An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that
You are present in the
Most Holy Sacrament,
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive
You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally, come at least
spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there
and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

BIBLE STUDY PROGRAM AT ST. JAMES

James: Pearls for Wise Living

Looking for an anchor to hold you steady through the storms of life? Want the secret to finding joy in the midst of trials? Interested in learning to recognize the source of discord and the way to peace? James, one of the most practical books of the Bible, is a collection of teachings on issues faced by ordinary Christians in everyday life. In James: Pearls for Wise Living, presenter Jeff Cavins shows how the teachings of James speak to those of us who feel torn between the competing demands of this world and our faith.

In James: you will...

- find an anchor to hold you steady thru the storms of life;
- see how God's wisdom helps us face suffering & temptation;
- learn the secret to finding joy in the midst of trials;
- learn how just a few small words can change your entire life- for better or for worse;
- find reasons to trust in God's providence more than in wealth, position, or personal talent;
- learn to recognize the source of discord & the way to peace.

Gospel/Environment Justice

Our Holy Father finds some hopeful signs in the wake of the worst of the global pandemic. Francis believes that “the unforeseen blow of this uncontrolled pandemic forced us to recover our concern for human beings, for everyone, rather than for the benefit of a few.” In his view, “The pain, uncertainty and fear, and the realization of our own limitations, brought on by the pandemic have only made it all the more urgent that we rethink our styles of life, our relationships, the organization of our societies and above all, the meaning of our existence.”

Pope Francis’ hope is that “God willing, after all this, we will think no longer in terms of ‘them’ and ‘those’, but only ‘us’.”

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 29, 2021

Humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you and is able to save your souls.
— James 1:21b

August 29, 2021—
Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time:

In today's second reading, St. James writes, "All Good giving and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights...." Late, echoing the familiar command from Jesus to provide shelter, food, and clothing for those in need, he writes, "religion that is pure and undefiled before God and the Father is this: to care for orphans and widows in their affliction..."

Activist Jesuit Priest Daniel Berigan wrote, "Sometime in your life, hope that you might see one starved man, the look on his face when the bread finally arrives. Hope that you might have baked it or bought or even kneaded it yourself. For that look on his face, for your meeting his eyes across a piece of bread, you might be willing to lose a lot, or suffer a lot, or die a little, even." The Rule of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul instructs us that, "Vincentians endeavor to establish relationships based on trust and friendship. Conscious of their own frailty and weakness, their hearts beat with the heartbeat of the poor." For many years, St. James Vincentians have visited the homes of the needy bringing them care and assistance. As we approach the end of our 18th year, we can look back on years of channeling hundreds of thousands of dollars from St. James parishioners to neighbors in desperate circumstances. Thank you for supporting our mission of charity.

NEW MASS SCHEDULE ON HOLD

We hoped to return to our pre-COVID Sunday Mass schedule in September. But we have not had enough volunteers to serve at the new Masses. We will delay any change to the Mass schedule until sometime later in the fall or in the new year.

We especially need sacristans and EMs for the 7 pm Mass. We also need sacristans, EMs, musicians, and lectors at the other Masses. Please contact the office if you are interested.

If you used to be a minister, or have not served before, but would like to, please volunteer. Training provided.

Sacrifice with Gratitude

When sin entered the world our sense of Oneness disappeared. Now it was 'it's all about me' that governed our lives. God didn't give up on us and slowly reintroduced the concept of sacrifice – giving with no expectation of requital. Why does God do this? What can we offer back to God? What was the point of the sacrifices in the Temple? Was it simply to appease a vengeful God? Through Moses, God taught the people that sacrificing your most precious “first fruits” in God's Temple out of recognizing the goodness of the world around you and thanking God then follow with a banquet of where relationships develop because of each one's giving mirrors the ongoing celebration of gratitude in heaven. Throughout Scripture God has said he has no need for bullocks from our flock rather he seeks contrite souls that admit to their fear-driven shortcomings and failures and turn to God as the path to peace. True sacrifice on the altar equates to contrite hearts grateful for all God has given us. But, living our daily lives we have same question as the apostle, Philip, “how do we know the way?” How do we change our lives? – simply: blessed be the humble; blessed be those who mourn; blessed be the meek; blessed be those who seek righteousness; blessed be the merciful; blessed be the clean of heart; blessed be the peacemakers... Follow Jesus, who showed us how to give and with every celebration of the mass invites us to join him in giving.

Finally, a personal note to parents and especially grandparents – when you look at the grandkids don't you just want to give them everything without compensation? Little kids have no gold or food to give you. What do you hope for? Well, I think kisses and hugs are pretty precious. Seeing the kids acting out of care for others also warms the heart. Our heavenly Father who has no need for any material gifts we could offer rejoices when his children change their lives and follow the path shown to us by Jesus back to the Oneness of heaven and earth.

