In today's Gospel we hear how Jesus "makes the deaf hear and the mute speak!" In living the gospel, we must open our ears to hear and recognize all the everyday opportunities for making God's presence known especially to those who are poor and suffering. On September 9, the Church also celebrates the feast of Blessed Frederic Ozanam, the founder of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Frederic heard the call of Jesus to love and serve those who are suffering.

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can "make God's presence known" to those who are suffering and poor?

How to contribute to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul:

Use the envelopes found on the tables in the rear of church or use those that are mailed with your Sunday envelopes. Place the envelope in the collection basket. Or sign up for e-giving at parishgiving.org.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul at St Luke's exists to help neighbors experiencing hardships or difficulties that need assistance to get back on their feet. We may be able to help financially, typically with food, utility bills, and other expenses.

If you know a neighbor in need, ask them to contact the Society of St. Vincent de Paul through the rectory at 215-572-0128 or via email at SVdPGlenside@gmail.com. All such requests will be kept confidential.

We welcome Sodality members and all parishioners to the opening Mass of our Sodality on Tuesday, October 5, at 8:30 am. Our devotions will be after that Mass. Join us every Tuesday through May.

A VOCATION VIEW

Jesus groans to the heavens, begging God for our openness. Let his prayer of "Ephphatha!" echo in the stillness of your heart. Pray for the gift of openness for yourself, and for those you know whom God may be calling to priesthood or religious life. (Mark 7:31-37) is more than a women's Bible study. It is a faith community that supports, encourages, and challenges one another. It is a safe place where you will discover authentic friendships and meaningful discussions as your heart is transformed by the Word of God. It is everything you need to get back to living a life that you love.

WALKING WITH PURPOSE

Walking with Purpose will be starting on Thursday, September 30th, from 7:00 to 8:30

We will be using the book "Grounded in Hope" which is found on the website: walkingwithpurpose.com.

Meeting place to be determined.

In a world where levels of despair, addiction and suicide are rising, we need more than clichés or positive thinking. Grounded in Hope, based on the book of Hebrews, will help you encounter Jesus in such a powerful, comforting, and stabilizing way that He can become your lifeline.

September 5, 2021

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend our country celebrates Labor Day. In this year of St. Joseph, it is good to remember St. Joseph as a patron for workers. It is God's gifts we use in our work and the talents God has given each of us. As many are returning to their workplaces, and unemployment benefits and eviction procedures are impacting some, we pray that all find work that allows them to meet the financial demands they face. At the same time "work" can become monotonous and boring. We are challenged to bring new life and energy and gratitude to our work.

Please join us for Mass at 9:00 am on Monday, September 6 -- LABOR DAY.

The bathing suits and beach and pool equipment is all getting put away. We welcome our children back to St. Luke School and our Archdiocesan High Schools this week. Thank you to the parents for the sacrifices you make to give your children a catholic education.

This week I will begin home visits on Parish Visitation. You have received a Parish Visitation/Stewardship letter and envelope. After missing last year's visits, your support was still tremendous to the annual Block Collection/Stewardship Appeal. I look forward to visiting the homes scheduled for this year. The streets will be listed as a reminder in the bulletin. Thank you for all your love and support of St. Luke's.

As we get into our fall routines continue to be patient with yourself and each other. Take some time this week to reflect as a family on the highlights of your summer. I hope it was a good summer for each of you and your families (perhaps you had gatherings you hadn't had in over a year).

Stay close to God and God will be close to you. Be assured of my prayers, as I depend on yours.

St. Luke, pray for us.

Father Joe Brandt

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

Are you interested in sharing your faith, as well as some of your time and talent with the young people of our parish? We are in need of volunteers to assist with our Parish Religious Education Program (PREP). No prior experience necessary.

For more information please contact Jeani Hober, Coordinator of Religious Education, at Prep@stlukerc.org

The second collection this weekend is for the Black and Indian Missions.

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Last June, in the course of just one week, I listened to the stories of pain that came at me from varied people. A brave but anxious mother pleading for my prayers for her young son about to endure yet another cancer-fighting surgery. Just after a morning Mass, I learned from a younger but calm mother that the Mass had been offered for her baby who had only lived for a week. Another plea from a friend desperate for a new job. A woman religious superior needing the strength to make an unpopular decision.

Not every week is like that for us priests, but many are similar. It is the suffering of the sheep presented to us weak shepherds in the hope that somehow our prayers are special. Somehow superior to their own. Of course, that last supposition is not true. But they trust that our calling gives us a special connection to the divine Caller. For our part, how often we have wished that we had the miraculous power of Jesus so that we could bring the relief He brought to the poor deaf man in today's account from St. Mark. I tell you these things as just some examples of the pain in this life, lived in this world, and how our yearning is for the relief and joy Christ promised us in the next.

Of course, there is real joy in this world, not to be denied. But there is always the tinge of sadness knowing that many of our joys are temporary, like the arrival of December 26 and the martyrdom of St. Stephen that our Liturgy presents us on the day after Christmas.

