OUR PARISH MISSION

We, the Catholic Community of Saint Paul in Princeton, honor our tradition of welcoming God's sons and daughters from different cultures and backgrounds to hear and live the Good News of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

Baptized and formed into the people of God, we continue to grow in the Apostolic tradition of worship, word, and service: Worship through our participation in the Eucharist and celebration of sacraments; Word, in our commitment to Catholic identity through Scripture and catechesis; and Service through living as disciples who share God's love with all by working together for peace and justice to advance the coming of the Kingdom of God.

WELCOME TO THE FAMILY

We are a welcoming parish family. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, whatever your past or present religious affiliation, whatever your personal history, age, background, race or color, sexual orientation, whatever your self-esteem, you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved, and respected by St. Paul Parish, the Catholic Community of Princeton.

THIS WEEK'S READINGS

Sunday, June 26, 2022

Today's readings can be found on page 687 of the hymnal. Please visit the livestream section of our website for more resources about this week's Mass (click or scan the code):

FOCUS ON THE READINGS

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the first reading, Elijah passes Elisha and casts his mantle on him. Elisha asks if he may go home and kiss his parents goodbye. In the second reading, Paul writes that Christ set us free from slavery, and explains that freedom comes through the greatest commandment – to love. In the Gospel, Jesus tells a man who wishes to follow him that the kingdom of God requires following him in that very moment.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

They are called "Araprosdokians," figures of speech in which the latter part of a sentence or phrase is surprising or unexpected, and frequently humorous. (Winston Churchill loved them.) Some examples: "If I agreed with you, we'd both be wrong." "Knowledge is knowing a tomato is a fruit. Wisdom is not putting it in a fruit salad." "You do not need a parachute to skydive. You only need a parachute to skydive twice." You get the idea of what the big word denotes.

There are two more in a list a friend sent me that I find apropos of today's selection of Scripture readings. The first is "Where there's a will, there are relatives." Second is "Where there's a will, I want to be in it." The attraction of course in the last two is the tantalizing possibility of new-found money coming without a bill attached. In stark contrast, we hear Jesus declare today that to be an authentic disciple of His, one must be free of all such attachments, be they persons, places or things.

There is no denying that the attraction to worldly goods remains tempting. Many who start out strongly for Jesus often weaken and fall by the wayside. Consider Judas Iscariot. A sad disillusioned man who loved money more than his Master.

The lure of the "world" is strong and we are only human. Yet Jesus insists we have the power to opt out of the struggle for wealth, power or fame, the triad of temptations. It takes true devotion, authentic love and dogged determination.

In reality, that's the stuff of saints. Search Church history, in any era, right up to our own, and you will find our "holy Hall of Fame" peopled by men and women born to wealth who happily gave it all up for the sake of a unique call to follow Jesus.

An example from our own country is St. Katharine Drexel, whose shrine is at the Cathedral Basilica of Philadelphia. She is the millionairess who gave her money away to found multiple missions among the Afro-Americans and Native Americans, including a university. She experienced a peace within herself beyond compare, even though she too had to struggle with her dark side. Now if sainthood is our ultimate goal in life, we can learn so much from practitioners in other times and places, from a Francis of Assisi, Ignatius of Loyola, Thomas More, Elizabeth of Hungary, Zelie Martin, the mother of St. Therese "the Little Flower", Elizabeth Ann Seton and Dorothy Day.

In our time, we face a powerful enemy of detachment operating out of our cell phones. They spew out a hundred or more messages a day touting wealth and an accumulation of things as the only real way to happiness. And it's not just the young who are targeted. This calls for a new form of strength and courage to combat the pressure.

You may have seen the famous painting of Jesus knocking on someone's front door. Sharp eyes pick up on the fact that there is no knob on the door. No keyhole either. And when the artist was confronted about his supposed mistake, he widely answered that when Jesus knocks at our door, it can only be opened from the inside.

There's another araprosdokian that fits in here: "Going to church doesn't make you a Christian any more than standing in a garage makes you a car."

