PRAYER FOR EVERYDAY

Dear God, It was You who inspired the Magi to follow the star to find You. Inspire us to seek You, as well. Bless our homes and families this season, make them places where we can encounter You through prayer and community. Amen. ©LPI

Seven Bible Verses Gathering

Tuesday, January 6, 2026, 7:00 pm | Pastoral Center

Come and see! Encounter Christ through His living Word by joining our Bible Verses Gathering. Together, we will share how the Scriptures we've prayed with over the past seven weeks have spoken to our hearts—through life, prayer, and personal experience. Use the QR code to review the seven Bible verses.

Epiphany Household Blessing

The Epiphany household blessing is a beautiful, centuries-old tradition that invites God's grace upon all who enter a home.

Blessed chalk will be available after all Masses. Using the chalk, a priest or the head of the household prays for God's blessing and marks the doorway as a sign of faith and welcome.

The inscription includes the year and C + M + B, representing the Magi - Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar - and the Latin phrase Christus mansionem benedicat, meaning "May Christ bless this house."

Year-End Giving & Year-End Statements

Thank you for your generous support of St. Lawrence Martyr this year. Whether you have contributed to the General Offertory, a specific Parish Ministry or the Capital Campaign, your donations help our parish community and those in need.

Any December or year-end donations you would like reflected on your 2025 statement must be dated Dec 31 and placed in the collection or brought to the Pastoral Center by Dec 31. All mail postmarked before or on Dec 31 will fall on the 2025 statement. You may also give online by Dec 31 at stlm.org/giving. Statements will be sent by the end of Jan 2026.

Special collections, including Together in Mission, received by the Archdiocese will be acknowledged directly from the Archdiocese

GOSPEL MEDITATION by FR. JOHN MUIR

When I was 22, I went on a pilgrimage to Rome for the Jubilee Year of 2000. I was traveling light with just a backpack, one blue shirt and black pants, little money, and no Italian. I had a few close friends and one goal: to reach the Eternal City. Despite the challenges and deprivations, I felt alive in a way I had never known before.

When do you feel most alive? I'd wager it's not when you're most comfortable or surrounded by stuff. Rather, it's when your life is aimed at something great; when you're on a meaningful and challenging journey with good friends.

That's the image the Magi give us in today's Gospel. They set out from the East not with certainty, but with hope. They study the signs, discipline their attention, and journey together, offering the best they have when they find the newborn King.

The Church gives us their story at the start of the year to reawaken something in us. We are not meant to drift. We're meant to journey as pilgrims. The Jubilee Year of 2025 may have ended, but our pilgrimage has not. Like the magi, the closer we get to Christ, the more alive we become. ©LPI

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Mini Reflection: Of all the stars you could follow, which one does the voice — that one deep within you — tell you to chase? Point to it. And go forth.

The Stars We Follow

Everyone follows a star.

It is human nature to seek. If we are rich, we want to be richer. If we are smart, we want to be smarter. If we are powerful, we want to be more powerful.

We cannot stay in one place, so to speak — to say, "I am what I am, I have what I have, and it is enough." Even the very act of maintaining a status quo, be it health or wealth or spiritual goodness, requires action. It requires effort. It requires movement. This is human nature. There is nothing wrong with it. When we stop seeking, we die.

But what are we looking for? Where are we going?

I often wonder if the Magi knew what they were seeking — really, truly knew. They were seeking "the newborn king of the Jews," yes, but did they understand who he was? What he was? I don't see how they could have. They were wise men, but they were not prophets. They simply knew this was an endeavor they had to undertake. They knew it in their souls.

There really is very little that we know for certain about the Magi. We don't know how many of them there were. We don't know their religion. We don't know where they came from. All we know for certain is that they listened to a voice they heard deep within themselves. And, heeding that voice, they went forth.

And what did they find? They found what we all seek, even if, foolishly, we seek it in riches or power.

They found the face of the Child.

So tell me this. Of all the stars you could follow, which one does the voice — that one deep within you — tell you to chase?

Point to it. And go forth

- Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman . ©LPI

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

1st Reading: Isaiah prophesies a coming of age when the glory of the Lord would shine upon Israel and their hearts would throb with joy. Can you share an experience that brought you deep joy and happiness?

2nd Reading: Paul tells the Ephesians that the Holy Spirit revealed to him that all believers in Jesus (Jew and Gentile alike) were coheirs and members of the same body. Have you ever felt like an outsider who was welcomed by others?

Gospel: In the story of the birth of Jesus, Matthew contrasts the fear and concern of King Herod with the joy and praise of the Magi. What feelings does the season of Christmas evoke

LIVE THE LITURGY

The journey of the Magi reflects how treacherous our Christian life on earth can be. Always, evil works against us — Satan lays traps. He sows confusion. May we, like the Magi, recognize the will of God as our guiding star ©LPi

ON THE DEATH OF A LOVED-ONE

Families experiencing the loss of a loved one may call 424-458-7861 at any time to begin funeral arrangements at St. Lawrence Martyr. This dedicated line is checked three times a day, and a minister will return your call within 24 hours.

See You in the Eucharist

THE EPIPHANY PROCLAMATION

Dear brothers and sisters, the glory of the Lord has shone upon us, and shall ever be manifest among us, until the day of his return. Through the rhythms of times and seasons Let us celebrate the mysteries of salvation. Let us recall the year's culmination, The Easter Triduum of the Lord: his last supper, his crucifixion, his burial, and his rising celebrated between the evening of the Second day of April and the evening of the Fourth day of April, Easter Sunday being on the Fifth day of April.

Each Easter--as on each Sunday--the Holy Church makes present the great and saving deed by which Christ has for-ever conquered sin and death. From Easter are reckoned all the days we keep holy.

Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent, will occur on the Eighteenth day of February.

The Ascension of the Lord will be commemorated on Sunday, the Seventeenth day of May.

Pentecost, the joyful conclusion of the season of Easter, will be celebrated on the twenty-fourth of May.

And, this year, the First Sunday of Advent will be on the Twenty-Ninth day of November, 2026.

Likewise, the pilgrim Church proclaims the Passover of Christ in the feasts of the holy Mother of God, in the feasts of the Apostles and Saints, and in the commemoration of the faithful departed.

To Jesus Christ, who was, who is, and who is to come, Lord of time and history, be endless praise, forever and ever. Amen.

Christian Family Movement

Strengthening Families, Building Communities

The Christian Family Movement (CFM) are small groups that meet monthly to discuss topics through the lens of faith, provide support for each other, and practice putting our faith in action. CFM members share life, faith, and best practices. They build friendships that are welcoming and that inspire an active faith. CFM creates a family of families within our parish. We have three CFM groups at SLM, each meets once a month.

For meeting times and locations, call 310-722-0176.

The South Bay Strummers is a friendly ukulele group open to all, free to join, and welcoming every skill level. Members learn, play, and share music together at community events across the South Bay - including the Torrance Memorial Holiday Festival, senior centers, St. Lawrence's BBQ and Tree Lighting, and the beloved Sleepy Hollow Christmas Lights show. Founded and led by Clint Fisher since 2002, the group brings people together through music, friendship, and fun.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN: THE CHALLENGE OF COMPLACENCY

Safe adults often move through the world with a heightened awareness of what could be suspicious behavior and warning signs — this may feel overwhelming. If they never encounter abuse, they could easily become complacent — thinking there is no potential for abuse because they have not seen it in their own lives. The antidote to complacency is to always remember the end goal: the safety and well-being of the children and vulnerable people in our parishes, schools, ministries and communities. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article “The Challenge of Complacency” at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.
