THE THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Brothers and Sisters of St. Vincent de Paul,

When celebrating Mass, priests often preach and encourage parishioners to live out their baptismal priesthood. By doing so we participate actively in our faith in the mystery of our salvation with Christ's life, death, and resurrection. What does this mean in daily life? How is this gift manifested in the life of the parish as a whole? One way of understanding the unfolding of our baptismal calling is through good stewardship. The call to being good stewards in our parish involves:

- Providing opportunities to experience one's giftedness and to recognize the gratuitous nature of God's blessings
- Having formation efforts that help one understand the baptismal responsibility of being a good steward of one's gifts, including the gifts of faith and life in the Church
- A demonstration of one's understanding of Christian stewardship by willing to support parish and diocesan needs.
- Efforts to discover parishioners' talents and to be used in parish service.
- Offering one's gifts in service to the parish mission with adequate training, encouragement, and supervision.
- Not being overly dependent on extraordinary fundraisers such as bingo and tickets to support its ordinary budget.
- Having parish facilities maintained and adequate for the needs of the parish.
- Having finance council members with interest and experience in budgeting facilities management and fundraising and development efforts.
- Having regular sharing of a portion of its income with the poor.

May the Holy Spirit guide us in his ways and fan the flame of our commitment and love for God and our parish community. I pray that we may continue to live out our baptismal calling in ways that transform our lives into a living image of Jesus Christ.

Blessings,

Fr. Hugo O. Maese, MSpS – Pastor

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

To be humble means to see ourselves as we are. It comes with the recognition that we are never perfect, better than another, or free of sin. The humble person knows their faults and failings as well as their successes and triumphs. They also realize that they are nothing without God, especially God's mercy. The humble one knows who they are, who they can be, and how they have fallen short. Being desperately in love with God, they know how they have sometimes given in to their desires rather than God's will, almost with a sense of embarrassment. Being justified in our relationship with God is not about a list of the good things we do and the bad things we don't. We are vindicated when we realize how totally dependent we are upon God's gratuitous, abundant, and unconditional love. It is a gift we often take for granted and is often unappreciated.

TRIGÉSIMO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Queridos hermanos y hermanas de San Vicente de Paúl:

Al celebrar la Misa, los sacerdotes a menudo predicán y alientan a los feligreses a vivir su sacerdocio bautismal. Al hacerlo, participamos activamente y vivimos el misterio de nuestra salvación en la vida, muerte y resurrección de Cristo. ¿Qué significa esto en la vida diaria? ¿Cómo se manifiesta este don en la vida de la parroquia en su conjunto? Una manera de entender el desarrollo de nuestro llamamiento bautismal es a través de la corresponsabilidad. El llamado a ser corresponsables en nuestra parroquia implica:

- Proporcionar oportunidades para experimentar los dones de cada uno y reconocer la naturaleza gratuita de las bendiciones de Dios
- Tener esfuerzos de formación que ayuden a entender el llamado bautismal de ser buen administrador de los propios dones, incluyendo los dones de la fe y la vida en la Iglesia.
- Una demostración de la comprensión de la corresponsabilidad cristiana al estar dispuesto a apoyar las necesidades parroquiales y diocesanas.
- Esfuerzos para descubrir los talentos de los feligreses y para aplicarlos en servicio parroquial.
- Ofrecer los dones de uno en el servicio a la misión parroquial con la capacitación, el entusiasmo y la supervisión adecuada.
- No depender demasiado de recaudaciones de fondos extraordinarias como bingo y boletos para apoyar su presupuesto ordinario.
- Tener las instalaciones parroquiales mantenidas y adecuadas para las necesidades de la parroquia.
- Tener miembros del consejo de finanzas con interés y experiencia en la gestión de instalaciones presupuestarias y la recaudación de fondos y los esfuerzos de desarrollo.
- Tener una participación regular de una parte de sus ingresos para los pobres.

Que el Espíritu Santo nos guíe en sus caminos y avive la llama de nuestro compromiso y amor a Dios y a nuestra comunidad parroquial. Pido a Dios que podamos continuar viviendo nuestro sacerdocio bautismal de manera que transforme nuestras vidas en una imagen viva de Jesucristo.

Bendiciones

P. Hugo O. Maese, MSpS – Pastor

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Ser humilde significa vernos como somos. Viene con el reconocimiento de que nunca somos perfectos, mejores que otros o libres de pecado. La persona humilde conoce sus faltas y fracasos, así como sus éxitos y triunfos. También se dan cuenta de que no son nada sin Dios, especialmente la misericordia de Dios. El humilde sabe quiénes son, quiénes pueden ser y cómo se han quedado cortos. Estando desesperadamente enamorados de Dios, saben cómo a veces han cedido a sus deseos en lugar de la voluntad de Dios, casi con un sentimiento de vergüenza. Ser justificados en nuestra relación con Dios no se trata de una lista de las cosas buenas que hacemos y las cosas malas que no hacemos. Somos reivindicados cuando nos damos cuenta de cuán totalmente dependientes somos del amor gratuito, abundante e incondicional de Dios. Es un regalo que a menudo damos por hecho y a menudo no lo apreciamos.

Saint Anthony Mary Claret | October 24

Saint Anthony Mary Claret is also known as the "spiritual father of Cuba." He was born in Salient in Catalonia, Spain, in 1807. He became a weaver, like his father, and was very talented. But he studied in his spare time to become a priest and was ordained in 1835. In 1849 the saint founded the Claretians, a religious institute of missionaries, and a companion order of women religious who served as teachers for girls.

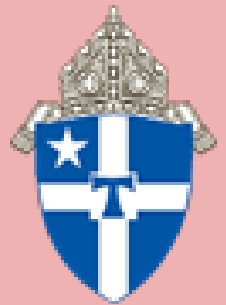

From 1850 to 1857 he served as Archbishop of Santiago de Cuba, Cuba, where he worked diligently to reform both clergy and laity. He opposed concubinage and instructed black slaves, and championed family-owned farms instead of the mass farming of a sugar cash crop. These stances were vehemently opposed by many, and Saint Anthony was the target of assassins.

He was recalled to act as Queen Isabella II's confessor, a duty he reluctantly agreed to, with the exceptions that he would reside away from the court, attending the household only to hear confessions and instruct the children. While in Spain he founded the Religious Publishing House and wrote or published 200 Catholic books and pamphlets. He went into exile to France with the Queen's household during the Spanish Revolution of 1868. The saint returned to Rome to Participate in Vatican I where he defended the infallibility of the Pope. He died in France in 1870 and was canonized in 1950 by Pope Pius XII.

Sacramental Seal

Question: What is a sacramental seal and where did it come from?

Answer: Leaving more than just a memory, there are some events in our life that are truly transforming, making us different people. The same thing can be said of spiritual things, especially sacraments. A sacramental seal or character is a theological concept to describe the life-changing and permanent effect of three sacraments on the person: baptism, confirmation, and holy orders. The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that these sacraments confer a seal "by which the Christian shares in Christ's priesthood and is made a member of the Church according to different states and functions. This configuration to Christ and the Church, brought about by the Spirit, is indelible" (#1121).

Once we receive these sacraments, we are forever changed. It's a spiritual "point of no return" whereby we take a step forward in our faith journey. We are marked as people of faith, as those who have received the Spirit and as those called to serve in ordained ministry. That is why these sacraments are received only once. The direction is set, the choice is made, and we are called by God to be his people. Nothing can change that, not even our own sinfulness.
