PRAYER FOR EVERYDAY

Dear God, Bring new life! Your love creates and cultivates. Bring Your power into the places I think of as “deserts” and your grace to the prayers I fear may be “deserted.” You can redeem and restore, bring a new song to my heart. Amen. ©LPI

Blood Drive

Tuesday, December 16 | 10 am - 4 pm | Parish Hall

Join us this Tuesday for our parish Blood Drive. Your donation can save lives and make a real difference for those in need. Thank you for sharing the gift of life!

Simbang Gabi

Thursday, December 18 | Mass: 7 pm | Reception 8-9 pm

Join us for this special Filipino Advent Mass Tradition on the fourth day of a nine day novena to the Blessed Virgin Mary. Feel free to wear attire from your culture of origin: Filipino, Irish, Italian, Ugandan, Japanese, Mexican, Norwegian, Native American, Korean, Puerto Rican.

Parking Reminder

The lot across Prospect (Subway, CVS, Corner Bakery, etc.) is for customers only. Unauthorized vehicles, including parishioners and parents, may now be towed. Please do not park there. Alternative parking is available in the alley behind the school (south of SLM).

Memorial Scrolls

The names from the Memorial Scrolls are available for pickup. They are in a basket located in the Narthax. The names of loved ones make a wonderful keepsake of remembrance.

Year-End Giving & Year-End Statements

As the year ends, plan your year-end gift to support St. Lawrence Martyr Parish and our “Looking to the Future” Capital Campaign. Your contribution will fund essential repairs, security upgrades, and modernized spaces—ensuring our parish thrives for generations. Learn more at stlm.org/campaignorg, 310-540-0329 x546.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

GOSPEL MEDITATION by FR. JOHN MUIR

When I was 11, I was riding my bike on a Friday night in Scottsdale, Arizona. I saw giant spotlights swirling in the sky. Something amazing had to be happening. I pedaled after them with excitement. Sweaty and tired, I arrived, only to find a used car lot. Bright lights, flapping banners, inflatable balloon men swaying wildly in the wind. I stood there, heart sinking. All that spectacle, and all my effort ... for this?

As life proceeds, we learn what it is like to pursue promising but fruitless searches. This week we hear Jesus ask the crowds regarding John the Baptist: “What did you go out to the desert to see? A reed swayed by the wind?” (Matthew 11:7). He’s not just describing the crowd’s mis-aimed pursuit. He’s naming our tendency to chase after what’s flashy but flimsy.

What are our swaying reeds? For me, it is endless video reels on my phone, worldly pleasures, entertainment in sports, and the good opinion of others. Inflated distractions that bend whichever way the wind blows. But they can’t satisfy my soul. What are your flimsy reeds?

John the Baptist wasn’t a swaying reed. He was rooted, grounded, unafraid to speak the solid truth. The people went to see him because, deep down, they were starving for something real.

This Advent, the Church asks us to reassess: What are we really looking for? Are we chasing the dazzling but hollow? Or are we seeking what is solid and lasting — that which points to Christ ©LPI

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Mini Reflection: We go to Mass. We go to Confession. We pray. We read Scripture. In doing all these things, again and again, we go out to the desert. Why? What are we expecting to see?

What We See in the Desert

I’ve always wanted to see a real desert.

I know all about frigid, snowy winters and warm, wet summers. I grew up on rich soil that yields lush vegetation and bountiful harvests. But I’ve never experienced a desert, not in my own country or abroad, and I’m curious.

I know there must be something magical about the desert for it to feature so heavily in Scripture, for it to provide a backdrop to so many crucial moments of salvation history. The Israelites following the cloud, the temptation of Christ, the voice crying out: “Prepare the way for the Lord.”

Why do these moments have to happen in a desert? Why do they make so much less sense in a tropical rainforest or a verdant forest?

I think it’s because the desert doesn’t have anything to offer us, at first glance. No one longs for the physical sensation of a dry heat and a beating sun. But the vast emptiness and the almost mystical harshness — even if we don’t desire and delight in it, this is a setting that we understand, somehow, intrinsically. We know it deep within our soul. God is there.

We go to Mass. We go to Confession. We pray. We read Scripture. In doing all these things, again and again, we go out to the desert.

Why? What are we expecting to see?