God love you and give you His peace

NEW DEACON ASSIGNED

Welcome, Deacon Adolfo Baeza

Our parish is thrilled to welcome Dcn. Aldofo Baeza to our community!

Having resided in Hamilton for the past 39 years, Dcn. Adolfo was ordained to the permanent diaconate by Bishop O'Connell in 2011 and has since served at the parishes of St. Joseph in Trenton and at the Cathedral of St. Mary of the Asumption. We will welcome Dcn. Adolfo on the weekend of July 3.

We are graetful to Bishop O'Connell for calling Dcn. Adolfo to our parish and assure him of our parish family's prayers during this time of transition. Welcome, Dcn. Adolfo!

SUPPORT OUR TROOPS

Send a hero home for the holidays

In preparation for the celebration of Independence Day on July 4, the Knights of Columbus will be distributing flags following all Masses this weekend (June 25-June 26). We invite you all to take a flag home next weekend and fly it proudly. Flags are free of charge, but the Knights are accepting donations in support of our troops.

This program pays the transportation costs of New Jersey active-duty junior enlisted military personnel with rank E3 and below from all services to return home for Christmas. We work with the base Chaplains, Officers & NCOs in identifying recipients who need the financial support.

Post-pandemic air fares are rising. We need to purchase tickets early to get the best prices and conserve program resources.

If not donating cash today, please send a check made payable to KofC Princeton Council 636 and marked with memo "Send a Hero Home" to Knights of Columbus 636, St. Paul Parish, 216 Nassau Street, Princeton, NJ 08542.

THE TWO DANIELS

July 7 at 6:30pm

The Vegetarian Ministry welcomes back, Joe Dwyer - animal chaplain and animal advocate - to present a colorful discussion contrasting the Book of Daniel and his beloved dog Daniel the Beagle. Learn how the two Daniels built commitment and confidence. The author will be leading the discussion via Zoom.
To attend please register with Maryann3@verizon.net The day before the event you will receive the Zoom invitation.

HOMEBOUND MINISTRY

Help re-establish this ministry!

Ministry to the sick and homebound includes home visits, the distribution of Holy Communion to those in hospitals, care centers, and nursing homes, and the celebration (by a priest) of the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. Members of our parish bring the Church to people who cannot physically come to Church. They bring the comfort of Christ. In this way, the sick and homebound are united with the Body of Christ present in our community. Please contact the Parish Office if you would like to help with this ministry or leave a message for Fr Miguel. at 609 924 1743 ext 108.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

Sharing the warmth of the Lord's love

Our parish Prayer Shawl Ministry meets 7:00pm-8:30pm on the second Monday of each month in Rooms 1 & 2. Together, we weave together prayer shawls and lap blankets for those in the parish who are seriously ill or going through difficult times.

Additionally, we gift a Prayer Shawl to each of our parish's RICA candidates before the Easter Vigil and donate shawls to local nursing homes at Christmas and Easter.

The power of a prayer shawl comes from its warmth which reminds the recipient of the prayer said for his or her concerns. It also serves as a visual reminder of God's love and care.

All are welcome to join us in this ministry! Knitters and chrocheters of all levels can find joy in our journey, as many members are willing to teach beginners and we all benefit from learning new techniques and patterns from one another.

If you're interested in getting involved or if you know someone who would benefit from a Prayer Shawl, please contact Marianne Sagarese at mpsagarese@gmail.com or 609-223-5940.

WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS & ELDERLY

Grandparents and Elderly

This year's celebration theme is "In Old Age They Will Still Bear Fruit" (Ps. 92:15). Today, we call to mind how grandparents are a gift both to society and the Church.

This year, Pope Francis is also extending the opportunity for a plenary indulgence "to the faithful who devote adequate time to visit, in presence or virtually, through the media, their elderly brothers and sisters in need or in difficulty" on July 24.

REFLEXIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

El evangelio de este domingo marca el comienzo de lo que se llama tradicionalmente el Gran Viaje de Jesus del evangelio de San Lucas, subiendo desde Galilea hasta Jerusalen, y mas adelante desde Jerusalen hasta el cielo. Para San Lucas, todo el misterio publico de Jesus fue una larga peregrinacion que comenzo con el discurso inaugural en la sinagoga de Nazaret. Todo discipulo de Jesus esta llamado a peregrinar, ya que la vida Cristiana es un caminar con Jesus mientras nos va hablando a lo largo del camino. El evangelio nos habla de las disposiciones que hay que tener para poder caminar con Jesus. Hay que estar dispuesto a aceptar toda clase de dificultades y arriesgar el ser rechazado por los que valoran al mundo. El Cristiano debera responder al rechazo del mundo, no con sentimientos de venganza o tomando personalmente las injurias sino con perdon y amor. El caminar con Jesus no conduce a comodidades ni a hacerse rico en terminos del mundo; lleva consigo la incertidumbre y la inseguridad humana que son vencidas por la fe en el amor que Dios nos tiene, ya que es necesario ponerse totalmente en manos del Padre que nos ama y que alimenta y viste a los animales y las plantas. La invitacion de Jesus no admite dilacion: uno podria pensar en quedarse piadosa y filialmente cuidando a sus padres hasta enterrarlos, y despues de su muerte dedicarse con libertad al seguimiento de Jesus; pero el que sigue a Jesus y se pone en manos de la Providencia, en cierto modo esta poniendo su familia y todo lo suyo en manos de la Providencia amorosa del Padre.

Día Mundial de los Abuelos y los Ancianos Julio 24

Amado Señor Nuestro, que por tu gran amor otorgaste a San Joaquín y a Santa Ana la gracia de engendrar a la Santísima Virgen. Te pedimos que su sabiduría alcance a las nuevas generaciones y sea fundamento para sus proyectos de vida. Te pedimos que sean comprendidos en sus debilidades, asistidos en sus necesidades y respetados por sus familias y la Sociedad. VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

For Jail & Prison Ministry in our Diocese

Did you know that inmates in the prisons in NJ have not had Catholic religious services since March of 2020 due to COVID restrictions? That's more than 2 years without seeing a priest, receiving Holy Communion, or going to the Sacrament of Confession. The prisons are gradually reopening to pastoral visitors, but many of our long-time volunteers have passed away, retired, or moved away. We need to rebuild the ministry. There is urgent need for Priests, Deacons, Lay Ministers of the Eucharist, and possibly RCIA Instructors.

If you feel called to explore this opportunity to serve, please contact Peter Haas, Coordinator of Jail and Prison Ministry. He can be reached at 609-403-7198 (office), 609-915-3491 (cell) or by email at phaas@dioceseoftrenton.org.

HALLOW
The Catholic Prayer App

I grew up Catholic, but fell away from my faith. I became fascinated with secular meditation, but always felt like something was missing – like I was being pulled towards something deeper.

I started asking everyone I knew if there was any sort of intersection between meditation and faith, and what I found changed my life...

The Holy Spirit quickly pulled together our amazing team and we began learning about the Church's beautiful tradition of prayer & meditation. Not just what we all knew from grade school, but deep and transformative contemplative and meditative prayer techniques.

So we quit our jobs and began building Hallow. We launched the app at the end of 2018, and have just been working to make it better ever since.

WHAT IS IT?

WHAT IS THE NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL?

The National Eucharistic Revival is a three-year initiative sponsored by the Bishops of the United States to inspire and prepare the People of God to be formed, healed, converted, united, and sent out to a hurting and hungry world through a renewed encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist – the source and summit of our Catholic faith. The Revival will officially begin in June 2022, and its milestone event will be a National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis, IN, from July 17-21, 2024. The National Eucharistic Revival and National Eucharistic Congress are a direct response to the Holy Father's call for a "pastoral and missionary conversion which cannot leave things as they presently are" so that the Church in the United States might be "permanently in a state of mission" (Evangelii Gaudium, n. 25).

This eucharistic movement seeks to bring together clergy, religious, laity, apostolates, movements, and parish and diocesan leaders to spur momentum, collaboration, and lasting impact for the renewal of the Catholic Church in the U.S. over the next three years. Each year will have a strategic focus for formation and missionary discipleship.
