Women's Cornerstone Monthly Rosary

December 1, 7:00 pm | In the Church

The Women's Cornerstone Ministry invites you to a peaceful evening of prayer as they pray the Rosary. Come experience the grace and comfort of this beautiful devotion to Our Blessed Mother. All are welcome!

Immaculate Conception

December 8 | Masses 6:15 am, 8:10 am, 12:00 pm, 7:00 pm

A Holy Day of Obligation, this feast honors Mary, whom God, in His grace, preserved from original sin from the moment of her conception. Proclaimed as a dogma by Pope Pius IX in 1854, it highlights Mary's unique role in God's plan of salvation and invites us to reflect on His mercy at work in our own lives.

ADVENT & OUR LITURGICAL YEAR
O.C.I.A. in Pastoral Center
Wednesday, December 10, 7:00 pm
ALL ARE WELCOME!

GOSPEL MEDITATION by FR. JOHN MUIR

A few years ago, my house was broken into on Super Bowl Sunday. Turns out, it's a great day for burglars. If the TV isn't on, people are probably watching the game somewhere else, so ... easy pickins'. I'll never forget walking into my bedroom and realizing someone had been there. My stuff was thrown all over the floor. The closet was torn apart. It was disorienting and disturbing — someone had invaded the space I thought was secure. After that, I bought an alarm system. And every Super Bowl Sunday since, I'm extra careful to lock the doors and keep the lights on. That experience made me more alert. Not scared. Just attentive.

That's much like the spiritual place Jesus wants us to be on this first Sunday of Advent. He doesn't start the season with soft candlelight and cozy manger scenes. He starts with two brutal images: a flood and a thief. In other words, chaos and violation.

Why? Because life will flood us. Chaos will come. And in the midst of it, Christ will come like a thief — not to steal from us, but to steal us back. He is the intruder we should want. The one who breaks in, not to ransack, but to rescue.

Christ presents himself as the thief but also the new Noah. He builds the ark of the Church to carry us through the flood. And he invites us to join him. How? By participating fully in our parishes. By making our homes places of prayer. By guarding our hearts with truth. By refusing to let spiritual complacency leave us exposed. By repentance.

This Advent, don't just stay vaguely "awake." Prepare. Build. Watch. The flood will come. But so will he. ©LPI

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Mini Reflection: Of course the world is ending. It has been ending forever. And the Son of Man is coming — but don't forget, he was already here, too. And His Spirit, even now, is renewing the face of the earth. "But how?" we ask. "And when? And where?"

Watershed Moments

In every life there are watershed moments.

I think of our time on this earth as resembling, in the beginning, a fine, firm sheet of metal, suspended with perfect balance in time and space. If a drop of water falls upon the sheet, it remains precisely where it lands.

But life goes on. We see things, we feel things, and in the seeing and the feeling, the flat, smooth metal sheet is nicked. The impacts created by those experiences are like BB pellets riddling armor; before long, the surface is pockmarked. A falling drop of water will drain or pool either in one way or the other, its action determined by the closest indentation.

A watershed has been created, a summit or valley that disrupts the smooth flatness of life.

In today's Gospel, Jesus speaks about the end of the world. I'm no Biblical scholar, but I suspect the topic at hand is the Apocalypse (capital A). The big one. The explosion that upends the sheet itself and sends every drop of water crashing down. But I think, in a smaller way, it's also about all the indentations on the plane: those little apocalypses (lowercase a), the things that felt like the end of the world (or the beginning of a new one).

The loss of a job. The breakup of a relationship. The suffering of a loved one.

Of course the world is ending. It has been ending forever. And the Son of Man is coming — but don't forget, he was already here, too. And his Spirit, even now, is renewing the face of the earth.

"But how?" we ask. "And when? And where?"

Without the chinks in the armor — without the watershed moments — there is tremendous smoothness, certainly. But there is also no movement.

So look to the watershed moments, these little (and big) apocalypses. In these moments that change us, for better or worse, God is there, working, waiting.

ON THE DEATH OF A LOVED-ONE

Families experiencing the loss of a loved one may call 424-458-7861 at any time to begin funeral arrangements at St. Lawrence Martyr. This dedicated line is checked three times a day, and a minister will return your call within 24 hours.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

1st Reading: The prophet Isaiah envisioned a future with no more wars and nations united in belief and worship of Israel's God. What does a world totally at peace look like?

2nd Reading: Paul encouraged the Romans to live with a sense of urgency in anticipation of their own salvation. What motivates you to live a moral life?

Gospel: Jesus taught his disciples that no one knows when the Son of Man will return, so you must always be prepared. How do you plan to use the season of Advent this year to welcome Jesus into your life? ©LPI

LIVE THE LITURGY

"You do not know on which day your Lord will come," Jesus says. He is reminding us that we do not know the mind of God. But we do know the heart of God, and we know that it is filled with mercy for those who heed the warning: Stay awake! ©LPI

ONE HEART ADVENT REFLECTION

"O house of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the Lord!" (Is 2:5)

As we enter this sacred season of Advent, the Church invites us once again to turn our hearts toward the true Light—Christ Himself. In a world that often rushes ahead into the noise and busyness of the holidays, it is easy to lose sight of what this season is truly about. Advent is a time not for hurry, but for holy waiting—a time to prepare our hearts to welcome Jesus, who comes to us first in the humility of the manger and one day will return in glory.

Let us choose to "walk in the light of the Lord" by allowing His presence to guide our thoughts, our actions, and our priorities in these coming weeks. May the light of Christ shine in our homes, our families, and within our hearts, dispelling the darkness of fear, distraction, and worry. And each day, even if only for a few quiet moments, let us pause to reflect on that radiant light—the light of the Lord that leads us ever closer to peace, hope, and joy.

See You in the Eucharist

SEVEN BIBLE VERSES EVERY CATHOLIC SHOULD KNOW
NUMBER FOUR: JOHN 20:23-32-10
SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION

"Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you.' And when he had said this he breathed on them and said to them 'Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.'" Two sacraments are being established by our Lord: 1) Breathing and giving the Holy Spirit to the Apostles, constituting them as the priests of the New Covenant: Holy Orders and 2) the faculty to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation: to decide whether to forgive or retain sins of other believers. This presupposes that a believer would go to an Apostle and confess his/her sins, and with the power that is given to them through the Holy Spirit, through Jesus himself, to forgive sins. the Old Covenant, to whom did one go to receive forgiveness of sins? The King? A prophet? A sage? The sinner bring the appropriate animal commensurate with one's income level and the gravity of the sin committed, and then the priest would take the animal offering and sacrifice it, and then one's sin is forgiven. It was the priest in the Old Covenant who administered the forgiveness of sins. In the new Covenant, it is the Apostles and their successors who administer the forgiveness of sins. This is the priestly prerogative and responsibility of the Apostles and their successors. (Source: Dr. John Bergsma, St. Paul Center)

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN: FACTS ABOUT COMMUNITY GROOMING

There is a third type of grooming: community grooming. In community grooming, a predator creates a controlled environment, projecting an image of a responsible, caring adult. They mimic the behavior of good people around them, to get closer to children and then select a victim. Adults often have trouble seeing potentially troubling behavior, because they have been groomed to see the predator as an upstanding person.

For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "The Grooming Process" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.
