Bless us on our way, O Lord. Share with us as we share with others. Heal us as we help others to heal. Provide for us as we open our hands in charity. Every gift comes from You. You are at the heart of all that is good. Share that goodness with us today, abundantly. Amen. ©LPi

Ministry Fair This Sunday

Sunday, February 8 | After all morning Masses

BELONG. BE OF SERVICE. BE JOYFUL.

Join us for a joyful celebration of who we are as a parish family and how God calls each of us to belong, to serve, and to live with joy. This gathering is an invitation to discover how your gifts can build up the Body of Christ and bring Christ's love to others.

Come experience the warmth of hospitality, meet fellow parishioners, and learn how our ministries serve both within our parish and beyond our walls. Whether you are new, returning, or have long called St. Lawrence home, there is a place for you here.

BeLong to a faith-filled community.

Be of Service in love and mission.

Be Joyful as Christ works through you.

St. Bakhita Rosary This Sunday

Sunday, February 8,

Join the F.A.I.T.H. Ministry for a St. Bakhita Rosary Against Human Trafficking, uniting prayer and awareness to uphold human dignity. Inspired by St. Josephine Bakhita's witness, we entrust survivors to God's mercy, pray for conversion of hearts, and commit ourselves to vigilance, compassion, and concrete action within our community and hope-filled solidarity together always.

Together in Mission

Together in Mission keeps parish and school doors open to more than worship. Catholic schools form saints and scholars, while parishes offer refuge—feeding the hungry, welcoming the lonely, and supporting families. Through acts of love like community food outreach, Christ remains alive and visible in His Church today.

GOSPEL MEDITATION by FR. JOHN MUIR

I recently learned why zebras have stripes. Scientists used to think it was for camouflage, but new research suggests something more interesting: the stripes help zebras blend in with one another. When a predator looks at a herd, the overlapping stripes make it hard to single out one animal. But if a researcher spray-paints a dot on just one zebra, predators lock on it and eventually attack. The lesson? In the wild, blending in is protection. Standing out can be dangerous.

Human beings are not so different. Most of us would rather blend in than stand out, especially when it comes to our faith. We know that giving bold witness to Jesus — through our words, values, or public choices — can make us targets for criticism, isolation, or judgment. That's why Jesus' words in today's Gospel are so challenging: "You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden" (Matthew 5:14).

A city on a hill draws attention. It also draws fire. But that's part of the cost of discipleship. Jesus doesn't call us to be tribal or boastful. He calls us to stand in the open with humble confidence, so that people might see our good deeds and glorify our Father in heaven. Today, let's ask for the courage not just to believe in Christ, but to be seen believing in him. ©LPI

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Mini Reflection: The greatest saints in history were not great at holiness. The greatest saints in history were great at being who they were meant to be.

Be Salty

I want you to close your eyes. Are they closed? (I'm serious.) Okay. Now think of the greatest saint in history.

I don't care who you're thinking of. It's going to be different for everyone. Just think of that person. Think of his or her life. And answer the question: Why is he or she a great saint?

You're all thinking of different people, but the answer is the same for everyone. And it's not "Because he did great things for God" or "Because she sacrificed everything she had for the poor." Those answers show evidence of the reason. But the reason is something more.

The greatest saints in history were not great at holiness. God brought holiness about within them because (ding ding ding! Here's the answer!) the greatest saints in history were great at being who they were meant to be.

Not who they wanted to be. Not who they thought they should be. Who they were meant to be.

Simply put, they gave themselves to God. All of themselves. Flaws and all. And God took them, in their totality, and said: "Now watch this."

Just imagine if salt was ashamed of being salty. Imagine if it looked at the sodium content on its nutrition label and thought, "That's embarrassing," and decided it was going to stop being salt. Well, great. Now it's just a box of tiny rocks.

Wouldn't it have been better for the salt to trust the baker using it?

There is a plan for each of us. There is a path to holiness for each of us. This path doesn't bypass our flaws or our weaknesses; it incorporates them. It transforms them. It fulfills them.

