On September 27, the Church will celebrate the feast of St. Vincent de Paul. The members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul are on the front line in laboring for the poor, they are among the first to know their real needs.

This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to assist families, by providing food, and utility, rent, and other bills. God Bless You!

How to contribute to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul:

Use the envelopes found on the tables in the rear of church or use those that are mailed with your Sunday envelopes. Place the envelope in the collection basket. Or sign up for e-giving at parishgiving.org.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul at St Luke's exists to help neighbors experiencing hardships or difficulties that need assistance to get back on their feet. We may be able to help financially, typically with food, utility bills, and other expenses.

Are you called to be a deacon in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia?

Catholic men, and their wives if married, with a deep spiritual life who are between the ages of 29 and 55 are invited to join in a live webinar with a panel of clergy on Tuesday, October 12, from 7 to 9 pm about discerning a vocation to the permanent diaconate and admittance to the School for Diaconal Formation program.

The virtual event will explore the call to serve Jesus Christ and his church within the Archdiocese of Philadelphia as permanent deacons.

After the introductory talk there will be time for questions and answers. No commitment is required to attend the event taking place via Zoom.

For more information or to take the next step and register for the upcoming virtual Permanent Diaconate Information Night, visit <https://archphila.org/deacon>.

To learn more about becoming a deacon visit the website for the School of Diaconal Formation at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary (<https://www.scs.edu/school-of-diaconal-formation/>).

Sodality and Miraculous Medal Novena Devotions will have their opening Mass on Tuesday, October 5, at 8:30 am. We welcome Sodality members and all parishioners. Our devotions will be after that Mass. Join us every Tuesday through May.

September 26, 2021

Dear Parishioners,

It is so good to have our bulletins back again. I thank our advertisers who support the parish and make the bulletin possible.

This week should be a regular working week for all of us, nothing unusual, and, therefore, a shorter message.

I would like you to start planning to attend our Forty Hours devotion which will take place in 3 weeks (October 17, 18, and 19). These are always special days for a parish. Everyone is so busy with limited time, and unable to participate as much as you would like. The Eucharist will be exposed on our altar Sunday afternoon and all day Monday and Tuesday. Sunday and Monday of Forty Hours we will have Evening Prayer, a talk, and Benediction. On Tuesday we will close Forty Hours with Mass. Each evening will begin at 7:00 pm. The Theme this year is "Faith, Hope, and Charity."

And Thank You to our parishioners who were so generous to our sister parish Haiti in the recent special collection and throughout the year. We were able to send $13,000 to them which will primarily help with the education of the children.

I look forward to continuing my Parish Visitation this week and thank you for your generosity to the Block Collection/Stewardship envelope.

Enjoy the changing seasons and weather. Remember to stay close to God and God will be close to you. Be assured of my prayers as I depend on yours.

St. Luke, pray for us.
Father Joe Brandt

Walking with Purpose will be starting on Thursday, September 30th, from 7 to 8:30 pm.

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

One of the highlights of this now officially past Summer, as opposed to the low lights of deaths in violence prone cities, was the spectacular flight into near space by billionaire Sir Richard Branson in a rocket that he helped fund. Along with 3 Virgin Galactic employees and 2 pilots, his rocket propelled him more than 50 miles high and suspended them in weightlessness for a few minutes before returning to earth. As Branson floated around in micro gravity, he taped a message: “To all you kids out there—I was once a child with a dream, looking up to the stars. Now I am an adult in a space-ship...if we can do this, just imagine what you can do,” he said. An unselfish message aimed at the world’s youngsters. Note that word “unselfish.”

Later on, after the flight safely landed, a reporter asked Branson if it was important for him to be the first to do this. I was happily impressed with his answer: “No, not really, because there are many people working together to make such flights available to the average person.” What got my attention was the unselfish nature of his answer, with none of the arrogance and self-promotion that often mars the speech of the rich and famous. Now I’m not proposing Richard Branson for canonization, but I did and still do admire his largeness of mind and heart. Call that “magnanimity.” The word means “nobly generous; not petty in feelings or conduct.”

