Advent Giving Tree

November 14-December 14 | Deacon Jim & Didi Egnatuk | 310-990-7311

For 42 years, the Giving Tree has been a cherished tradition at St. Lawrence Martyr, sharing hope and joy with families in need, seniors, and those without homes. Take an ornament from the tree in the back of the church starting November 14, purchase the suggested gift, and attach the ornament. Bring your gift to Mass the weekend of December 13-14. If you're unable to attend Mass that weekend, please return your gift - with the ornament attached - to the Pastoral Center after December 14.

GOSPEL MEDITATION by FR. JOHN MUIR

When I was a kid growing up in New England, I'd occasionally go on a whale watch. Once we went out with calm waters and clear skies. But on the way back in, the sea got rough. I was just a kid, and I remember thinking we should turn left or right toward the shoreline I could see. But the pilot of the boat kept going straight — right into the waves — focused on a small, discouragingly distant lighthouse. Even when it flickered in and out of sight, he stayed the course. He knew where he was going.

That image comes to mind when I hear Jesus' words in today's Gospel regarding false messiahs: "Do not follow them" (Luke 21:8). In times of chaos or uncertainty, there are always voices offering easier routes, promising false safety, claiming to speak for God. But Jesus isn't found in the loudest voice or the nearest shoreline. He is steady, like a lighthouse in the storm.

The tribulation of which Jesus speaks — it's real. It happened to the Temple, it happened to him, it happens in the Church, and it will come to each of us. But the command is not to panic. It's to endure. To keep steering toward him. Faith isn't about having all the answers or dodging every wave. It's about knowing where the lighthouse is — and trusting it enough to keep going, especially when false safety beckons us to stop. ©LPI

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Mini Reflection: Love and hate. Hope and fear. Death and life. What lasts forever, and what is even now passing away before our eyes. To be human is to know that these feelings, these realities, can and often do occur at the same time. To be Christian is to know that it means something.

Two Things Can Be True At Once

As my husband and I drove our firstborn child home from the hospital, I sat alongside my daughter in the backseat. Terrified, exhausted, exhilarated, confused, hopeful — I was all of these things at the same time. I gazed at her, this magnificent little creature whose face was both familiar and strange to me, thinking: She is exquisite. She is the future. She is life.

And then I burst into uncontrollable sobs.

"What's wrong?" my husband cried, panicked, glancing in the rear view mirror.

"She's — going — to — die — someday," I blubbered, choking on my own tears.

"Ohhh, honey." I'll never forget the tone of his voice as he clearly debated turning this car around and taking me back to the hospital for an emergency psych evaluation. "I think you might be tired."

Ten years later, it's a memory we laugh about. I hadn't slept more than four hours in four days. Postpartum hormones had lain waste to my senses. Here, on the threshold of new life, all I could think of was death. It's funny. It's absurd.

But it also makes a lot of sense.

Love and hate. Hope and fear. Joy and sorrow. Death and life. What lasts forever, and what is even now passing away before our eyes. To be human is to know that these feelings, these realities, can and often do occur at the same time. To be Christian is to know that it means something — even if we cannot understand what. Not yet.

In every moment of his earthly life, Christ shows us that two things can be true at once. A virgin is a mother. An exile is a king. The temple will be destroyed, and it will last forever. The world is ending. The world is beginning. The cross is death. The cross is life.

ON THE DEATH OF A LOVED-ONE

Families experiencing the loss of a loved one may call 424-458-7861 at any time to begin funeral arrangements at St. Lawrence Martyr. This dedicated line is checked three times a day, and a minister will return your call within 24 hours.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

1st Reading: The prophet Malachi tells us that those who “fear” the Lord will be spared at God’s coming judgment. What does it mean to “fear the Lord”?

2nd Reading: Paul gave the Thessalonians some very practical advice: work quietly and eat your own food! Are you open to taking advice from a loved one?

Gospel: Jesus forewarned his followers that they will be persecuted for their faith in him, even with relatives and friends. How do you support friends and co-workers who are fellow believers? ©LPI

LIVE THE LITURGY

Jesus’ words today are filled with fire and brimstone, vivid with images of pain, suffering, confusion — and, ultimately, peace. Do we believe what he promises? Do we have the endurance to stay with him until the end? ©LPI

The Church honors the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary on November 21, recalling the tradition that her parents, Joachim and Anne, dedicated the three-year-old Mary to the Temple in Jerusalem, fulfilling a vow. Rooted in apocryphal sources like the Protoevangelium of James, this event symbolizes Mary's early consecration to God, her life of prayer in the Temple, and her preparation for becoming the Mother of the Savior.

Originating in the Eastern Church around the seventh or eighth century, the feast spread to the West in the 14th century and was universalized by Pope Sixtus V in 1585. It echoes biblical presentations (Exodus 13:2, 12) and invites us to emulate Mary's total surrender to God's will, as Pope Francis emphasized in 2018, calling her a "powerful Help to Christians" for our consecration.

The Mass prayers rejoice in the Mother of God's Son, urging us to offer our lives in daily faith toward eternal redemption. Like Mary, we are called to present ourselves amid life's demands, trusting divine providence.

SEVEN BIBLE VERSES EVERY CATHOLIC SHOULD KNOW NUMBER TWO: 2 THESSALONIANS 2:15 TRADITIONS

St. Paul wrote to the Thessalonians: “So then, brethren, stand firm and hold to the traditions which you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by letter. We, as Catholics, know that the Bible alone is not enough. We also have Tradition (capital T). The New International Version (NIV) of the Bible, which most Protestants use, translates the word “traditions” to “teachings.” Our Catholic Bible uses the Revised Standard Version (RSV) which uses the word “traditions.” The New Testament was originally written in Greek. In the original Greek, the word used is “paradosis” which translates into “tradition,” for handing over something. In the NIV protestant version, every time Jesus uses the word “paradosis” to criticize the pharisees, this word is translated into “tradition.” In the same translation, when “paradosis” is used to describe something positive, however, the word used is “teaching.” Subconsciously, one would get the impression that the word “tradition” is bad or negative, that there is no positive role for tradition in Christian life. And this is the Protestant's experience with the word “tradition.” But this is not actually the case. In reality, St. Paul uses the word “paradosis” to always mean “tradition.” Christian Tradition comes from the apostles and continues down through their successors, and we, as Catholics, continue to follow St. Paul and the other apostles, including the orally transmitted teachings which are Tradition, down to the present day. ## Women in Transition

Maybe you've wondered about our group and thought, "I'm not in transition. Nothing is changing in my life." Our lives are changing from day to day, from moment to moment, feeling full one day and empty the next, happy one day and sad the next. Sometimes we feel as though we are in the midst of chaos; our lives are spinning out of control, and we are the only ones who experience these emotions. We can find comfort in learning that we are not alone; that others are likely spinning in similar orbits. Together, in this group, let's share our lives.

WHAT IS WOMEN'S CORNERSTONE RETREAT?

The Women's Cornerstone Retreat is a 16-hour retreat designed for women age 21 and older. It offers time to reflect, renew, and strengthen your faith while building meaningful connections with other women in our Christian community. It is a "Spiritual Spa"—a place to relax and know that the ladies of Cornerstone will support and take care of you.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Cornerstone is for every woman—working or retired, mothers and non-mothers, women in their 20s through grandmothers. Whether you're an active parishioner or someone who's been away from the Church and wishes to reconnect, you'll find a warm welcome here. This retreat is for anyone seeking a deeper relationship with God, with themselves, and with other women of faith.

JESUS,
Light
