WEEKLY WORSHIP

THIS WEEK'S READINGS

Sunday, October 23, 2022

Today's readings can be found on page 738 of the hymnal. Please visit the livestream section of our website for more resources about this week's Mass (click or scan the code):

FOCUS ON THE READINGS

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sirach says that God hears the cry of the lowly and oppressed. Paul praises the Lord for giving him strength as his life is threatened. In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the Pharisee and tax collector praying at the temple. The humble tax collector – not the self-righteous Pharisee – leaves justified.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

As I read this weekend's gospel and the story Jesus tells, I somehow thought about a certain queen. No, not the nonagenarian Elizabeth II, nor any other earthbound royal lady. I'm speaking of that unnamed villainous person who hated Snow White. You remember her and her obsession over beauty. She had a daily consult with a so-called "Magic Mirror." She was okay whenever that mirror ranked her beauty the highest. But she became an angry monster when the mirror ranked her in second place. Then she plotted murder of the beautiful Snow White.

As kids watching the Disney film about it, we weren't capable of much psychological analysis. We just knew she was a bad lady. But now, in the context of Jesus' parable, I know we see that queen as a model of that self-righteousness Jesus despised and warns us about.

In the story, we recognize that queen's counterpart standing right there up front in the temple. Doesn't he come across as a despicable man? Bragging out loud to God about himself, with a sneer on his face as he turned to look at that humble tax collector behind him! In his mind, that man in the back might as well be a substitute for "the rest of humanity!"

Of course, we all might suddenly be conscious of a small but powerful needle jabbing our consciences.

That's what most of Our Lord's parables do to us when we hear them again some 2,000 plus years later. Why? Because there's a bit of that Pharisee up there in all of us. This happens especially when we learn, for example, of some politician's past behavior, or that of a formerly respected priest. Or even in one of our neighbor's faults made public. Oh, we're clever and sophisticated enough to preclude a sneer in public. But in private, our imaginary court has reached an infallible, irretrievable verdict: "Guilty!" (Emphasis intended.)

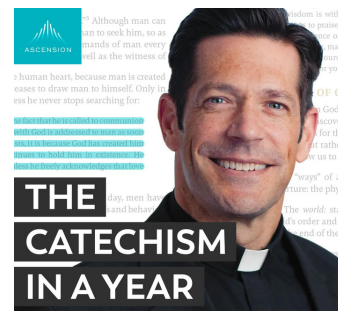

But just then comes to mind that beautifully humble tax collector back there in the rear of the room. I imagine Our Lord's sacred voice becoming a little softer and with a sympathetic tenor as He says, "But the tax collector stood off..." Why? Because of Our Lord's love for the imaginary man. That's why the tax collector becomes our model. In fact, I would endorse what the man prays as a good Act of Contrition in the confessional that any priest would accept: "O God, be merciful to me, a sinner."

So here we are on this Mission Sunday 2022, thinking of such things. Our Church urges us also to think about and pray for, and even dedicate some funding to help those dedicated souls who labor to bring the Good News to all parts of the planet.

But there is another meaning today for us. We have a Mission too. It's to spread that same wonderful Word. Don't be afraid, because one of the most effective ways we can become evangelists is by simply telling our story; our life's interaction with God. To do it humbly will have an impact all its own. For sure, there is no "Magic Mirror" to consult about our success. Only the attentive faces of our listeners as Faith dawns in them from our enthusiastic Faith in Christ, humbly told with our weakness included.

A wise and perceptive man once said this: "Enthusiasm is nothing but Faith with a tin can tied to its tail."

God love you and give you His peace.

PENNIES FOR THE POOR

St. Vincent de Paul Fundraiser

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul will be handing out small paper bags after each Mass on the weekend of October 22 and 23 to collect money for their "Pennies for the Poor" fundraiser. Please fill the bag with any spare change you may have and return it to one of the members at the entrance of the Church on your way into Mass on the weekend of October 29 and 30. In light of the national coin shortage, please know we are happy to accept paper cash and checks made payable to SVDP – Princeton. We thank you for supporting our Princeton neighbors in need.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Sunday, October 23, 2022

This weekend, we celebrate World Mission Sunday. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the world's most vulnerable communities. Please keep the Pope's missions in your prayers and be generous in the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

OUR YOUNG CHURCH

FROM THE DRE'S DESK

A message from Mrs. Laura Sarubbi

And today we begin. The start of Religious Education. As I sat down to write this reflection, my intent was to make it upbeat and positive. The Holy Spirit had another idea.

Morning is prayer time for me. I wake up early, so the house is quiet. The hustle and bustle of my day has yet to begin. With cup of coffee in hand, I start with an email I receive every morning in my inbox from Loyola Press called, "3-Minute Retreat" (You should check it out, it's pretty great and takes 3 minutes!). These three minutes center me so I can continue with my quiet time with God. When I read today's retreat, I thought of all of you.

