Epiphany

Epifanía

From the Desk of Fr. Leo ●

We know that the infancy narratives were written later and are colored by the experience of Easter. That marvelous star shining in the sky is the Risen Christ, who cannot be the heritage of only one people, the Jewish people, but of all peoples. Today is the feast of all of us who believe in Jesus, even though we are not Jewish. A great feast, a universal feast, a feast of Humanity. But we must "look to the heavens" and discover the star "to be filled with joy."

And we come... The Magi set out on their journey. And on the path of faith, we must leave behind material comforts and join the caravan of "seekers of God." It is true that the "star of God" shines, seduces, fascinates, and launches you on a passionate quest. But it is also true that, when you least expect it, that star "disappears." And you run the risk of becoming discouraged and retracing your steps. Ortega y Gasset expressed it beautifully: "In the orbit of the Earth there is a time of maximum approximation to the sun and a time of maximum distance. Something similar happens with the mind in relation to God. There are periods of great flight from the divine, in which that enormous mountain of God almost disappears from the horizon. But eventually there come times when suddenly, with the intact grace of a chaste virgin, the cliff of divinity emerges. And we shout, 'GOD IS IN SIGHT!'"

God is presence and absence. And a "felt" absence is a form of presence. Perhaps one of the evils of our time is that we "do not feel" the absence of God. "It is good to know that glasses serve us for drinking; The worst thing is that we don't know what thirst is for" (A. Machado).

To adore Him. "Man is born to adore God." This is the principle and foundation of the Spiritual Exercises of Saint Ignatius. If we combine this phrase with that of Saint John of the Cross: "Man is born for union with God," we must conclude that, with maximum union with God, comes the maximum fulfillment of the person. When, like the Magi from the East, we fall to our knees before God and adore Him, we empty ourselves of our personal selfishness, we become detached from ourselves, and we are filled with God by placing Him at the center of our existence. There, the pride and arrogance of wanting to be "like God" ends. That is what sin consists of. To adore is to joyfully accept our condition as creatures and, properly oriented toward God, our Creator, to enjoy God and all of His creation, the work of His love. "To adore the Lord, it is necessary to see beyond the veil of the visible, which often proves deceptive." This way of "seeing" that transcends the visible allows us to adore the Lord, often hidden in simple situations, in humble and marginalized people. It is therefore a gaze that, without being dazzled by the fireworks of exhibitionism, seeks in every occasion what is not fleeting." The Virgin welcomes us together with her son into her embrace.

Del Escritorio de Pd. Leo ●

Siempre hay "una luz" que viene de lo alto, "un camino" nada fácil de recorrer y "una meta": La adoración. El camino de los Magos es el auténtico camino de la fe.

Vimos la estrella en Oriente. Confucio, célebre pensador chino que vivió en el siglo VI antes de Cristo, nos dejó este proverbio: "Cuando el sabio apunta con el dedo la luna, sólo el necio se queda mirando el dedo". Desde que se escribieron los evangelios ha habido muchos necios que, ante la estrella de los magos, se han quedado mirando el dedo de las apariencias externas y no han descubierto el significado profundo de los hechos. Sabemos que los evangelios de la infancia se escribieron al final y están coloreados por la experiencia de Pascua. Esa estrella maravillosa que alumbra en el cielo es Cristo Resucitado, que no puede ser patrimonio de un solo pueblo, el pueblo judío, sino de todos los pueblos. Hoy es la fiesta de todos los que creemos en Jesús, aunque no seamos judíos. Fiesta grande, fiesta universal, fiesta de la Humanidad. Pero hay que "mirar al cielo" y descubrir la estrella "para llenarnos de alegría".

Y venimos... Los Magos se pusieron de camino. Y en el camino de la fe hay que dejar las comodidades materiales y entrar a formar parte en la caravana de los "buscadores de Dios". Es verdad que la "estrella de Dios" brilla, seduce, fascina y te lanza a una búsqueda apasionante. Pero también es verdad que, cuando menos lo esperas, esa estrella "desaparece". Y corres el riesgo de desanimarte, y desandar el camino. Lo expresaba bellamente Ortega y Gasset: "En la órbita de la Tierra hay un tiempo de máxima aproximación al sol y un tiempo de máximo alejamiento. Algo parecido ocurre con la mente respecto a Dios. Hay épocas de gran fuga de lo divino, en que esa enorme montaña de Dios llega casi a desaparecer del horizonte. Pero al cabo vienen sazones en que súbitamente, con la gracia intacta de una casta virgen, emerge el acantilado de la divinidad. Y se grita ¡DIOS A LA VISTA!".

Dios es presencia y ausencia. Y una ausencia "sentida" es un modo de presencia. Tal vez uno de los males de nuestro tiempo es que "no siente" la ausencia de Dios. "Bueno es saber que los vasos nos sirven para beber; lo peor es que no sabemos para qué sirve la sed" (A. Machado).

