WEEKLY WORSHIP

THIS WEEK'S READINGS

Sunday, June 29, 2025

Today's readings can be found on page 677 of the hymnal. Please visit the livestream section of our website for more resources about this week's Mass.

FOCUS ON THE READINGS

The Solemnity of Sts. Peter & Paul, Apostles

In the first reading Peter is arrested, but prayer is made on his behalf and he is rescued by the angel of the Lord. In the second reading, Paul tells Timothy that he is being poured out like a libation and that he has finished the race. In the Gospel, Peter responds to Jesus' question about his identity by saying, You are the Christ, the Son of the living God. Jesus declares that he will give Peter the keys to the kingdom of heaven.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

A message from Fr. Chris Dayton

This Sunday, the Church rejoices in the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, two towering figures whose lives were wholly given in service to Christ and His Church. Though vastly different in background – Peter, the humble fisherman turned shepherd of souls, and Paul, the brilliant scholar and tireless missionary – they are celebrated together because both were foundational to the spread of the Gospel and both gave their lives in witness to the faith as martyrs in Rome.

In today's second reading, we hear Paul's stirring words to Timothy:

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith" (2 Timothy 4:7).

These words, written near the end of his life, echo a legacy of perseverance, trust, and unwavering dedication to Christ's mission. Once a fierce persecutor, Paul became a pillar of the early Church through the grace of conversion and the power of God working through his weakness.

Meanwhile, the Acts of the Apostles recount

Peter's miraculous release from prison, offering us a vivid reminder that the Gospel cannot be chained. God's providence continues to guard and guide His Church through every trial, just as He did for Peter, the "rock" upon whom Christ built His Church.

Saints Peter and Paul were not perfect men. But they were transformed men. Their lives testify that holiness does not mean never failing, but always returning to Christ with humility and courage.

As we honor their legacy today, let us ask for their intercession and renew our own discipleship, bold in love, firm in hope, and steadfast in faith.

Saints Peter and Paul, pray for us!

I hope everyone has a great week and always know of my prayers for each of you.

In His peace,

Fr. Chris Dayton
Pastor

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

with Fr. Gregory Pine, OP

We are thrilled to welcome Fr. Gregory Pine, O.P., to St. Paul Parish on Tuesday, July 22, for a special evening open to the entire parish and the Diocese of Trenton. Originally planned as a young adult event, this talk has been expanded due to broad interest and enthusiasm.

Fr. Gregory, a Dominican priest known for his work with Ascension Press and the Thomistic Institute, will present a talk titled: “Living Your Only Life: On Discernment and Living with Grace.”

Mark your calendars and invite friends! More details, including time and location, will be shared soon.

PARISH RECEPTIONIST

Bilingual fluency in English and Spanish is required.

The receptionist will serve as a welcoming presence for all who visit or call the parish, and will assist with general administrative support. For a full job description and application details, please scan the QR code or visit our website.

PARKING AT THE PARISH

OUR YOUNG CHURCH

FROM THE DRE'S DESK

A message from Mrs. Jaime Gostkowski

In today's first reading, we hear how Peter is thrown into prison, but the Church doesn't lose hope. Instead, they pray constantly for him, and God answers with an angel, sent to set Peter free.

In the second reading, Paul writes to his friend Timothy and shares that his journey is almost over. He compares his life to a cup being poured out—he's given everything to serve God. He's run the race well and stayed faithful to the end.

In the Gospel, Jesus asks his disciples a powerful question: "Who do you say that I am?" Peter responds with great faith: "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Jesus blesses Peter for this answer and tells him that he will be the foundation of the Church, handing him the keys to the kingdom of heaven.

These readings remind us that being a follower of Jesus takes courage, faith, and commitment. Just like Peter and Paul, we can stay strong in our faith even when things are hard. As a family, we can pray for one another, support each other in tough times, and speak boldly about what we believe. When we put God first and trust Him, amazing things can happen, even in everyday life.

Many blessings,
Jaime

THANK YOU

Summer Academy and VBC Faculty

We had a joyful and faith-filled week at St. Paul PREP Summer Academy and Vacation Bible Camp!

We were blessed to welcome 60 students to our Summer Academy, where they deepened their understanding of the Catholic faith, grew together in prayer, and shared meaningful moments as a community. Highlights included morning prayer led by Seminarian Nick, a beautiful Mass with Fr. Chris, and a powerful visit to the Eucharistic Miracles Exhibit, inspired by the work of Blessed Carlo Acutis—all of which helped reignite our Acts of Faith journey.

We also welcomed nearly 20 of our youngest parishioners to Vacation Bible Camp, where they explored the story of Creation through music, prayer, crafts, and games!

A heartfelt "thank you" goes out to our incredible catechists and dedicated volunteers. Your time, energy, and witness of faith made this week not only possible but truly memorable for our students and families. We are deeply grateful for all you do!

FAMILY LIFE

BE STILL

Family Life in the Summer

Summer has begun with great enthusiasm this week! The heat has arrived, which causes all of us to (hopefully) slow down, even for a little.

My happiest of summertime childhood memories were spent with Baba Kate on an island in the Adriatic. Yes, the Croatian seashore is magnificent. However, that's not why the summers were so wonderful. The majority of our family was, and still is, in Croatia. Being there meant time with family. It seemed like we were somehow connected to everyone in town. My favorite time of the day was in the evening, when we would all sit on the patio, telling stories, laughing, and making memories.

