Prayers to Our Lady of Perpetual Help

Mother of Perpetual Help, today we face so many difficulties. Your picture tells us so much about you. It reminds us to reach out and help those in need. Help us understand that our lives belong to others as much as they belong to us.

Mother of Perpetual Help, you have been blessed and favored by God. You became not only the Mother of the Redeemer, but Mother of the redeemed as well. We come to you today as your loving children. Watch over us and take care of us. As you held the child Jesus in your loving arms, so take us in your arms. Be a mother ready at every moment to help us. For God who is mighty has done great things for you, and God's mercy is from age to age on those who love God. Intercede for us, dear Mother, in obtaining pardon for our sins, love for Jesus, final perseverance, and the grace always to call upon you, Mother of Perpetual Help.

NOVENA TO OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL HELP

O Mother of Perpetual Help, grant that I may ever invoke thy most powerful name, which is the safeguard of the living and the salvation of the dying. O purest Mary, O sweetest Mary, let thy name henceforth be ever on my lips. Delay not, O Blessed Lady, to help me, whenever I call on thee; for, in all my temptations, in all my needs, I shall never cease to call on thee, ever repeating thy sacred name, Mary, Mary.

O what consolation, what sweetness, what confidence, what emotion, fill my soul when I utter thy sacred name, or even only think of thee. I thank the Lord for having given thee, for my good so sweet, so powerful, so lovely a name. But I will not be content with merely uttering thy name. Let my love for thee prompt me ever to hail thee, Mother of Perpetual Help. (Recite 3 Hail Mary's)

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord March 28, 2021

AND SO IT BEGINS...

Holy Week is upon us—the most sacred, solemn, and important time of our entire liturgical year. It is the time of marking our atonement and salvation in Christ.

But it's not Good Friday yet—why do we read the Passion on Palm Sunday? That's a question that requires historical perspective. In fact, until the beginning of liturgical reform in the 1950s (spearheaded by Pope Pius XII), no one but clergy celebrated the Triduum, and then often in the mornings. Vatican II decided to take Pius' reforms to their logical conclusion and have a proper Triduum. But before then, when folks only came to church on Sundays, Palm Sunday was the (2nd) Passion Sunday; the next time people arrived it was Easter. We do things differently now, but some of the practices have carried over even to today.

Today we read Mark's version. Sadly, because we still cannot have items commonly touched in the pews (hymnals, Mass parts booklets...), we cannot have the Passion proclaimed in parts in quite the same way. We'll have one person representing the "Crowd," and if you know the words, join in!

We'll be limited in other ways during this Triduum—no outdoor Stations of the Cross on Palm Sunday morning; no foot-washing on Holy Thursday; no touching or kissing of the cross during veneration on Good Friday; no individual candles for the Easter Vigil... But we will be doing what we can to make our Holy Week at least a bit more like it should be. There will be outdoor Stations in the courtyard on Good Friday; there will be the Eucharistic procession to our "Garden of Gethsemane" in Jennings Hall, with Adoration until midnight; there will be a baptism, a reception, and confirmations at the Easter Vigil. We limp along, slowly but always forward. What is critically important is our entering into these liturgies with humility and prayerfulness, and with gratitude to God in Jesus Christ, with gratitude for the immense gift of love.

What if you or I had been with the women that morning, bringing burial spices to the Lord's tomb, to finish the rituals that were cut short by lack of time? What would have our emotional condition have been? What would our Friday night/Saturday have been like, in terms of grief? How early would we have awakened on that first day of the week? Last week's Gospel related how Greeks asked "to see Jesus"—so did the women, but they saw Him in a way they never dreamed possible—transformed, risen, glorious: truly the Son of God, truly Christ the King—bringing the message of mercy, forgiveness, reconciliation, and charging His followers to spread that message: not just by proclaiming but by doing. We are also His followers: what will we do?

Fr. David

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

"Our Savior parish is a Catholic community, fueled by the Eucharist and infused with the gifts of the Holy Spirit, committed to faith-filled worship, to outreach and welcoming for our brothers and sisters in need, to striving for Christian unity, to pursuing respect for the dignity of all human life, and to building the Kingdom of God on Cody Road and beyond."

Please pray for those who are sick and suffering in our parish, in a special way...