Considering the Word of God in our Liturgy this weekend, it presents us with no less than 2 biblical figures blest with that same spirit of generosity: Moses and Jesus. For his part, Moses is not bothered in the least that there were other men in the camp of the Hebrews prophesying, namely Eldad and Medad. When the great man’s loyal aide Joshua heard about this, he asked Moses to stop them. Moses answered Joshua by saying “Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all of the people were prophets!”

Many centuries later, another “J,” namely young John, reported to Jesus “we saw someone driving out demons in Your name. We tried to put a stop to his doings because he does not follow us.”

Jesus wisely and unselfishly tells John not to prevent the man because nobody “who performs a mighty deed in My Name can at the same time speak ill of me. Whoever is not against us is for us.” Magnanimity again. Although from the Sacred Heart that is hardly surprising.

We know, or should know, how magnanimous our Church is in the key area of relating to other Christian bodies, and even to adherents of other completely different faiths. Here are two citations from the official Catholic Catechism, a book which is sadly neglected by many Catholic adults looking for straight answers. Both statements display magnanimity.

First citation: “The Church knows that she is joined in many ways to the baptized who are honored by the name of Christian but do not profess the Catholic faith in its entirety or have not preserved unity or communion under the successor of Peter. Those who believe in Christ and have been properly baptized are put in a certain, although imperfect, communion with the Catholic Church.” (#838)

Second citation: “The Catholic Church considers all goodness and truth found in (other) religions as ‘a preparation for the Gospel and given by Him who enlightens all men that they may at length have life.’” (#843)

One day a single friend asked a father of four, “Why do you love your kids?” The father thought for a minute, but the only answer he could come up with was “Because they’re mine.”

The children had no need to do anything to prove themselves to their father. He took them just as they were. So it is with God’s love for us. He loves us as we are. Even when we sin against Him, He holds out His love to us in the form of forgiveness if we’re humble enough to repent and try to change. How truly magnanimous of Him!

May He always love you and give you His peace.

1st Reading: Numbers 11: 25-29 Joshua was loyal to Moses, so that when others prophesied, he really believed that they were usurping Moses’ role. Moses answered with magnanimity of heart by approving these other authentic prophets.

2nd Reading: James 5: 1-6 The author issues a warning to the community about the fate of those who abuse their riches. He also consoles those whom the rich have oppressed.

Gospel: Mark 9: 38-43, 45, 47-48 Jesus is as tolerant of non-disciples casting out demons in His name as Moses had been of other prophets in his time. Later, Jesus warns against letting one’s senses trap you into sin or giving bad example. He also describes hell much like Isaiah did.

SAINT WENCESLAS

907-929

FEAST DAY IS SEPTEMBER 28

Educated by his grandmother, St. Ludmilla, Wenceslas became duke of Bohemia (in the Czech Republic) at 15, after his father's death and an unsuccessful regency by his mother. Though young, he tried to establish the rule of law, improve education, extend Christianity and open Bohemia to the West. But he ran afoul of his nobles, who did not approve of his acknowledging the German king as their overlord, and of his younger brother's ambition. At a church dedication, Boleslas, the brother, provoked a fight with Wenceslas in which the latter was killed. He was immediately venerated as a martyr. The relics of this patron saint of Bohemia, the Czech Republic and Slovakia are in St. Vitus Cathedral in Prague.

SING TO THE LORD!

Music Ministry at St. Luke

Come. Join The Choir!

Come join the adult choir as we worship and enhance the 11:30 Mass liturgy! The choir welcomes any volunteers over the age of 16 who are interested in singing a variety of sacred music from Renaissance to Gospel, and would like to meet fun people and serve their parish in a concrete way every week. All levels of singing are welcome from beginner to advanced, but some reading of music is strongly recommended. Practices are held Thursday nights from 7:30-9 pm in the Music Ministry Room. The choir sings under the direction of Molly Mahoney every Sunday from September to June, and they also sing on Christmas Eve, Holy Week, Confirmation, and other special events held throughout the year.

