PRAYER FOR EVERYDAY

Dear God, You are the one who finds a way in the darkness, and clears the path for those You love. Help us to trust in Your call, and to answer generously to the unknowns we face, knowing You will never leave us alone. Amen. ©LPI

Town Hall Meeting This Monday

Monday, October 20, 7:00 pm | Parish Hall

All parishioners are invited to an evening of parish engagement! Hear updates on parish initiatives and share your input to help guide the future of St. Lawrence Martyr. Join the conversation as we grow together in faith and service.

Evening of Reflection with John Flaherty

Wednesday, October 22 at 7:00 pm in the Church

Join us for an evening exploring how humility and discipline guide music and liturgical ministry. Presented by John Flaherty, Director of Pastoral Liturgy & Pastoral Music Certification Programs at LMU.

Memorial Name Scrolls

Names Due in the Pastoral Center by Friday, October 24

We are working on our November Name Scrolls. Scroll names will consist of Parishioners and their immediate family members who have died in the past year (November 2024 – November 2025). Also included will be names of those who have had their Funeral or Memorial Mass at SLM. All other names will be written in the Book of The Dead which will be placed on a table by the statue of Mary.

Baby Bottle Collection Next Weekend

October 25-26 | After all Masses

Volunteers from the Pregnancy Help Center will collect baby bottle donations before all Masses. The Center is the only licensed pro-life clinic in the South Bay. Give online at supportphctorrance.org/contribute—your gift saves lives!

Altar Server Training

November 3-6, 2025, 3:00 pm | In the Church | Sign up by November 2nd

Students in 4th grade and older are invited to become part of our Altar Server Ministry! Serving at the altar is a special way for young people to grow in faith and take an active role in the Mass. Training sessions will cover everything new servers need to know to assist at weekend and school liturgies. Please sign up at the Parish Center or contact the Office for Worship for more information.

SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: As long as Moses kept his hands raised up, Israel had the better of the fight, but when he let his hands rest, Amalek had the better of the fight. (Exodus 17:11)

Psalm: Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth. (Psalm 121)

Second Reading: Remain faithful to what you have learned and believed, because you know from whom you learned it, and that from infancy you have known the sacred Scriptures, which are capable of giving you wisdom for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. (2 Timothy 3:14)

Gospel: “Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night? Will he be slow to answer them? I tell you, he will see to it that justice is done for them speedily. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?” (Luke 18:7-8)

ALL ARE WELCOME!

GOSPEL MEDITATION by FR. JOHN MUIR

A woman in my parish has an adult son who has rejected his faith. She prays for him every day. She lights candles, says rosaries, and asks God again and again to bring him back. But nothing changes. Is God listening? Is He delaying? She told me once that she feels like the widow in Jesus' strange parable — crying out for justice, but hearing only silence. And yet, she said, she is at peace. I asked why. She responded, "God is already answering. I just can't see it yet."

She embodies something of the mystery in Jesus' parable this week in Luke 18. A powerless widow demands justice from a corrupt judge. This isn't about wearing God down until He gives in. It's about faith in the justice that is already coming. The widow isn't just persistent; she believes that justice is inevitable. And when Jesus points to the judge's words — his fear of being "struck" — He hints at something deeper: God's justice does not creep in gradually. It strikes. It comes like lightning.

Blessed Mary is, of course, the ultimate widow demanding justice. At the foot of the cross she stands before what looks like the ultimate injustice — the brutal execution of her son. But she did not despair. She did not beg for a last-minute rescue. She knew that justice was not delayed. In fact, it was happening. The power of the cross was already unleashing justice upon the world — suddenly, decisively, like a blow that would topple every corrupt power, making even the most corrupt fear her strike.

This parable asks us: will the Son of Man find faith on earth? Or will we mistake God's silence for absence? The cross proves that justice is not slow. It is only hidden. The lightning has already struck. In the cross, justice is speedily being done. ©LPI

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Mini Reflection: In the same way that a judge cannot go looking for conflicts to mediate, God will not force His way into our problems. What would be the point? What is our life on earth for, if it is not to teach us how to turn willingly to God?

The Prayers We Don't Say

It has always confused me: why a judge?

Jesus could have compared prayer to the subject who requests a gift of his king. He could have compared it to the child who asks a favor of a parent. But in the parable of the widow and the judge, Jesus compares prayer — specifically constant, unwearying prayer — with the marginalized person who doggedly pursues her claim through an unforgiving legal system. It's not a rosy or reassuring picture. So what is he trying to tell us?