Gratefully,

Deacon Joe

FEAST OF FAITH

What Jesus Did, What Jesus Said

The oldest account of what happened at the Last Supper comes to us not from the Gospels but from the First Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians: “I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night he was handed over, took bread, and, after he had given thanks, broke it and said, ‘This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me’ ” (11:23–24). In our celebrations of the Eucharist, we are obedient to Christ's command to “do this.” The priest, acting in the person of Christ, does what Jesus did and says what Jesus said. He takes bread, gives thanks, breaks it, and gives it to the Lord's disciples. He takes wine, gives thanks, shares it with us. We believe that the entire Eucharistic Prayer is consecratory, but we continue to hold these words of Jesus in special reverence. They are called the words of consecration, and the elevations of the host and chalice, the genuflections of the priest, and the optional ringing of a bell and use of incense remind us that we are in the presence of the Lord.

Nuevo horario de Misas en Pausa.

Important Notice

Esperábamos retomar nuestros horarios de Misa dominical Pre-COVID en septiembre. Pero no hemos encontrado voluntarios suficientes para las Misas nuevas. Vamos a retrasar cualquier cambio de horario de Misa hasta más tarde en el otoño o el nuevo año.

Especialmente necesitamos sacristanes y Ministros de Eucaristía para la misa de las 7pm. También necesitamos sacristanes, Ministros de Eucaristía, músicos y lectores para las otras Misas.

Por favor llame a la oficina si usted está interesado.

Bienvenidos a “Hospitalidad” después de todas las Misas, septiembre 11 y 12.

Por favor acompañenos después de la Misa el sábado, 11 de septiembre (después de la Misa de las 5:30pm) o el domingo, septiembre 12 (después de las Misas de 8:00am, 10:00 am, o 12:00 pm), para compartir con sus parroquianos. Habrán mesas afuera con refrescos y cara sonrientes y amigables para dar la bienvenida a todos los miembros de la parroquia de St. James. Por favor acérquese a una mesa a recibir una galleta y decir “Hola” al celebrar un año escolar que empieza y la comunidad de la parroquia que se reúne nuevamente. El Padre Rey, el Padre Rene y el Concilio Pastoral de la Parroquia están organizando estos eventos en respuesta al Obispo Soto, para revitalizar las parroquias, ofreciendo más hospitalidad para todos. Queremos dar una calurosa bienvenida a todos los miembros de nuestra comunidad y proveer una oportunidad para que los miembros se conozcan y se conecten unos con otros. Esperamos verlos a todos después de las Misas en septiembre 11 y 12.

PRACTIQUEN LA PALABRA

La segunda lectura de hoy comienza una serie de cinco semanas de selecciones de la Carta de Santiago que se clasifica entre las epístolas llamadas “católicas” (o universales) porque están dirigidas a un público general y no a una comunidad en particular. El texto de hoy ofrece consejos importantes para los cristianos de todas las generaciones. Dios es citado por primera vez como autor de todos los dones, y en particular, se hace referencia al don del bautismo, por el que somos las “primicias” de la nueva creación.

Lo que sigue es un consejo basado en un entendimiento muy judío de la “palabra” como una fuerza activa, operativa en el mundo. Se nos recuerda que a menos que nosotros también nos convirtamos en “practicantes” de la palabra, nuestra profesión de fe no vale nada. Hoy y en las próximas semanas el autor nos recuerda que es igualmente importante que hacer las “obras” del amor, por ejemplo, cuidar de los “huérfanos y las viudas en sus tribulaciones”.

FIESTA DE LA FE

El Amén y la Doxología

La Plegaria Eucarística concluye con una doxología o palabra de Gloria para Dios y es la forma tradicional en la que se concluye un himno litúrgico. En la celebración eucarística esta es la doxología principal mediante la cual, quien preside la liturgia, expresa la glorificación de Dios. El pueblo ha de responder con un rotundo amén que haga honor no sólo a la doxología misma, sino también, a lo que significa Amén. La palabra Amén es una expresión de firmeza, de total convencimiento de que todo lo que se ha dicho y hecho es verdadero, que se cree profundamente, a prueba de todo. Es mucho más que la conclusión de la mayoría de nuestras oraciones, es la asimilación misma de nuestro compromiso a vivir conforme a lo que hemos celebrado u orado. Por eso que nuestro amén tiene que ser verdadero, no sólo al concluir la Plegaria Eucarística sino al comulgar el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo. Al hacerlo, decimos “sí” a lo que verdaderamente somos: el cuerpo místico de Cristo. Nos hacemos uno con él en comunión y formamos un solo cuerpo en comunión con Dios. ¡Amén!
