ACCOMPANIMENT AND DISCIPLESHIP— AUGUST 27, 2021

The Association of Coordinators and Religious Educators (ACRE) invites you to attend our Fall Professional Catechetical Leadership Day on the topic of Accompaniment and Discipleship. Lori Dahlhoff will address professionalism, networking and mentoring as we explore the topics of truth, beauty and goodness in the new Directory for Catechesis. What are the kaleidoscope of essential things every catechetical leader needs to know in handing on the Catholic faith today and being “catechists to the catechists.” We will also look at the qualities and characteristics the Church describes for faithful and effective catechetical leaders and ways to nurture these ourselves. Our day will include time for discussion, interaction and networking as well as good food, inspiration and support!

Our Presenter:

Lori Dahlhoff, Ed.D is a former Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis Director of Catechesis and current Director of Life Long Faith Formation for the Diocese of Portland, Maine. Lori was also the former Executive Director of the Religious Education Department of the National Educational Association, gives presentations, workshops and webinars around the United States and has written for a number of publications. She holds an M.A. in pastoral ministry with a focus on Catechesis, liturgy and pastoral leadership from St. John's University and an Ed.D. in education with a focus in leadership and the spiritual aspects of teaching and learning along with constructive conflict response during major organizational change. Lori is also on the leadership team of the Federation of Catechesis with Hispanics.