Instrumentalists Welcome

We are blessed with many talented instrumentalists at St. Luke. If you are an experienced player who can sight-read most simple parts and would like to play either weekly or just for big events, please contact Molly Mahoney.

If you are interested in joining or would like to find out more info you can send an e-mail to Molly Mahoney, mollymus@aol.com, call the rectory, stop by after Mass, or come to a practice and check it out!

RESPECT LIFE REFLECTION:

"Suicidal individuals—with or without a terminal illness—typically do not want to die... The patient requesting assisted suicide is often asking, 'Does anyone want me to be alive, or care enough to talk me out of this request and support me through this difficult time?'"

USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities
"Every Suicide is Tragic"

RESPECT LIFE PRAYER:

For all who are forgotten or cast off, especially the unborn, the poor, the sick, and the aged: may they be treated according to the dignity with which God created them.

A VOCATION VIEW

The Lord calls many to service in the church. How can you, in prayer, love, and action, support those who are called to service as priests and religious? (Mark 9:38-43)

A MOMENT OF GRACE A PRAYER FOR REFUGEES

God of our Wandering Ancestors, long have we known that your heart is with the refugee:

That you were born into time in a family of refugees fleeing violence in their homeland, who then gathered up their hungry child and fled into alien country.

Their cry, your cry, resounds through the ages:

“Will you let me in?”

Give us hearts that break open when our brothers and sisters turn to us with that same cry.

Then surely all these things will follow:

Ears will no longer turn deaf to their voices.

Eyes will see a moment for grace
instead of a threat.

Tongues will not be silenced but will instead advocate.

And hands will reach out—working for peace in their homeland, working for justice in the lands where they seek safe haven.

Lord, protect all refugees in their travels.

May they find a friend in me and so make me worthy of the refuge I have found in you.

Amen.

Archbishop calls on Catholics to support Afghan refugee resettlement

Archbishop Nelson J. Perez issued the following statement Sept. 16 regarding the humanitarian crisis in Afghanistan following the withdrawal of U.S. military forces.

The last several weeks have been filled with heartbreaking images of individuals and families struggling to flee Afghanistan. We have heard harrowing first-hand accounts from those witnessing the humanitarian crisis unfold on the ground. We have also shared deep sadness following the tragic deaths of armed forces personnel and civilians in Kabul.

We are all created in the image of God and entitled to respect and dignity. As people of faith, we have a responsibility to help our Afghani brothers and sisters through prayer as well as generous and compassionate acts of mercy. I urge all people of goodwill to support Catholic Relief Services and Catholic Charities USA humanitarian efforts.

The Archdiocese of Philadelphia stands ready to work with these organizations as well as the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops to assist refugees arriving in the United States. All of us must do what we can to answer the call of the Holy Father to accompany migrants and refugees on their journey.

I fervently encourage all people of good will to intensify their prayers seeking peace in Afghanistan.

May God abundantly bless you.

SOLES FOR SOULS

When is the last time you had a chance to do a Win-Win-Win?

To help raise funds for a tiny house community in Philadelphia to put people who are chronically homeless under a roof, Sanctuary Village is collecting shoes -- new and gently used women's, men's, children's, shoes and boots. They are paid by the pound for what they collect. Sanctuary Village is a non-profit organization of volunteers engaged in raising funds to build 12 tiny houses on Philadelphia city-owned land near the Tacony-Palmyra bridge.

This shoe collection project will run through September 2021 to help people who are homeless get into transitional housing, to help start up small businesses in Third World countries, and to help you reduce the clutter of shoes and boots too good to throw away, but you know you will not wear again. That is a Win-Win-Win! Your donations may be left at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Easton Road & Mt. Carmel Avenue. Marlen Livezey will take them where they need to go.

No shoes to donate? No problem. If you want to learn more about Sanctuary Village and how you can help to house people who are homeless, go to www.tinyhousecommunity.org. There you will find other fund-raising opportunities.