Unlike a king or a parent, a judge has strictly drawn lines which he cannot, under any circumstances, cross. He can only help people who bring their case to court. Even good, earnest judges cannot render justice if charges are not brought.

God is all-powerful. But that doesn't make Him a meddler. He will not force His way into our problems. What would be the point? What is our life on earth for, if it is not to teach us how to turn willingly to God, in every instance — adoration, gratitude, need?

Today, I sat down and made a list of problems I don't pray about. When I was done, I looked at the list and asked myself: why not? Why don't I pray about these things? Some are huge issues over which I have absolutely no control, and prayer feels futile. Some are small grievances I never even considered mentioning to God.

If I prayed about them all, my life would be totally consumed by prayer. Constant, unwearying prayer. The kind of prayer Jesus calls me to in the parable of the widow and the judge: continual surrender of myself to the mysterious, limitless power of God.

Praying that way could make me tired. The widow was tired, too — but she kept bringing her charges. She got justice. And her judge wasn't even a nice guy.

So say the prayer. Bring the charges. Our judge is one who wants to help, but He won't overstep His bounds.

- Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman . ©LPI

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

1st Reading: Moses needed to rely on his brother (Aaron) and his friend (Hur) to assist him in defeating the Amalekites. Can you think of a time when you really needed the support of your family or friends?

2nd Reading: Paul instructs Timothy to be persistent in relying on what Sacred Scripture teaches us. How do you use Scripture as a guide for your life?

Gospel: With the parable of the persistent widow, Jesus teaches the disciples about the importance of praying often to God. When do you find yourself praying? ©LPI

LIVE THE LITURGY

We are all the widow in Luke's Gospel. We are vulnerable. We feel small in the estimation of the world. We feel ignored. But Jesus is telling us to be bold in prayer, to bring our needs before the judge who will always hear our case. ©LPI

Dilexi te ("I have loved you") is the first apostolic exhortation from Pope Leo XIV, released in October 2025, focusing on the central role of the poor in the Church's mission. The document emphasizes both spiritual and material poverty and calls for Christians to engage in works of charity while also addressing structural causes of injustice through cultural and political change. It connects this mission to scripture and Catholic social teaching, framing the care for the poor as a way to encounter Christ himself.

See You in the Eucharist

Come Wednesday, October 22 at 7 pm, Church

The evening with John Flaherty, Director of Pastoral Liturgy & Pastoral Music Certification Programs at Loyola Marymount University, will help us explore the big question: "How does the humility of ministry guide the discipline of music in our worship, where the members of the assembly are the main music makers, supported by a liturgical choir that instills full, conscious, active participation of the Body of Christ?"

Humility, among others, is required of someone serving in liturgical ministry. Musicians are held accountable to the discipline of music. According to the Northwest School of Music, Oregon, this discipline "involves a commitment to mastering the art of music through consistent practice and the development of essential skills. It is characterized by the ability to maintain focus and motivation, even when faced with distractions." For example, there are no excuses within the discipline of music. Performance is key. So where does the humility of ministry come into play? The definition continues: "The discipline is crucial for personal growth and creative expression, allowing musicians to develop their skills, understand music theory and create a strong foundation for artistic expression." In music ministry, in any liturgical ministry, "artistic expression" must yield always to liturgical norms: lectors can't decide to go into a dramatic interpretation of the Word. In secular music, the performers are the "stars" with an audience. In ministry, the "performers" are servants, with the liturgical assembly as the primary and "full, active and conscious" performers, rather than as a passive audience. We will reflect on liturgical ministry in general, music ministry in particular, during this evening of reflection and challenge. See you there!

Women in Transition

Maybe you've wondered about our group and thought, "I'm not in transition. Nothing is changing in my life." Our lives are changing from day to day, from moment to moment, feeling full one day and empty the next, happy one day and sad the next. Sometimes we feel as though we are in the midst of chaos; our lives are spinning out of control, and we are the only ones who experience these emotions. We can find comfort in learning that we are not alone; that others are likely spinning in similar orbits. Together, in this group, let's share our lives.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN: OUR MISSION TO PROTECT VULNERABLE ADULTS

Nearly 1 in 4 U.S. adults report living with some kind of disability, ranging from physical limitations to diminished mental capabilities. Misunderstandings and misconceptions about a person's individual disabilities can put that person at risk for abuse. By adopting practices that aim to understand a person's unique circumstances, abilities, and challenges, we can work to protect those who are vulnerable in our communities. Some examples which can help foster safety and community include: asking questions instead of making assumptions, focusing on a person's abilities and using positive language. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "Our Mission to Protect Vulnerable Adults" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.