So be salty. Be who you were meant to be.

- Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman . ©LPI

ON THE DEATH OF A LOVED-ONE

Families experiencing the loss of a loved one may call 424-458-7861 at any time to begin funeral arrangements at St. Lawrence Martyr. This dedicated line is checked three times a day, and a minister will return your call within 24 hours.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

This Sunday's readings call us to a lived faith—one rooted in humility, expressed through compassion, and made visible when we allow God's light to shine through our service and witness.

How am I being invited to live my faith more visibly through acts of mercy, welcome, and accompaniment?

Where can I trust God's power more deeply so that my life points beyond myself to Christ?

LIVE THE LITURGY

Salt without flavor is no longer salt. Light that illuminates nothing is no longer light. As Christians, we must be what we have been made to be. So think about it, carefully: what stands between you and being who you were made to be?

St. Josephine Bakhita | February 8

St. Bajhita Rosary Against Human Trafficking
Sunday, February 8, 1:00 pm | In the Church

The story of St. Josephine Bakhita (1869-1947) is a story that many people taken into slavery have experienced. Born in the Darfur region of Sudan, she was kidnapped at the age of 8 and sold into slavery many times. As she passed from owner to owner, she experienced the moral and physical humiliations associated with slavery. It was only at the age of 13 that her suffering was alleviated after she was bought for the Italian Consul in Sudan. It was here that she was fortunate to receive kindness, respect, and peace from her new master.

She was later handed over to the Canossian Sisters when she made the case that slavery had been outlawed in Italy for years. She was baptized and confirmed in the Catholic Church in 1890, where she took the name Josephine. She later entered the Institute of St. Magdalene of Canossa in 1893 and made her profession three years later.

St. Josephine Bakhita's next 50 years were spent serving people through cooking, sewing, embroidery, and housekeeping. She was a source of encouragement and her constant smile won people's hearts, as did her humility and simplicity. Today she is known as the patron saint of victims of modern slavery and human trafficking. ©LPi

See You in the Eucharist

St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Community is more than a place we go on Sundays (and even weekdays) for Mass. It is a living community—the Body of Christ in our neighborhood. When parishioners become involved in ministries, the Church comes alive in visible and powerful ways. Whether serving at the altar, proclaiming the Word, singing in the choir, helping the poor or those who have lost a loved one, teaching the young, or offering a welcoming smile, each ministry allows us to share the gifts God has entrusted to us for the good of all. Getting involved in the parish deepens our faith. Ministry is not just “helping out”; it is a response to our baptismal call to discipleship. Serving alongside others builds friendships, strengthens our sense of belonging, and helps us grow spiritually as we put faith into action, while ensuring the parish can continue its mission of worship and service. Most importantly, parish ministries are how the Church reaches hearts. When parishioners step forward, newcomers feel welcomed, those in need find support, and the Gospel is lived—not just spoken. Every gift matters and every person has a place. By getting involved, we help our parish become the vibrant, loving community Christ calls it to be.

Women in Transition

Maybe you've wondered about our group and thought, "I'm not in transition. Nothing is changing in my life." Our lives are changing from day to day, from moment to moment, feeling full one day and empty the next, happy one day and sad the next. Sometimes we feel as though we are in the midst of chaos; our lives are spinning out of control, and we are the only ones who experience these emotions. We can find comfort in learning that we are not alone; that others are likely spinning in similar orbits. Together, in this group, let's share our lives.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN: ONLINE ENTICEMENT: WHAT IS IT AND HOW TO TALK ABOUT IT

Online enticement occurs when an individual communicates online with someone believed to be a child with the intent to commit a sexual offense or abduction. This form of exploitation often involves grooming a child to share sexually explicit images, engage in sexual conversations, or meet in person, sometimes including the selling or trading of images. It can occur across all online platforms—social media, messaging apps, games, and more. While motives vary, offenders most often seek to extort additional explicit images. Because children and teens may hesitate to disclose uncomfortable online interactions, it's important to understand this issue and know how to talk about it.
