parable of the rich fool, warning against excessive material wealth. How do you balance your material needs with “what matters to God”?

©LPI

THE ROSARY

Although a longstanding tradition attributed the rosary to Saint Dominic and the Dominican Order, the practice of using beads to count prayers predates the Dominicans by a few hundred years. In fact, it seems that what we now think of as the rosary (which means “garland of roses”) was first developed by illiterate peasants and religious brothers and sisters as a way of offering 150 “Our Fathers” to replace the praying of the 150 psalms in the Divine Office.

The practice of reciting 150 Hail Marys (which was later subdivided into 15 decades of 10 Hail Marys) arose during the late Middle Ages. Devotion to the rosary began to flourish in the nineteenth century, especially as new devotions to Mary began to spread throughout Europe and the New World. An annual liturgical celebration of Our Lady of the Rosary was introduced into the Church calendar in 1573 and it has been observed on the date of October 7 since 1913.

In the apostolic letter On the Most Holy Rosary, Pope Saint John Paul II not only added five new mysteries to the traditional fifteen, but he also reminded Catholics that the rosary is, at its core, an opportunity to go deeper into the life of Jesus: “The rosary, though clearly Marian in character, is at heart a Christocentric prayer... It has all the depth of the Gospel message in its entirety, of which it can be said to be a compendium. It is an echo of Mary’s prayer, her perennial Magnificat... With the rosary, the Christian people sit at the school of Mary and are led to contemplate the beauty of the face of Christ and to experience the depths of his love”. ©LPI

ON THE DEATH OF A LOVED-ONE

See You in the Eucharist

WHEN PRAYER IS THE FIRST RESORT

I remember quite vividly, in the Fall of 2020, the moment my doctor diagnosed me with colon cancer. Moments immediately after my initial shock, my heart went directly to the song “Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble. Be with me, Lord, I pray,” from Psalm 91. Even though in the text I asked the Lord to be with me, what I was really praying is that, amid this shocking news, “I pray that I, myself, would be with the Lord during this time of trouble.” See, the Lord is always with us. Whether or not we recognize his presence among us all the time is another story.

We pray to God when we need something, when things go awry. When things go well for us, we may not necessarily have to think about God. But what if we think about God when things do go well and when things do not go so well? What if prayer is always the first resort? What if our response when good things happen is “Praise God!”? And what if our response to bad news is “God help us!”? What if prayer is both the first resort and the last resort? How would that make our life truly God-centered?

I believe that God is always thinking about me/us, because the moment God stops thinking about me/us, I/we would cease to exist. It is this attitude that I see life—and everything in it—as a gift which God continually gives each one of us:

God be in my head and in my understanding. God be in my eyes and in my looking. God be in my mouth and in my speaking. God be in my heart. God be at my end and my beginning and always in between.

I invite your engagement in this conversation. Email me, please. Let me hear from you!

And, after finally surrendering to God’s will for me, my surgery was a success. I did not need any radiation or chemotherapy afterwards ... just Tylenol for pain. I’ve been cancer-free since then. Praise God!

My cancer was the best thing to happen to me in my prayer life.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN: WHO DO CHILDREN TALK TO ABOUT ABUSE?

Studies show that when children know that adults are willing to believe them, and advocate for them, children are more willing to come to adults with their problems. This is why other safe adults, like teachers and youth ministry volunteers, are essential to child protection. If a child discloses abuse, it is critical for a safe adult to provide a listening ear and help when needed, including reporting to the right people and authorities. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "Disclosures Part 1: Why are Disclosures Important?" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.