"For those who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God" ~ Romans 8:14

"Children's engagement with the world is so pure, carefree, and creative. Their imaginations seem boundless. As we grow older, some of us leave behind these gifts of wonder, imagination, and creativity. But these are gifts of the Spirit of God, which guides us throughout our lives. When a child has mannerisms similar to his parents, we might say, "You can tell he is his father's son." We live in hope that people will see our wonder, imagination, and creativity and say, "You can tell they are a child of God."

And so, children of God, as we begin this new year of Religious Education, let us all keep God in the center of everything we do. As we rush to PREP classes or frantically try to get everyone out of the house on time for Mass, let us channel these gifts of the Spirit of God. I know what you're saying, "Laura, I can barely get ready in the morning, much less sit down for 3 minutes to channel these gifts". St. Francis de Sales said that everyone should pray for 30 minutes every day. If you're busy, you need to pray for 60. I know I can't ask you to go from 0 to 60 minutes right away, but let's start with 3 minutes. You might just find that you start wanting more.

In this month of Respect Life, let us respect one another so people can tell we are a child of God. If you are a long-time parishioner and see a new face, smile and say welcome. If you are new to our Parish, we are so glad that you are here. If you are just coming back to Church after the pandemic, or you feel like you are just missing something, let us help. We have a Parish full of priests, deacons, and lay ministers that want to be that lifeline. Maybe you would like to better understand the Mass, would like to open a Bible but don't know where to start. Or maybe you just need a friend who will listen.

Reach out to me....I'm always up for a cup of coffee.

MAGNIFY SERIES

Princeton Area Young Adults

As we celebrate the rosary during the month of October, all young adults (18-39) are invited to join us for our Magnify Series. Each Wednesday at 7:00pm, we'll gather to pray through one of the sets of mysteries of the rosary, slowing to examine these vignettes of Christ's life in art, music, and extra-biblical literature.

CHILDREN'S MASS

Beginning again November 5

Save the date for November 5 when the Children Mass will start once again at the 10am and 1pm Masses. We invite all families to gather after Mass outside (or in the Parish Center if the weather is bad) and meet one another. Let's start to create that village you all need!

REFLEXIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

El tema de la oración que encontramos la semana pasada vuelve a aparecer este domingo en la conocida parábola del fariseo y el publicano; estas dos figuras son típicas en los evangelios para representar lo que se consideraba bueno y malo en la sociedad judía. Jesús invierte los juicios declarando bueno al malo y condenando al que se juzgaba bueno. Los fariseos eran personajes religiosos muy respetados por la gente; hacían ostentación de piedad y religiosidad en público buscando y obteniendo la duración de la gente. Los publicanos eran los recaudadores de impuestos que trabajaban para los odiados conquistadores romanos o para el detestado rey Herodes; muchas veces exigían a la gente más de la cuenta para llenar sus propios bolsillos; por ello eran considerados pecadores públicos. Jesús, como Dios, no juzgaba a la gente según las apariencias externas, sino que miraba al Corazón de las personas. Como nosotros no podemos ver lo que hay en los corazones, estamos llamados a tratar a todos con respeto sin pasar a hacer juicios. San Lucas describe en esta parábola una serie de contrastes, entre el fariseo y el publicano, que continúan existiendo hasta nuestros días. Nuestro mundo abunda en fariseos y publicanos.

FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

A message from Mrs. Kim Clauss

Last week some of our 8th grade students travelled to the Bishop's Mass at the Co-Cathedral in Freehold. Jimmy Teti represented St. Paul School by reading petitions during the mass. Adriana Cano and Celestine Sutter carried the banner during the procession. The students were thrilled to be with representatives from all schools in the Diocese.

This week's new teacher highlight is Ms. Puigdollers who is one of our third-grade teachers. She comes to us from Bordentown, NJ where she taught 4th grade. Her favorite subject is science, and she is very happy to join the faculty of St. Paul School. We're thrilled to have you on board, Ms. Puigdollers!

The PTA had a very busy weekend! Back after a 3-year hiatus was Trunk-or-Treat on Friday evening. Thanks to all who decorated, donated, and came out to join us! We were so excited to bring this event back and share in the festivities with our parish family and surrounding community.

Saturday morning brought the Lions Chase Race is at Mercer County Park. The first 100 participants received a drawstring bag and all runners/walkers received a student-designed t-shirt!

As the weather changes, we as families please send your children to school with a jacket or sweatshirt as they will be going outside. We'll be sure to send out a wide-reaching notification when winter uniforms are scheduled to take effect.

My thanks to the PTA for all the hard work that everyone has done to benefit the SPS community. It was a spectacular weekend to be an SPS Lion!

God bless,
Kim Clauss
