

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME OCTOBER 2ND, 2022

The LORD replied,
"If you have faith
the size of a
mustard seed,
you would say to this
mulberry tree,
'Be uprooted and planted
in the sea,' and it would obey you."

Prayers for Priests and Religious of the Diocese of Nashville

O Jesus, Eternal High Priest, live in our priests, act in them, speak in and through them.

Think your thoughts in their minds, love through their hearts. Give them your own dispositions and feelings. Teach, lead and guide them always. Correct, enlighten and expand their thoughts and behavior. Possess their souls; take over their entire personality and life.

Replace them with yourself. Incline them to constant adoration and thanksgiving; pray in and through them. Let them live in you and keep them in intimate union always.

O Mary, Immaculate Conception, Mother of Jesus and Mother of priests, pray and intercede for your priests. Amen

Please Pray this week for:

Bishop J. Mark Spalding, Fr. Ed Steiner, Fr. Daniel Steiner, Fr. Anthony Stewart, Fr. Stephen W. Stolowski, Fr. Jerry Strange, Fr. Javier Suarez, Fr. Brent Thayer, Fr. Daniel Reehil, Fr. Rodolfo Rivera

October Feasts and celebrations

October 2 – Feast of the Guardian Angels. All of us have a guardian angel, in charge of protecting us and watching over us day and night. On this feast day, remember to thank the Guardian Angels for the work they have done in helping us.

October 6 – St. Bruno (1101). St. Bruno was born in Germany, studied in France and became a theology professor. He founded the Carthusian Order in 1084, whose life was based on prayerful solitude, manual labor, and poverty. He was never formally canonized.

October 16 – St. Margaret Mary Alacoque (1690). St. Margaret joined the Sisters of the Visitation at Paray-le-Monial. In 1673, she began having visions of Jesus Christ, in which He asked for a feast to his Sacred Heart. The Church officially recognized the devotion to the Sacred Heart in 1765.

October 18 – St. Luke, Evangelist (1st century). St. Luke was a Christian physician from Antioch. His Gospel and Acts of the Apostles were probably written between 70 and 85 A.D.

DECLARATION ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION GRAVISSIMUM EDUCATIONIS

PROCLAIMED BY HIS HOLINESS POPE PAUL VI
ON OCTOBER 28, 1965

3. The Authors of Education

Since parents have given children their life,
they are bound by the most serious obligation
to educate their offspring and therefore must be recognized as the primary and principal educators.(11)

This role in education is so important that only with difficulty can it be supplied where it is lacking. Parents are the ones who must create a family atmosphere animated by love and respect for God and man, in which the well-rounded personal and social education of children is fostered. Hence the family is the first school of the social virtues that every society needs. It is particularly in the Christian family, enriched by the grace and office of the sacrament of matrimony,
that children should be taught from their early years to have a knowledge of God according to the faith received in Baptism, to worship Him, and to love their neighbor. Here, too, they find their first experience of a wholesome human society and of the Church.

Finally, it is through the family that they are gradually led to a companionship with their fel-lowmen and with the people of God. Let parents, then, recognize the inestimable importance a truly Christian family has for the life and progress of God's own people.(12)

Youth Ministry

If you are passionate about leading teens to a deeper relationship with Jesus and empowering them to stand against the evils that they face in our world today, we need you on our team! Volunteers are needed to make the Youth Ministry effective so please consider supporting us through your service and prayers. We need people to help: serve food; facilitate small groups; be a part of a worship team; organize special events; and lead prayer. Contact Patricia Welther (225.650.9898) for more information or just join us on Wednesday nights to meet the youth and other volunteers.

Questions? Your Contacts for information.

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading 1-Hab 1:2-3; 2:2-4

How long, O LORD? I cry for help
but you do not listen!
I cry out to you, "Violence!"
but you do not intervene.
Why do you let me see ruin;
why must I look at misery?
Destruction and violence are before me;
there is strife, and clamorous discord.
Then the LORD answered me and said:
Write down the vision clearly upon the tablets,
so that one can read it readily.
For the vision still has its time,
presses on to fulfillment, and will not disappoint;
if it delays, wait for it,
it will surely come, it will not be late.
The rash one has no integrity;
but the just one, because of his faith, shall live.
The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm-Ps 95:1-2, 6-7, 8-9

R. (8) If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Reading 2-2 Tm 1:6-8, 13-14

Beloved:
I remind you, to stir into flame
the gift of God that you have through the imposition of my hands.
For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice
but rather of power and love and self-control.
So do not be ashamed of your testimony to our Lord, nor of me, a prisoner for his sake;
but bear your share of hardship for the gospel
with the strength that comes from God.

Take as your norm the sound words that you heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. Guard this rich trust with the help of the Holy Spirit that dwells within us.

The Word of the Lord.

Alleluia-1 Pt 1:25

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

The word of the Lord remains forever.
This is the word that has been proclaimed to you.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel-Lk 17:5-10

The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith."
The Lord replied, "If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you."

"Who among you would say to your servant who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, 'Come here immediately and take your place at table'? Would he not rather say to him, 'Prepare something for me to eat. Put on your apron and wait on me while I eat and drink. You may eat and drink when I am finished'? Is he grateful to that servant because he did what was commanded? So should it be with you. When you have done all you have been commanded, say, 'We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.'"

The Gospel of the Lord.