As you are making your summer plans, I encourage you to spend uninterrupted time with "family." This could be the family God has given you or the ones you have chosen. Be present. Be still. You don't always have to be "doing." Take that time to just be in the moment, as this is a form of prayer. These precious moments will make a lasting impression. "Where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there in the midst of them" (Matthew 18:20). I can't think of a better way to spend the summer.

LITTLE HEARTS

Early Childhood at St. Paul Parish

If you missed the kick-off meeting, please email Laura to be added to our mailing list. We hope to develop a regular playgroup, expand our Elizabethan Ministry, and offer parenting workshops. If you are a young family or are interested in supporting young families, join us!

WALKING WITH PURPOSE

Women's Prayer Group

Curious about Walking with Purpose but not ready to commit for a full year? Join us for a 4-week summer session on Tuesdays in July (1, 8, 15, 22), from 10:30am-12:00pm in the Spiritual Center. The evening sessions will take place in the fall. Email Laura or sign up using the survey linked on this page!

FAMILY LIFE WEBPAGE

For every season of life

We will be taking the summer to update our page with opportunities, events, and ideas open to parishioners and the local community. This is not just for young families, but for individuals in every season of life. Young parents, empty nesters, special needs, or social events. We welcome your suggestions for opportunities to include for prayer, learning about our faith, service and fellowship. The link to a brief survey can be found below.

Family Life Survey

Please take a few moments to complete the brief survey on the Family Life page (stpaulsofprinceton.org/families) to give us your thoughts and suggestions for family life initiatives. See all that family life encompasses below.

TOGETHER IN MISSION

Family Life Initiatives through the Diocese

Together in Mission is the Diocese of Trenton's initiative to support individuals and families in every season of life. It helps parishes connect all ministries to the real-life faith journeys of Catholic families and become more intentional about evangelization. We accompany:

- Young Adults (18-39): Fostering faith, community, and vocation.
- Newly-married Couples: Supporting life together in Christ.
- Families with Young Children: Nurturing early faith at home and in the parish.
- Families with School-Aged Children: Partnering in faith formation and sacraments.
- Families with Teens: Walking with parents and adolescents during a vital time.
- Single/Married Adults: Providing formation, fellowship, and service opportunities.
- Golden Years: Engaging older adults in spiritual life and ministry.

Together, we grow in faith—at every age and stage.

PASTORAL HISPANA

MENSAJE DEL P. CHRIS Pastor de San Pablo

Este domingo la Iglesia celebra la Solemnidad de San Pedro y San Pablo, dos grandes santos que, con caminos muy distintos, dedicaron su vida entera a Cristo y a la edificación de su Iglesia. Pedro, el pescador llamado por Jesús a ser “la roca”, y Pablo, el perseguidor convertido en apóstol incansable, son testigos del poder transformador de la gracia.

Ambos sufrieron y dieron su vida como mártires en Roma, sellando con su sangre el testimonio de fe que vivieron con valentía. En la segunda lectura, san Pablo declara: “He combatido el buen combate, he terminado la carrera, he guardado la fe” (2 Tim 4,7). Son palabras que reflejan una vida de entrega total, marcada por la confianza en Dios y la fidelidad al Evangelio.

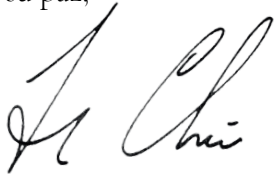

En el libro de los Hechos escuchamos cómo Pedro fue liberado milagrosamente de la prisión, recordándonos que la misión de la Iglesia, sostenida por la providencia divina, no puede ser detenida.

Pedro y Pablo no fueron hombres perfectos, pero sí hombres transformados por el amor de Cristo. Su testimonio nos inspira a seguir caminando como discípulos fieles, firmes en la fe, llenos de esperanza, y valientes en el amor.

Santos Pedro y Pablo, rueguen por nosotros.

Espero que todos tengan una excelente semana y recuerden que siempre rezo por cada uno de ustedes.

En su paz,

P. Chris Dayton
Pastor

Experience the EUCCHARISTIC MIRACLES EXHIBIT

Based on the works of the Blessed Carlo Acutis

St. Paul Parish | Spiritual Center
June 22nd – June 29th

This traveling exhibit has been created to assist those who will experience it in affirming belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. It is based on the website created by Blessed Carlo Acutis to catalogue all the eucharistic miracles that have taken place worldwide.

The exhibit is circular and is divided into seven sections or rooms. In the first six rooms, information about the Eucharistic miracles is displayed. Each panel names a miracle, recounts the story of its occurrence, and the country where it took place. The panels are arranged in chronological order from the early Third Century to 2013. Be sure to notice the date on the timeline and some of the world events that will help you to place it within the historical era.

All of the rooms point to the center of the exhibit. This is to intentionally remind us that the historical miracles we are learning about on the walls of the exhibit are all pointing to the miracle in front of us—Jesus, present in the Most Holy Eucharist! In the seventh room, the Eucharist is clearly visible in the monstrance and a place has been prepared for you to rest a while in His presence.

“Only in God is my soul at rest” (Psalm 62:1)
