Prayer for our Priests

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments. Help our priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for your people. Grant them the wisdom, understanding and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest.

THE VINCENTIAN CORNER

Today as we celebrate the feast of Easter we find the challenge of also seeing and believing the resurrection that comes through our own lives of self-sacrifice bringing new life to others. It is then that we are truly Easter people!

Finally, it seems (or at least many people feel so) that the COVID pandemic is slowly abating, and Easter Masses are being held today throughout the world in churches, cathedrals, and basilicas. Though each of the last three years has found us celebrating Easter Sunday in different circumstances, our Easter call remains, as always, to turn our attention to those who do not have the luxury of a home or the convenience of a grocery delivery or the Amazon truck. These past two years have been difficult for all of us in one way or another. The poor always suffer, and this raging pandemic has made this even more evident as each of our needy brothers and sisters can attest. The unhoused in our community have been faced with a paucity of housing options during the unpredictable weather of the last few years. Our St. James Vincentians have had to redesign their approach to aiding those in need when home visits with our clients became risky. Still, today, we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord Jesus, and his return from death makes this a great moment of hope for all. Let us remember the stirring words of Pope John Paul II, "Do not abandon yourselves to despair. We are the Easter people and hallelujah is our song."

Reflection question:

How can I keep the solemnity of the Lord's Resurrection in my daily life?

PRAYER OF THE WEEK Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

At the Mass during the Day

O God, who on this day, through your Only Begotten Son, have conquered death and unlocked for us the path to eternity, grant, we pray, that we who keep the solemnity of the Lord's Resurrection may, through the renewal brought by your Spirit, rise up in the light of life.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

WE REMEMBER YOU, O RISEN LORD

We remember you, O risen Lord, New Covenant at the feast of the cross. Your resurrection dresses the table for the bread of heaven and the cup of salvation. Blessed are you!

Come join us every Thursday evening from 5-7pm for Eucharistic Adoration in the Church! Come spend time with Jesus and with fellow parishioners. Masks are required.

CONFESSIONS AVAILABLE DURING EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

From 5-7pm during Adoration, the Sacrament of Reconciliation will be offered or you may call the office (530) 756-3636 for a weekday appointment. Masks are required.

EVERYTHING IS CHANGED

Easter changes everything. Having been raised from the dead, Jesus shatters the frightful images that haunt humanity. Betrayal, torture, crucifixion, death, burial—these terrors pale in the brilliant glory of Jesus resurrected. Today's psalm guides our response to God's power: "it is wonderful in our eyes." Today is indeed a day for wonder, for gasping in astonishment at Jesus' resurrection. For all of human history, death had been final. In the Acts of the Apostles, though, Peter testifies that Jesus, who was publicly executed, was raised to life by God. John's Gospel admits that the disciples "did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead." Even Jesus' closest friends were not expecting this innovation: life after death. In response to the Easter miracle, Paul tells us to become "a fresh batch of dough." Everything, even our very selves, must become new. Easter changes everything.

Gospel/Environment Justice

We are saddened by the closing of the Emergency Shelter at the Migrant Camp.

HEART (formerly IRWS) and the City of Davis did their best to provide shelter but it turned out to be a difficult challenge under the present circumstances. But we are still having a cold winter and many people are outside. However, there is an alternate plan involving the City and two private pay agencies, our own St. Vincent dePaul and Grace in Action. The City is currently housing guests in motel rooms and will provide shelter for 10 people. The two private pay agencies are providing motel room shelter now and are open to doing more. Grace in Action has set up a fund for the community at large to donate to an emergency shelter fund. However, parishioners here at St James can contribute directly to our St. Vincent dePaul with a notation line for emergency shelter.

It was decided not to set up a meal program. The City has advised us that their current motel guests are using other resources available for meals. If necessary, there will be dinner gift cards for those unable to access other resources.

Thank you for your continued kindness and generosity. Especially, I want to say thanks for the many gift cards from the virtual Giving Tree outreach at Christmas.

You are amazing!

St James Church tiene el privilegio de dar la bienvenida a los siguientes niños a nuestra comunidad parroquial que celebraron su Primera Comunión el sábado 30 de abril y el domingo 1 de mayo. Oramos para que la Eucaristía los fortalezca y los nutra a lo largo de sus vidas, a medida que crecen para conocer a Cristo más plenamente. ¡Felicidades!

Pregunta de reflexión:

¿Cómo puedo guardar la solemnidad de la Resurrección del Señor en mi vida diaria?

CAMBIA TODO

La Pascua lo cambia todo. Al haber resucitado de la muerte, Jesús destroza las imágenes espantosas que persiguen a la humanidad. La traición, la tortura, la crucifixión, la muerte, el entierro, estos terrores palidecen ante la gloria brillante de Jesús resucitado. El salmo de hoy guía nuestra respuesta al poder de Dios: “es maravilloso a nuestros ojos”. Hoy es, en efecto un día para maravillarse, para agitarse de asombro ante la resurrección de Jesús. Durante toda la historia de la humanidad, la muerte había sido el final. Sin embargo, en los Hechos de los Apóstoles, Pedro atestigua que Jesús, quien había sido ejecutado públicamente, fue resucitado por Dios. El Evangelio de Juan admite que los discípulos “aún no entendían la Escritura de que tenía que resucitar de la muerte”. Incluso los amigos más cercanos no esperaban esta novedad, la vida después de la muerte. En respuesta al milagro de la Pascua, Pablo nos dice que seamos “un poco de levadura” para hacer “fermentar toda la masa”. Todo, incluso nuestro propio ser, debe convertirse en algo nuevo. La Pascua lo cambia todo.

ORACIÓN DE LA SEMANA Domingo de Pascua de la Resurrección del Señor

Misa del día

Señor Dios, que por medio de tu Unigénito, vencedor de la muerte, nos has abierto hoy las puertas de la vida eterna, concede a quienes celebramos la solemnidad de la resurrección del Señor, resucitar también en la luz de la vida eterna, por la acción renovadora de tu Espíritu.

Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo, tu Hijo, que vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo y es Dios por los siglos de los siglos.