Part of the reason that good trusting people come to us, their priests, is a presumption that somehow we are closer to God than they. It is largely an unfounded assumption. Believe me, we know that many of the people in the pews are closer to God than the vested people at the altar. We know it because we know their struggles and their faith. Yours also.

It is precisely because of our Baptism that we can claim to be God's adopted children, and rely on our inner strength to live life with confidence and trust no matter what twists and turns life takes. Furthermore, we are members of Christ's Mystical Body, the Church, with Jesus as the Head. There is nothing that can overwhelm us or drive away our optimism, unless we let it.

When each of us acts like what we are in that context, living fortified by our reception of Confirmation, goodness multiplies. We don't deny the headlines and their record of human disregard for fellow humans, the ugliness of violence, abuse, and the destruction of life in the form of mass slayings like abortion and "ethnic cleansing." We just have to remember that God is still in charge, and that even our worst sins can be forgiven.

Tomorrow we honor all those who work for a living with our annual end-of-summer holiday, Labor Day. A virus called Covid 19 made us newly aware of the dedicated work of often unnamed first responders and emergency workers, doctors and nurses, police and firefighters, delivery truck drivers, grocery store staffers. We also noticed anew the services of our plumbers and painters, carpenters and car mechanics, street cleaners and dry cleaners, and service workers of all kinds. They showcased our interdependence, and that's a good thing. Aligned with them are all who labor in our Church to make it functional as well as faith-filled. The foundation of it all is Love, and God, the gospel tells us, is Love itself. It flourishes everywhere, in ways big and small.

Once upon a time there was a middle-aged business executive who approached the front entrance of the office building in which he worked. A young feminist came up at the same moment, so he stepped back and held the door open for her to pass on through. Whereupon she turned and looked at him and said with annoyance, "Don't hold the door for me just because I'm a lady."

To her surprise, he looked right back and replied, "I'm not. I'm holding it open because I'm a Christian gentleman."

1st Reading: Isaiah 35: 4-7a

The prophet announces that the age of salvation has arrived. The Southern desert will flower, and physical healing will abound.

2nd Reading: James 2: 1-5

God's glory should cancel out all taint of partiality in our relationships, such as a person's status or worldly rank. In God's kingdom, both rich and poor are invited to feast heartily.

Gospel: Mark 7: 31-37

After the miraculous healing, Jesus commands the crowd to be silent about it. He wants them to know that He is more than a healer. The crowd's opinion of Jesus echoes words found in the First Reading today from Isaiah, wherein Christ's activity makes the Kingdom of God present.

SAINT KIERAN OF CLONMACNOIS
512-545

FEAST DAY IS SEPTEMBER 9

From his birthplace in Connaught, Ireland, Kieran traveled at age 15 to study under St. Finnian at Clonard. According to legend, he took along a cow for milk. He became the most learned monk there, then spent seven years with St. Enda in the Aran Islands, where he was ordained. He moved on to Isel, but soon left because other monks complained of his generosity to the poor. About 545, with eight companions, he founded the monastery at Clonmacnoise, on the River Shannon, which became a famous religious center for its manuscripts and metal liturgical objects. Kieran died at Clonmacnoise and is counted among the Twelve Apostles of Ireland.

When is the last time you had a chance to do a Win-Win-Win?

To help raise funds for a tiny house community in Philadelphia to put people who are chronically homeless under a roof, Sanctuary Village is collecting shoes -- new and gently used women's, men's, children's, shoes and boots. They are paid by the pound for what they collect. Sanctuary Village is a non-profit organization of volunteers engaged in raising funds to build 12 tiny houses on Philadelphia city-owned land near the Tacony-Palmyra bridge.

This shoe collection project will run through September 2021 to help people who are homeless get into transitional housing, to help start up small businesses in Third World countries, and to help you reduce the clutter of shoes and boots too good to throw away, but you know you will not wear again. That is a Win-Win-Win! Your donations may be left at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Easton Road & Mt. Carmel Avenue. Marlen Livezey will take them where they need to go.

No shoes to donate? No problem. If you want to learn more about Sanctuary Village and how you can help to house people who are homeless, go to www.tinyhousecommunity.org. There you will find other fund-raising opportunities.

Share your dinner with someone who is homebound. Cook a little extra and fill an 'Caring for Friends' tray. Freeze and place in the freezer (located in room just beyond chain linked fence in parking lot). For more information call Kathy Cassidy, 215-884-7971.

TO LEADERS OF ALL PARISH ORGANIZATIONS

We remind you that all scheduling of events using parish facilities must be cleared by our Parish Secretary, Tina Dean, secretary@stlukerc.org, 215-572-0128. Tina keeps the calendar. We want to avoid double booking of rooms!

It is also useful to let her know of your events which take place elsewhere, in order to avoid conflicts of scheduling with your members.

Thank you.
