

SAINT WEBSITES

St. Anthony's Messenger highlight the Saint of the Day at <http://www.americancatholic.org/Features/SaintofDay/> You can view by Saint of the Day, By Name, By Date and Patron Saints. You can even send a saint e-card from this site. When you choose your saint, you might want to send the saint e-card to your sponsor.

Read more about different saints or even print off a calendar each month with saint's feast days on it at Catholic Online at <http://www.catholic.org/saints/> .

Need help with saints and prayer? Check out the All Saints Day page at <http://www.feastofsaints.com/>.

Interested in seeing what a saint looks like? (at least an artistic rendition!) Click on <http://paintedchurch.org/sainintr.htm>. Once at this site-click on the saint to see the painting. Another website with paintings of saints is <http://www.wga.hu/frames-e.html?html/p/perugino/index.html> . This site will allow you to send a copy of the painting as a postcard via e-mail.

If you are looking for information about saints check out <http://saints.catholic.org/saints/>

Remember teachers, students and friends with a Saint's Card. Log onto <http://holyecards.com/> to e-mail a card. This site is sponsored by the Poor Clare Sisters in Spokane, Washington and allows you to select your own heading, background and color and with a click of the mouse your greetings are on their way.

Check out the Sistine Chapel at http://mv.vatican.va/3\_EN/pages/CSN/CSN\_Main.html The painting depicting the last judgment is a wonderful display of many saints. Perhaps students could draw their own version of this famous painting.