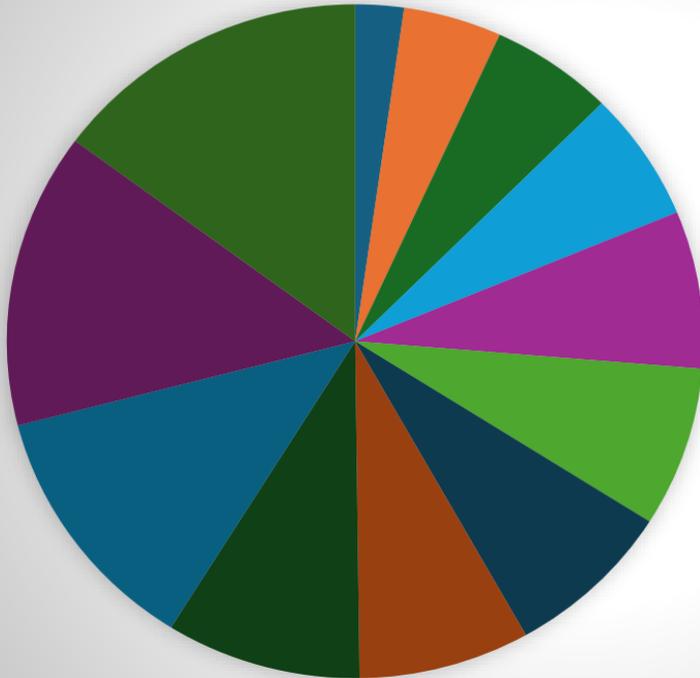

A adorarle. "El hombre ha nacido para adorar a Dios". Es el principio y fundamento de los ejercicios de San Ignacio. Si unimos esta frase con la de San Juan de la Cruz: "El hombre ha nacido para la unión con Dios", debemos concluir que, a máxima unión con Dios, máxima realización de la persona. Cuando, como los magos de Oriente, caemos de rodillas ante Dios y le adoramos, nos vaciamos de nuestro egoísmo personal, nos descentramos de nosotros mismos, y nos llenamos de Dios poniéndolo en el centro de nuestra existencia, ahí se acaba el orgullo y la soberbia de querer ser "como Dios". En eso consiste el pecado. Adorar es aceptar con gozo nuestra situación de criaturas y, bien orientadas hacia Dios, nuestro Creador, disfrutar de Dios y de toda su creación, obra de su amor. «Para adorar al Señor es necesario ver más allá del velo de lo visible, que frecuentemente se revela engañoso». Este modo de "ver" que trasciende lo visible, hace que nosotros adoremos al Señor, a menudo escondido en las situaciones sencillas, en las personas humildes y marginales. Se trata pues de una mirada que, sin dejarse deslumbrar por los fuegos artificiales del exhibicionismo, busca en cada ocasión lo que no es fugaz». La Virgen nos acoge junto con su hijo en su regazo.

Support our St. Vincent de Paul Conference

Your consistent support to our Society of St. Vincent DePaul (SVdP) St. Joseph is deeply appreciated. Your generous assistance enables our members to reach out with kindness, compassion, and love to those in need. Thank you for remembering the poor. Your gifts help us keep people in their homes, the electricity on and food on the table for those who have nowhere else to turn without the help of SVdP. Your gift, no matter the size, helps us continue this vital work. We are totally funded by generous donors directly to SVdP. The poor box is at the back of the church in the front vestibule and those funds also support SVdP.

Thank you for your kindness.

Apoye nuestra Conferencia de San Vicente de Paúl

Su apoyo constante a nuestra Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl (SVdP) de San José es profundamente apreciado. Su generosa ayuda permite a nuestros miembros brindar bondad, compasión y amor a quienes lo necesitan. Gracias por recordar a los pobres. Sus donaciones nos ayudan a que las personas conserven sus hogares, tengan electricidad y comida en la mesa, especialmente aquellos que no tienen a dónde acudir sin la ayuda de SVdP. Su donación, sin importar el monto, nos ayuda a continuar con esta labor vital. Nos financiamos completamente gracias a las generosas donaciones directas a SVdP. El buzón de donaciones se encuentra en la parte trasera de la iglesia, en el vestíbulo principal, y esos fondos también apoyan a SVdP. Gracias por su generosidad.

Closing of The Jubilee Holy Doors † Cerrando La Puerta Santa

Reflecting on the closing of Holy Doors (typically at a Jubilee's end) means recognizing the end of a special grace period for spiritual renewal, symbolizing a passage from sin to grace, but also realizing that while the physical door closes, Christ's door of mercy (His heart) stays open, calling for continued faith, hope, and living out the Gospel, with the closure prompting a deeper, internal journey of conversion and trust in God's ongoing plan, not rejection.

Reflexionar sobre el cierre de las Puertas Santas (que suele ocurrir al final de un Jubileo) significa reconocer el fin de un período especial de gracia para la renovación espiritual, simbolizando el paso del pecado a la gracia, pero también comprender que, si bien la puerta física se cierra, la puerta de la misericordia de Cristo (su corazón) permanece abierta, invitando a perseverar en la fe, la esperanza y la vivencia del Evangelio. Este cierre impulsa un camino de conversión interior más profundo y una mayor confianza en el plan continuo de Dios, en lugar de un rechazo.
