Teach them to recognize and interpret the signs of the times. Strengthen them with the gifts of the Spirit, and help them to serve their subjects, especially the poor and the lowly. Month of July-Feasts and Celebrations

July 3 – St. Thomas (1st century). Despite being known as “doubting Thomas,” he made a beautiful profession of faith when he received proof of Jesus’ Resurrection: “My Lord and My God” (John 20:28). Tradition says that Thomas evangelized the Parthians, Medes, and Persians
and ultimately reached India.

July 9 – St. Veronica Giuliani (1727). Born in 17th century Italy, St. Veronica entered the Capuchin order and began receiving visions of Christ’s Passion soon after. By a special grace, she received the marks of Christ’s wounds on
her body.

July 22 – St. Mary Magdalene (first century).
Jesus expelled seven demons from Mary (Luke 8:2) and she financially supported His ministry.
She stood by His Cross with His mother and was the one who informed the Apostles of Jesus’ Resurrection.

July 26 – Sts. Joachim and Anne (first century).
Little is known about Jesus’ grandparents, but Mary’s unshakeable faith, her devotion to the laws of her religion, and her steadiness in crises
indicate the values with which she was raised.

“The good you do today may be forgotten tomorrow. Do good anyway.
Give the world the best you have and it may never be enough. Give your best anyway.
For you see, in the end, it is between you and God.
It was never between you and them anyway.”

Find God in everyday things

St. Josemaría Escrivá, founder of Opus Dei (“Work of God”), taught that extraordinary holiness can be found in ordinary circumstances: “Everything that is done for love becomes beautiful and grand” in God’s eyes. Want the surest way to sainthood? Make every moment holy.

Sanctifying work: “Carry out the little duties of each moment,” and put all your heart, mind, skill, and love into what you do. When we offer our tasks (the “raw material”) to God’s grace, He gives them infinite value. For example, activities – especially unpleasant ones – can be offered for our own or others’ intentions. This is one way to dedicate daily activities to God.

Sanctifying moments: Find the “divine hidden in the most ordinary situations.” God uses moments that are difficult, tedious, or just beyond our abilities to conform us to Christ. Jesus spent most of His earthly life working and leading a holy but often ordinary life. With His grace, we grow in patience, perseverance, humility, compassion, and gratitude by meeting ordinary moments with extraordinary virtue.

Sanctifying attitude: When we are patient with others, take praise and criticism well, and avoid jealousy, gossip, and dishonesty, we demonstrate that we belong to Christ. Our work becomes God’s work. We become, slowly but surely, “a saint, seemingly like everyone else around him, but deeply identified with Jesus Christ.”

Q&A:

Does the brown scapular bring good luck?

The scapular itself (from the Latin, scapula, or “shoulder”), consists of two small pieces of cloth connected by strings, and worn over the chest and back, close to the skin. According to tradition, Our Lady appeared to St. Simon Stock, founder of the Carmelite Order, and presented the brown scapular to him, promising that those who wore it until death would not suffer the fires of Hell, be preserved in time of danger, and experience peace and protection.

The brown scapular is the most common type, and there is a ceremony where the wearer is formally enrolled, and the priest places the scapular on the wearer. These aren’t “good luck” charms. Like other sacramentals, they are meant to prepare us to obtain grace through the Church’s prayers, who asks for God’s blessing upon us for some benefit for our body or soul (CCC #1670). The scapular itself – or any sacramental – doesn’t “do” anything; it’s a reminder to the wearer of their commitment to holiness and of Mary’s protection – something already “in action.”

Prayer tips from the saints

Prayer at its best is a personal conversation with God and fuels our friendship with Him. Try these simple “pro-tips” from the saints:

St. John of the Cross: According to St. John, naming our human needs and presenting them before God in prayer are acts of love. He taught that we don’t need to spell out what we need or want, but offer our need to God and ask Him to do what pleases Him, “... because the Lord knows what is suitable for us better than we do.”

St. Bernard of Clairvaux: “Those who are sincere and wise will not fail to ‘chew’ the psalm with their mind.” Good prayer is fed by reading and meditating upon Scripture. A good Catholic commentary can help, too.

St. Teresa of Avila: “He wants to ... know the love you have for Him, whether it is present in dryness as well as in spiritual delights.” Good prayer, like true love, perseveres even in difficulty or dryness. Our sincere efforts please God.

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lectionary: 105

Reading 1-Dt 30:10-14

Moses said to the people:

"If only you would heed the voice of the LORD,
your God,
and keep his commandments and statutes
that are written in this book of the law,
when you return to the LORD, your God,
with all your heart and all your soul.

"For this command that I enjoin on you today
is not too mysterious and remote for you.
It is not up in the sky, that you should say,
'Who will go up in the sky to get it for us
and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?'
Nor is it across the sea, that you should say,
'Who will cross the sea to get it for us
and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?'
No, it is something very near to you,
already in your mouths and in your hearts;
you have only to carry it out."

Ps 19:8, 9, 10, 11

R.(9a) Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.

Reading 2-Col 1:15-20

Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God,
the firstborn of all creation.
For in him were created all things in heaven and
on earth,
the visible and the invisible,
whether thrones or dominions or principalities
or powers;
all things were created through him and for him.
He is before all things,
and in him all things hold together.
He is the head of the body, the church.
He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead,
that in all things he himself might be preeminent.
For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell,
and through him to reconcile all things for him,
making peace by the blood of his cross
through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

Alleluia-Cf. Jn 6:63c, 68c

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life;
you have the words of everlasting life.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel-Lk 10:25-37

There was a scholar of the law who stood up to test Jesus and said, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said to him,
"What is written in the law? How do you read it?" He said in reply, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself." He replied to him, "You have answered correctly; do this and you will live."

But because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"
Jesus replied, "A man fell victim to robbers
as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho.
They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him,
he passed by on the opposite side. Likewise a Levite came to the place, and when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side.
But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him
was moved with compassion at the sight.
He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them.
Then he lifted him up on his own animal,
took him to an inn, and cared for him.

The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction, 'Take care of him. If you spend more than what I have given you,
I shall repay you on my way back.'
Which of these three, in your opinion,
was neighbor to the robbers' victim?"
He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

The Gospel of the Lord.