If we expect to be entertained, we will be disappointed. If we expect reassurance, we will be disappointed. If we expect to feel pleasant and safe and sheltered, we will be disappointed.

The desert is there to challenge us. The desert is there to show us who we are, and who we can be.

So go.

- Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman . ©LPI

LIVE THE LITURGY

“Go and tell what you have seen and heard,” Jesus says. When it comes to proving who he is, he always lets his actions do the talking. We have heard. We have seen. We must go and tell. Let’s let our actions do the talking. Who do we think Jesus is? ©LPI

ON THE DEATH OF A LOVED-ONE

Families experiencing the loss of a loved one may call 424-458-7861 at any time to begin funeral arrangements at St. Lawrence Martyr. This dedicated line is checked three times a day, and a minister will return your call within 24 hours.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

1st Reading: The prophet Isaiah taught his community to “be strong, fear not!” because God has planned a remarkable future where both the people and the land will be restored. Is there a friend or co-worker who needs your encouragement this week?

2nd Reading: James encourages his community to be patient and firm of heart in waiting for the coming of the Lord. What are you waiting for during this Advent season?

Gospel: In prison, John the Baptist seemed uncertain about who Jesus is. Who do you talk to when you have questions about Jesus? ©LPi

EMBER DAYS: DEC 17, 19 & 20

Ember Days are seasonal days of prayer, fasting, and gratitude in the Catholic tradition, observed four times a year—around the start of each natural season. They invite the faithful to:

- Thank God for the gifts of creation,
- Practice fasting and repentance, and
- Pray for priests and vocations.

Traditionally falling on a Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday, Ember Days help orient the Church’s life to the rhythm of the seasons and renew our dependence on God’s providence.

ONE HEART ADVENT REFLECTION

“Here is your God, he comes with vindication; with divine recompense he comes to save you.” (Is 35:4)

Remaining faithful is not always easy. In our world today, faith is often questioned, and belief in God can be met with skepticism or even hostility. Yet through the prophet Isaiah, God offers us words of hope and assurance. He promises that those who remain steadfast will not be forgotten – our faithfulness will be met with His saving love.

God’s “vindication” and “recompense” are not about worldly reward or triumph, but about the deep and lasting peace that comes from belonging to Him. Even when discipleship is difficult, our perseverance allows God’s grace to take root in our hearts.

To be a faithful Catholic in trying times is to trust that God’s promises are true. He sees our struggles, He strengthens our resolve, and He will one day bring us fully into His Kingdom. Let us continue to walk with confidence, knowing that the God who saves us is always with us.

See You in the Eucharist

SEVEN BIBLE VERSES EVERY CATHOLIC SHOULD KNOW
NUMBER SIX: 2 KINGS: 13-20 RELICS

“So Eli’sha died, and they buried him. Now bands of Moabites used to invade the land in the spring of the year. And as a man was being buried, lo, a marauding band was seen and the man was cast into the grave of Eli’sha, and as soon as the man touched the bones of Eli’sha, he revived and stood on his feet.” This shows very clearly that God is able to use material causes to bring about supernatural results. In this case God uses relics. God uses the remains of the body of a saint. And that was what Eli’sha was: a saint, a holy man. And Eli’sha’s bones still retained that kind of spiritual power. So when the dead man comes in contact with what remains of Eli’sha’s body, he experiences the power of God through this saint’s remains--relics--and experiences Divine healing. And so this practice of revering the relics of holy people who have passed on—because God can work through the physical remains of those who are dear to him to continue to bless his people in the present. In Acts 19:12, we read about how handkerchiefs and aprons that were pressed to the body of St. Paul and then taken and brought to those who were sick or demon-possessed actually healed those afflicted persons. The remains in 2 King:13-20 are an example of a First-Class relic: a piece of the body of a holy person comes in contact with an afflicted person. In Acts 19-12, an item in contact with the saint’s body is an example of a Second-Class relic.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN: WATCH OUT FOR FIRE DANGERS

Christmas is a popular time to decorate with candles and electric lights, both inside and out of the house. These decorations can be beautiful and festive but also come with the risk of fires. Parents should make sure to keep candles out of reach of children, and off surfaces where they could be easily knocked over. All lights should be checked for faulty wires or other defective parts that could cause a fire. For more information, read the "Holiday Safety" article on <https://www.nsc.org/community-safety/safety-topics/seasonal-safety/winter-safety/holiday?/>.
